AWS Install Heads for Fall Term

Seymour, Ireland, Riche, Hoelscher, Turton, Fitzgerald Installed

REVIEW FASHION SHOW

Home Economics Classes Present Latest Dress Fashions for Women

Turning over her office of president of the Associated Women Students, Lois Jo McPheeters formally congratulated and extended her best wishes to Ann Seymour, incoming president, at the women's assembly second hour Tuesday morning, May 12, in the college quad.

Installation of officers preceeded the fashion show given by the home economics department. After Lois Jo McPheeters resigned her position to Ann Seymour as president, Ellen Ireland replaced Ellen Roe as first vice-president, Betty Roulston was replaced by Dorothy Riche as second vice-president, Genevieve Jones turning her office as treasurer over to Frances Hoelscher. Miriam Turton succeeded Dorothy Clark as secretary, and Gretalie Fitzgerald took the place of Wilma Kiesner as counselor.

The annual fashion show, which is sponsored by the junior and senior clothing classes of the home economics department, was under the direction of Lois Jo McPheeters. Ruth Carter introduced the various models as they appeared and paraded around the pool in the quad. Twenty-four of the junior class exhibited afternoon gowns and inexpensive school dresses, and 20 seniors modelled silk dresses, spring woolen suits, and cotton creations made by the group as a speed problem under the two dollar maximum.

Seniors Stage Last Breakfast Meeting Before Graduation

The last Senior breakfast will be held in Ebbets hall tomorrow, May 13, at 7 a.m., Lyman Goldsmith, senior president, announced. Plans for commencement week and the Senior banquet will be announced. The group will also make a final selection of the class gift to the school and discuss final clearance from the college.

Tickets are on sale at the registrar's office, the president's office, the Gauchito club and the Co-op store.

Other activities include the Senior class assembly on May 26; the Senior ball, a student body dance in honor of the upperclassmen on June 6; and the Senior class banquet at El Paseo on June 11. The banquet will be followed by a dance which is open to the entire student body.

Art Students Exhibit Paintings for Public

Several exhibits have been carried on by the art department of Santa Barbara State college under the supervision of Mrs. Mary E. T. Crowell, art department head, during the past week. At present the art department is exhibiting several paintings at the Faulkner Art Gallery and at the Festival of Allied Arts in Exposition Park at Los Angeles.

Portrait paintings in oil were furnished by Maurine Fisher and Jens Henriksen, Bob Helman contributed a display on still life while Mary Monden, Schurer Moe, Ethel Cornelius, Frances Warring, and Edna Finney are exhibiting arts and crafts work done in the art department. A poster painted by Jens Henriksen is also being shown at the Exposition Park museum.

Bud Lambourne

Bud Lambourne, ex-student body president, will have charge of arranging the musical selections and scores for the Roadrunner Revue.

Musical Staff Plans Program

Chorus Practices Take Place Nightly in Auditorium; Moore, Kitchen Direct

Featuring novel and modernistic musical arrangements, Bud Lambourne and his staff were completing plans today for the program to be presented at the Roadrunner Revue Thursday and Friday, May 21, 22, at the Lobero theater.

Practices for the Anacapa Club, girls' chorus and Dionne quintuplets are in session each night in the auditorium. Jack Kitchen and Bumpy Moore are in charge of the production routines.

Ticket sales commenced yesterday for the performance, and all students interested in selling tickets should see Carl Sundquist immediately, or apply at Fred Allred's office. Tickets may be obtained from Wilma Kiesner, Carl Sundquist, Barry Simmons and Howard Yeager. Prizes will be awarded to the student selling the most tickets.

Department Gathers for Beach Barbeque

The junior high department will sponsor an outing at the west beach Tuesday, May 12. Miss Elsie M. Pond, head of the department, and Dee Westmoreland, social chairman, are in charge of all arrangements, which will include a varied program of amusements and the serving of barbecued steaks at 6 p.m.

All junior high members are cordially invited to attend and to bring a guest. It is requested, however, that all those members who are planning to attend sign their names on the notice on the bulletin board.

Relief Bill Passes House

With the house yesterday clearing its calendar of major bills to be passed with the passing of the $2,364,229,712 work relief deficiency measure, the bill now awaits treatment by the Senate where a big battle is expected. The house also yesterday defeated a Republican attempt to cause the abandoning of the New Deal's work relief policy, by providing a billion dollars for the continuance of the WPA work program. Besides the WPA, the social security set-up, the CCC, the Tennessee Valley Authority, and the public building program will be benefited by the passage of the bill, if it is so decided in the Senate.

