Wicart Establishes Temporary Studio on Campus

April 15 Is Deadline

Editor Urges Prompt Attendance at Appointments

"All students who have not kept appointments for pictures for La Cumbre must report to the photographer immediately for appointments," said Margery Williams, editor of photographs.

The photographer now has a studio on the campus in a room just off the Men's club room and students are asked to report there.

Fail to Keep Appointments
Appointments for La Cumbre pictures are not being kept and since the deadline is April 15, all students must cooperate if we are to have an annual year, according to Barbara Clark, editor of La Cumbre. One person from each organization on the campus has been appointed to be responsible for all pictures of people within that group. Those who have been appointed are:

- Sigma Alpha Kappa, Barney Casner.
  - Beta Sigma Chi, Harry Killian.
  - Tau Omega, Allan Otley.
  - Delta Zeta Delta, Elizabeth Leonard.
  - Alpha Theta Chi, Clare Wise.
  - Areta, Katherine Edwards.

REPRESENTATIVES FROM LIONS MEET WITH COMMITTEE

Open house day and letter writing day were the main topics of discussion at two meetings held this week by the Public Relations committee and a joint gathering of Lions club representatives. Ways and means of publicizing the Roadrunner Revue and putting Santa Barbara State college before the townspeople was another feature of the get-togethers.

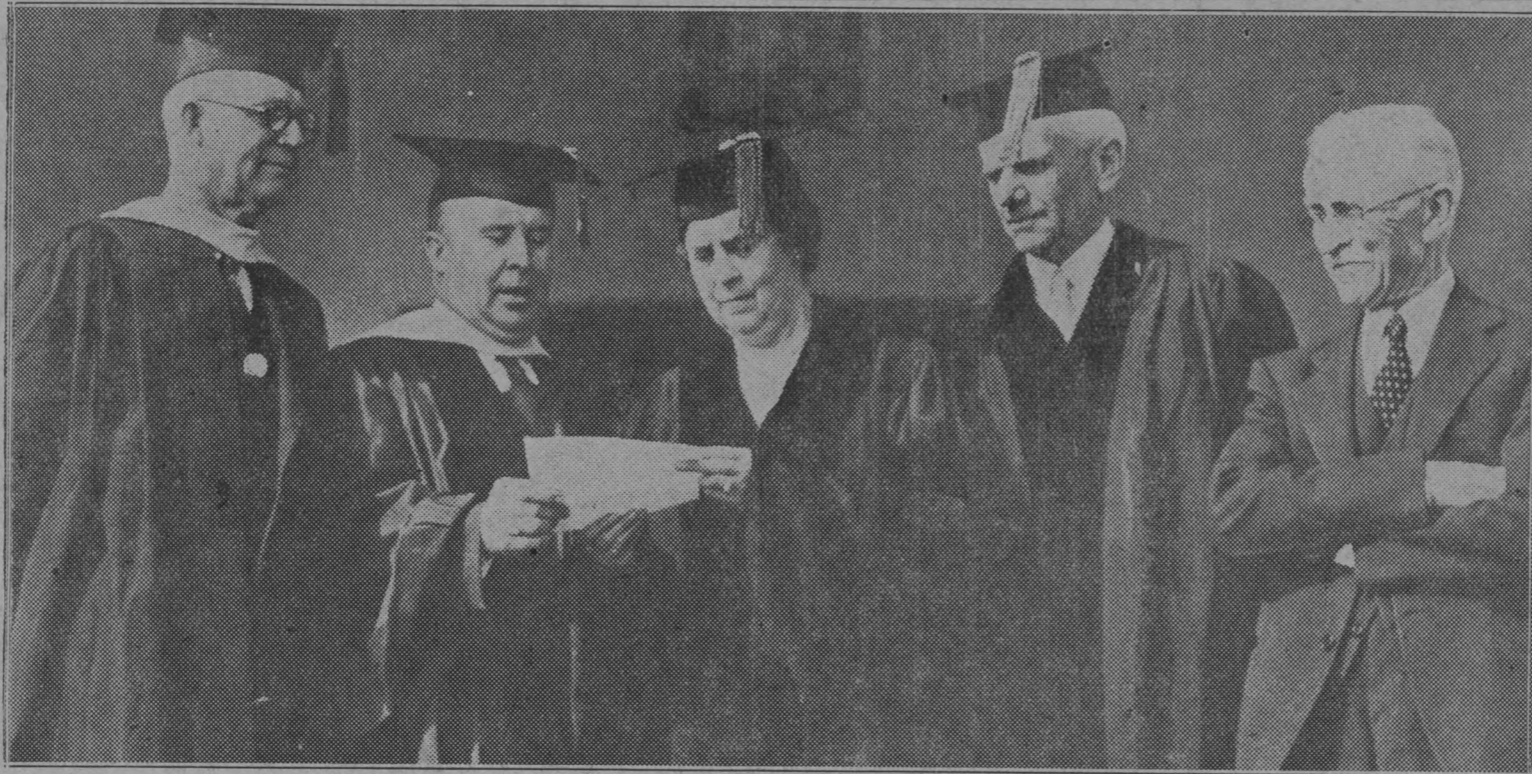

The college group at their meeting Monday in the student body office, with E. E. Ericson attending as a member of the Lions club committee, formulated tentative plans for the printing and distribution of 8,000 miniature newspapers in Santa Barbara. The paper would contain booster items and pictures about the college. It would also advertise the Roadrunner Revue. Plans for letter-writing day were discussed and it was decided to have each student write to some friend of his or hers in their respective home towns telling them of the advantages of attending the college.

