UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA

SANTA BARBARA COLLEGE

Vol. XXXVI

GOLETA, CALIFORNIA, WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 31, 1956

No. 7

ROOM ENOUGH IN 1965?

California's population is growing fast. University of California and State College enrollment is growing even faster. It will increase 132% between 1950 and 1965, according to State Department of Finance estimates. This is one reason why the State Government has proposed a $200,000,000 construction bond issue (Proposition 3 on the November 6 ballot). Building must start now if there is to be room enough for college students of 1965.

KELLY SPEAKS ON 'RITHMETIC

Dr. Paul J. Kelly, associate professor of mathematics, will speak on "Ingenuity in Mathematics" at the sixth All-College Lecture, which will be given Tuesday, Nov. 6, at 4 p.m. in Bldg. 431, Rm. 102.

Last year Dr. Kelly was the recipient of a Ford Foundation Fellowship from the Foundation Fund for the Advancement of Education. During this time he studied at the Institute for Advanced Study at Princeton, N.J., scene of Einstein's work before his death and headquarters for other celebrated scientists. Dr. Kelly's study project was the role of non-Euclidean concepts in science.

The UCSBC faculty member is the co-author of the book Projective Geometry and Projective Metrics, published in 1953, one of a series of writings in pure and applied mathematics. He received his B.A. and M.A. degrees at UCLA and his doctorate at the University of Wisconsin. He joined the Santa Barbara College staff in 1949.

Cries of 'Out, Damn Spot' Heard Here

Rehearsals are now under way for the college theater production of Macbeth, which will play in the campus Little Theater from Nov. 27 to Dec. 8.

A cast of more than 30 college thespians, under the direction of H. Win Park, is toiling to master the challenging dialogue of one of Shakespeare's masterpieces.

One of the most perplexing problems Prof. Park has to face is that of staging the wide variety of scenes required in the play in the limited-size Little Theater.

Macbeth is a play calculated to tax the college performers to the limit. Last spring Prof. Park undertook a similar challenge in directing Medea and came through with flying colors.

The local theater-goer is looking forward to Dr. Park's present venture with interest.

FACE PEPPERDINE SQUAD SATURDAY AT EL CAMINO

Seven is a cinch to be the Gauchos' lucky number as they meet the Pepperdine Waves in their seventh game of the season day after tomorrow in Los Angeles.

The Waves have had a pretty good year, losing only to formidable Cal Poly and San Diego State. A solid line backed by a pro-T formation will be difficult but not a very tall order for the Gauchos. The Waves have had a very excellent passer in the person of Vandershoot, their QB.

The Gauchos will be throwing more passes this game and the Pepperdine pass defense is notably weak.

Ray Thornton has twice scouted the Waves in careful preparation for what will undoubtedly be another Gaucho victory. The standard Pepperdine procedure is through their pro-T formation with the back spread to one end and the end spread to the opposite side. Thornton reports that though Vandershoot is rushed quickly, his passing ability is such that snaps the ball out—and to an available receiver.

As in the last Gaucho game, Bruce Varner, a fullback by trade, will be playing right half, replacing Sut Puailoa who, according to SCIAC rules is ineligible as a JC (PCC) transfer with already two years of ball here. Pete Walski will also have to sit this one out. Playing in Varner's fullback slot will be Fidenzio Brunello, greatly talented Gaucho star.

VOICES RAISED BY GLEE CLUB

The Men's and Women's Glee Clubs of Santa Barbara College will present a free program open to the public on Nov. 4 at 8:30 p.m. It will feature music from great Broadway musicals of the past 20 years.

Jerome Kern's "Touch of Your Hand" from the 1933 production of Roberta will be sung by the Men's Glee Club along with selections from Damn Yankees, My Fair Lady, Jubilee and South Pacific.

The Women's Glee Club has chosen for its first group of songs "Bali H'ai" and "I Whistle a Happy Tune." They will conclude their presentation with "June Is Busting Out All Over," "I Could Have Danced All Night" and "Something Wonderful."

"Brother Will and John" and "With a Little Bit of Luck" will be sung by the male quartet. Nancy Jo Woodhead has chosen for her solo "You'll Never Walk Alone" from Carousel.

Also included in the program are some folk songs sung by Jerry Combs. Pianist Gil Rosas will play as his solo for the evening the popular "Slaughter on Tenth Avenue" from the Richard Rogers show On Your Toes.

