Students Hear Educator in Lecture Series

Students and townspeople will be provided with several opportunities next week to hear Dr. Hubert Phillips, professor of political science at Fresno State college, in a series of lectures on the Aims and Methods of Forum Leadership.

To be presented once daily, Dr. Phillips will speak at both morning and evening sessions and classes will be dismissed in order that students may attend at least one lecture.

Colleges Sponsor

The conference is sponsored by the seven state colleges of California with the cooperation of the division of adult and continuation education of the California state department of education.

It has been organized for forum leaders and directors, teachers, school administrators, civic club chairmen and members and discussion group leaders.

Lectures will be presented Monday, third hour; Tuesday, fourth hour; Wednesday and Thursday at 8 p.m. and Friday during second hour. Each lecture will be held in the Santa Barbara State college auditorium.

Student Admission

Students will be admitted upon presentation of student body cards, while townspeople will be charged a slight admission.

Dr. Phillips includes among his achievements forum leader for the United States office of education forums in Morgantown, West Virginia; Des Moines, Iowa; Seattle, Washington and Portland, Oregon.

He is the author of several articles on education and the migrant problem which have been published in such magazines as World Affairs Interpreter, Survey Graphic, Journal of Adult Education and The Nation.

Business Women Welcome Visitors

In accordance with a long-established custom, out-of-town members of the Business and Professional Women's club are invited to attend the monthly dinner of the Santa Barbara Business and Professional Women's club Monday evening, July 15, at El Paseo at 6:30. Mrs. Jane Miller Abraham is taking reservations for the dinner.

Faculty members of the organization are Mrs. Abraham, Misses Katharine F. Ball, Ora Willits, Bonnie Jack, Hazel Severy, Bernice Toucey, and Della Haverland, Coast District president.

Summer Social Heads Conclude Picnic Plans, Outline New Ideas

Group Plans Varied Activities For Fun Calendar

Members of the social committee held a luncheon meeting in the faculty dining room Monday for the purpose of outlining activities for the remainder of the session and completing plans for the all-college picnic to be held Friday evening at Tucker's Grove.

Most prominent interest was centered on discussion of the Campus Jamboree and the semi-formal, scheduled for July 19 and 26, respectively.

Introduced during last Summer Session, the Jamboree provides an opportunity for students to engage in an evening of "family style" entertainment.

Program of last year's successful event included motion pictures, community singing, volleyball, shuffleboard, dancing and refreshments, most of them indulged in either on the lawn in front of the gymnasium or in the music hall.

Arrangements were completed for Friday's first all-college social event and reports given by sub-committees.

Sub-committees working on the affair include Sue Baat and Marjorie Williams, food; Dick Jackson and Lester Clemons, prizes and Bob Payne and Willard May, transportation and wood.

The entire affair is under the direction of Petie McKinney, social committee chairman; Tommy Hart, student body vice-president, and Dean of Women Lois M. Bennink, faculty advisor of the social committee.

Admission to affairs staged under the sponsorship of the Summer Session student body is free to holders of student body cards and their families.

Gnome Club Lunches at Beach

The Gnome club, one of the social clubs on the campus, held an impromptu luncheon meeting at East beach last Thursday, July 4th. Members attending were Ruth Matthews, Alpha Duncan, Betty Lee Boykin, Virginia Taggart, Sue Baat, and Barbara Cockrum and Charlotte Holdsworth, guests.

The club plans to have a club Chico party in the near future with other activities scheduled for the Summer Session.

PETIE McKINNEY, chairman of the social committee, announces the conclusion of plans for the first 1940 Summer Session social event, to be held in the form of a picnic-dance Friday evening at Tucker's Grove.

Dean Presents Modern Play

Dean William A. Ashworth will present the first in a series of four afternoon recitals scheduled for the summer session by the English department tomorrow afternoon at 3:45 in Room 80, Pine Hall. Clarence Day's "Life With Father" will be the first reading.