At the second meeting of the week, held yesterday afternoon in the office of Pres. C. L. Phelps with George Clapp and Dr. Berkeley Blake attending as representatives of the Lions, the plans of the student committee were presented to the service club representatives. It was decided by the two groups to print and distribute a second envelope enclosure which would be used in all out-going mail from the college and would probably be distributed by downtown merchants.

Wednesday afternoon the group discussed the letter writing day and it was decided to contact nearby high schools and junior colleges for their graduation lists. It is also planned to have students write personal letters to their friends in their home towns. Santa Barbara State has had a steady increase of enrollment of transfers from junior college in the past three years and at the present time 16 percent of the student body is composed of transfers, said President Phelps.

Definite dates for these two student body projects will be announced later, the committee intimated. Those present at the Wednesday meeting were George Clapp, Dr. Berkeley Blake, E. E. Ericson, President Phelps, Marcus Cravens, Florence Longawa, Roger Casier, and Jack Porter.

CONFERRING FIRST HONORARY DOCTOR'S DEGREE

Shown above is a group of celebrities who participated in the twenty-fifth anniversary ceremonies held at Santa Barbara State college on Founders' Day. At the celebration an honorary doctor's degree was given to Mrs. Ednah Rich Morse, founder of the college; and a certificate of honor was awarded to William Wyles, donor of the Lincoln library. Reading from left to right, the picture shows President Clarence L. Phelps; Vierling Kersey, state superintendent of education; Dr. Morse; Dr. Lewis P. Crutcher, president of the state board of education; and Mr. Wyles.

First Edition of Department Book Planned

Victor F. Hoffert, industrial education major, has been selected to edit the "Industrial Education Alumni Bulletin," to be published about April 15, the first publication of its kind to be distributed from this college. E. E. Ericson, head of the local industrial education department, will serve as adviser and director for the new pamphlet.

"This first publication will be solely a local project, with teachers in the industrial education department on our campus contributing largely to the writing content of the booklet," said Mr. Hoffert yesterday. "However, for future issues we plan to ask alumni members who happen to be out teaching somewhere to write a supplement concerning the work of their class or department in the school in which they are instructors. In this way we can get a broader outlook concerning what is being done throughout California along industrial education lines," Hoffert continued.

There will be an attempt to publish the magazine twice each semester. The first one will be an eight page bulletin, with a distribution of approximately 800. Every student enrolled in the local industrial education department will receive a free copy of the first issue, as well as every alumni member. Many other copies will be sent out to various individuals who may be particularly interested in the local school.

The booklet will be published in our local print shop and in this way will probably give employment to a few of the printing students.

Committee Decides to Hold Revue in Aud

Contrary to rumors on the campus the production committee for the Roadrunner Revue has decided to hold the Revue in the college auditorium was the word of Marcus Cravens, general chairman.

The Fox Arlington Theatre under the direction of Mr. Louis Crist, made an attractive offer to the committee, but members of the group decided that it would be more advisable to have the performance on the campus.

Imagine Consternation When Dr. Jacobs Makes Bad Break

Will wonders never cease. Another woman faculty member at Santa Barbara State college has come forward of her own free will and divulged that she is at least, well the exact age was not given, but she did feel slighted when Dr. Charles Jacobs, master of ceremonies at the Founder's Day program in the Auditorium Saturday, failed to mention her name along with other women instructors, on the length of time she had served the college.

Dean Introduces Speaker
The dean of the upper division, in leading up to the introduction of a speaker told the registrar, Mrs. Abraham, had been with the school 23 years, and Miss Ebbets of the home economics department had been a member of the faculty for 22 years. Then to get to the topic of his introduction, Miss Frye, he told how she had been with the institu-

President Phelps Summarizes Assets of Local College

Honors Conferred on Ednah Rich Morse and William Wyles by State Director of Education

"The 25th anniversary marks the laying of new foundations. The college is broadening its services to the community; we have notable cultural advantages, namely the Lincoln library and the Lungren picture collection, which we hope to place in appropriate settings when we move to the new site. We are ready to start now on a new era of college education with confidence and assurance of continued success."

In this manner President Clarence Phelps summed up the achievement of the college in the past and pointed the way for its future development in his inspirational address "New Foundations and New Outlooks" which he delivered at the Founder's Day last Saturday afternoon in the college auditorium.

STRESSES VALUE OF HONOR GROUPS

Members of Pi Sigma Chi entertained the spring semester pledges with a dinner in Ebbets dining hall last evening.

Paul Hylton, president of the fraternity and master of ceremonies, welcomed the pledges. Clarence Aspitelle, pledge to the fraternity responded to the welcome. E. E. Ericson, head of the industrial education department, spoke on the history and purpose of the organization, and then introduced the main speaker of the evening, William Kircher, principal of La Cumbre junior high. Mr. Kircher told the group of the importance of honorary fraternities.

Pledges to the fraternity are Willbur Gilliland, Harry Andrewsen, Clarence Aspitelle and Sebastian Tortorola.

Members of the fraternity are Paul Ralston, Eugene Nelson, Louie Taylor, K. G. Houz, Charles Barnes, S. O. Warner, Charles Richardson, Art Nisewanger, Paul Hylton.

Schedule Revue Tryout Tonight

"Tryouts for the Roadrunner Revue, Santa Barbara State's biggest show of the year, will be held in the college auditorium at 7:00 o'clock tonight," said Harry Moore, production manager.

The production staff is especially desirous that girls who want to get positions in the chorus, and anyone who can paint or design scenes be present. In speaking further of the needs of the production staff, Mr. Moore said, "Anyone who is interested in the Revue in any way is asked to be present. We want good talent for this performance and we feel that there is plenty of good material on the campus. Competition for the top spots in the show is going to be very keen."