Italy Dares France

Because France was so unwilling to recognize the new Ethiopian kingdom set up by Italy, and because the French Socialist leader, Leon Blum, who expects to be the next premier of France, said that his government will not recognize the new Italian set up, the news comes from Africa that Mussolini's forces have practically seized control of the French railway from Djibouti to Addis Ababa. In Geneva when a spokesman of Haile Selassie proposed to present the Ethiopian side of the question at a League council session, Baron Pompeo Aloisi, the Italian representative, walked out of the meeting.

State Legislators to Meet

Notice has been given to members of the California state legislature to be ready for a call for a special meeting soon to make provision for necessary unemployment relief funds. It appears that the special session will be held early next week or on May 25 unless Los Angeles county, San Francisco county and Alameda county are able to manage their own relief loads from May 15 to July 1.

ERICSON WRITES ARTICLE ON I. E. SHOP CURRICULA

"At the Crossroads in Industrial Arts Works," an article written by E. E. Ericson, head of the State college industrial education department, appeared in the May issue of "The American School Board Journal," a magazine put out by the Bruce Publishing company.

Mr. Ericson's article deals with the change that is now being met in the planning of a shop course and its equipment in the present secondary schools. This change is necessary as a result of the question, "Whether such courses as are in order at the present time best serve the student according to modern conceptions of education and lead toward the best possible occupational, personal and social adjustments to the environment he will meet upon leaving school," states Mr. Ericson in his article.

Mr. Ericson is recognized as an authority in organizing school shops by instructors all over California, and has had many of his studies published. At the present time he is reorganizing the school shops of Burbank.

Men's Club Elects Dave Pollock President Over Bob Kindred in Re-vote

Ed Cole, Alfredo Chavez, Danny D'Alphonso Elected; Merle Waterman Addresses Students

Winning by a close margin Dave Pollock was elected president of the Santa Barbara State College Men's club for the coming year. The meeting of the organization was held in the State college auditorium during the second hour and approximately seventy members attended.

Educators Hold Regional Meet

State Leaders Speak on Problems of Educating School Children

At a regional education meeting held at the Santa Barbara State college last Saturday, May 9, George Merideth, deputy superintendent of Pasadena city schools, emphasized the importance of teaching children how to solve problems of life. President Clarence L. Phelps opened the meeting.

Referring to Merideth's talk, Dr. Charles A. Smith, head principal of Ventura city schools, said, "In promoting thinking on the part of the child, teachers should not ask factual questions, but should direct the pupils in drawing conclusions through the use of the facts acquired through books and study."

Providing for exercise of freedom of thought in secondary schools was discussed by Ralph I. Hale, principal and district superintendent of Margarita Black Union high school at Atascadero. He said, "Students should help select the subjects they study, should help in the development of procedure, and should check the outcome of their efforts. They should also have responsibilities in the administration of the school."

Mrs. Helen M. Barnett, head of the music department, and Garlyn Basham, student body president, were speakers during the afternoon session of the conference. Mrs. Laura S. Price, head of the elementary education department, participated in the panel discussion following Mr. Merideth's talk.

Sorority Luncheons at Town House Inn

Mother's Day was observed by Delta Sigma Epsilon, national social sorority, Sunday, May 10, when members and their mothers attended the First Presbyterian Church of Santa Barbara which was followed by a delightful luncheon at the Town House Inn.

The mothers present, who had not attended previous Mother's club meetings, were initiated into the Delta Sigma Epsilon national Mother's club.

For the office of president, the first ballot showed a tie between Bob Kindred and Dave Pollock, each candidate having forty-one votes each. A complete revote was necessary as the candidate is required to have a majority of the total votes cast.

Ed Cole was elected to the office of vice-president over Barney Swanson, Chuck Luse and James McSkimming. Alfredo Chavez will take the office of secretary-treasurer. Alfredo is at present director of assemblies. Other candidates for the office were Fred Lambourne and Richard Hornbeck.

Danny D'Alphonso will head the social committee of the organization. Others running for the office were Irving Wallace, Nat Hales and Leonard Dorn who were written in on the ballot.

A short talk, "Don't Be An Off Key," was given by Merle Waterman, tri-county secretary of the "Y." Merle also gave a number of novelty selections on the piano. Dean William Ashworth issued a call for men to help in the church census taking which is being performed by the city.