Gilbert Rosas, Carl Zytowski, Shirley Munger, Wayne Howorth and William Sickles have done many of the arrangements of the tunes expressly for the two groups presenting them.

The program has been planned entirely by Santa Barbara students Patti Eden, Mary Stewart, Dick Major and Jerry Combs. The staging and sets have been planned and designed by Jack Nakano.

P.L. 550 VETERANS

Veterans receiving benefits under state law P.L. 550 must sign vouchers by Nov. 1 to receive their payment checks for October.

UC Since BC

Three weekends from now the traditional Homecoming festivities begin. Homecoming always has been something special at Santa Barbara. This year is no exception, with Jim Bailey, general chairman, and his committee heads all working diligently to surpass anything that has been seen before.

Theme

The theme of this year's Homecoming is UC Since BC (i.e., since the year 1) and it promises to be rich in possible ideas for floats.

Thursday, Nov. 15, at Goleta campus the Homecoming Queen candidates are to be presented and judging will take place afterward. The Galloping Gaucho Review, a series of humorous skits done by the various living groups, takes place at 8 o'clock that evening and runs Friday night also.

A special feature of the evening will be the presentation of this year's Homecoming Queen.

Parade

On Saturday the annual parade will pass down State Street at 2:15 p.m. Floats will represent fraternities, sororities and residence halls, and will follow the theme UC Since BC.

Immediately following the parade the big game rally begins at the Sunken Gardens behind the Court House. The Gaucho-Sacramento Hornet game starts at 8:15 p.m., with presentations of the Queen and her court at halftime. Presentation of trophies of winning floats will also take place.

The Miramar Convention Hall is the chosen spot of the Homecoming Dance. The time? As long as it takes you to drive from La Playa Stadium after the game to the convention hall.

HOMECOMING—A time of late hours, 3 a.m. breakfasts, work parties in the early dawn. The product, a beautiful float, such as the one above which undoubtedly captured some sort of a prize back in 1954.

From The President's Desk

As the Associated Students grows, we try to spread out into diverse activities giving a "something for everyone" flavor. Generally, when something new is taken on by the student body for sponsorship, it starts relatively small and grows as interest and enrollment increase.

The primary difficulty in branching out is financial—there just isn't that much money. Another consideration is whether it would be better to improve existing activities before bringing in new ones. We try and keep a happy medium between improvements and innovations.

An example of how a new activity expands was shown last Tuesday night at the Legislative Council when the campus literary quarterly Spectrum, formerly called Symposium, received an appropriation so that the magazine could be printed, rather than the offset method of reproduction used in the past. This would improve the appearance of the publication immensely, as well as opening up opportunities to use advertising.

The quarterly started two years ago with nothing but spirit, the idea that there was a need for it, and a fifty-dollar appropriation. They appear to be destined for permanence on this campus.

The officers of the Associated Students, as represented by the Legislative Council, are always willing to listen to those with an idea to improve something we already sponsor, or to add something new. Come in and talk with me if you have something along this line. Budget and Council willing, maybe that idea will become a tradition.

Dick Goode
ASUCSBC President

OFF-CAMPUS INDEPENDENTS OUTSCORE OTHERS IN ACADEMIC ACHIEVEMENTS

Independent men living off campus have on the average a higher grade point than those who are either affiliated with a fraternity or live in the residence halls. This fact was brought out in a statement from the Dean of Men's Office which concerned last semester's grades.

The average men's grade point was 1.564, in comparison with the average of 1.412 for Las Casities and 1.473 for fraternity members.

Your Fate Rests In Your Hands . . .

The fate of the University of California and Santa Barbara College will be decided next Tuesday as voters go to the polls. The means of our advancement, or our retardation is a vote on Proposition 3. A vote yes on this important measure will assure that the University continues to receive the funds so necessary for its all-important existence. A vote no on this measure will throw the education of the young men and women of this state back 20 years.

The facts behind the necessity of voting yes on Proposition 3 have been stated before. They are further brought forth by the graph printed on Page 1. All that remains is that the voters of the state of California support the measure.

Because Proposition 3 has not met any opposition at all from any source proponents of the measure are worried about its success. They are afraid that without the illuminating light of controversy the necessity of the measure might escape the average voter. This is why the vigorous campaign on the part of those persons interested in its success to make sure that every voter casts his ballot in the right direction. This is why we of El Gaucho urge each and every Santa Barbara student to make certain that they, and their parents, vote yes on Proposition 3.