It is not necessary that the act be in finished form to be presented tonight. The casting committee will be composed of a student advisory committee including Mercedes Berger, Margaret Beddome, Allan Lambourne, and Bob Goux will assist Mr. Moore and the faculty members in selecting the cast for the Revue.

Group Chooses P. Hendricks for High Office

Southern California Student Body Presidents' association monthly meeting held on the Santa Barbara State college campus last Friday and Saturday was climaxed by the election of Porter Hendricks of the University of California at Los Angeles to be "President of the presidents."

Discussion of the Western Conference of Student Body Presidents occupied the majority of the meeting along with the election. The conference is to be held either at the University of Washington or at the University of California at Berkeley sometime between the 15th or 20th of May.

Visitors Greeted
This convention is to include all colleges west of the Rocky Mountains. Last year the convocation was held at the University of Oregon.

On the arrival of the visitors from the south, they were greeted by a group of leaders of the Santa Barbara State college men's students in the Women's club room. The welcoming committee consisted of Marcus Cravens, president of the student body; Ralph Porter, editor of the Roadrunner; Bob Main, president of the Men's Club; Melville Homfeld, president of the Outing Club; Bud Lambourne, manager of the band; Harry Killian, men's athletics; James Murray, manager of dramatics and debate; Virgil Gilliam, former student at State and a graduate of Occidental; James Kent and Oscar Trautz, former presidents of the local student body; and Fred Allred, controller.

Four Colleges Represented
After a dinner in Ebbets Hall Friday evening the group went to club "Chico" at the Fox Arlington.

Four colleges were represented by Dan Fareed of Occidental, Don Wolfer of San Diego, Dick Nixon of Whittier, Porter Hendricks of U.C.L.A. and Rice Ober, past president of Occidental.

After a tour of Santa Barbara and Montecito the group returned to the Founder's Day celebration at the college.

The next meeting of the organization is to be held at the University of California at Los Angeles on April 27, 1934.

Student Comments on Work of Actress in Ibsen Play

"Miss Le Gallienne created the difficult role of Hedda most carefully," was the comment of Jimmie Murray upon his return, with several other students, from Eva Le Gallienne's production of "Hedda Gabler," given March 15, at the Biltmore theatre in Los Angeles.

Le Gallienne, as she is termed, director and manager of the Civic Repertory theatre of New York, is touring the United States with a repertory of three Ibsen plays, "Hedda Gabler," "A Doll's House," and "The Master Builder."

Continuing his comment Mr. Murray said, "Miss Le Gallienne is a skilled actress, whose perfect muscular and voice control is the re-

Mrs. Barnett Praises Work of Glee Club

"While the girls did not come home with the prize, they did, exceptionally well, particularly in pitch and shading," stated Mrs. Helen M. Barnett, director of the women's glee club which entered the Pacific Southwest Intercollegiate Glee club contest held last Saturday evening in the Eagle Rock High school auditorium under the sponsorship of Occidental college.

It was decided at that time that next year's contest will be held at Santa Barbara. This will give students of the college a chance to be host to 250 to 300 singers and to hear such glee clubs as Pomona and Redlands.

The women's contest was won by San Diego State college under the direction of Miss Deborah Smith. Pomona college won the men's contest.

Glee Clubs Entertained
During the afternoon before the contest the glee clubs were entertained in the dormitories at Occidental college. Saturday evening a complimentary banquet was held in the Student Union building.

After the banquet a drawing was held to decide which of the two prepared songs would be used as the contest song. After the singing of the contest song Mrs. Barnett directed the combined women's clubs in the number which had been prepared but was not chosen as the prize song while the judges were reaching their decision.

Each year for the past 10 years Mr. Warren has given a cup to the winner of the men's and women's contest. Next year Mr. Warren has promised to award a cup to winners of both first and second places.

Santa Barbara State college is the smallest school entered in the contest and the only one not offering a major in music.

Girls who made the trip to Occidental college for the contest were Doris Coker, Mary Costa, Marguerite DuVall, Lorraine Hoover, Esther Ibsen, Virginia Pressey, Elizabeth Rouillon, Charlotte Webb and Sophie Zemella, first soprano; Mildred Davis, Ruth Johnson, Mildred Jones, Sue Kellogg, Irene Parker, Jeanette Stanton, Betty Thomas and Mary Tomlinson, second soprano; Doris Braley, Babe Cornwall, Olive DeMotte, Katherine Edwards, Marguerite Hanson, Chloe Vincent and Marjorie Williams, first alto; Inez Cash, Ruth Karges, Dorothy Taylor, Dorothy Weber and Margary Wilson, second alto.

BAPTIST PASTOR DELIVERS SPEECH

The reverend Benjamin Goodfield, pastor of the Baptist church, will deliver the address at the Easter Vesper services this afternoon at 4:30 in the women's clubroom.

Vesper services, sponsored by the Associated Women Students, are a semi-annual affair on the campus, according to college traditions. A thanksgiving service was held during the fall semester at the Unitarian church, when Berkeley Blake gave an inspirational address.

Cooperating with the A.W.S., the Bible club, the Roadrunner "Y" and the social sororities and fraternities on the campus have promised their support, as well as helping with the arrangements.

Besides the main address, the program includes the scripture reading, 16th Psalm, by Betty Hopkins, A.W.S. president; a group of violin solos by Bradford Tozier, accompanied by Porter Proctor; and "Tenebrae Factae Sunt," a selection by the women's glee club.