Retiring officers for the Men's club are Denning McArthur, president; Bob Kindred, secretary and Murlin Miller, social chairman.

Outing Club Plans Annual Island Trip for Friday May 29

Leaving on Friday, May 29, at 12 o'clock noon and at 8 o'clock in the evening, the Outing club will make its annual island trip.

As only 70 persons can be accommodated this year, all those who wish to go should make their reservations in Fred Allred's office as early as possible by paying one dollar. The full payment, which will be announced later, should be made before May 25.

All students who are going must bring their own blankets and eating utensils and should signify which boat they wish to take. Off-campus persons who wish to go must pay an additional fee of one dollar.

Wilma Kiesner, president of the Outing club, announced that the committees to be in charge of food, transportation, and activity will be chosen soon.

State Seniors Obtain Teaching Positions

According to the latest reports concerning placements for State college students by Mrs. Jane Miller Abraham, State college registrar, two members of the senior class have been accepted to teach at schools next fall.

Eleanor Rees has been accepted at the Panama school near Bakersfield and will teach in the elementary grades. Jean McNally received a position in the elementary school at Newport.

Formerly of Santa Barbara State college, Glendon Lawson, who graduated from the elementary department in 1933, will make a visit to Hawaii this summer. Nazen Kazien, graduate from the home economics department in 1936, is now teaching in Oakland and is going to Columbia university to study in the fall.

Co - Eds Voice Opinions of College Man Average Are Considered Disrespectful, Impolite and Rude

We have often wondered what the average co-ed thinks about the normal college man, but being much too lazy to delve into the subject, we waited until some other stooge did a little research for our benefit.

An enterprising student at the University of North Carolina, after years of research has finally published his findings.

"College men are the most selfish and egotistical creatures on earth!" screamed the questioned co-eds. "They get drunk too much; they lack respect for girls and older people; they have no sense of responsibility for their social obligations."

Their table manners are "lousy," and they try to brag about their dates to fraternity brothers. They are rude, insincere, disrespectful, inconsiderate, impolite, discourteous.

"The thing that gets in my hair most," declared a Syracuse University girl, "is when boys won't stand when a girl enters the room; and I could scream when my partner keeps bumping into other couples on a dance floor. I hate unnecessary profanity, and I don't like loudness in a boy, either." In short, there's nothing much that's good about the American male as he is found in college.

"From the University of Indiana comes the opinion that "the most common failing of college boys occurs in fraternity houses after dates. There each boy openly and rudely classifies each girl. Sometimes a girl doesn't have a chance to live down a reputation after a boy has branded her."

There is still hope, however. A market does exist for the campus Romeo—providing he's remodeled. A sense of humor, ruggedness of feature rather than good looks, ability to know when he's had enough to drink, a little athletic ability and above all consideration and politeness are components of the Ideal, co-eds agree.

On the Top

Slowly but surely Los Gauchos are forging to the top in the field of collegiate athletics as is evidenced by the records set by Coach Spud Harder's Gaucho baseball team and Coach Nick Carter's trackmen, both of which have come through the season with colors flying.

Under the able tutelage of Coach Harder, the Gaucho baseball nine has been accorded the honor of holding first place in conference baseball activities along with San Diego who is tied for first place with the Gauchos.

Such an honor is to be highly coveted as this is the first time in the history of the institution that a State team has come so near to winning a championship. Much credit is due to each and every member on the team for the fine spirit of fair play and cooperation which they have exhibited on all occasions even though the attendance of students at the games was nil.

As a reward for their outstanding showing Coach Harder has been preparing plans whereby the team can make a trip to Australia. The trip will be made this summer and games will be played with the various Australian nines if satisfactory financial arrangements can be made.

In an open meet sponsored by the Junior Chamber of Commerce, and attended by many athletes who are considered as material for the United States Olympic team, one of Nick's men broke a conference record and others entered placed in different events.

The excellent performance of the track team as a whole has been quite outstanding and although they did not reach the top they have shown that they are well qualified to represent El Gaucho.

To both teams El Gaucho extends its sincere best wishes and may next year see Santa Barbara State college at the top.

Candidates for Editor

During the next three weeks, members of El Gaucho staff, who contemplate themselves as potential editors of El Gaucho for next year, will take their try-outs in editing and publishing their respective issues.

The only aspirants for the position are Mary Frances McKinney and Robert Moore, both managing editors for the past year. They will be judged on many technical and general points and the final decision will be made by the publications board as soon as possible in order that the appointment can be announced at the annual El Gaucho dinner during the final week of school.

