Auditor's Records Reveal Growth of County Wealth

Editor's Note: We present this week the fourth of a series of articles dealing with the duties and history of the various county offices. This week's article has been made possible through the cooperation of Albert T. Eaves, County Auditor, who has spent many hours in gathering the facts and figures presented.

That Santa Barbara County has enjoyed a steady and healthy growth since the days of the Dons, and particularly since the turn of the century, is an accepted fact, but the truest picture of this growth can best be obtained by comparing the early records of the county with regard to assessments, receipts and expenditures, with those of the present day, and these records are all to be found in the office of the County Auditor's Office, which is under the administration of Albert T. Eaves.

Unlike several of the county offices whose histories date back to the inception of the county form of government, the office of County Auditor was not established until the year 1884. Prior to that time the County Clerk also served as the auditor. Also unusual is the fact that only four

CHIMNEY FIRE

The Carpinteria fire department was called to the home of Reg Thomas on Foothill road shortly after six o'clock Tuesday evening as the result of a chimney fire which was being fanned by a brisk breeze. The department stood by until danger of farm buildings being ignited by the sparks had passed.

Local Man Wins All Matches Of Gun Club Last Sunday

Ray G. Bassett of the Carpinteria Gun Club, got off to a good start last Sunday in the three matches held at the State Park Range and after capturing the first match with a score of 495 out of a possible 500 to win the H. B. Smith Memorial trophy, proceeded to annex the other two matches. Leon Potter captured second place in the first match, which was over the 100 yard course, with a score of 493 and Roy Gradle placed third with 490. Others entered and scores were: L. I. Plank, 488; H. Griffiths, 488; Wm. Hummel, 485; H. Smith, 485; Chas. Higbee, 483; A. Morganfield, 479.

Bassett annexed the second match, iron sight shoot in four positions, with a score of 379 in 400, for possession of the Quaker State Oil Co. trophy; and finished up the day by winning the Victoria Motor trophy with a score of 370 in 400, in the fifty

COURT HEARING ON SALE OF OWEN'S PROPERTY SET FOR APRIL 11

The matter of the purchase of the Owens property from the estate of Mrs. Annie Owens, for the new grammar school site will come up for approval of the Court on April 11. Since it is necessary to purchase property outright in estate matters, the land is being purchased by Mrs. Emma G. Wood, who will in turn sell it to the grammar school district on installments over a four year period. Mrs. Wood's bid was the only one received on the property and as soon as the court has approved the transaction bids for construction of the new school will be asked.

FELLOWSHIP CLUB TO HEAR TALK ON LEGAL DOCUMENTS

Del F. Kent, secretary of the Good Fellowship Men's Club, has announced that Mr. Edward H. Stamm of the Trust Department of the Security First National Bank will be the speaker at the next meeting of the Club on Monday evening in the Community Church at 6:30 p. m. Mr. Stamm has chosen as his topic, "Probates, Wills and Trusts," a subject which should be of interest to many men in the Valley.

The dinner committee will be composed of Lloyd Hales, Chairman, Merle Shride, C. T. Ingerson, All Harper, and C. Card Whitcomb. All men of the Carpinteria valley are cordially invited to attend.

Mrs. Clarence R. Sawyer and Mrs. Robert Sawyer were shopping in Los Angeles yesterday.

C. E. NEUMAN TELLS OF VOCATIONAL WORK OVER RADIO

C. E. Neuman, head of the vocational agriculture department of the high school, was interviewed on the program of the Associated Governmental Service clubs on radio station KTMS Monday afternoon, being interviewed by George Woodhams of the county horticultural department. Neuman described the vocational classes in the local school and told of the cooperative set-up between the department and the valley orchards, including the library and the new insectary.

ANNUAL T. B. CLINIC TO BE HELD NEXT WEEK

In connection with the continuous program of the County Health Department for protection of residents of the county against tuberculosis, the annual spring chest clinic will be held in Carpinteria next Monday and Tuesday by Dr. Peter Cohen, who is in charge of this phase of the County health program. Dr. Cohen will be assisted by County Public Health Nurses, Miss Helen L. Woodworth and Miss Edna J. Coldrum.

The examination will include check-ups and x-ray examination of students of both the high school and elementary schools who have been previously examined and found susceptible to the disease and a number of adults. The clinic will be conducted in the Veteran's Memorial building and an evening clinic will be held Monday night for the benefit of those who are employed and unable to be present during the day.