Academy Discusses Criminals

President of Group Confers with Phelps

Date Set for April 7

Judge A. Westwick Will Speak on Justice

Crime and delinquency in all its phases will be discussed at a meeting of the Pacific Southwest Academy of the American Academy of Political and Social Science at a meeting scheduled to be held in Santa Barbara April 7, President Clarence L. Phelps, chairman of the gathering revealed yesterday.

Charles Grove Haines, president of the Southwest Academy, will be in Santa Barbara Saturday to confer with President Phelps on the tentative program plans for the crime and delinquency discussion.

Three tentative discussions are to be carried on at different get-togethers on the same day. The morning meeting will be held in the University club, with President Phelps as chairman. Speakers at this gathering will be Atwell Westwick, judge of the Superior court, Santa Barbara, whose subject will be "Legal Notions of Responsibility." The other morning speaker is J. A. C. Grant, professor of political science University of California at Los Angeles, who will talk on "Crime and the Bill of Rights." Leaders of the morning discussion will be Fred H. Schauer and Julien Goux.

At the second meeting of the day, which will be a luncheon gathering at the University club, Charles H. Haines, president of the Pacific Southwest Academy, will be chairman of the discussions. In the tentative program E. W. Camp, member of the American Bar association, will talk on "The American Bar Association's Program for Improvement of the Administration of Justice."

STUDENTS WORK UNDER FEDERAL AID ALLOTMENT

"Sixty-nine State college students have received positions under the Federal aid program," according to Dr. Charles L. Jacobs, dean of the upper division and head of education.

All appointments were made on allotments specified by the government and were based on the need of students for aid and the assistance needed by instructors. Two-thirds of the women and one-third of the men who applied for aid were given work.

Ninety percent of the men are helping to clean up the buildings and grounds. The women are helping in office work, typing and as readers.

Statements have been mailed to each of the students employed notifying them of the maximum number of hours they will work. The maximum number of hours is based on the fact that fifty cents an hour is paid for skilled labor and forty cents an hour for unskilled workmen.

Appointments which are made are made monthly are terminable at any time. This provision is made in order to keep the college clear of any obligation should the Federal Aid program be discontinued.

E. N. ROWELL GIVES LECTURE IN AUDITORIUM

Mr. E. N. Rowell, director of Narcotic control for the State of California, will give a lecture here during fourth hour today in the auditorium.

Mr. Rowell has spent many years in warfare against the traffic in narcotics. For three and a half years he was Northwest organizer and lecturer for the White Cross, National Anti-Narcotics society, and is now state organizer and lecturer for the California White Cross.

The lecture will be illustrated with moving pictures showing the devastation made on the human body by the use of drugs. These pictures have never been shown before.

Members of the faculty have been asked to dismiss their fourth hour classes so that all students may attend this lecture, according to President Clarence L. Phelps.

Lull in School Work

With the completion of this week of school we finish seven weeks of this semester. Easter vacation next week which is the one major break in the work of second semester fortunately comes just before the middle of the term with its attendant examinations.

For many students the vacation will provide a welcome and much-needed chance to make up work which has been neglected in the earlier part of the term while those who have been more conscientious and are studiously inclined can use the time to prepare for the forthcoming exams.

Other students who attend this college from a distance will welcome the vacation as the first opportunity of the semester to spend several days at home, and will rightfully forget about the problems of school.

The vacation should be regarded not as a time for complete relaxation as at the completion of a task, but as a rest period in order that the hardest part of the task yet coming may be attacked with renewed vigor.

In however manner we choose to spend the vacation we should not lose sight of the fact that there is much serious work to be completed yet this semester and that we must try to avoid bringing back too much of the spirit of vacation which is responsible for the well-known slump in work and grades during the spring semester. —C.M.G.

Meet Here Next Year

Additional honor has come to Santa Barbara State with the announcement this week by Mrs. Helen M. Barnett that the Pacific Southwest Intercollegiate Glee club contest will be held here next year.

Through the efforts of the music department students and townspeople of Santa Barbara will be able to hear the finest college instrumentalists when the symphony meets and a short time later may hear the finest college singers when the glee clubs gather for the contest. It will be an exceptional opportunity to be able to hear such famous clubs as Pomona and Redlands in a single program.

While Santa Barbara State college is the smallest college to enter the contest and the only one which does not offer a major in music, the women's glee club under Mrs. Barnett's direction has made excellent showings each year it has competed in the contest. We extend our sincerest wishes that it may take first honors in next year's contest. —C.M.G.

Bill for New Campus Reaches Washington

In a wire received yesterday from Senator William Gibbs McAdoo, President Clarence L. Phelps learned that the bill for $1,511,000 for the new college on Leadbetter hill has reached Washington.

In a telephone conversation with Roland Vandergriff, director of finance, yesterday afternoon, President Phelps was informed that the bill would probably be passed as far as Washington was concerned. Vandergriff said, he did not know whether the bill that Senator McAdoo wired about was the original appropriation or the amended one.

STEAM

Dear Editor:

This week, the State Teachers' college celebrated its 25th anniversary. The college campus suddenly took on a very clean scrubbed appearance. We cleaned up because we were going to have company. Everyone will have to admit that the campus looks better. No paper, no litter, trees and shrubs all neatly trimmed, new flowers in bloom, everything very partyfied. Now, why can't we have things like this all the time? Do we have to wait for company to come in order to make our campus look as if someone really lived here? We, the students and the teachers, do spend the greater portion of our walking hours on the campus. As long as we practically live here, let's make things look as if we knew where we were. College men and women are rarely classed in the "squatter" group, but the way our campus usually looks, visitors might think we were just staying here until we were told to move on. Let's enjoy our stay here, anyway. Santa Barbara is ranked as one of the most beautiful cities in Southern California. Other State Teachers' college are laboring under the illusion that S.B.S.C. is one of the most beautiful colleges on the coast, and the most ideally located. Let's live up to our reputation. Cryptically yours, S. K.