What's To Be Done About Cheating?

Editor's Note: The views expressed in this article are those of a student interested in the problem of examination misconduct on our campus. We of El Gaucho feel that more attention should be directed toward this problem by the student body and the Legislative Council. Persons interested in commenting are urged to address their thoughts to the El Gaucho editor for publication.

I had an experience recently. Somehow I overcame my normal hesitancy and complained to an instructor about a testing situation. The case in point is that of a midterm exam which was given to a morning class, then the same exam was given to an afternoon class in the same subject. During my previous three years at Santa Barbara I have encountered, in several different courses, many situations of a similar nature—many of them even worse than this one—where cheating could easily take place. In all such situations, the pressure for grades met head on with the values of integrity and honesty, and even though in my case the latter always prevailed, I was generally left very discouraged and embittered with the teacher who allowed the situation to develop and with those students who took advantage of that situation. But even though my feelings were usually very strong, I was restrained from complaining by what I felt at the time was the feeling of the entire group, i.e., that it would be very improper for me to complain about a situation that allowed a few of my fellow students to pull a "cool deal." I may also have been restrained by the vague notion that the teacher would not appreciate any such comment from a student.

I have recently concluded that both ideas were misconceptions on my part. From discussions with a good many students, I have decided that the majority of students feel just as I do about a situation where cheating is not prevented. And from my talk with that teacher the other day, when I finally decided to see what I could do about the situation, I learned that instructors do appreciate comments from the students. The teacher I spoke to said he was glad that I spoke to him, and he assured me that he would do what he could to remedy the situation.

The point I wish to make here is this: the student can and should complain when situations arise like the one I described or anytime when cheating occurs.

I have found that there are several places where a student can complain about this kind of thing or about anything that seems unfair or is generally displeasing to the student: First—go directly to the professor; he will generally be sympathetic and will appreciate the comments. Second—complain to the Student Standards Committee which meets every Wednesday in the AS Conference Room. This committee is vitally interested in just this sort of thing. The committee keeps all complaints made to it confidential and does its best to remedy the cause of the complaints. Third—a student who has a complaint is always graciously welcomed by the offices of the Dean of Men and Dean of Women.

The voice of every student can be heard if he directs it to the proper place.

Hey, everybody! Here's a new stack of Sticklers!

WHEN SMOKE FOLK get together, the chatter matter is fine tobacco. Naturally, that means Lucky Strike. Luckies' taste is worth talking about because it comes from fine tobacco—light, mild, good-tasting tobacco that's TOASTED to taste even better. As for the Stickler, you call the minutes of a smokers' convention a Light-up Write-up. Speaking of light-ups, have you tried a Lucky lately? You'll say it's the best-tasting cigarette you ever smoked!

EL GATO

by Sylvia and Shirley

Well, Gauchos, things seem to be finally settling down to their usual, haptic normality. If we had both All-Cal and Presents so close together more often, we'd probably all be down with that infamous mono.

Dean Keener tells us a thousand Santa Barbarans sped up and struggled back from Berkeley, two weeks ago. Seen at the rally, the games, the Hungry I, the Tin Angel, and the sleepy ride home were: Joan Hodges and Sig Ep Ron Marson; Alpha Phi Ann Marie Boss and Lambda Chi Jim Husted; Pi Phi Alice McAdam and SAE John Olsen; KAT Virginia Barnes and Delt Max Caulk; Kat Beu Butz and Delt Bruce McCurdy; Sig Ep Bob Young and Chi O Peggy Wood; ADP Shirley Harigiani and SAE Brian Hurst; Dee Gee Ella Crawford and Sig Ep Joe Rank; Mickey Knox and Lambda Chi Ken McMillan; Janet Hammeras and Ron Brooks; Pi Phi Barbara Leith and Sig Ep Don Duncan; KAT Roz Rea and Sig Ep Dave Oaty; Sue Williams and George Franzman, SAE; ADPi George Cloud; Alpha Phi Betsy Leavitt and Lambda Chi Dick Stanley; Kay Krutchel and Jim Carolyn Rehback and SAE Mao; Theta Karen Pettker and SAE Roger Van Pelt, DG Lea Pierce and Chan; Gayla Jung and Lambda Chi Roger Wells; Delta Zeta Barbara Trappi and Perry Peters; Zo Mason and SAE Murray Smith; Dee Gee Suzie Warren and Sig Ep Dick Ansie.