The play was adapted for the stage by Howard Lindsay and Russell Crouse from the popular biography written by Mr. Day. Starring Lindsay in the role of "father," the comedy was an outstanding success on the New York stage last season.

Refreshments will be served by the social committee after the performance, and all summer sessioners are urged to attend. No admission will be charged.

Mr. Frederic W. Hile will appear in the second of the series on Thursday, July 18, and will give a reading of modern poetry.

Sponsors Schedule Complete Program Of Games, Dancing

Students, families and faculty members will trod the trail to Tucker's Grove Friday evening as the first official 1940 Summer Session social event, a picnic, is staged from 4 to 10 p.m.

Both Mrs. Jane Miller Abraham, registrar, and Dean of Women Lois M. Bennink have stressed the fact that families of students enrolled in the current session are welcome at this and any other all-college social affair.

Transportation?

Transportation will be provided for those persons who have no way of arriving at the picnic site. These students are asked to sign the list on the administration building bulletin board, leaving also their phone numbers, so that they may be reached after class hours.

Anyone owning or having available an automobile and willing to serve as "good samaritan" in respect to transportation, may sign up on a list adjacent to the above mentioned, stating, in addition to his name, his telephone number and the number of passengers he can accommodate.

Complete Program

A complete program, lasting the entire six hours that the affair is scheduled to run, has been arranged by the social committee, under the direction of Petie McKinney, chairman.

Games and entertainment will be held from 4 until 6 p.m. Following the games, the next hour and a half will be devoted to eating, with dessert and coffee or milk provided by the social committee.

Dancing will be held from 7:30 until 10 p.m., with music provided by the El Paseo orchestra.

Following that, according to Tommy Hart, vice-president of the student body, "students are on their own".

Early Childhood Fraternity Initiates

Pat Rich and Myrtle Vaughn will be initiated into Delta Phi Upsilon, national honorary fraternity for early childhood education, this afternoon at a ceremony to be held at the home of Miss Edith Leonard in Montecito.

Visiting members on campus are invited to attend, according to Alice Meyers, president of the local chapter. A picnic will be held following the initiation.

P . E . E . P . S

Wednesday, July 3

Up betimes, though no pleasure in it, for I labored late last night at the newspaper office. And so to school and I found my classes interesting enough, albeit it is too soon to arrive at the meat of the courses. This afternoon to tryouts of a play and after the reading I was informed by F. Hile, the director, that I am to play a part.

But I hope that the director does not do his casting by the method known as type-casting, for the part I am to play is that of a foolish man and I hope I am not so regarded among my associates. And so home and to dinner and to the public library and home again and so to bed.

Thursday, July 4

Lay long and after I was awake I was puzzled at an absence of something I had expected to see or hear upon awakening. And then I remembered that this was Independence Day and what I had expected to hear was the sound of fireworks. But I was not disappointed not to hear that sound, for I know it is a source of much discomfort to dumb animals and a source of danger to the urchins who fire the explosives.

And so fell to wondering whether the police had become so efficient that the urchins had lost interest in the sport. And neither of those explanations seemed to me to be the right one, for the nimble boy who is unable to outwit and outrun any uniformed officer of the law is rare, and yet I cannot see how the making of ear-shattering noise can have lost its savour in the few short years since my own boyhood.

And so to the beach, where I unwisely exposed my pale limbs to the rays of the sun for too long a period and so was burned for my rashness. Thence home and then to an eating house where I did toil for my supper and for some slight salary too. And so, tired, home and to bed.

Friday, July 5

Up betimes and into my oldest trousers and thence to the garage that houses my petrol wagon. And I spent most of the day in making it run and in the end I was successful, though after the expenditure of some money to buy a battery. In the evening to the cinema with P. McKinney, the student executive, and we both laughed without stint at the antics of B. Hope, the comedian, I deeming his performance the best of its kind I had seen in many a month.

And on the way home, I not having fixed my petrol wagon completely, I sustained an injury to my hand in cranking the vehicle. Which injury, though not of a serious nature, is very painful and a great hindrance to my operation of the typewriting machine.

