Delta Zeta Delta Donates Memorial Service Flag

Services for the dedication of a memorial flag honoring the glorious deaths of ten ex-Gauchos will be held in the Quad this Monday during the third period, as members of Delta Zeta Delta, social sorority, officially present their flag gift to the Associated Student body.

One year ago almost to the hour of the scheduled program, this country was attacked by the Japanese. Since that time ten former Santa Barbara State students have been officially reported killed in both training and combat duty. It is the idea of the the flag for each of these men sorority to insert a gold star in and in this way commemorate the life sacrifices of former men of the campus.

The ten gold stars appearing on the flag to be presented Monday will be in recognition of former Gauchos, Major David Maynard; Vernon Duncan, air-corps; Lt. Jack Peres; Lt. Robert Purvis; Ensign Phillip Bates; Donald Ripsch, air corps; Frank Rafferty, air corps; William Walker, air corps; Lt. Sidney Getzowitz, air corps; and Lt. John McLean, Marines.

Donation of the service flag by Delta Zeta Delta sorority was made possible by the proceeds of a Spanish supper and through work at the Service Men's shoe shine stand at the bus depot in Santa Barbara.

Included in the morning's program will be several choral numbers by the A Cappella choir, assisted by the Brass Choir; a commemorative talk by President Clarence L. Phelps; and a reading by Edie Van Meter.

All classes will be dismissed by order of President Phelps.

Students Plan
 Yule Formal

Closing the year's social season for the Associated Student body, the annual Christmas formal will be held at Rockwood, Saturday, December 12.

Bob Foxen's orchestra will be featured, and dancing will continue from 9 to 12 p.m., according to Willa Fairfield, social chairman.

Yuletide atmosphere will be enhanced by a number of Christmas trees, and multi-colored streamers. Miniature Santa Clauses will be used for further decorations on the dance programs.

Committees for the dance are Edie Van Meter, refreshments; Evelyn McDonald and Phyllis Atwood, decorations; Alan MacDonald, doorman; Betty Marxen, hosts and hostesses.

A ten cent tax per couple will be required for all student body members, while members bringing outside guests must pay one dollar per couple.

Departments Slate
 Christmas Party

Dancing, refreshments, and contest games will highlight the elementary and industrial education departments party tonight from 7:30 to 11:00 in the college cafeteria, according to Dutch Maaskant, I.E. president.

Bob Hart, elementary department president, urged all eligible members to attend. The party is under the direction of Ralph Johnston, Betty Riley and Maaskant.

"Pirates of Penzance" Opens Two-Night Run

Various Groups Cooperate
 In Operetta Presentation

As the third presentation of the current Associated Students Artist series, the combined music, dramatics and dance departments will present the famous Gilbert and Sullivan light opera "Pirates of Penzance" in the college auditorium next Thursday and Friday evenings at 8.

Culminating approximately 195 rehearsal hours, under the general direction of Dr. Van A. Christy. This most robust and rollicking of the Savoy operettas is being given in its original form, without any cuts or simplifications.

The story is one of Gilbert's most ridiculous, bringing around the apprenticing by mistake of Frederick, the hero, by his nursemaid to a pirate instead of a pilot. The text is increased when the daughters of the Major-General encounter a bold band of pirates who attempt to force them into marriage.

The production staff includes Russell Haney, dramatic direction with Fredric W. Hile acting as dramatic supervisor and Dr. Albert O. Mitchell and Walter Cheever as technical supervisors. Maurice Faulkner is in charge of the orchestra; Margaret De Haan, dance; and Lloyd Browning, pianist. Student assistants include Jean Collins, stage manager, Bill Lantz, lighting, Van vander Bie, props, and Haney, setting design.

Cast includes Rodney Colvin as Samuel; Thornton Marker as the Pirate King; Nino Baudino as Fredric; Tom Cowan and Armand Jackson as the Major-General; Mary Lynn Drake and Marie Whaley as Ruth; Roberta Lamon and Mary Selover as Kate; Louise Brownlee and Mary Ellen Hall as Edith; Margaret Steen as Isobel; Dorothy Bushnell and Anne Rudderow as Mabel; and Bill Lantz and Paul Kliss as sergeant of police. Over 165 students are involved in the chorus, orchestra, dancing, and costuming.