Presents

White gowns, thrilled girls, soft music, lovely flowers . . . all were part of Sorority Presents held last Saturday night. Enjoying the romantic evening were: ADP Ellie Kooser and Al Hartnett; Pi Phi Anelle Mullis and Kappa Sig Tony Brambilla; KAT Charlene Gant and Delt Art Sues; DZ Shelly Shapiro and Delta Sig Hue Yandell; Chi O Kathy Nye and SAE Jim Keefe; Alpha Phi Roberta Miles and SAE Jerry Combs; ADP Janet Ritchie and Andy Houghton, Pi Phi Diane Allingham and Lambda Chi Chuck Buchanan; KAT Ann Lowry and Delt Hugo Quackenbush; Dee Gee Joyce Berlin and Kappa Sig Ed Copley; DZ Robin Drake and Hal Carlock; Chi O Colleen Cummings and Sig Ep Ted Zundel; Alpha Phi Gladys McClure and Norm Abbott; ADP Janice Clark and Jon French; Pi Phi Marty Campillo and Lee Smeltzer; Theta Suzie Green and Delt Bill Tice; Delta Zeta Kathy Grant and Eddie Larsen; Chi O Beverly Nutt and Sig Ep Phil Rowe; Alpha Phi Donna Hammore and Delt Jerry Bennett; Dee Gee Judi Reid and Delt Mark Trueblood.

Alpha Phi Lee Mohr recently announced her pinning to Lambda Chi George Wheat, and Sigma Kappa Teddy Baer now wears the Kappa Sig pin of Nemo Johnson. Congratulations to Sigma Kappa Bobby McRoberts who announced her engagement to Kappa Sig Alex Baca.

Has anyone found Annabelle Rea's Kappa Alpha Theta sorority pin? She lost it a week ago Tuesday night, probably on the Mesa campus.

Pledges Presented

Pledges of the eight national sororities which are represented on this campus were formally presented Saturday night, Oct. 27, to sorority members, their parents and their escorts.

Members of the Spring 1956 and Fall 1956 pledge classes wore white formals and flowers representing their affiliation. The dance was held at the Recreation Center in Santa Barbara.

Chaperones were Mr. and Mrs. Rodriguez Ramon and Dr. and Mrs. Robert Kelley. Dean Helen Keener is the advisor for Panhellenic Council.

Groups represented were Alpha Delta Pi, Alpha Phi, Chi Omega, Delta Gamma, Delta Zeta, Kappa Alpha Theta, Pi Beta Phi and Sigma Kappa.

The place will be the Band Room, No. 1250, of the Music Bldg.

ROTC Shapes Up With Shaplies

Future ROTC parades promise to lose some of their military stiffness with the advent of the colorful Colonel's Coeds. The Coeds, one of the most active student organizations on campus, is assuming a new roll in its military endeavor: that of marching smartly alongside company commanders in each of this year's formal reviews.

Lt. Col. George C. Woolsey is the unlucky man who is burdened with the job of having to teach and advise the young ladies. He naturally has had an unusually large number of volunteers from the student ranks to help him out.

Officers to the Colonel's Coeds are elected on the basis of appearance, student activities and academic record. This year they are Joan Davies, president; Sylvia Noble, niece of Acting Provost Elmer R. Noble, vice president, and Diane Allingham, secretary-treasurer.

The Coeds have many other functions during the year, such as making awards to the best-drilled company, sparking social activities, the Military Ball, and in general are around to supervise and inspire the ROTC men. So much so that the cadets have elected the following Coeds as finalists for the Colonel's Coeds: Sophomore Finalists—Janet Bingham, Gretchen Davis, Diane Ferril, Toni Saadi, Judy Owen, Joan Taylor, Sally Moore. Freshman Finalists—April Hagenbaugh, Colleen Cummings, Trudy Gerry, Liz Cabell, Sue Swift, Audrey Meyers, Anne Lowry, Marsha Moyer, Sue Hatfield, Georgia Smith, Nanci Browning, Valerie Hallor, Sheryl Meskell, Joanne Davis.