Saturday, July 6

Lay long, for I had no reason to do otherwise, and so up and to a clothing store, where I purchased a pair of trousers and a shirt, which are of good cut and a pleasing color combination. And so here and there to display my new clothes, but I accomplished nothing constructive this day. To bed fairly early.

Sunday, July 7

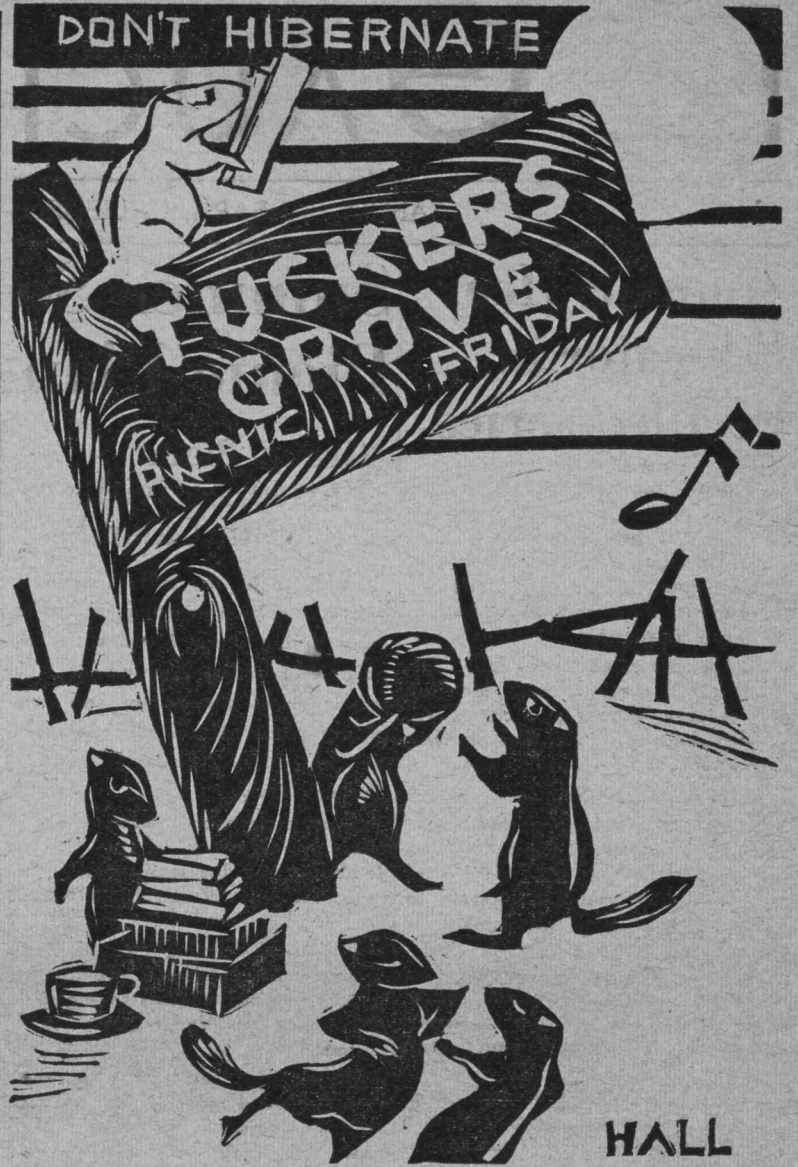

Up by ten and to my studies, which were not arduous. And so in the afternoon and evening to the badminton tournament and I think that is a sport requiring much concentration and quickness of the eye and hand. And I was glad of the success of my brother, who brought home two new cups to ornament his trophy case. And so to bed.

Monday, July 8

Betimes up and was annoyed to find that during the night my petrol wagon had developed a flatness in one of the front tires, so I was afraid I would have to walk and so be late to my class. But a fellow student stopped for me and so I was on time. This afternoon to a rehearsal of the play "The Rivals", which is so diverting that even the players laugh at it. And I thought that a play which is able to evoke laughter almost two centuries after it was first written must be a great comedy indeed. And so home and after dinner I read in "Art Young, His Life and Times," an autobiography of a great cartoonist and caricaturist and I was delighted with the honest and whimsical picture he drew of himself and the persons he knew and the world in which he lived.