New Books Bought For College Library

Over 100 new books have been purchased by the college library, including the Variorum of Shakespeare's works in 18 volumes, writings of Fielding in a set of six, and the complete works and life of Laurence Stern in six volumes.

Miss Margaret M. Burke, instructor in the English department, went to Los Angeles last Wednesday and purchased the books at a second hand store. By buying books second hand, it was possible to get about three times as many as it would have been had they been bought new, according to Miss Burke.

The books are in the field of physiology, mathematics, education, disease, industrial arts, literature, history, bacteriology, zoology, biography and journalism. One of the purchases was volume 12 of the Encyclopedia of Social Science. Besides the 1934 World Almanac, there are also 3 volumes of the History of the United States by James Truslow Adams.

HOLD CONFERENCE TO DISCUSS CRIME

Criminal Law." John Beardsley, esq., Los Angeles will lead the discussion.

In the afternoon "Causes and Prevention of Crime" will be the topic of discussion. Mrs. L. Deming Tilton, president of the Santa Barbara Women's club, will act as chairman. In the advance program many local people are slated to speak. Included in the list are Dr. E. Kost Shelton, Dr. John Van Paing, and Robert Ball. Dr. Elizabeth L. Bishop will be the leader of discussion at this gathering.

El Paseo will be the scene of a dinner meeting of the group with Dr. Henry J. Profant, president of the University club as toastmaster. The advance program calls for the introduction of guests and entertainment.

As a finale of the day's symposium on crime and delinquency, Rockwood has tentatively been selected. This meeting should attract widespread interest. Students will be able to procure tickets for the affair, said President Phelps. Notable speakers on this program call for the appearance of Dr. Henry S. Pritchett, president emeritus Carnegie Foundation for the advancement of teaching; Judge MacIntosh, former justice of the Supreme court, state of Washington, and a member of the Wicksham commission; and Judge Leon Yankwich, of the Superior court, Los Angeles.

PRAISES STUDENT FOR LETTERING WYLES' AWARD

"The illuminated parchment presented to William Wyles at the assembly celebrating the 25th anniversary of the founding of the college was by far the most difficult and artistic piece of work done for the celebration," said Mrs. Mary E. T. Crosswell, head of the art department.

The black lettering on the parchment was done by Bob Foor and took 48 hours of steady work, and the illuminating done by Mrs. Crosswell, took a week to finish.

Fourteen carat gold leaf was used in making the border. The letters S.B.C. in green and gold formed the top part of the frame. A miniature of Lincoln at the bottom symbolizes Mr. Wyles gift of the Lincoln library. Fine ink work and coloring in delicate tracery formed the border. A hand carved frame made by Walter Cheever, a teacher in the art department, is gold covered. Mr. Wyles was for fourteen years a trustee and member of the college advisory board. He was the founder of the Santa Barbara Educational Loan Fund.

Photographer Has Temporary Studio

In order to facilitate the taking of pictures for the La Cumbre, and to make it more convenient for the students and faculty to keep appointments, the staff photographer, Ward Wicart, and his assistant, Mr. Harmer, have been kind enough to establish a studio on the campus. Due to lack of space elsewhere, it was necessary to locate the studio in the room immediately off the Men's club room. Although appointments will be given the students and faculty, if there is any special time which a person desires, it can be arranged by seeing the photographer.

The staff wishes to express its thanks to Mr. Werner for his help in making electrical connections, to Mr. Griffin and William Poole for their respective donations of material and labor, and to the W.A.A. for the use of their conference room.

Fillmore Students Visit State Campus

Approximately 16 members of Chapter 138 of the California Scholarship Federation from Fillmore High school were shown about the campus by Dean William Ashworth, Tuesday afternoon. The students were in charge of Mrs. Charles Garrett, Spanish teacher in the southern school.

Each year the group observes "honor day" at which time it is permitted to visit a place of interest near its home town. Such places as the Santa Barbara Mission, court house, and museum, were toured during this year's "honor day."

The Longbow

By A. R. O.

All this controversy about the campus over women smoking is a bit absurd, to our way of thinking. Women have been smoking for years and years in Europe, from whence we are said to derive much of our culture, and it has been our opportunity to witness in full steam Danish women who have graduated to black cigars! We recall one August day when, having just come from visiting the tomb of Hamlet, we dropped in at a little street cafe for a spot of lunch. A mother and her young son had just finished their bit of victuals at the next table, and while the small boy trotted up and down the sidewalk digesting his rye bread and cheese, his mother lit up a stubby black stogey as nonchalantly as though it had been a Murad. We were fascinated, but we had come to look for the unexpected by this time, so that on this occasion we did not embarrass ourselves by finger-pointing accompanied by a customary "Looky."

QUERY: IS ALL THIS ADVERTISING A GAG, OR HAVE WE REALLY ALL GOT DIRTY MOUTHS?

Beware of our "girl-crazy" Roadrunner reporter who always wants to demonstrate the "freedom of the press."

We were reading the other day of a man in Massachusetts who can trace his lineage clear back to King Egbert, who ruled England from 800 to 838. Our Easterner is lucky he can trace his ancestors without fear. Personally, we have always felt a bit leery about looking up our own genealogy. Those old murders and horse thieves of history belong to somebody!