CAMPUS CARICATURES

by PETE VORZIMER

Added to my list of harrowing experiences was one that occurred to me this morning. It happens that I sack out in the lower portion of a bunk bed which I constructed myself. On the upper portion rests Herb Williamson, who is a rather vigorous sleeper. Well, the still of the night was broken at 3:30 this morning when I was rather indelicately woken up by a rending crash and Williamson, the mattress and the box spring residing on top of me. Thanx to an adequate layer of natural protection, I am here today (cries of "Joy!"—"Hurrah!" etc) to write this column.

COMMENDATION OF THE WEEK: You know, students come and go, groaning about the viciously hard campus cops and the tickets they give. A vigorous pat on the back must go to Officer Chester Tapie... for the last three years he has given fewer tickets than any of the other officers. A big hiss to Officer Scott for the most.

GOOF OF THE WEEK: I wonder if the architects and the building and grounds department will ever get together. It appears that the big tree that's been sitting to the left of the library for the last three weeks has had a place all set aside for it... only trouble is that it's covered with cement—buildings and grounds thought the space was marked out for cementing. Another prize goof was the reason why the library elevator can't reach the basement where there has been a door built for it... reason: the builders built a steel girder through the shaft.

PASSWORD OF THE WEEK: "Omphaloskepsis"... to meditate while gazing at one's navel.

FIND OF THE WEEK: It seems that Goleta now has a record store, the Goleta Music Co., and within its confines it has one of the best collections of the cooler sounds. Among the new cool releases are THIS IS CHRIS featuring one of the softest, sexiest singers in the business, Chris Connor. Best number: Someone to Watch Over Me. Also picked up K. & J.J. featuring these two jazz trombonists on a new hot jazz medium... the trombonium... which is a valve trombone. Really nice "zounds" at this place.

Watch for M.G. in '56.

fashion notes

we felt a mood of gloom and doom, of concerted concentration when we visited the campus this week... can it be that mid-terms are approaching?

if so, we're certain you need a bit of diversion in the way of contemplating some of the bright new merchandise that has been arriving at the annex... we'll start with something bright, indeed—our new polished cotton quilted skirts with matching shirts in wonderful sherbet shades of white, coral and turquoise... the skirts are a full circle, priced at 10.95; the matching shirts have convertible collars, three-quarter sleeves and rhinestone buttons and are priced at a nice 6.95.

if you were one of those disappointed when we ran out of our paisley-trimmed khakis, you'll be pleased to hear that we have a new shipment in... there are long pants and bermudas at 7.95, trim skirts at 8.95 and cleverly co-ordinated red paisley print shirt at 5.95... the bermudas and skirts are both back-buckled and trimmed with paisley print accents.

we've received recently a new shipment of angolura sweaters in luscious pastel shades of yellow, powder and pink... the sweaters, a blend of angora and lambs-wool that would pass for cashmere until you got to the price tag, are priced at 13.95 and 15.95 with matching slim and full skirts from 12.95 to 16.95.

we'll wind up our round-up of fashion notes from the annex with just a mention of what we consider a college girl's very best friend—jonathan logan's d'orillana dresses that can be washed and dried automatically, never need ironing and are priced at 17.95.

don't forget our ucsc rep, helen garben, will be in the annex all day saturday!

GAUCHOS GIVEN SECOND DEFEAT BY POMONA, 15-14

A series of fumbles and bad breaks paved the way for the Pomona-Claremont Sagehens to brew a 15-14 upset victory over the Santa Barbara College Gauchos Friday night in La Playa Stadium.

It was the second straight loss for the Gauchos and turned some 5000 fans away with a ruined evening.

Two speedy Sagehen halfbacks, Buzz Block and Jim Lindblad, and a stubborn defensive line spelled defeat for the locals, who never quite seemed to get going.

It was a game of bad breaks for the Gauchos, who time and again had drives halted by freak pass interceptions or fumbles.

The clinching teedee for Pomona came in the last six minutes of play when what seemed like a completed pass from Don Trauthen to end Kelley Hoover turned into a pass interception and led to the go-ahead and winning touchdown.

Hoover took the Trauthen aerial on the Gaucho 40-yard line, but the ball popped out of his hands when he was hit and nested in the arms of a surprised Sagehen who returned it to the 19-yard line. Two plays later Lindblad danced his way from the 14-yard line for the clincher.