NEW ROAD SOUGHT FOR MOUNTAIN AREA NEAR HERE

A new road through the mountains back of Carpinteria is in prospect, according to reports from the U. S. Forestry Department. Engineers from the U. S. forest regional office are expected here this week to go over the territory of a proposed road connecting Carpinteria with the El Cielo scenic road.

From previous studies it is believed that the new road will connect with the Casitas Pass Road, near the Solari-Schweizer Ranch and that a portion of an old road built to the summit by an oil company may be utilized.

If such a road is built it would serve as a scenic drive and as a fire protection on both the north and south side of the range, including on the north Gibraltar and Juncal watersheds, and on the south the eastern area of Montecito and the Carpinteria Valley.

WORK SHEETS ON CONSERVATION MUST BE FILED

The California Agricultural Conservation Committee announced March 21, 1938 that April 15, 1938 is the final date for County Committee acceptance of work sheets for participation under the 1938 Agricultural Conservation program.

This does not apply to the filing of preliminary forms under the Range Program. A closing date will be set for this program when the necessary forms are available.

Important is the fact that filing any form or information required under either the crop or range phase of the program does not automatically bring about inclusion under the other phase for which required forms or information are not filed. The two phases are separate and distinct, and the requirements for participation are likewise separate and independent of each other.

Farmers interested in participation in the Conservation program and have not previously filed a work sheet should contact the Association office, Room 11, Post Office Building before the deadline set.

Mrs. Henry Sturmer, chairman of legislation for the County Federation of Women's Clubs, is attending the luncheon given this noon at Santa Barbara State college by the local branch of the California League of Women voters for the state president, Mrs. Carl L. Voss and a number of the state directors, when legislative problems are to be discussed.

Farm Bureau to Construct Own Building in Berkeley

TRAFFIC DEATHS SHOW DECREASE TO DATE OVER 1937

There were 99 fewer traffic deaths in California during the first two months of 1938 than during the corresponding period of 1937, Director Ray Ingels of the Department of Motor Vehicles revealed in a report to Governor Frank F. Merriam.

The figures for this year show 220 deaths in January, 195 in February, while the January figure for last year was 305 and for February, 209.

Director Ingels said that the present intensive campaign for safe driving, both through enforcement and education, apparently was bringing the desired results.

He pointed out that this reduction, if maintained during the year, would bring the California toll for 1938 under 2,000. The toll for 1937 was 3,139 fatalities.

The increasing popularity during the past few months of United States Savings Bonds as an investment is shown by figures released this week by the Carpinteria Post Office. Not only is this true of the country in general, but also for the Carpinteria district, as figures show that approximately ten times as much money has been invested through the local office in these bonds since Aug. 31, 1937 to the present date, as was invested during the year Sept. 1, 1936 to Aug. 31, 1937.

Detailed analysis of the daily sale at each of the post offices throughout the country authorized to sell Savings Bonds was begun on Sept. 1, 1936 and for the year ending Aug. 31, 1937, showed that the Carpinteria Office had sold $3,700 of bonds and stood 83rd out of 176 post offices of the second class in California. With the sales showing made to date, the local office is expected to advance far up the list when figures are totaled for the year ending on Aug. 31st.

These bonds were first offered for sale on March 1, 1935 and the

TEMPERATURE DROPS NEAR FROST LINE

Carpinteria lemon growers have been watching the thermometers with some concern for the past three nights, wondering if they have been a little hasty in putting their smudge pots in storage. The temperature at the Solari-Schweizer ranch in Rincon canyon went to 28 degrees Tuesday and Wednesday nights, and a light smudging was put on. Other valley temperatures were reported dangerously near the frost line.

Announcement was made today by Ulah E. Smith, President of the Santa Barbara County Farm Bureau, that the California Farm Bureau Federation, representing 43 County Farm Bureaus, 500 Farm Centers, and 25,000 farm families throughout the state, starts this month construction of its own building in Berkeley, the culmination of a twenty-year ambition by this leading farm group.

Plans for the dedicatory exercises, to be held probably in September, said Mr. Smith, will include the laying of the corner stone in which the names of 30,000 members, the quota for 1938, will be sealed.