All through our schooldays we have heard persons argue against history as a useless study of a dead past. And all this time we have sought some suitable argument with which to combat the point, something more finished and polished than our bald statement to the effect that we model our actions on what has gone before. The other day we found what we wanted, and we would respectfully suggest that all history teachers memorize it, to wit:

The key to Yesterday
I threw away,
And now, too late,
Before tomorrow's close-locked gate
Helpless I stand—in vain to pray!
In vain to sorrow!
Only the key of Yesterday
Unlocks tomorrow!
Drs. Ellison, Ganzert, and Scanlan, are ye' listenin'?

Confessions of a misspent life—
Informed once by our school principal that one more trip to detention room meant expulsion from school. . . . Joined pals in surreptitiously plopping spitballs on the study hall ceiling, much to the annoyance of teacher. . . . Thwacked hard with a strap by a teacher for bright-cracking to pal and then stubbornly refusing to apologize. . . . Teacher fainted after giving us the thwacking, and we were ordered to get a glass of water. . . . Most fortunate coincidence in our young life was finding 90 cents in a lost purse while cycling with pals 12 miles to a fair after parental ancestors had rigidly admonished against going to the fair. . . . Once were slapped full in the face with a soggy football while playing goalie during a recess soccer game. . . . Saved miraculously by red-headed aunt from possible death while sleight-riding directly into path of speeding automobile. . . . Made pipes out of reeds and smoked tea leaves.

ELECT MEMBER FOR COMMITTEE

Connie Wise was elected to the nominating committee for election of officers for the coming semester at the A.W.S. meeting Tuesday morning in the auditorium. Lillian Tallbot was the other candidate. The Women's Glee club presented two of the selections given at the contest in Occidental, "Song and Soul."

Elizabeth Leonard played a piano selection entitled "Lotus Land" by Cyril Scott.

The junior sewing class gave a sport fashion show. Girls who modeled were Beth Briggs, Marie Montgomery, Kay Case, Marcellina Rabbuffi, Louise Hinkle, Louise Lewis, Myrtle Swanson, Alberta Greene, Margaret Rodriguez, Margaret Moriarty, and Mary Ida De Motte.

Miriam Firkins gave a report of the work of the committee that drew up a new constitution for the A.W.S. The committee, consisting of Betty Hopkins, president of the A.W.S., Margaret Keeley, Elizabeth Leonard and Miriam Firkins, met with Dean Lois M. Bennink four times during the last month. The old and new constitutions will be posted on the bulletin boards in the main building and in the quad and at the next meeting a vote for acceptance will be given.

PI OMICRON PHI BROADCASTS AT STATION KDB

Presenting a talk on the textile chemistry and the value of nutrition, the home economics fraternity, Phi Omicron Iota, sponsored another of its radio programs last Saturday morning over KDB. This is the third of group of programs to be given by the home economic fraternity.

Several letters from townspeople stating their appreciation of the production "Hay Fever" presented several weeks ago by the dramatics club, have been received by Marcus Gravens, student body president.

Letters were also received from the secretary of the chamber of commerce and Mayor Harvey T. Nielson.

Marcus Gravens stated, "The executive council of the Associated Students extend congratulations to the manager, adviser, and dramatics club for the splendid manner in which they produced 'Hay Fever'." Chic-Chat

By MARGE

Who said there weren't any Scotchmen around this college? (and the answer would be, "I don't know. Who did?") Nevertheless it's true—there are some real ones—and some that make a very good try at it. Both in clothes and in other ways. Since the clothes are all so pretty, and obviously the thing you're interested in (or you wouldn't be wasting your time reading this) they come into print.

It's very, very attractive—that outfit of Phyllis Badger's. The skirt is red crepe (silk) and the waist is a plaid in red, white, and a few lines of black. The neck is without a collar and done in a yoke. The waist is tight fitting and a belt is sewed right on to it. And to be serviceable the material is cotton. You know Phyllis is—rather tall, sweet, and shy.

Mary Smiley has a red and white plaid taffata dress. The collar is white and a big red bow tie. Really striking! Another who had a dress with a plaid is Myrna Sorenson (the little dark haired one who wears an engagement ring). Myrna's dress is of two materials. The waist part—which has a little rounded collar—is of plaid in red and white and naturally a little black. Then the rest of the dress is of black cotton crepe. The belt is black, too.

Blouses seem to have it when made of plaid material. Ruth Karges (Rezzy's girl) wore one the other day. Brown predominated and orange got in on the design, too. The sleeves were long and rather "leg of muttonish" She had a brown skirt for completion of the tog. Cute!

Winifred Creighton was another sporting a blouse. This time the wool gets in. The color is dark green, background, with lines of brown and red. Really one begins to wonder what could be more rich looking. Incidentally the blouse did a nice thing when it consented to go with either a brown or a dark green skirt. That's what more of us need—something that will go well with anything.

Effie Gill chooses a plaid in green. The material is light wool and there are long sleeves. The neck line is rounded minus a collar. There's brown wooden buttons, too. And the other color in the dress is a cream colored stripe.

Extreme individuality is seen in bags. For instance there are the big, roomy purses—so big in fact that when looking in on you have to search for "hours" to find what you wish. Then there are the little, little bags—so little that everything has to be taken out so the article at the bottom can be set free. Any kind, anywhere—demand is for no certain material or design. There are linen, cotton, leather, silk, and all sorts of other goods used. Plain, stripes, dots, plaids, and and, and, and—and no end to the designs.

Au revoir.

W.A.A. INITIATES TWENTY WOMEN

Informal initiation of new members of the W.A.A. was held at the Girl Scout house Thursday, March 15, in the form of a dinner.