Admission is 55 cents including tax. Students will be admitted free on presentation of student cards. The entire proceeds will go into war bonds for our scholarship fund for students returning from service.

Brass Choir
 Finishes Tour

Closing their annual tour, members of the State College Brass Choir return to the campus today, having completed concerts in numerous high schools throughout the southland under the direction of Maurice Faulkner.

Included in its itinerary were Eagle Rock High school, where the group made its initial appearance, Franklin, Santa Monica, and North Hollywood High schools. Selections which the choir use range from the Bach Fugue to the Basin Street interpretation of "Mood Indigo."

Members participating in the tour included Manager Sid La Granduer, Vernon Leidig, Marilyn Appel, Margaret Steen, Dorothy Keniston, Nino Baudino, Bill Marvel, Rathburn Shelton, John Parks, Ray Wessinger, Red Davis, Ed Hambly, Roy Smallwood and Robert Runge.

Staters Attend
 Illustrated Talk
 On Health

Terry H. Dearborn, chairman of the faculty health committee, has announced a general assembly will be held next Tuesday during fourth hour in the college auditorium, on education against tuberculosis.

Dr. E. J. Winter, physician in charge of the Santa Barbara Tuberculosis Diagnostic clinic, will speak on "What College Students Should Know," in prevention of the dreaded disease. Dr. Winter will be introduced by the college physician, Dr. A. B. Steele. "They Do Come Back," a new sound film, is also scheduled to be shown in conjunction with the talk.

Thursday, members of the hygiene, science and physical education departments are having a special speaker, Dr. Clarence Weaver, of the Santa Barbara Health department, and formerly science editor of the Columbia Broadcasting system.

He will talk on the development and structure of the teeth. The meeting will be held in room 81 during first hour. All students interested are invited to attend.

Members of the faculty health committee, composed of instructors from the physical education and science departments are scheduling additional assemblies for later in the year.

Honor Society
 Inducts Four

Xi chapter of Delta Chi Delta, national honorary art fraternity, will hold its fall initiation ceremonies tomorrow afternoon in the A.W.S. clubroom followed by a luncheon at the El Encanto hotel.

Guest speaker for the affair will be Marques E. Reitzel, national director of the fraternity, from San Jose State college.

New initiates include Doris Cruz, Eleanor Morrissey, Patti Orill and Jean Scott.

AS Councilmen
 Take Action On Varied Report

Quick and to the point was last night's executive session, as student councilmen under the direction of President John Falxa took action upon diverse committee reports and ordered the suspension of the El Gaucho editor from his council seat for failure to take his examination on the college constitution.

Opening the order of business, President Falxa was given approval by the councilmen for the action of the executive cabinet in suspending the newspaper editor from a vote in the council meetings until he has completed the required test.

As part of the councilmatic procedure of approving the various student board reports, the council accepted the action of the Activities Control Board in appointing Bob Stetler to replace Vince Jacobsmeyer as A. M. S. representative to the board; and demanding that all off-campus organizations gain approval of the student board before selling tickets to there affairs on campus.

Approval was also given to the reading of the minutes of the Speech Control Board by representative Shirley Tyson in which the stage and movie success play "Whistling in the Dark" was named as the next student production.

Upperclassmen Attend Swirl

Completing plans for their forthcoming Senior Swirl, members of the senior class cabinet met Tuesday evening at the home of Harrington Wells, newly appointed acting sponsor for the class.

Dorothy De Jarnett, social chairman, will be in charge of the Christmas affair, which will be held at the Junipero Serra hall, Wednesday evening, December 16, from 8 to 11. Included in the evening's entertainment will be dancing, games and refreshments. Plans also include the appearance of Santa Claus to distribute novelty gifts during the evening.

Greek Group Initiates Gas Rationing Dances

Keeping in tune with the era of rationing, members of Tau Omega social fraternity will show the Associated Student body that there is no scarcity of fun as they sponsor their all-college "A' Card Hop" tomorrow night at the Junipero Serra hall from 9 to 12.