The new structure will house the state Farm Bureau offices now being maintained on the campus of the University of California, in San Francisco, and in Berkeley; and will provide meeting place for the board of directors, departmental meetings, and various

THE TYRANNY OF WORDS

For the sake of words and what they represent in Europe and Asia, peace is annihilated, parliaments dissolve, and bombs fall on helpless civilian populations. The air crackles with the contending broadcast of dictators proclaiming fascism, communism, totalitarianism, and all the other isms that crash into the daily pronouncements of nations lined up in warring camps, each shouting its own slogan of hate.

Here in America men do not solemnly forswear all but brown shirts, or black shirts, or red shirts, and the ideologies back of those colors. But neither have we escaped the tyranny of words. The cry, "Hot Cargo!" with all its implications, has helped to drive ships from our shores, and has thrown men out of work in farming communities far from seaport towns. Today the slogans of agitators threaten shut-downs and throw picket lines around idle industries that once supported thriving communities.

Weighty wordage, as well as the compact slogan, often confuses our thinking. Secretary Hull, in 5000 ponderous words, recently set up a word-screen that left us all just a little more bewildered about our foreign policy than before. In California we have our own horrible example of befogged phraseology in the so-called Garrison Bond Act, which all good citizens are supposed to digest before the November election. Twelve thousand words long, this proposal, according to some who have studied it, doesn't in all its length develop a single clear reason why the existing restrictions governing the floating of revenue bonds should be relaxed, as it advocates. All around us the political air is highly charged with movements leaning on slogans that conceal spend-thrift utopianism, fascism, communism, or some other ism!

And now, as perhaps never before, our greatest safeguard against the tyranny of words and the evils they may represent lies in one word—Democracy!

"THE SELFISH FEW . . ."

President Roosevelt's recent diagnosis of the causes of the nation's economic relapse, in which he blames "the selfish few," doubtless will stir bitter controversy. In many circles, it will be interpreted as a reopening of the government's attacks on business. And business—legitimate business, which is making a valiant fight to keep its doors open and its men at work—is getting a little tired of being made "the whipping boy" whenever the occasion seems to demand a public flogging.

Selfishness, without doubt, IS at the bottom of the current recession. Mr. Roosevelt's diagnosis, in that respect, is correct. But his apparent assumption that "the selfish few" are confined to captains of industry is open to serious challenge.

The increasingly bitter jurisdictional wars be-

The Churches

Carpinteria has a number of Churches, whose pastors and members will be glad to welcome you to their services.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SOCIETY
Christian Science Society, Carpinteria, a branch of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Mass., holds service every Sunday at 11 o'clock a. m., Sunday School at 9:45 o'clock. Mid-week meetings every Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock.

A reading room is maintained in the church building, open Tuesday afternoons (except holidays) from 2:30 to 4:30 o'clock.

"Unreality" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon on Sunday in all Christian Science Churches, branches of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Massachusetts. The Golden Text is from I John: "The world passeth away, and the lust thereof: but he that doeth the will of God abideth for ever."

One of the Bible citations in the Lesson-Sermon presents these words from the Psalms: "Oh that men would praise the LORD for his goodness, and for his wonderful works to the children of men! . . . They that go down to the sea in ships, that do business in great waters; these see the works of the LORD, and his wonders in the deep. . . He maketh the storm a calm, so that the waves thereof are still."

Correlative passages from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, state: "We must learn that evil is the awful deception and unreality of existence. Evils is not supreme; good is not helpless; nor are the so-called laws of matter primary, and the law of Spirit secondary. . . The Psalmist saith:

tween labor czars, with complete disregard of the public welfare, seems to indicate that power-drunk labor leaders deserve to be placed in the ranks of "the selfish few." Terrific tax burdens, necessitated by extravagant government officials, would indicate that they, too, should be added to "the selfish few."

There are still others who should be placed in this new listing of America's public enemies—and we hope that Mr. Roosevelt, when he gives another speech, will place them there. "The selfish few" are far too many!

PATENTS AND PEOPLE

That old quote about a man, a mouse-trap, and the marks the world makes coming to his door, seems to still catch the ear of everyone with an idea and a set of tools. Last week, 732 hopeful humans received papers from the United States Patent Office on 732 ingenious inventions, calculated to bring the world running to their doorsteps.

Included in the list were everything from lip-protectors to blasting powder, from a thermometer "shaker downer" to a tire stretcher, and yes—there WAS a mouse-trap, an automatic mouse-trap, guaranteed to re-set itself for Mouse Number Two after disposing of Mouse Number One.