The Gauchos fumbled on their third play from scrimmage, setting a tradition for the rest of the game, and Pomona recovered on the Gaucho 15-yard line. On a fourth-down-and-two situation guard Hugh Martin split the up-rights for a 3-0 Sagehen lead.

Nine minutes later Pomona had a touchdown, following another Gaucho fumble on their own 40-yard line. In five plays the Pomona eleven moved the ball to the Gaucho 11 and Block accounted for the rest of the distance on a scoot around right end.

The Gauchos appeared to be on their way to recovery on the ensuing kickoff when 205-pound fullback Fidenzio Brunello rumbled his way 61 yards before being forced out of bounds on the 29. Bruce Varner and Johnny Morris teamed to make a first down on the 18. Then four plays later Varner lunged over from a yard out for the first Gaucho tally. Greg James converted.

In the second period, after the Gauchos stifled an attempted field goal, it looked like the locals were on their way once more. They took over the ball after the blocked field goal on their own 29. From there the Gauchos marched down to the Pomona 8. Passes from Trauthen to end Dave Iman and the running of Morris and Varner paved the way. But again another fumble gave the ball to Pomona.

Then the Sagehens got into the spirit of things and fumbled the ball away to the Gauchos on the 5. Varner lugged the ball two times to get down to the one-foot line where Trauthen went over on a quarterback sneak. Trauthen hit right tackle for the extra point to put Santa Barbara ahead, 14-9.

The teams took turns engineering small drives in the third period, both threatening to score twice, but again fumbles halted both attempts.

In the fourth period Jim Pullman, fighting Gaucho lineman, stopped a Pomona drive when he intercepted a Lindblad pass on the 10, and James punted to mid-field.

But the freak interception by Pomona came a few minutes later and the Gauchos were unable to recover before the gun sounded.

CAGEMEN OUT FOR 1956 GAUCHO FIVE

With 28 men hustling for a starting berth, Coach Willie Wilton, who perennially turns out top-flight basketball teams for Santa Barbara College, is readying his charges for the season opener, only five weeks away.

Working with five returning lettermen and a group of good first-season prospects, Wilton looks forward to a good season.

Although he has lost all the height he has had on teams in past seasons, Wilton said that he thinks this year's team will make up for it in speed.

Returning lettermen are flashy guards Johnny Osborne and Ralph Barkey, centers Dick Acres (last year's leading scorer, who stands 6-7) and Don Duncan, an improved ball player who saw plenty of action last season, and forward Charley Dunne, who is still waiting for an eligibility ruling. Dunne was a terrific playmaker and consistent scorer last season. Also returning is Harry Weinberg, expected to do big things in this his third year of competition for the Gauchos.

SPORT TALK

by Pete Vorzimer

The outlook is somewhat bleak for the Gauchos at present. The Waves didn't take very much advantage of Gaucho errors . . . if they had, the score would have been quite a bit larger. Santa Barbara was very lucky this time. Pepperdine is not a particularly tough one, but the Gauchos are going to have to play better ball to come out on top.

Without a League

The Santa Barbara Gauchos seem to be playing a rather motley arrangement of teams. We play a formidable opponent like San Diego State, a team that should well be placed in a league with San Jose State (they tied them) and Cal Poly (which they beat), while on the other hand, the Gauchos play various SCIAC teams like Pomona-Claremont and Pepperdine. Officially listed in the CCAA league, assistant grid coach Stan Williamson said that perhaps next year and the proceeding years the Gauchos will add more CCAA teams (like Fresno State) and drop some of the others until once more we are playing solidly in a league of our own.

Backfield Switch

It's a debatable point as to whether or not the switch in the Gaucho backfield is affecting the playing. Bruce Varner is now in the halfback position filling the gap (during SCIAC games) for Sut Puailoa and Fidenzio Brunell is taking over the fullback spot. Perhaps a team geared so long on the old set-up isn't running so smoothly on the new one.

Bad Omens

The most disgustingly apparent thing of last Friday's game was the way Pomona kept using that short pass play over the center, unhampered whatsoever by the Gauchos, throughout the entire game—gaining much good yardage with it, too.

Gauchos Can Click

The Gauchos can really click back into winning condition, let's hope they can do it this weekend!