Built around the ration theme with appropriate decorations and entertainment provided under the supervision of the fraternity, the dance will be a sport dance with the latest recordings providing music for the affair.

In keeping with the gas-rationing spirit, the dance committeemen have asked the students planning to attend the dance to consider this as a "Walk-A-Date" program.

Tom Loeffler, president of the fraternity, declared that this is the first of a series of gas-rationing dances being planned under the sponsorship of the various campus fraternities and sororities and will continue as planned providing enough students attend tomorrow night.

Tickets for the evening's entertainment are on sale on campus today by members of the fraternity and in the graduate manager's office for 25 cents a couple. Guest cards are available for those students wishing to escort outsiders in the dean of women's office for a 50 cent fee.

Patrons and patronesses for the dance will be Mr. and Mrs. Louie Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Nair, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Woodhouse.

Committeemen working the arrangements are Stan Hill, doorman; Wilf Seaman and Dick Dibblee, music; Bob Goulet, refreshments; Roland Groom, tickets; Sal Jiminez and Harry Berlin, decorations; Charles Bloch, publicity; and Loeffler, clean-up.

YWCA Holds
 Penny Carnival

"There'll be a hot time in the old town tonight," according to Y President, Pat Dougherty, as the college Y.W.C.A. Penny carnival opens at the Flying A armory on the corner of State street and Mission. Music and dancing, penny concessions, hot dogs and punch will be featured. Festivities will begin at 6 p.m. and last until midnight.

Admission will be by tickets, which may be purchased at the door or from any member at one cent for each series of shots or attempts.

Music for dancing will be furnished by the Y.W.C.A. victory orchestra, which consists of the latest dance recordings by popular band leaders.

Money raised by the carnival will be put into the world student fund, which aids students both in this country and abroad. Some of the proceeds will be used to send college women to the Asilomar, student christian association, conference to be held at Santa Cruz from December 26 to January 2.

Phrateres Schedule
 Christmas Fun Fest

All members of sub-chapters, and free lance members are cordially invited to attend the annual Phrateres Christmas party held in the college cafeteria next Tuesday evening from 7 until 9.

Each girl is asked to bring a gift, which will be placed in the grab bag. Christmas games will be played.

At a meeting of Nani Leilani, held on November 23, Barbara Wilson passed the traditional box of chocolates announcing her engagement to Leigh Robertson.

Much Ado . . .

By GEORGE BLUMENSON

In normal times transportation was quite a problem here on the west coast. Those of us who did not have cars found that travel time during the day was just about twice what it was for similar distances in the east, and that at night transportation was impossible. In fact, many cities—Santa Barbara included, have no transportation facilities after midnight. True, there are taxis, but these are few in number and they were carrying capacity loads even prior to gas rationing.

There is a definite problem to be faced now in Santa Barbara. The busses here are, for the most part, old and quite small. They do not run after midnight on any of their routes, and when they do run during the day their schedules are so spaced that much time is lost making connection with other busses, and much time is wasted waiting for busses such as the East-West which runs every half hour, and then are jam-packed full.

It seems to me that the patriotic thing to do would be to run at least one bus an hour on every route after midnight. There are many people today who are working swing shifts here in town who will be unable to use their cars and who cannot afford taxi fares every night. If there is trouble obtaining drivers, let the bus company employ women to handle some of the day routes.

After midnight there are tens upon tens of Marines standing on State street, hoping to get a ride out to the base with some motorist. Few motorists will be heading out that way now that rationing is in force. Santa Barbara must find some answer to its transportation problem, and it must find it soon.

And so the war comes to the end of its first year, as far as American participation is concerned. We suffered a certain amount of set-backs at first, but we are slowly vindicating ourselves. We had incompetence, scandal and profiteering, and, to some extent, these evils still exist. Congress for some strange reason, perhaps affecting the pocketbooks of some, refuse to recognize these systematic raids into the American pocketbook. The Truman committee reports, masterpieces of honesty, are ignored by the present congress.

Lazy Fair . . .