Also on the list were a mechanical calling-card for hit-and-run drivers and a "golf-rake." The calling-card was a handy device to drop the license plate from a hit-run car, thus marking it for police attention. The golf-rake—not the nineteenth hole variety—was a machine intended to retrieve those balls that drop carefully into every bit of water they happen to pass.

Those and 700 other gadgets—running from Rube Goldberg contraptions to serious discoveries—are the product of one week's work on the part of America's inventive mind.

Crazy, impractical, silly, absurd! Yes, many of them are! Yet with just patents as these began the careers of such great discoveries as the telephone, telegraph, radio and motion picture.

"The Lord on high is mightier than the noise of many waters, yea, then the mighty waves of the sea."

THE CARPINTERIA COMMUNITY CHURCH

Rev. Deane F. Babbitt, Pastor.

Christianity without Christ is a contradiction in terms. If the Christ of the creeds has become a stranger to us, and if the hymns in which we chant His praises have a note of unreality, it is time for us to ask ourselves "What Think Ye of Christ?" As the third in a series of studies on "Beliefs that Matter," Rev. Deane F. Babbitt will use as his theme Sunday morning, "Him Whom We Serve!"

Junior High Christian Endeavor will meet at 3:30 in the McLean Youth Chapel, with D. Stanley Lane as leader. Tuxis Choir is at work on the Easter Cantata at 5:30 in the afternoon. Youth Fellowship convenes at 6:30, with Miss Ruby Musick directing the study of "Cultivating and Eye for Goodness." The social hour following the meeting will be in charge of Katherine Ingerson and Bill Catlin.

RINCON ROAD WORK NEAR COMPLETION

Adding of another 10-foot lane of pavement to the two-lane section on Coast highway between one mile north of Rincon creek and the easterly boundary of Santa Barbara county is nearly completed, advises the Automobile Club of Southern California engineering department.

Although progress was delayed by rains, the job is expected to be finished by April 9.

Colonial in style, the Missouri Building will form one wing of the Court of States in the 1939 Golden Gate International Exposition.

WOMEN IN THE NEWS

By LEONE BAXTER

From Hollywood to Hangtown, women are weighing the words of the roving English author, J. B. Priestly, now visiting California, who disarms his audience with unreserved admission that it's impolite business to go about pointing at other people's mistakes—and then proceeds to do exactly that, directing his thunder this time toward women in this country.

The "freedom" of American women, according to Mr. Priestly, is as heavy a yoke as their household drudgery of former years, which many modern women long since have escaped. The strenuous job of keeping up personal appearance, says the author, and the general desperate effort to cultivate mind and body, to develop poise, personality and charm, never allow an American woman to let down on either "culture" or coquetry, even in middle years or old age.

One of our own distinguished Californians, former Congresswoman Florence P. Kahn—who aptly illustrates the truism that age brings its own privileges and rewards—probably would agree with the Englishman, that strident accent on youth often is a tragic boomerang for older women. Recently speaking before an Ad Club gathering of men and women who write the copy of newspapers and magazines, Mrs. Kahn seasoned the discussion with the salty comment:

"Women have been propagandized about personal appearance until many have grown haggard trying to look their best!"

Author Priestly goes much farther than that. "A few wrinkles," he says, "a washed, pale cheek, a mouth without lipstick, comfortable old clothes—how welcome the sight of a woman like that would be—at least to one traveling Englishman, homesick, perhaps for his native frumpiness!"

Viewing the whole picture, one must admit with Mrs. Kahn that it's silly to worry away the bloom of youth trying to preserve it. But it's doubtful that even the most charming, eager-to-please American woman whom the popular Mr. Priestly is likely to meet in his travels, will be willing to go frumpy like her proverbial British cousins, even to please a homesick English author.

For in this country, busy women in all walks of life, with very little time and less money, augmented by the flair for fitting good taste into their budgets, have earned the delighted regard of American men—most of whom (thank heaven!) do not share the Englishman's high esteem for feminine frumpiness.

CUESTA GRADE WORK TO BE COMPLETED IN OCT.

Grading and paving of a new four-lane divided highway over Cuesta summit on the coast highway in San Luis Obispo county is expected to be completed about October 11, the Automobile Club of Southern California is advised. Included in the work is a grade separation over the Southern Pacific railway. Traffic is using the existing pavement, except for about one mile where it passes through construction over surfaced and maintained passageways.

