REGULATIONS ON CAMPUS PARKING

The Police Department on Campus has received many complaints of vehicles parking in posted faculty and restricted areas. Your attention is earnestly solicited to comply with parking regulations as violators are subject to a ticket under 603-A of the California Vehicle Code which requires the recipient to appear in the Goleta Justice Court.

Information regarding the parking rules and regulations are posted in the Student Union, Library, and building 431. It is suggested that everyone become familiar with these regulations.

The department also announced that Lost and Found is handled by the Police in building 427, second floor.

THIS AND THAT . . . don't forget to see the exhibition of paintings and water colors by contemporary artists on view this month in the campus Art Gallery, building 412 . . . The Arts at Mid-Century Program has been receiving high praise and thorough coverage in the local press, in case you haven't noticed. Be sure to attend the stimulating lectures by internationally known people as announced by El Gauchito . . . Those planning to take the American Constitution exam for credential renewals for teachers should make this fact known to the Social Science department by July 15. Exam is on July 29 . . . If your post-summer session plans aren't set, you might consider the UC Extension conferences listed herein to give you two more weeks in air-conditioned Santa Barbara, and an opportunity to enjoy Fiesta.

FROM LAUREL HALL comes word that Anita Moreno was elected president of the house organization with Carol Harcus, vice-president and social chairman, Donna Adair, secretary-treasurer, and Norma Kihm and Jean Gillespie as hall representatives.

FREE ADVERTISING . . . for those who want to see this area from the air on one of our more clear days, Santa Barbara Flying Service at the neighboring airport (phone 8-2841) offers 30 minute or hour flights for 3 or 4 persons over the city, Cachuma Dam, Santa Ynez Mountains, Channel Islans, etc. Cost is moderate, as low as $4 or $5 per person.