If the student body has at any time during the period between now and the end of school a wish to express their sentiment on the selection, it would be greatly appreciated. Send criticisms or recommendations and suggestions to the present editor, Bill Hoyt.

Columbian Earns Way by Wakening

Among the ingenious college youth of the country, we think we ought to place the name of Harold Jesurun of Columbia alongside that of young Mr. Gorin, founder of the Veterans of Future Wars.

Mr. Jesurun, you may remember, is the student who worked up a tidy bit of business waking up his fellow students each morning so they would not miss class. He earns his way through school with his deft Taps on the Shoulder and Nudges in the Ribs.

But in this business too, science has led to refinements of method. Mr. Jesurun does nothing so crude now, as Jabbing in the Midriff. Now he has a special concoction of ammonium chloride in a little vial, which he slips under the nose of the deep breathing ones.

This technique is 100 per cent efficient, since it not only awakens, but it instantly clears the mind and leaves one ready for the first hour class.

Of course, Mr. Jesurun had first to sell his proposition to fellow sluggards. An example of his promotion method, as he himself described it: "You take Fernando. Well Fernando set his alarm clock for 6:30 a.m. When he was sleeping I sneaked in his room and set it for 8:30 a.m. Then the next morning, I made a call and easily convinced him of the superiority of my method over that of alarm clocks."

'Persian Kitten' Relates Trials

Bewhiskered Blonde Baffled by Brutal Baiting

A tall, sad-eyed boy stomped into the office holding a Friday edition. He slammed it down on the desk, pointed to Bolero, and banged it with his fist. Long, delicate, colorless hairs on his face waved with the impact. "This has got to stop. Nobody can call me a sad Persian cat," he burst out.

While we read again the passage about bewhiskered blondes and explained with some pride that we had not written it, he subsided. Then, noticing that sad look in his eyes, we told him to sit down.

"Two and a half weeks ago, I was a human being," he began at once. "But now I guess I'm just a sad kitty. Little did I think when I entered the Whiskerino that such a thing could befall me. I supposed I could grow them secretly for three weeks and then dye them. But no, someone found them out," he said sadly.

"Then for two weeks, people would come up and say, 'Oh, you quit the contest, huh? What a shame!'

"And it didn't make me feel a whole lot better to have somebody get real close to me in the sunlight, stare at me a while, and finally ask, 'Oh, growing a beard, hah?' as he rubbed a hand over my face.

"Of course all the gals began to smile at me all of a sudden, so I was happy enough for a while, but I soon caught on. I began to read in their smiles a derisive: 'Ha! Ha! How cutely your little white spider web whiskers glisten in the sunlight! But just stay in the shade, little boy, and we won't laugh.'

"I saw then that it was time for me to dye my appendage. I got out the dark brown stain, and worked away for a half hour with it and a comb. The mirror told me it was visible at last—slightly. The next morning it was colorless as ever."

He turned that look on me again. "So you see what I've been through," he said. "It's been simply too much to bear"—his voice broke—"almost enough to make me shave. And now this Bolero calls me a sad Persian cat. Is it any wonder I look like one?"

Bulldogs Hold Gauchos From Championship

Miller Handed First League Defeat as Southerners Rally in Seventh

BLAISDELL PITCHES WIN

Gauchos Tie for Lead in Southern California Conference Race

Co-champions of the Southern California Conference is the title attached to Coach "Spud" Harder's 1936 baseball team, which shares the top spot with the Aztecs of San Diego State college.

Dropping their final conference game by a 4-1 score last Saturday to the Redlands University Bulldog nine, the Gauchos wound up the schedule with a .750 percent, to win 5 of their conference battles.

Jim Blaisdell was the reason for the "Hilltopper's" Bulldog loss; he pitched a five hit game to set the local boys down. Provided the first half of the seventh inning was discarded from the records, the Gauchos might have won the game, as the results show the Bulldogs came to life at that time; at the beginning of the inning, Spriggs, Bulldog catcher, got on by an error; he was followed by both Weeks and Ford, who advanced him to third by hitting out short singles, with the bases loaded—Riley, third sacker, flew out to Van Meter, Gaucho short stop. Blaisdell then came to bat and hit out a single that went for a homer on an error, to score three runs. Bailey struck out, and McKinney flied out to end the scoring.

Miller Pitches for State

Murt Miller chucked seven hit ball for the Harder men, and only because of poor fielding came out the loser. Miller wound up his three conference seasons with a record for this year of five wins and one defeat, to lead the conference pitchers.