SEBASTIAN WINS APPROVAL OF WRESTLING FANS

Wrestling fans who attended last night's show were given a treat in the match between Nick Lutze, the Venice lifeguard, and Don Sebastian, the new singing muscle twister from Mexico. Sebastian held the championship title in Mexico and, if he continues to force his winning streak, will get a chance at some of the top-notchers. He is an aggressive wrestler and, best of all, does not have to resort to dirty tactics to receive the referees decision. As an added attraction the Don lifts his voice to the strains of La Paloma and other songs native to his country. Lutze is always a worthy opponent for any one of the wrestlers and is popular with the fans.

This weeks card presented wrestlers from both the Olympic Auditorium and the Hollywood Legion Stadium, a combination that is unusual.

The semi-windup brought together Myron Cox, another lifeguard, and George Harben, the Florida boy who could pass for Charles Laughton.

In the curtain-raiser, the local boy who looks as though he would make good, Vaugh Derianian, met Les Grimes, a newcomer. The second event brought back Steve Strelch, the wild man from Hollywood. Strelch traded bad faces with Jim Pedigro, also new to Santa Barbara.

TENNIS NOTES
By G. W. Hitchcock

The men's double tournament, sponsored by the Santa Barbara Tennis association, was won Sunday by Julio Bortolazzo and Joe Egus, who defeated Leslie Allen and Mike Koury in the finals. The score by sets was 9-7, 6-8, 6-4.

Some of the fastest tennis seen in Santa Barbara was enjoyed by a capacity crowd of onlookers at the stadium courts. All contestants were in top form, and there was consistent applause for the many excellent shots made.

Preliminaries to the finals were played Sunday morning, with Tom Kruger and Henry Shokneth losing to Allen and Koury, 6-8, 6-4.

The second semi-final match was played later, with the Bortolazzo-Egus team downing Paul, Jr., and Don Wilson, the top-flight brothers' team from Ventura. This match was one of the closest of the series; final count being 8-6, 9-7.

Of interest to many younger girls in Santa Barbara will be the junior girls' tennis invitational matches, to be held at the Biltmore on April 16. G. W. Hitchcock and Hal Gorham, local managers of the tourney, announce it will be open to girls under 18, and girls under 16. The local teams will be pitted against the junior girls of Ventura, under Harold Chaffee.

KERN COUNTY FLOWERS

Owing to heavy rain and cold weather, flower development has been retarded in Kern County, according to reports received by the Touring Department of the National Automobile Club from the Kern County Chamber of Commerce. In the Shafter area, flowers should be nearing their height by the end of this month and, under mild and warm weather conditions, should last for two or three weeks in their showing. In the Arvin district there has been still less development. The White Wolf Grade is bordered by a little color but it will be two weeks before it nears the peak.

SANTA FE TO USE AIR-CONDITIONED BUSES

Air conditioned buses will soon go into service on Santa Fe Trail Transportation Company's interstate lines. The new equipment, insulated against heat, cold, vibration and noise, differs radically from conventional types now in use. A mechanical unit controls temperatures summer and winter, washes, filters and changes air every three minutes.

CUYAMA VALLEY ROAD OPEN

The Santa Maria Division of Highways has reported to the Touring Department of the National Automobile club that the road through Cuyama Valley would be open March 23. The mountain section is declared in fine condition and a fill has been completed across the Cuyama River.

Louise Campbell has been living out of a trunk, ever since she returned to Hollywood to start work in "Men With Wings." Hasn't had time to look for a place to live so she's taken temporary quarters in a Hollywood hotel. Eleanore Whitney is all happy again because her mother is very much improved, following a serious operation.

W. C. Fields took time out from preparation of his next assignment, "Behind the Eight Ball," to entertain at his home with a stag party for a few friends. The guest list included Joe Leone, famous New York restaurateur, William LeBaron, Gregory La Cava, Bob Howard, Paul Jones, Charlie Beyer, Gene Fowler, Mack Sennett, Jim Carroll, Earl Carroll and Edgar Bergen.

Jack Benny off for a New York vacation, where he'll stay until he's called back to Paramount to start his role in "Artists and Models of 1938." The Yacht Club Boys leave Hollywood, when they complete their roles in "Cocoanut Grove," to fill an engagement at the Chez Paree cafe in Chicago. Tito Guizer, who plays with Martha Raye in "Tropic Holiday," is teaching her Spanish. Marsha Hunt is still trying to get away from Hollywood for a motor trip through the South. Olympe (O-lamp) Bradna bought the land adjoining her property in Van Nuys so that she's have a clear view of the nearby valley. Fred MacMurray says that one of the things he appreciates most about Hollywood prosperity is that he can have a telephone plug in every room of his house.