Odd name for a column isn't it? It really doesn't matter how you interpret it though, whether as a take-off from Adam Smith's philosophy, as an unenergetic carnival or as a noun modified by an adjective: it serves to replace "Pasatiempo" (edited by Natalie Stewart, who now labours at Camp Cooke) and provides that air of introduction essential to a column. What does matter is the material to be found under it; material which, it is hoped, will provide unusual news of campus characters and cavortings, opinions of world happenings and a bit of editorial comment. But read on, friend, it's your time!

What teacher of beginning psychology, "introducing the student to the subject matter, methods and techniques of scientific psychology," shocked the few non-dormant members of the lecture group this week by stating in hushed tones designed to arouse reverence for the undeniable logic of this priceless gem—"People aren't all crazy; people aren't all intelligent; most people are average!" This sort of thing must cease immediately—after all, college students are becoming confused when such world shattering statements are thrown their way!

Logic is a thing to be treated carefully—you can't just go around describing step one, follow with step two, and arrive at your conclusion. You must weigh all the fact and then decide if your logic will do you any good . . . as an announcer on one of the local radio stations will no doubt assert, now. Our friend the announcer cut short a recorded program the other evening, filled his lungs with stuffy studio air, and tensed with the importance of the news he was about to broadcast, belatedly into the mike: "FLASH! This news will be of interest to all sports fans in Santa Barbara. Santa Barbara will play Alhambra this week end in a game that will determine the winner!" There followed a staid and pregnant pause, during which said announcer arrived at the conclusion that things were still a bit muddled as far as the sports fans of Santa Barbara were concerned.

Manufacturers Group Feels Their Interests Paramount

One year ago this coming Monday, December 7, the Empire of Japan made its futile bid for world conquest. The Japanese thought that by crippling Pearl Harbor they were crippling the American people. And, if certain "Americans" had had their way, America would have been crippled.

We were not a united nation prior to last December. We were a nation of petty hatreds—hatreds against the Jews, the Catholics, the Negroes, the Communists, labor, capital and the administration. To date the only one of these groups which has shown itself meritorious of this hatred is certain parts of the capital group. Profits come first, victory second.

At a recent National Association of Manufacturers convention, Lamot du Pont, of the dynasty of death, told the NAM delegates to "be sensible." "We hold the aces," du Pont, the patriot, further said, "Deal with the government and the rest of the squawkers the same way you deal with a buyer in a seller's market. They want what we've got. Make them pay the right price for it."

Voting on the most important issues of the day, the NAM decided that first came dealing with winning the war and winning the peace on an equal footing (35 votes), second, winning the war, with winning the peace as secondary, (15 votes), and third, with three votes, came an all out campaign for winning the war.

Is this then, what our men, our "little guys" are shedding their blood for? Is this the answer the American people give the men of the Army, Navy, and Marines? Is this the way to democracy? What's your answer, John Q. Public. G.B.

Would You Like to Take a Walk?

There is a little letter
In our Alphabet
That makes all of our students
Sit and Stew and fret!
We are going through a period
In this United Nation,
That's suffering the agonies
Of a nasty word called ration!
Returning to the Alphabet
The dark spot of the day
Is wrapped up in the letter

Known to us as "A"!!!
We cannot keep them rolling
For it's difficult, you see...
To push ourselves another notch
To the letter known as "B".
And furthermore, we've got grey hair
We're total physical wrecks.
We're using our pedal extremities
In search of the letter "X".

A game of I-Spy would make evident: great gaps in the parking lots, a direct result of the gas-tire-mileage ration program. This seems to have taken care of a problem worrying Dr. HELEN SWEET re: campus traffic hazards. Also seems to have stimulated neighborliness of many collegians. Turtle-backs are put to use these days as housefuls of students share-a-ride up the hill.

Should our readers have the conventional idea of a library's being a dull place, let them consider the liveliness of the 4 to 5 stint when Mrs. EDWARDS and Miss FIRTH are on duty. Questionnaires are their meat, the latest being this topic: Men's Acquaintance with Household Products.