The Bulldogs were set down in the sixth inning by a lightning double play, engineered by Van Meter to Murray to Erhard.

The locals' five hits were brought about by blows from the bats of Don Fisher, who whipped out a triple; of Luse and Erhard who hit doubles, and of Jim Van Meter and Bobby Murray, who clouted singles.

Cool Calculations

By TED JOHAM

It seems as though the track team and the baseball team can never get together on and go good on the same week-end. Last week it was the horsehiders that saved the climbing reputation of State in the world of sports. In that week-end the cinder men went down to a rather gloomy fifth place in the all-conference track and field meet, and at the same time the baseballers were taking a game from the Occidental Tigers. Last Saturday in one of the biggest meets to be held in Southern California this year the Gauchos placed fourth to U.C.L.A., Compton J.C., San Diego State, and beat out such teams as the U.S.C. Frosh and San Jose State. While the spiksters were demonstrating their wares at Peabody Stadium the diamond men were dropping a crucial game to the Redlands Bulldog.

GRIDDERS START SPRING PRACTICE THIS AFTERNOON

In order to get an idea what his 1936 Gaucho varsity is going to look like, Harder issued equipment to the gridiron warriors last night, and tomorrow will hold the first practice of the current spring football season.

The boys will be divided into two groups, the blue and gold, and the green and white. These two squads will practice as units, and games will be played against each other. The spring season will last three weeks.

Staters Drop Golf Match to San Diego Lads

Border-City Golfers Blank Locals in Conference Match

With three men shooting under 80, the San Diego Aztecs blanked the Gaucho divot diggers by a 12 to 0 score. The border city lads displayed a brand of golf that touched the realm of genius.

Despite the score there was only seventeen points difference in the total score, with the Aztecs shooting 323 to the Gauchos 340. The Gauchos averaged 85 a round to the Aztecs' 80.7.

Pete Hathaway shot a 79, but it did not prove to be good enough to beat Charles Lee's 76. Jack Fitzgerald of the Southerners shot another 76, featuring it with a drive to the green from the tee on the eighteenth. Al Anderson shot an 82 against him. Don Luscomb was the third San Diego boy to hit in the seventies, and his 79 beat Yale Lorden's 84. Allen Neil shot a 95 but was taken by Lynn McLean, who toured the course in 92.

The Aztecs proved to be the class of the conference by shooting such spectacular golf on a strange course.

WYKOFF BEATEN IN 100

Trigueiro Places Fourth in Pole Vault and Sets New Gaucho Standard

While athletes from all over the State did their best to make the sixth annual Santa Barbara Open Track and Field meet a success, it remained to Howard Yeager, young State sophomore, to stand the crowd on its feet, thrilling them in the most spectacular race of the day. "Howie" came through in the low hurdles to win in the very good time of 24.1 seconds to hang up a new meet record and to give another one to the Gaucho institution.

Yeager took the lead at the start and held it around the entire curve to win by five yards over Wilson, an unattached runner. The former mark was 24.7 seconds, set by Norman Paul of U. S. C. in 1933. Later on in that same year Paul tied the world mark for the lows by running them in 23 seconds. Saturday's race was run all the way around a curve, and that cut Yeager's time score.

Larry Bowlus came through with a sparkling third in the quarter mile run, that was won by Duda of U. C. L. A. in 49.4 seconds. Larry came from nowhere to second place in his back stretch challenge, but he was nipped at the finish by Sawtelle of San Jose State Frosh. Larry ran his lap in 50.6 seconds.

Trigueiro Sets Mark

Another State college record was accounted for when Louis Trigueiro vaulted 12 feet 1-2 inch to take fourth. Jack Rand and Bud Deacon, two unattached boys, tied for first at 13 feet 6 inches. Valentine of U. C. L. A. was third.

Jean Campbell took third place in the discus throw, which was won by Davis of Compton at 144 feet 7 inches.

Louis Zamperini sent another record into oblivion when he ran the mile in 4 minutes 21.7 seconds to beat the old record of 4 minutes 24.4 seconds held by Virgil Hooper, then running for Antelope Valley high school. Hooper did not run in last Saturday's race because of illness.

Mack Robinson of Pasadena J. C. took high point honors with eleven points. Mack won the hundred and took second in the 220 and the broad jump. The tall colored boy's time in the century was 9.9 seconds. He was just a shade ahead of Frank Wyckoff. The slow time may be accounted for by the fact that there was a four foot ten inch rise from the start to the finish of the race.