"GOLDEN BOY" AT LOBERO THEATRE TONIGHT, SAT.

You go down, thinking that you are going up!

This statement might well describe the character of Joe Bonaparte, the cross-eyed Italian kid—hero of Clifford Odets' new play, "Golden Boy" which Homer Curran and the Group Theater are bringing to the Lobero Theater for two performances, Friday and Saturday evening, April 1 and 2.

Joe Bonaparte, the character to be played by Francis Lederer, loves his violin, but he also loves the money he can make in the prize-ring. When he finds he can really fight, and can make enough money to buy the things he has always wanted, Joe leaves his home to climb that shaky ladder of success as welter weight champion of the world. He buys an expensive car, expensive shirts and falls in love with his manager's mistress.

Santa Barbara theatergoers will see a new Francis Lederer when he steps upon the Lobero Theater stage for two performances Friday and Saturday evenings, April 1 and 2, as Joe Bonaparte. Betty Furness, acclaimed as one of Hollywood's most beautiful actresses and whose dramatic interpretation of the character of Larna Moon, has been forecast by directress Stella Alder as one of the surprise per-

OCCIDENTAL GLEE CLUB TO BE AT LOBERO APRIL 5TH

Paul McCoolle, well-known Santa Barbara pianist, will be the guest artist on the Occidental College Glee Club Concert to be given at the Lobero Theater Tuesday, April 5, at 8:30 p. m. This will be Mr. Coole's farewell appearance before embarking on a concert tour of the Antipodes. Mr. McCoolle by his brilliant work has attracted the attention of critics in both this country and in Europe, having toured Europe, Canada, and the Western states. His concert career began at the age of fifteen in the Northwest. He is noted for his skill in widely varying fields, from Bach to DeFalla. While studying several years in Paris, he spent two seasons studying Bach and Eighteenth Century music with the great Landowska.

Isobel Morse Jones of the Los Angeles Times says, "He has fine pianistic equipment and interprets with sympathy." A Seattle critic spoke of his "Vital playing and fire of execution."

McCoolle will play two groups of numbers on the concert of April 5. The Men's Glee club and the Women's Glee club, champions of the Pacific Southwest Inter-Collegiate Glee club competition, will each present two groups of numbers; and the two clubs, comprising 80 students, will combine to sing a group of acapella numbers.

AUDITOR'S RECORDS REVEAL GROWTH OF CO. WEALTH

men have served as county auditor since the office was established. J. T. Johnson served as the first auditor, being elected November 4, 1884. He took office in January 1885, serving until 1895 when he was succeeded by Emile Goux. Goux served until 1899 when he was succeeded by S. B. Schauer, formerly of Carpinteria. Schauer served until 1919 at which time he voluntarily retired from office.

Albert T. Eaves, the present auditor was elected following Schauer's retirement and took office in January, 1919. Prior to his election, Eaves had served as chief deputy clerk for fourteen years. He also served for some time in the Ventura County Auditor's and Recorder's office, just before returning to his old home in Santa Barbara, where he had been reared and educated.

Ventura County Once Part of Santa Barbara County.

One of the most interesting facts brought out by Mr. Eaves, and one of which not many people are aware, is the fact that in the early days the boundaries of Santa Barbara County included what is today known as Ventura County. It was not until 1872 that Ventura County was created out of the eastern portion of Santa Barbara County.

Delving into ancient record books, yellowed and musty with age, Eaves found that when the State of California was only a mere child in the sisterhood of states, eighty years ago, (1857), the tax levy for Santa Barbara County, which then included Ventura County, was only $16,650.43. Twenty years later, after the counties had been divided, in 1877, the records show that the tax levy had doubled and re-doubled to reach the sum of $69,180.74. This sum, however, appears as a mere trifle when compared to the State Controller's report for the year 1936-37, which gives the tax levy for Ventura County as $1,980,361.38 and for Santa Barbara County as $2,693,049.07, or a total of $4,673,410.45 for the two counties as compared to the paltry sum of $16,650.43 recorded for this area eighty years ago.