To identify brand names, Lenox and Fostoria, was the test (which incidentally was inspired by a campus groom's ignorance of such details). EDGAR LEEDY answered 100 per cent correctly, BOB CALLOWAY (married) answered with a blank stare, both were recognized hazily by JIM PETERS who reads Vogue.

Hellenes Donate Spare Time For Christmas Work

Following a brief respite from scholastic worries, sorority members returned to school and their Monday night meetings with many new plans. Top on the list are plans for Christmas charities, and gifts for service men, with the remaining faculty events and open house teas also occupying an important place on their schedules.

ALPHA THETA CHI

Alpha Thetas held their regular Monday evening meeting at the home of Eleanor Laurence. Final plans were completed for the tea honoring faculty members, which will be held Sunday, at the home of Mrs. Lloyd Hitchcock.

Plans were also discussed for the second Open House which will be given on Thursday, December 1.

DELTA SIGMA EPSILON

Members of Delta Sigma Epsilon enjoyed a supper, followed by a business meeting at the home of Mrs. Ralph Hand, nee Mary Lee Lynch, sorority alumna, on Monday evening.

Final arrangements were made for an informal dancing party for members and their guests which will be held at the sorority house on Saturday evening.

SIGMA DELTA PHI

Preceding the Thanksgiving holiday, members of SDP held a supper meeting on November 23, at the sorority house on Grand avenue. Final plans were made at the business meeting for the Faculty Party which will be held on Sunday, December 6. Dorothy

MISS DOROTHY SWELDING Passes Chocolates

Sands will serve as general chairman for the event.

GAMMA DELTA CHI

Regular Monday meeting of GDC was held in the form of a dinner at the sorority house on Loma Street. Plans were completed for the Open House Tea scheduled for Thursday. A winter theme was carried out in the decorations.

PHI KAPPA GAMMA

The meeting of PKG which was held before Thanksgiving at the home of Mrs. Vincent Woods held a surprise for the members in the announcement by Dorothy Swelding of her engagement to Sergeant Harold K. Stanford of Texas.

Last Monday the meeting was held at the home of Mrs. R. Anderson, at Hope Ranch. Plans for the second sorority Open House, to be held on Tuesday, December 8, were made.

DELTA ZETA DELTA

Delta Zetes held their meeting on Monday afternoon in the AWS Clubroom, to complete final arrangements for the second Open House Tea, which was held on Tuesday, December 1. The tea was held at the home of Mrs. John Edwards, with a Christmas theme predominant.

TAU GAMMA SIGMA

Regular meeting of TGS was held on Monday evening at the home of Dwala Ray, where it was decided that the next meeting will be spent in covering Christmas boxes. Plans were discussed for the third Open House Tea.

Following the business meeting members adjourned to a joint party with members of Gamma Sigma Pi at the fraternity house.

Fraternities Formally Close Pledging Season

Closing their rushing season with formal initiation and induction ceremonies, campus fraternities this week focused their attention on various other pre-Christmas activities.

BETA SIGMA CHI

Sunday, December 13, the Beta Sigs will hold their annual barbecue at Rocky Nook. Thursday and Friday the fraternity will handle the stamp drive in the Quad.

Formal induction of new members, handled by the alumni, was held Monday, November 23, at the new Beta Sig house. Members admitted to the fraternity were Bill Starr, Bill Burdick, Tom Cowan, Carl Fisher, Don Druliner, and Ed Roeth.

SIGMA ALPHA KAPPA

Plans were made for the frat paper, which is to be printed monthly, for the alumni members. Jim Lytle, in charge of the paper, stated that the first issue will be out before Christmas. Formal initiation was held Monday, November 30. New members inducted into the fraternity included Carl Teut, John King, Bill Leveille, Jim Peters, Jim Lytle, and George Geib. A committee was appointed to find a new frat house.

GAMMA SIGMA PI

A joint meeting was held Monday night with the Tau Gams. It was decided to send Christmas cards to the alumni members in service.

The following men were formally initiated into the fraternity: Bebe Mathew, Horrall Chauncey, Wallace Cole, Ralph Weber, Hovis Bess, Mort Hill, Charlie Jones, Don Neagle, Skeeter Malcom, and Lawrence Osborne.