Tuesday, July 9

Up betimes and to the college, though my petrol wagon has not improved noticeably in the matter of its airless tyre, so I found it necessary to start my journey on foot. But I did not walk long, for I was given a ride. And I think the generosity of students on this campus who have cars is a commendable thing. To the student assembly late in the morning and was pleased with many things: the friendliness and assuredness of R. Stone, the president, the skill and aplomb of the minute gymnasts who cavorted under the fatherly gaze of T. Hart, the athletic director, and the modesty and ability of R. Cash, the youthful pianist, who acts not at all like a prodigy. But I was not pleased with those persons who found it necessary to leave during the playing of the latter's encore, I deeming it gross ill manners for them to act so. Then to the newspaper office to write this, my stint, and so to lunch. t.d.

Continuation Instructors Hold Extra Session

Students are reminded that classes will continue in session through Saturday of this week, as a result of the extra two day holiday with which Independence Day was observed last week.

The extra day this week offers students an opportunity to make-up a part of the studies they missed because of the vacation, according to Clarence L. Phelps, president.

K. P. Members Picnic at Beach

Members of the kindergarten-primary department held a picnic yesterday afternoon at 5:30 p.m. at West Beach, with Pat Rich and Mar-na Warren in charge.

Games and songs were enjoyed by the guests. A social event will be held during each week of summer session by the organization, and a committee appointed to take care of arrangements each time.

Summer Maze

By WILLARD MAY

IMPRESSIONS

**The seeming lack of enthusiasm with which Friday night's picnic idea is being received by students on the campus.

Classes have been held at rather infrequent intervals since the session opened, what with a vacation right after registration and the intricacies and confusion of registering keeping people too flustered to pay much attention to becoming acquainted.

And now, the powers that be have begun their "blitzkrieg" social program with the vitality and enthusiasm so characteristic of State College committees. Of course, you can always depend upon the perpetrators of any idea to be enthusiastic about it, but what of those for whom it is planned?

Blanks have been placed on the campus for those with or without transportation to sign and for those planning to attend to sign; and, with very few exceptions, they have been completely ignored by the student body.

We hope the first has been proven useless because everyone is taking care of the transportation problem individually. Which is quite possible. (Although far from probable.) But as for the second list—we can see nothing as a substitute for it.

If this, the first all-college social event, is to set any example for a successful Summer Session, what say about 765 students begin to take heed of the events planned and the dates of their occurrence?

**The student body officers chosen for this Summer Session and the ways in which they command the respect of the student body.

At yesterday's assembly, with the first ten or twelve rows almost completely empty, President Roy Stone asked that those sitting in the back rows move to the front.

Where was the hesitation that usually accompanies such a request? From where we sat (in the thirteenth row), it looked as though there was none. But where were the people who usually wait for someone else to make the first move? They were on their feet almost running to be the first to fill the vacant seats.

That's the kind of respect a student body should have for its student executives. Congratulations.

And the vice-president—Tommy Hart. Perfectly at ease, although he couldn't have been blamed for a bit of nervousness over the fact that his tumblers were about to put on a show. Announcing the forthcoming picnic in a manner which assured everyone of a "swell time."

We couldn't leave a discussion of Tommy without mention of his tumblers from the Westside Boys' club. We've seen them many times and each time enjoyed their exhibition more. Especially the littlest fellow, "Tiger", who's in there with all the spirit in the world.

The entire group is great and to

Young Stars Perform on Assembly Bill

With the accent on youth, Gauchito Summer Session students were entertained by a gymnastic troupe and a piano soloist yesterday fourth hour in the regular assembly period in the auditorium. Diminutive tumblers from the West Side Boys' club and 14 year old Richard Cash, pianist, were headliners on the program.

Following announcements from the floor, Summer Session student body president Roy Stone introduced Tommy Hart, vice-president and Director of the Boys' club, who in turn presented his youthful athletes.