The funds of the county treasury have also kept pace with this increase in the tax levy according to figures available in the old records from which the above items were taken. The funds on hand eighty years ago, before the counties were divided, are shown as $3,444.91. This amount, today, would cover but a fraction of the interest on monies in the treasuries of the two counties, since at the present time Santa Barbara County alone has about $3,000,000, and although exact figures on Ventura county are not available at this writing, it is estimated that there must be about $2,000,000 in the treasury of that county according to last years reports.

Rapid Increase Since 1900

Evidence of the rapid growth of the county since 1899, when

S. B. Schauer took office as county auditor, is the fact that at that time the entire assessed valuation of the county was but $12,871,898 and that twenty years later, when Schauer retired, this valuation had almost tripled, reaching the sum of $36,234,160. Mr. Eaves first annual report after he took office in 1919 showed that this sum had increased to $47,320,405. Today, the assessed valuation of the county stands at $115,042,934, showing an average increase during the past 19 years of approximately $4,000,000 per year.

According to information brought to light by Mr. Eaves, the board of Supervisors and the County Auditor had a comparatively easy time back in 1899, as compared to the present day. At that time the Board of Supervisors met but four times a year, quarterly, and allowed about 1000 claims at each meeting and the amount of business passing through the auditor's office was less than $400,000. Twenty years later (1919) the number of warrants passing through the office had increased to about 1200 a month and the volume of business had increased to $1,000,000 annually. The following year the total number of warrants increased to 17,681 for the year and the volume of business to $1,386,297.00. This increase has continued until now it is necessary for the Supervisors to meet regularly three times a month, with occasional special meetings, and it is estimated that approximately 60,000 warrants will pass through the office during the present year and that the volume of business will be about $7,000,000.

Since the general law requires that all county moneys, and all other moneys placed in the custody of the treasurer by official authority, must be disbursed only on warrants issued by the auditor, except on settlement with the State of California, a vast amount of business has passed through the auditor's office during the past twenty years; over 785,000 warrants totaling the high sum of approximately $79,000,000 having been issued during that period.

Duties Many and Varied

Just an inkling of the vast volume of business and the amount of detail involved in the administration of the Auditor's office is shown by the fact that there are approximately 100 political subdivisions of the county, consisting of school districts, sanitary districts, lighting districts, cemetery districts, water works districts, conservation districts, etc., and that the financial transactions of all of these districts are routed through this office.

In addition to the district business, the general county government business is of considerable volume and the auditor keeps a control of the expenditures of the various departments through budget appropriations allowed by the board of supervisors, and it is his duty to see that all claims are kept within the various items of the budget insofar as the county government is concerned.

The county auditor also computes the rates and extends the taxes on the assessment roll, after which the books are turned over to the county tax collector for the collection of taxes. The auditor is also custodian of delinquent tax rolls and handles the redemption of property sold for the state.

Also among the auditor's duties is the auditing and approval of all school warrants covering school financial transactions and all of these warrants, as well as all other county warrants, are returned to his office for permanent record after payment by the county treasurer. All financial records of federal, state and county welfare work as the same affects the aged, orphans and blind, are kept in the auditor's office and all warrants for such aid are issued by that office. All warrants for payment of court expenses in criminal cases, grand jury fees, etc., are issued directly through this office upon an order of the court. In addition, the auditor with the chairman of the board of supervisors and the district attorney, makes a monthly count of the money in the county treasury, keeps records and makes deposit permits.

Valuable Service to Public

Among his other duties, Mr. Eaves compiles a number of reports in regard to finances, taxes and budget matters for distribution to those of the public who take sufficient interest in the welfare of the county to avail themselves of these reports. Included in these reports are: "The Preliminary Budget," "The County Budget," "The Taxpayers' Guide," "The Annual Financial Report," "The Rates of Taxation Sheet," and "Statement of Bonded Indebtedness."

Regardless of the great amount of business handled through his office as previously indicated in this article, Mr. Eaves endeavors to get into every department of the office every day, and this is no small task. His deputies are instructed to handle only work that is more or less routine under specific directions. Anything and everything that is not "routine" must go to his desk for personal attention and he frequently assigns a deputy to other work while he takes personal charge of a particular department and actually does the work. In addition to the general administration of the office, he also gives his personal attention to the budget, fixing of tax rates, and personally compiles the tax rate sheets.

Those of the public who wish to obtain information in regard to matters handled by Mr. Eaves' office need not hesitate in calling at his office, for they will always receive the most courteous of treatment and will find that Mr. Eaves, despite the fact that practically every minute of his day is filled, will do everything possible to assist them.