Pepperdine Eleven Next

will be held at the El Camino Junior College stadium. Gaucho rooters can reach the field by proceeding down the Pacific Coast Highway to its alternate in Santa Monica on Lincoln Blvd. and proceed about 12 miles further south to Manhattan Beach Blvd. A left turn here and then on the right about five miles will be El Camino J.C. and stadium . . . you can't miss it.

Balls Available

Athletic equipment will be made available to the students by the Recreation Control Board.

John Wilband and Harry Weinberg, co-chairman of RCB, announced that this equipment, consisting of basketballs, baseballs, volleyballs, bats and tennis rackets can be checked out from Mr. Calderon in the gymnasium. On Fridays equipment may be checked out for the weekend.

This equipment is for recreational use and not for regular physical education classes.

AROUND TOWN

by Jack Nakano

Music seems to be the predominant offering with most of the theaters. At the Lobero Theater on Monday, Nov. 5, will be a cello sonata program by Adolphe Frezin and Eda Jamesonin and an unusual offering in the Gamelan Udan Mas, dancers, and Dr. Mantle Hood giving Javanese music, the following Wednesday.

At the university, a popular music concert by the Men's and Women's Glee Clubs will be given free at the auditorium at 8:30 p.m. Sunday. On the following Wednesday at the same place will be Dr. John Gillespie's second concert of historical piano compositions. In between these two free presentations will be the Chico Hamilton Quintet giving pleasure to all jazz lovers on Tuesday night.

"Time Out for Ginger," by the Alhecama Players, can be viewed for only 50 cents at the Lobero Theater this week as the first in this season's offerings by the excellent dramatic group under the direction of Dr. Frank Fowler.

Coming events include Tamara Toumanova, outstanding ballerina, the Berlin Philharmonic Orchestra, and a benefit premiere showing of the film, "The Solid Gold Cadillac," starring Judy Holliday.

Life Among Natives

by Louis G. Robinson

Having had my share of "group" living in the Marine Corps, I promptly decided that Fraternity Life would not be for me. After a 24-hour stay at one of the more prominent fraternities, I set out in quest of shelter in the general Santa Barbara vicinity which would have as one of its main features privacy. Privacy, above all else privacy. What I found was truly unique. Unique not so much as to the spectacular living accommodations, but rather unique in the people that are part of them.

The Thornlys

The official classification of my present state of existence is "Room with kitchen facilities." This however should read "Room with observation of the Thornly Family facilities." For that is the name of the gracious people who have seen fit to accept my customs, traditions, witty sayings, philosophy, voodoo ceremonies, and person into their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Thornly are very tolerant towards my boisterous ways and if on occasion I should delve into a matter with a particularly unusual amount of giddiness, they merely shake their heads in disbelief. Such as the other day when they invited me to attend a football game with them.

There was quite a crowd at the gate of the stadium, and entrance into the place was painfully slow. Whereupon I hit upon the idea of using a little yell that a buddy of mine had put to good use on a similar occasion. Were the Thornlys ever surprised to see me pushing my way through the crowd yelling "Pregnant lady, make way here, pregnant lady!" I think it is the thought of the monthly income I provide them with (small though it may be) that prevents further action on their part.

Jerry

The Thornlys I can handle, but it is their 14-year-old boy, Jerry, who keeps me hopping. He is now in the stage at school where everything that a person may say may be used against him, and unless I address him with at least 15 minutes of his popular slang every time he sees me I stand to be banned for life as an old square and a prude. Sample:

"Wha dya say, dad?"
"Oh hi there Jerry. What was new today?"

"Oh, nothing much. We had some old square about 25 for a student teach' today and man he was nowhere."

"What do you mean, Jerry?"

"Oh, he got up there and talked about these Joe Casuals in the East and about the crazy happenings they're pulling off. He called 'em juvenile delinquents. What a sap. We also had this spiffy guy going around in a panic, making him think we were hopeless."

"What do you mean, Jerry?"
"Oh man, never mind."

Such are the gracious Thornlys to whom I am much indebted. They are wonderful people and may they never raise my rent.

Gillespie Continues Key-Tickling Nov. 9

Second in a series of eight historical piano recitals being presented this year by Dr. John E. Gillespie, chairman of the music department at Santa Barbara College, is scheduled for Nov. 9 at 8:30 p.m. in the College Auditorium.