Difficult Stunts

Ranging in age from 5 to 15, the boys staged a swiftly-moving routine of tumbling, executed with military snap and precision. Their stunts included front and back rolls, cartwheels, flips, dives and a pyramid.

Performers who elicited particular applause for their ability were "Tiger" Guitierrez, smallest and youngest member of the troupe, and Art Goodrow, one of the oldest members, who performed with apparent ease the difficult standing flip.

Group tumbling which amused the audience included a pyramid which started like a football shift and ended with total collapse and a "fish roll," in which three of the smaller boys rolled and leaped over one-another like goldfish out of water.

Young Pianist

The piano soloist, Richard Cash of Minneapolis, Minnesota, was announced by President Stone and played two numbers and an encore before the beginning of fifth hour brought the assembly to a close. Young Cash, who is slight and fair, displayed in an unassuming manner his mastery of his instrument. His selections were Polish Dance by Scharwenka, Valse Caprice by Newland and La Fileuse by Raff.

Mrs. Louella Wharton, of the college library staff, was instrumental in bringing Cash to play here.

Tommy goes the credit for coaching them in the arts of tumbling and good citizenship.

The third member of the cabinet is Miss Petie McKinney, who is serving as secretary-treasurer of the student body, chairman of the social committee and in several other capacities, each of them requiring a great deal of time and honest-to-goodness work.

Petie left Santa Barbara State College in 1938 with a degree and, not satisfied, enrolled at the University of California at Berkeley. Another year and another degree, plus a teaching credential.

And she is still about this business

PAT SAYERS, featured vocalist with Lyle Smith and his Sir Francis Drake hotel orchestra, will make her second Santa Barbara appearance this Saturday night at the Armory.

Armory Begins Student Rates

Lyle Smith and his Sir Francis Drake Hotel orchestra will play a return engagement this Saturday night, July 13, at the Santa Barbara Armory. College students will be given a ten per cent reduction on tickets to the dance upon presentation of their student body membership cards at the box office.

Because of the great number of requests and due to the fact that Smith and company are at present working on some movie shorts, at the MGM studios in Los Angeles, it was possible to arrange another performance for next Saturday night.

Tentative plans to bring to Santa Barbara another prominent dance band have been delayed until the following week.

Dancing at the Santa Barbara Armory will continue throughout the summer session and a number of leading dance orchestras and entertainers will be featured.

FRIENDS FETE COED

Petie McKinney was the recipient of a surprise birthday party last night when a number of friends entertained the popular coed at the home of Willard May and Bob Payne, 315 W. Valerio.

of securing an education. At the same time, Petie is probably the most active woman (or man) on the campus.

We give you Miss Petie McKinney as the outstanding student in the 1940 Santa Barbara State college summer session.

**One last observation.

How do you distinguish between students and faculty members at this Summer Session? Sometimes it's easy, but several of the persons enrolled in our classes make it kind of difficult. And the instructors, with their strangely unworried and gay attitudes, make it tougher.

Drama Group Gets Official Charter Notice

Official word has been received by the local affiliate of Theta Alpha Phi, national honorary dramatics fraternity, that the Santa Barbara State college group has been recognized as the California delta chapter and granted a charter.

The charter was received from State college, Pennsylvania, national headquarters of the dramatic organization.

Members of the executive board of the local chapter have been working on plans and arrangements of local chapter requirements for initiation.

Officers of the organization include Jack Thompson, president; Ted Hanley, vice-president; Georgia Mae Krebs, secretary; Doug Mattson, treasurer and Marjorie Low, historian.

Members who will have their names listed as charter members are, in addition to the officers, Janine Rupertus, Winifred Nichols, Katherine Davis, Clyde Cadwell, Tom Kelley, Herbert Loewenstein, Carl Jorgenson, Tilman Chamlee, Ned Munsey, Charloma Axford.

Clifford Hale, Helen Karas, Frank Douglas, Lucille Chester, W. Charles Redding, Frederic W. Hile and William A. Ashworth.