PALM SPRINGS ROAD DETOUR

Motorists are delayed a few minutes in driving between White-water Junction, and Palm Springs, according to the Touring Department of the National Automobile Club. A short section of highway between Palm Springs station and the new Tahquitz Creek Wash bridge suffered a wash out during the recent flood and a detour has been provided across the wash, which is rough and slow. There are also other sections where part of the pavement has been undermined and caution is advisable, especially after dark.

Four million visitors are expected to enter California in 1939 for the Golden Gate International Exposition.

PURCHASE OF U. S. SAVINGS BONDS SHOW GAIN HERE

demand has grown steadily. Up to March 7 of this year the total maturity value of bonds sold throughout the country amounted to $1,584,462,875, purchased by more than 1,260,000 investors, representing an average sale for each business day since March 1, 1935, when these bonds were first sold, of $1,720,375.

The rapid increase in the demand for these bonds is shown by the fact that the sale of Savings Bonds for the calendar year 1937 for the entire country was 34.2 per cent greater than for 1936, and the year 1936 exceeded the ten-months' sale of these bonds in 1935 by 82.8 per cent.

The Government to date actually retains more than 92 per cent of all the money that has been invested in Savings Bonds, less than 8 per cent of the bonds sold having been redeemed.

The bonds come in units of $25.00, $50.00, $100.00, $500.00 and $1,000, with the $100.00 unit proving the most popular. The $25.00 unit ranks second, the $50.00 unit, third; the $1,000 unit fourth and the $500.00 unit, fifth.

The majority of the registered owners are small investors who are buying the bonds out of income and replies to a recent questionnaire sent out to bond holders indicate that most purchases are made to provide funds for education of children, retirement funds or to set up a reserve for emergencies.

Among the features of the bonds most frequently influencing their purchase are safety, the constant availability of the funds and the fact that Savings Bonds increase 3 1/3 per cent in value if held for ten years. The redemption feature, which eliminates any chance of loss to the investor, appeals to all purchasers.

FARM BUREAU TO CONSTRUCT OWN BUILDING

group conferences scheduled from time to time by the California Farm Bureau Federation.

"Santa Barbara County Farm Bureau members," says Mr. Smith, "concur with the statement just issued by President Ray B. Wiser of the California Farm Bureau Federation that construction of the state headquarters building, free from indebtedness from the very start, is one of the most popular projects undertaken by the Farm Bureau, and meets with their heartiest approval.

"Our state organization merits a permanent home of its own. The dream of twenty years now is being realized.

"We pledge our proportionate share of the 30,000 foundation members, virtually charter members, whose names are to be sealed in the corner stone.

"No organization has accomplished or is accomplishing more for California agriculture than our Farm Bureau.

"Its objectives, as stated in the by-laws are 'to work for the solution of the problems of the farm, the farm home, and rural community, by use of the recognized advantages of organized action, to the end that those engaged in the various branches of agriculture may have opportunity for happiness and prosperity in their chosen work."

The Farm Bureau, unique among all farm organizations, works closely with the Agricultural Extension Service of the University of California and with the United States Department of Agriculture. Membership in the Farm Bureau is on a farm family basis, including men, women, and boys and girls.

"I call on all of our officers and members," Mr. Smith said today, "to do their part in membership acquisition so our county may be fittingly represented in the 30,000 quota of foundation members for 1938."

Oxy whipped Pomona last week by an 87 to 44 score. The Tigers displayed a power in the field events which spells trouble for any opposition yet to come in the current campaign.

Saturday's battle will mark the last warm-up meet for Oxy prior to its big clash with San Diego State on April 9. The Aztec-tiger duel will undoubtedly settle the 1938 Southern California conference championship, and the teams will be on practically even terms when they start tossing spikes at each other on the Eagle Rock field.

GAS SALES SHOW UPWARD TREND

Sacramento—A return of the upward trend in gasoline sales in California was indicated during February, the State Board of Equalization reported today.

Sales for last month amounted to 118,823,511 gallons, on which a tax totalling $3,564,705.33 was assessed by the Board. This represented a gain of 2.48 per cent over the $3,443,515.11 collected for the same month of the previous year.

Despite the increase over February, 1937, last month's tax still was less than the $3,802,938.78 assessed against January gasoline tax sales. A three-day difference in length of the two months was considered partly responsible for decrease.