Initiation stunts were in charge of Lorraine Koehly. The new members initiated were: Wynlys Anderson, Margaret Audereau, Catherine Boyton, Margaret Breast, Marion Call, Mildred Carter, Lucille Gaudin, Louise Lewis, Grace Roscoe, Clara Ross, Geraldine Slayton, La Rue Steelsmith, Dorothy Taylor, Lucia Walker, Dorothy Weber, Eleanor Rees, Jeanette Stanton, Mary Bigland, Frances Hemmingway, and Birdina Walters.

A short business meeting was held at which Marion Ek gave a report on the coming convention of athletic associations of the western section of the United States. All W.A.A. members are urged to sign on the bulletin board for events of the coming convention which they wish to attend. W.A.A. election of four major officers takes place today, Thursday, in the gym.

Sport Comment
By BEN PALMER

No doubt it has been noticed by many of the Roadrunner readers that we have been left out of the Southern California Conference up to this time as far as baseball is concerned. It seems that the money was set aside for this sport and that it was to be a league affair as far as State college was concerned; but somewhere in the red tape an error was made and the fact that we had the money lost. Thus when the schedules were made out for the Conference games, Santa Barbara lost out. Although no one is to blame for this it is really a tragedy that we cannot enter competition in the league as other colleges are doing.

It is still hoped that State college will schedule a few more games with Conference members and that we will get a position in the conference standings.

Many people seem to think that baseball is losing its popularity, however, if one keeps his ears open, he will find that interest is not lagging in the least. Baseball is America's national game and it will continue to be so for some years to come. For this one reason alone we should be in the conference, for do we not compete in every other major sport with leading southern colleges?

It might be of interest that track at State is in the same predicament that baseball is in.

Last semester the intra-mural sports provided amusement and athletic competition for the organizations on the campus. Probably never before had such interest been shown in this form of competition at Santa Barbara State college. It seems, however, that intra-mural sports have slid to the background this semester. It is hoped that intra-mural will rise from the slump it is now in for the remaining part of the semester.

Just a little hint. Now that a little dirt has been scraped from the college tennis courts in Mission Canyon why can't the E.E.P. class take a hose and wash the remaining dust from the courts. This would help the college a great deal and promote a little better understanding between students and the class.

How about painting that sign in the tennis courts over again? It can't be read.

Stealing a little of Cris Martin stuff. Someone asked someone what E.E.P. stands for. A bright athlete replied "Ete Epple Pie."

Women's Sporting Comment
PEGGY KOEPP

Most of the sporting talk around the gymnasium for the past two weeks has been volleyball. There are still three games to be played off before the championship is decided. Sophomores lead this far with two wins and one tie. The games scheduled last week were won as follows: Tuesday, March 13—sophomores won from juniors by a score of 44-18; Wednesday, March 14—juniors won from seniors, 35-22; Thursday, March 15, junior 1 lost to sophomores by a score of 35-34; Monday, March 19, the sophomores and fresh tied, 29-29.

Mary Bell and Jerry Walker went horseback riding Sunday. They complained of sore muscles—not enough though to prevent them from doing a combination Apache and Carioca dance last Monday night.

And horseback riding should remind you that rides are still going on every Wednesday night at the Vandevere Riding school. See Miss Van Fossen for further details. Louise Hinkle and Lucille Bolton are fond devotees of these night classes.

Speaking of dancing, I saw Inez Cash whistling and hopping around the other day while waiting her turn at playing shuffleboard.

Don't forget to vote for W.A.A. nominees today in Miss Van Fossen's office. Nominees are as follows: president, Ida Pagliotti, Lois Jo McPheeters; vice-president, Gerry Slayton, Frances Warring; secretary, Catherine Boyton, Shirley Warner; athletic manager, Evelyn Maitland, Loarraine Koehley.

Alumni Lose Game in Tau Omega Ball Play

Completely outclassing the alumni players the active members of Tau Omega social fraternity downed their superiors in their annual grudge basketball game which was played Monday night in the college gymnasium.

"Pinky" Greeson, captain of the alumni team, was high point man of the game, running up a score of 12 digits to his credit. He showed much of his old basketball class and skill despite the fact that he seldom plays. Howard Van Winkle second high point man, making 11 points. "Sleepy" Morris and "Swede" Tranberg also showed up well for the actives, ringing up six points each.

"Buppy" Moore and "Chuck" Leister were both taken out of the game in the fourth quarter because of each having four personal fouls. The final score was actives, 31; alumni, 22.

"Chet" Tubbs, former State basketball star, refereed the game.

Spikesters Win Over Santa Maria

ROADRUNNERS TAKE EASY VICTORY OVER JUNIOR COLLEGE SPIKESTERS

McCullough Threat for League Honors

By ALLAN OTTLEY

State's barefoot boys and lads of the lusty limb held a moderate workout on Phelps' field last Saturday afternoon, during which time they thumped a fighting band of Santa Maria Junior college trackmen by an 80½ to 36½ score. Coach Ray Denno, too, was without the services of many of his boys, including George Harper, Ben Palmer, Bill Pensinger, Ronald Mackie, Tom Mahoney, Bill Crow, Allan Garber and other stalwarts of the field and track.

The Roadrunners took firsts in 11 events and tied for first in another, losing only the high hurdles and the quarter mile. Mayville "Doc" Kelliher, the one man track team, will have something with which to inspire his sons if he ever wishes to recount his prowess in the meet with the jaysee boys. He captured first place in both dashes, the low hurdles, the broad jump, and tied for the top notch in the pole vault, amassing a total of 24 points.