TWO GROUPS HAVE PARTY

Home economics and industrial education department members held a joint barbecue and beach party at West Beach last Thursday night from 6 until 8 o'clock. Lorne Olson was in charge of the "no-date" affair. Members of the two departments have been meeting together every other month for a social event.

A.W.S. Students Give Spring Tea

Mothers and Housemothers To Be Honor Guests Saturday, May 16

Plans and preparations have been completed for the annual Associated Women Students' Spring Tea, to be held this year in Ebbets hall from 4:00-6:00 p.m. on Saturday, May 16. The Spring Tea traditionally entertains mothers and housemothers of the women on the campus as well as the women themselves.

Lois Jo McPheeters, outgoing president of the A. W. S., has been responsible for inviting faculty hostesses to preside over the tea tables.

Women are reminded by Ellen Roe, general chairman for the tea, to sign up in the office of the dean of women if they plan to attend.

Afternoon or street clothes are suitable for the affair.

Committee heads for the tea are Evelyn Braman, food; Dorothy Clark, serving; Louise Jackson, program; Wilma Kiesner, invitations; Ellen Ireland, table service; Alice Hoelscher, properties; Eva Metzger, clean-up; and Dorothy Horner, publicity.

CHURCHES CONDUCT CENSUS

The council of churches of Santa Barbara will conduct a "City-wide Religious Census," May 17 between 1:00 and 3:00 p.m.

Individual students and organizations are urged to help.

PREXY THANKS STUDENT BODY

I wish to make known my sincere appreciation and to congratulate the student body for a highly successful year in athletic competition and campus activities.

The fine showing of cooperation, sportsmanship and efficiency among the students in their local and off-campus affairs is a new record of achievement and a high mark for future years. The striking exhibit shown in politics in the recent election is to be especially noted.

With the approach of the end of the school year and most of the extra-curricular activity behind us, it is time to stress the importance of the approaching examinations. The new two hour finals will require a more extensive preparation than was necessary under the one hour plan.

I urge students to make diligent use of the library and to take advantage of every opportunity for concentrated work toward the end of a successful year.—President Clarence L. Phelps.

TAU GAMMS HOLD FORMAL

Active and alumnae members of Tau Gamma Sigma sorority held their seventh annual spring formal Saturday night at Montecito Country Club. Approximately sixty members and their guests attended the party.

Juniors Are Hosts to Upperclass at Traditional Dance

Featuring moonlight waltzes, the Junior class acted as host by honoring the Senior class at the traditional formal dance, which was held at the Montecito Country Club last Friday night, May 8, from nine to twelve.

The decorations were carried out in the Japanese motif and lighting effects were achieved with Japanese lanterns. One of the main events on the program was the prediction of the future of members of the senior class by a fortune teller. The dance music was furnished by Fred Lambourne's orchestra.

The senior committee was composed of Mary Bell, Miriam Alexander and Julio Bortolazzo, and the Junior committee was headed by Allen Neil and assisted by Marguerite Kohler and Gretalie Fitzgerald.

Beta Sigma Chi Men Plan Barbecue Party

At the regular meeting of Beta Sigma Chi fraternity held at their house on Cheltenham road last night, plans were formulated for a picnic barbecue, to be held in the near future. Details of the party have been left in the hands of Leo Butts, social chairman.

Hell Week was officially inaugurated, with Don Follett acting as pledge captain. As is the custom in the fraternity, Hell Week is in the hands of ex-pledge captains.

Sorority Gives Mothers Party

Alpha Theta Chi Celebrates Special Day With Afternoon Party

Honoring the mothers and house mothers of the Alpha Theta Chi sorority members, the local chapter celebrated Mother's Day by giving a tea at the home of Phyllis La Source, 1717 Prospect Sunday afternoon from three to five o'clock.

Mrs. Lloyd Hitchcock and Mrs. Theodore Harder, sponsors of the organization, poured for the occasion. Those on the receiving line were Genevieve Jones, president of the sorority, Barbara Sharp, Ann Seymour, and Petie McKinney. Barbara Sharp acted as general chairman, with Rena Sacconaghi in charge of the corsages which were presented to the mothers as they were welcomed.

The tea followed the sorority formal which was given Saturday night from nine to twelve p.m. at the Hotel Samarkand. Casey Carter furnished the dance music.

Notre Dame will open a special department for the training of Catholic apologist writers in September.

BROOMES IS A QUICKIE

*Ceylon is famous for Spices