Faculty advisor for the organization is Hile, who is head of the Division of Speech and Dramatics.

Alpha Theta Chi Plans Swimming

Alpha Theta Chi, State college social sorority, held a summer meeting at the home of Anna Lou Jacobs Monday night. Following the business session, the members spent the evening bowling.

It was decided to hold a swimming party at Hotel Samarkand next Monday, with Petie McKinney in charge.

Those present were Mary Jane McCaughey, Barbara Leach, Mary Ellen Putman, Marie Navarro, Vivian Girvetz, Marge Tompkins, Tada Sheridan, Pauline Hayes, Dorothyann Myers, Virginia Alderson, Marna Warren, Bernice Shedd, Bobbie Philip, Marietta Grace, Patsy Bass, Betty Howell, Petie McKinney, and Elizabeth and Anna Lou Jacobs.

Cafeteria Head Announces Baby

Mrs. Marvin Sands, head of the college cafeteria, has returned to the college following the birth of a daughter, Sandra Rae on June 10. The baby girl weighed six pounds, six ounces.

Mrs. Sands is the wife of Marvin Sands, regular student at Santa Barbara State college at present employed by the Kern County Forestry department.

Recreation Program Officials Announce Varied Activities

Summer session recreation program gets under way full swing this week as the softball league begins play today at 4 p.m. on the field behind Ridge hall.

Five teams have been organized on the campus and will complete one full round-robin schedule and two if possible. It is stressed by those in charge that the competition is for participation of all who care to play and not to declare winners or champions.

"Summer school is to be fun for all and all for fun," stated director Spud Harder. Any one who has ever thrown a softball is urged to enter into the spirit of play and sign up with one of the five teams by getting in touch with Mr. Harder or one of the captains.

Team Captains

Teams and captains are:

Faculty, Spud Harder; Big Leaguers, Dave Morgan; Squabblers, Roy Stone; Free Lancers, Smoky Clemons; and Elem. and Jr. Hi., Jack Fitzgerald.

This evening the opening game will feature the aging faculty ex-greats and the up and coming Big Leaguers under the managerial eye of All-2C2A Dave Morgan. The faculty men claim that the Leaguers are only bush leaguers when they cross bats today at 4 p.m.

Tournament Interest

Badminton and table tennis facilities are being enjoyed by many already on the greensward of the campus lawn during leisure moments. If enough are interested in forming a badminton or table tennis tourney such will be forthcoming immediately. There is a place to sign up on the administration building bulletin board.

It is urged by those in charge that students remember that the recreation facilities are for the entire student body. The gym is open for use at all times that a class is not being held. Students may secure a basketball or hand ball or any piece of equipment desired by contacting any of the directors in the office above the gym.

Bulletins will be posted on both boards regularly, so that students may visit them daily and find out what is going on in the recreation schedule.

Bridge Enthusiasts Schedule Meetings

With organization accomplished under the chairmanship of Ruth Matthews, the summer Bridge club will meet hereafter every Monday evening at 7:30 in the A.W.S. Club room. In addition to the bridge games, there will be chess matches at the Monday meetings.

Following the contract and chess sessions, light refreshments will be served to the members. Assisting Miss Matthews in preparing the refreshments for next Monday will be Alpha Duncan and Sue Baat.

COACH THEO "SPUD" HARDER will conduct the Summer Session recreation program which will be officially opened this afternoon with a softball game between the Faculty and the Big Leaguers on the field below Ridge hall.

Christy Lists Concert Rate

Still another event for which summer student body cards will procure substantial discounts for students was announced yesterday in assembly by Van A. Christy, acting head of the Music Department. This is the Tri-County Music Festival in the county bowl. Concerts planned for this summer include the San Francisco Opera Ballet and Symphony on July 20, John Charles Thomas, premier American baritone, on August 10 and Helen Jepson, soprano of the Metropolitan Opera Company, on August 31. On the same concert with Miss Jepson will appear Vronson and Babin, popular two-piano duo. Student admissions to these concerts, which may be obtained through Dean Bennink's office, will be 25 cents.