"Tiny" Heaves a Honey
Another outstanding performance of the afternoon was the work of Willis "Tiny" McCullough in the shot put. This burly lad, who broke his own record last week with a toss of 41 feet 9½ inches, uncorked another mammoth heave that was good for 42 feet 11 inches, one of the best marks made by any Southern Conference puffer this season. Indications are that the potent Scotchman will be the big threat in his pet event in the all-conference trackfest soon.

On the whole, times and distances were not among the best, but this may be partly accounted for by the fact that in few instances were the Staters really pushed. On a good track and with some tougher opposition, it may be safely said that Denno's proteges will do much better.

Diamond Squad to Have Games This Week-end

In an attempt to whip the Roadrunner baseball team into shape before the arrival of the conference games, Coach Hal Davis has scheduled two games this week-end. Both games are to be out of town; at Ventura against the Ventura J.C. on Thursday and at Taft against the Taft J.C. on Saturday.

In the two games played this season the team has shown spirit and fire that is of championship calibre. The only fault or weak point is the lack of experience of various individuals on the team.

Captain "Clancy" Aspttle, who was injured two weeks ago, is expected to resume his position as catcher, if not for a whole game at least for a short period in both games. "Greek" Rezzonico, who did so well against Redlands last week will replace the "Clancy". Ernie Boucher and Mert Miller will complete the battery, with Boucher most probably starting the games and Mert playing first base. The remainder of the infield line up will consist of Ralph Stockle on second base, Fritz Mugenberg at short stop, and Joe Ball covering the third sack. Harry Killian and Jim Lebeck are sure to see some action in the infield, too.

The outfield aspirants, Lloyd Drennan, Charles Hoffar, "Buppy" Moore "Tex" Willard, Yale Lorden and Jim Lebeck will all play with the latter three probably starting the game.

Cinder Men to Meet Redlands Next Saturday

"The third time is the charm!" Can Coach Ray Denno's and Nick Carter's tracksters capture three meets in a row or will they crack when they tangle with Redlands on their home turf this Saturday in their first big conference meet of the season.

In their last two contests the hill-toppers have won most of their events without actually straining themselves and the running times have not exactly been up to par.

Dopesters in and around Los Angeles are of the opinion that the Redlands men will win with a walkaway in most of the races but they generally concede that Willis (Tiny) McCullough will win the shot put as he has been dishing it out to the tune of 42 feet 11 inches quite regularly.

Tryouts have been held during the past three days and the men tentatively selected to make the trip to Redlands are:

100-yard-dash, Kelliher, Craven and Cornwall.

220 yards, Craven and Ashe.

440 yards, Crow, Jackson and Craven.

Half mile, Bortolazzo and Westwick.

1 mile, Bortolazzo, Ashe, (a third man is yet in doubt).

Two miles, Jerntegarrd, Mackie.

High jump, Keith, Garber and Mahoney.

Broad jump, Keith, Garber and Kelliher.

Pole vault, Kelliher, and Lee.

Shot put, Willis and George McCullough and Roe.

Javelin throw, Harper and Lee.

Low hurdles, Kelliher and Keith.

Discus, Willis and George McCullough and Roe.

High hurdles, Crow and Keith.

STATE BASEBALL SQUAD LOSES TO BULLDOG TWIRLERS IN HARD GAME

Combination of Rezzonico and Boucher Hold Redlands in Check for Seven Innings

By FREDRIC HENDRIXSON

Completely outclassing the Roadrunners in the last three innings of the game, the Redlands' Bulldog nine swamped the local horseholders to the tune of 9 to 3 in the first Southern Conference game played on the Redlands diamond Saturday afternoon.

"Lack of batting experience was the chief cause of our team dropping the opening game of the conference season," reported Coach Hal Davis. "Yale Lorden and Mert Miller played outstanding games, and Miller showed up so well in his hitting that no doubt he will have his batting position changed during the current week," Davis said.

Rezzonico and Ball also played spectacular games. Ball was still suffering somewhat from a sore arm incurred the first part of last week. Rezzonico was playing in the catcher's position for the first time this year and for the first time was catching from Boucher, who held the mound position for the first seven innings. It was due largely to this inexperienced combination of Boucher and Rezzonico that allowed the Bulldogs to score six runs. Boucher only allowed one hit during the first five innings of the game.

"A little more concentrated practice between the Boucher-Rezzonico combination this week will put them into a position where they should work together satisfactorily the remainder of the season, or at least until Captain Aspttle is able to return to the catcher's position," said Davis. "I expect to start Boucher on the mound again in next Saturday's game," asserted Davis.

The Redlands baseball coach complimented Hal Davis highly upon his local outfit, stating that the local nine appeared to be much better than his team, but that they just needed more practice, especially on their hitting.

Sebastian Tortorola has reported for practice for the first time this year and may prove to be a valuable asset to the local nine. At the same time Killian is out for the present, suffering from a sore arm.

— what it means

— to keep on hand 350,000 bales of Turkish tobacco to add something to the taste

So important is Turkish tobacco in the Chesterfield blend that we maintain a modern up-to-date tobacco factory in the far-off city of Smyrna. Turkish tobacco adds something to the taste and aroma of a cigarette that no other tobacco can give. It means something that Chesterfield always has in storage upwards of 350,000 bales of this aromatic Turkish leaf. This Turkish tobacco is blended and cross-blended with ripe mild home-grown tobaccos to give Chesterfields a taste and aroma that is not like other cigarettes. Everything that money can buy is used to make Chesterfield the cigarette that's milder, the cigarette that tastes better.