In this series Dr. Gillespie will move from works of the baroque period, represented in the first concert, to the classic period, where he will draw from three great classicists, Bach, Mozart and Haydn. The concerts are free to the public.

Dr. Gillespie has concertized widely in this area with an enthusiastic audience response. His musical education spans several institutions in both this country and France.

COUNCIL CANDID

by Dorcas Vanian

From the long student council table this week's candid picks Pat Crane, representative-at-large. As the camera focuses, our blonde-haired, sparkling star is viewed performing resourcefully her task in representing ideas and desires of SBC students making their requests known to our legislative council.

Holding the post of a junior, Pat is also active in the Special Events Committee, Student Union Council and the Social Committee. She has attended Santa Barbara during her three collegiate years, co-operating in numerous functions. Scholastic ability is seen by her participation in Spurs last year. She is a sociology major and hopes to devote this preparation to youth work later.

Performing her job in a real practical way—that is, rep-at-large—Pat is recognized as one of the chow-makers in the Student Union Annex. As you wander over to the Annex to pick up that hamburger, it will probably be served to you by none other than your own rep. Her paramount idea of a job, however, is camp counseling, which has kept her busy during past summers. Undeniably, Pat is challenged by social work which is evidenced by her enthusiasm in such associations.

In the way of pastimes, Pat dubiously chose swimming from her long list of favorites. "My chief accomplishment," she asserted puntingly, "was earning a life-saving certificate which means now I can save lives legally."

Here's thanking Pat for giving herself and her assistance to SBC this year as rep-at-large.

Foreign Tea Poured

On Monday, Nov. 12, in the Art Gallery, Bldg. 412, from 3:30 to 4:30 p.m., the Dean of Women, Helen Keener, is sponsoring an informal tea honoring our foreign students. All students who have lived in other countries and all other students who would like to become acquainted with these students are cordially invited to attend.

Any students or faculty members wishing to attend the tea may come without further invitation and without responding in writing or calling the Dean's Office. School attire is appropriate.

RHA NEWS

The beautiful Coral Casino will be the spot for the annual RHA winter dance, to be held Nov. 30. The dress will be semi-formal and admission is to be free to residents of Las Casitas and Santa Rosa Halls. Meal tickets will be punched at the door and only one member of the couple need be a member of RHA. A top band will be featured and refreshments served. The dance will start at 9 and end at 1.

Open House

Remember Nov. 4 is the date for Open House, so invite your families and friends to see our beautiful campus by the sea. The Music and Science Buildings will be open, as well as all residence halls. Refreshments will be served in the Recreation Room of Santa Rosa Hall. The Men's and Women's Glee Clubs will be putting on two performances in conjunction with the Open House.

Blood Bank

The Legislative Council is planning a blood drive to create a blood bank for the campus. Anyone willing to help on the committee should contact Janet Hammeras.

Attention Women

Got a yen to play hockey? The Los Angeles Field Hockey Assn. has invited Santa Barbara College to participate in its annual Play Day to be held the first Saturday of December. No experience is necessary and everyone is invited to play. The time is every Wednesday afternoon from 4 to 5. For further information contact Pat Raguse, Santa Rosa Hall.

HARRIERS DOWN CAL POLY, 22-35

In a cross-country track meet with Cal Poly last Friday afternoon the Gauchos defeated Cal Poly 22 to 35.

The outstanding thing of the afternoon was Gaucho Gordy McClenath's winning of the three-mile event. His shoelaces became untied and he ran two and a half of the three miles trying to keep his shoe on. On top of that, he made the race in an excellent 15:18.

Other Gaucho runners were: Jerry Mullin, 3rd; Jerry Quintana, 5th; Don Brown, 6th; Don Sawyer, 7th, and Gene Hatfield, 9th.

THOUGHTS FOR TODAY $1.98

I met a man with a rather large head Who looked at me and finally said:

"If ever you're caught Without any thought And you think that you ought To be thinking a thought, Buy one from me before it's too late. Thoughts for today, only one-ninety-eight."

"A reasonable price," I said and bought The following brainy, thoughtful thought:

FAINT PLEASURE AIN'T PLEASURE!

Take your pleasure big! Smoke the cigarette that gives you more of what you're smoking for... more real enjoyment, more real rich flavor... more smoking satisfaction. Smoke a Chesterfield and enjoy it to the hilt!

Smoke for real... smoke Chesterfield!