Adult relatives of students may procure dollar seats for 75 cents and children of students will be admitted for 25 cents. Once the reduction cards are obtained from the Dean's office, they should be taken to the Festival office in Lobero Theater, so that the best seats may be obtained.

The summer concerts in the county bowl are presented annually with the finest artists available appearing each year, according to Christy. State College students are fortunate to have the opportunity of hearing these programs at such extraordinarily low prices.

HANS MAYER will portray the romantic male lead of Captain Jack Absolute in the forthcoming campus dramatic production, "The Rivals", to be presented in the Quad August 1, 2, and 3.

'Reminders' Heads Submit Announcements

The second week of Summer Session provides cause for the following reminders released from the office of the Registrar for the enlightenment of students still confused:

"Auditors taking laboratory classes are charged laboratory fees but will receive no credit for the courses:

Changes in program can be made only by petition, which may be secured in the office of the Recorder;

Students who did not fill in their local address and telephone number on their pre-registration cards must do so at once in the same office;

Only six units will be allowed during Summer Session without petitioning, unless the seventh unit is Physical Education 160."

Summer Students View Photographs

Santa Barbara State college students, this week, are viewing a series of artistic photographs of Indians and Indian life, exhibited in the cases in the Quad.

These photographs are the originals of the illustrations which appear in the remarkable book, "As Long as the Grass Grows", written by Dr. Oliver La Farge, anthropologist, of Columbia university, and National President of the Association of Indian Affairs, Incorporated.

These pictures will be exhibited here for a few days only, after which they will be sent to San Francisco for exhibition at the World's Fair.

Miss Lockhard, Hanley Head 'Rivals' Cast

The flighty, word-slaughtering Mrs. Malaprop and the timid, rabbit-hearted Bob Acres, characters who have brought laughter to English and American audiences for 185 years, are to be recreated in the Division of Speech, production of Richard Bainsley Sheridan's "The Rivals."

The play will be presented in the College quad, August 1, 2 and 3, in the persons of Audrey Lockhard and Ted Hanley.

Miss Lockhard Veteran

Miss Lockhard will be remembered for her sparkling performance in the role of Audrey in last summer's college production of Shakespeare's "As You Like It" and for her direction last semester of the workshop presentation of "Cyrano de Bergerac". Hanley, too, is no stranger to Gauchito audiences; he appeared in leading character parts in "Both Your Houses" and "Romeo and Juliet" last year, as well as previous appearances in "The Royal Family" and "Outward Bound."

The romantic leads in the comedy, said Director Frederic W. Hile today in making public the casting of "The Rivals," will be Marion Hammond in the role of Lydia Languish, a highly sentimental young lady, and Hans Mayer as Captain Absolute, a stalwart, dashing officer.

First Local Spot

This is Miss Hammond's first appearance in the college theatre, but Mayer is a familiar figure to Gauchito audiences who will remember his performance last summer as Orlando, the romantic lead in "As You Like It."

Famous for its characters and dialogue, "The Rivals" abounds in splendid comedy and romantic roles, according to Hile. Among the former are Sir Lucius O'Trigger, an inflammatory Irishman, Sir Anthony Absolute, the choleric father of Captain Absolute and the servants Lucy, Fag, and David. O'Trigger will be played by Carl Jorgenson, whose previous college roles include "Romeo in 'Romeo and Juliet'", Cassius in "Julius Caesar", Craig in "Craig's Wife", MacDuff in "Macbeth" and several others. Sir Anthony will be played by Tom "Tex" Magness, whose first campus appearance was as the fiery Tybalt in "Romeo and Juliet."

Other Positions

Georgia Mae Krebs, Calpurnia in "Julius Caesar" and Bus in "Both Your Houses" will appear as Lucy. Fag will be played by Herbert Loewenstein, Merton in "Both Your Houses", and the sinister butler of "Three Flashes and Two". David will be played by David M. MacCoy, another newcomer to the college theatre.