TAU OMEGA

A student body dance will be held this Saturday at Junipero Serra Hall. A candle light ceremony was held at the home of Bud Hanley. Pledges formally initiated are Harry Berlin, Charles Bloch, Stan Hill, Bill Monson, Jim Miller, Art Erickson, Ralph Johnston, Charles Clark, and Howard Wilson.

Coach Wilton Faces Ineligibility Peril

Swinging into a stiff practice schedule, the 1942 aggregate of Green and White basketball teams gives all indication of being hard to stop, but as evidenced this week in rough scrimmages, much more defense experience is needed.

However, according to Coach Willie Wilton, there is a much more serious worry and that is the scholastic standing of his cagers. Wilton warned that unless some improvement in scholastic standing is made soon some of the local basketball players will find themselves off the team.

At the present time the first team consists of Bill Leveille and Mort Hill, forwards; Harvey Hubler, center; Dick Rider and Lefty Thomas, guards. This quintet averages 6 foot, 1 inch with the exception of Leveille.

Still giving this tentative first string a serious threat are Bill Cohee and Ray Acevedo, Bob Sherman, Douglas Lovik and Charles Jones; all experienced in the forward position and exhibiting deadly accuracy in this week's tryouts.

The starting center berth remains to fight among Huler, Howard Holt, and Don Bilsborough, while the guards are seeing competition from Paul Cooper, Morton Dewhirst, Don Druliner and Harvey Wipf.

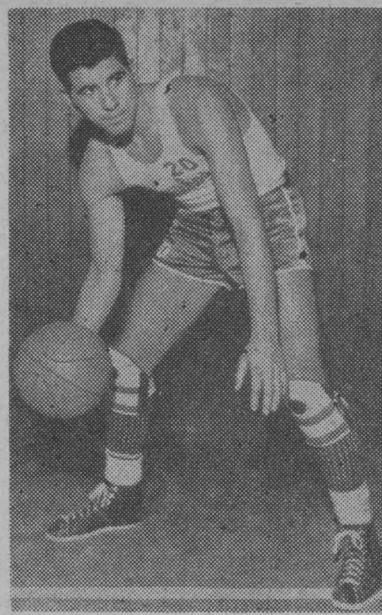

Practice games have been tentatively scheduled for December with the Victory Division basketball team of Camp Cooke and Northrup Aircraft of Los Angeles.

Friday Play Hour Reopens

Regular Friday afternoon recreation hour will resume its normal schedule this afternoon with volleyball on the lawn in front of the gym. Badminton and table tennis will be played in and in front of the gym. Games will begin at 3 p.m.

All men and women are again invited to participate or watch. Punch will be served by members of the women's physical education department, which is sponsoring the affair.

"The sole purpose of such a program is for fun and relaxation, not for competition. It is hoped that there will be a larger turn-out today than there has been," states Gerry Cockins

Men Organize 'Mural Teams

Representatives of teams entered in the intramural basketball league meeting this week decided that their schedule would not include service teams, and that the games would be played off between 5 and 6 p.m. This decision was made in view of the fact that intramural basketball is essentially for the benefit of college students and is not a money-making proposition.

Coach Willie Wilton announced that the semi-final and final games of the 'mural circuit' would be played off as preliminaries to varsity games at the local armory, and urged all teams planning to enter the league to bring their applications to his office as soon as possible.

Southern Pacific is facing a critical situation in connection with holiday travel. Many thousands of men in uniform are being given holiday furloughs. We think everyone agrees that these men should be given first consideration. We intend to carry them wherever they wish to go.

Where men in uniform are not going on furlough they will be visited, in many cases, by their parents or wives. Their travel requirements must be recognized, too.

The tide of war traffic — troops, equipment, supplies and war materials — is mounting higher and higher, and we are hard pressed to supply the equipment to move it. Every locomotive we have or can rent is being used. The supply of passenger-carrying cars left for civilian use is naturally reduced.

Consequently, we will not be able to carry all the people who want to make holiday trips, despite all our efforts to increase the passenger-carrying capacity of our trains.

This is why we ask you not to travel during the holiday season.
