Editor's Note: We present this week the fourth of a series of articles dealing with the duties and history of the various county offices. This week's article has been made possible through the cooperation of Albert T. Eaves, County Auditor, who has spent many hours in gathering the facts and figures presented.

That Santa Barbara County has enjoyed a steady and healthy growth is evident in the records of the county auditor. Although the county was only established in 1854, there is evidence that the county auditor was not established until the year 1894. Prior to this time the County Clerk also served as the auditor. Also unusual is the fact that only one (Continued on page 6)

CHIMNEY FIRE

The Carpinteria fire department was activated early Sunday morning when a blaze in the vicinity of the home of Roy Thomas on Foothill road shortly after six o'clock Tuesday evening was brought under control. The attack was made more difficult by the winds and the location of the fire which was being fanned by a brisk breeze. The department stood by until danger of farm buildings being ignited by the sparks had passed.

Local Man Wins All Matches Of Golf Club Last Sunday

Ray G. Bassett of the Carpinteria G.C. Club, got off a good start last Sunday in the three matches held at the State Park Range and after capturing the first match with a score of 405 out of a possible 500 to win the H. B. Smith Memorial trophy, also captured first, but the truest picture of this growth can be obtained from the early records of the county with regard to assessments, revenues and expenditures, with those of the present day, and this data can be found in the office of the County Auditor's office, which is under the administration of Albert T. Eaves.

Unusual of the county of Santa Barbara is the inceptio of the county form of government, the office of the County Auditor was not established until the year 1894. Prior to this time the County Clerk also served as the auditor. Also unusual is the fact that only one (Continued on page 6)

C. E. NEUMAN TELLS VOCATIONAL WORK OVER RADIO

C. E. Neuman, head of the vocational agriculture department of the high school, was last afternoon interviewed by George Woodhams of the county agricultural department. Neuman described the vocational classes in the local school and told of the cooperative set-up between the school and the valley orchards, including the library and the new notebook.

ANNUAL T. B. CLINIC TO BE HELD NEXT WEEK

In connection with the continuous program of the County Health Department for protection of people from tuberculosis, the annual spring clinic to be held in Carpinteria next Monday and Tuesday by Dr. Peter Cohen, is in charge of this phase of the County health program. Dr. Cohen will be aided by County Public Health Nurses, Miss Helen L. Woodworth and Miss Edna J. Childs.

The examination will include members of Women's Clubs, a large number of students of both the high school and elementary schools who have tuberculosis, a test of the and a number of adults. The clinic will be conducted in the Veteran's Memorial building and an evening clinic will be held Monday night for the benefit of those who, because of employment, are unable to be present during the day.

NEW ROAD SOUGHT FOR MOUNTAIN AREA NEAR HERE

A new road through the mountains back of Carpinteria is in prospect, according to reports from the U. S. Forestry Department. Congressmen from the S. E. forest regional office are expected here this week to go over the territory of a proposed road connecting Carpinteria with the south.

From previous studies it is believed that the new road will connect with the California Road near the Solar-Schweizer Ranch and that a portion of an old road built in 1919 by the Santa Barbara oil company may be utilized.

If it is constructed it would serve as a scenic drive and as a fire protection on both the north and south sides of the mountains, including on the north Gibraltar and nearby harbors, and on the south the eastern area of Montecito and the Carpinteria Valley.

WORK SHEETS ON CONSERVATION MUST BE FILED

The California Agricultural Conservation Committee announced March 21, 1938 that April 15, 1938 is the final date for County Committee acceptance of work sheets for participation under the 1938 Agricultural Conservation program.

This does not apply to the filing of preliminary forms under the Range Program. A closing date will be set for this program when the necessary forms are available.

Important is the fact that filling in any form or information required under the crop or range phase of the program does not automatically bring about inclusion under the other phase for which required forms or information are not filled. The two phases are separate and distinct, and the requirements for participation are not identical. They are separate and distinct phases of the program, each of which is being handled and administered by the California Department of Agriculture.

Farmers interested in participation in the Conservation program and have not previously filed a work sheet should contact the Attorney's office, Room 11, Post Office Building before the deadline set.

TEMPERATURE DROPS NEAR FROST LINE

Carpinteria lemon growers have been watching the thermometers for the last few days as the temperatures have fallen to near the frost line. For the past three nights, wondering if they have been a little hasty in putting their lemon trees in the ground. The temperature at the Solari-Schweizer Ranch in Rincon canyon went to freezing, and Mrs. Merle Shride, C. T. Ingersoll and many men in the Valley.

Farmer's Institute to Construct Own Building in Berkeley

The Farmers Institute this year showed 220 deaths in January, 185 in February, while the January figure for last year was 206 and for February, 200.

Director Jones said that the present intensive campaign for safe driving, both through enforcement and education, appears to be bringing the desired results. He pointed out that this reduction, if maintained during the year, would bring the California total for 1937 under 2,000. The toll for 1937 was 3,139 fatalities.

THE TYPRANNY OF WORDS

For the sake of words and what they represent in Europe and Asia, peace is annihilated, parliaments dissolve, and bombs fall on helpless civilian populations. The air crackles with the contending broadcasts of dictators proclaiming fascism, communism, totalitarianism, and all the other isms that create new spectacles of terror. Today the slogans of agitators threaten all but brown shirts, or black shirts, or red shirts, of hate.

Here in America men do not solemnly forewarn all but brown shirts, or black shirts, or red shirts, and the ideologies back those of colors. But neither have we escaped the tyranny of words. The cry "Hot Cargo!" with all its implications, has helped to drive ships from our shores, and has thrown men out of work in farming communities far from seaports. Today the slogans of agitators threaten the careers of such great discoveries as the telephone, telegraph, radio and motion picture.

The increasingly bitter jurisdictional wars between labor and employers, with complete disregard of the law, is one indication of the "selfish few." Terrific tax burdens, necessitated by extravagant government officials, would indicate that they, too, should be added to "the selfish few,"

The "selfish few" are far too many!

PATENTS AND PEOPLE

That old quote about a man, a mouse-trap, and the marks the world makes coming to his door, seems to still catch the ear of everyone with an idea and a set of tools. Last week, 732 hopeful humans received papers from the United States Patent Office on 732 ingenious inventions, calculated to bring the world running to their doorsteps.

Included in the list were everything from lip-pro-tectors to blasting powder, from a thermometer "shaker downer" to a tire stretcher, and yes—there was even a mouse-trap, an automatic mouse-trap, guaranteed to set itself for Mouse Number Two after disposing of Mouse Number One.

Two after disposing of Mouse Number One.

Also on the list were a mechanical calling-card holder, "go-getter for" girls and women, a mechanical calling-card was a handy device to drop the license plate from a hit-run car, thus marking it for police action.

Mr. Roosevelt, when he spoke of America's inventive mind, must admit with Mrs. Kahn that America's inventive mind has not been unhelpful to commerce, and must be added to "the selfish few."

There are still others who should be placed in this new listing of America's public enemies—and that includes Mr. Roosevelt, when he opens another speech, will place them there. "The selfish few" are far too many!

For in this country, busy women in all walks of life, with very little time and money, augmented by the flair for fitting phraseology, how welcome the height of a woman's opinion. "Ladies engineering department.

In this country, busy women in all walks of life, with very little time and money, augmented by the flair for fitting phraseology, welcome the height of a woman's opinion. It is time for us to ask ourselves whether we are not made by words.

careful to look their best!"

Author Priestly gives much further thought to his fellow women, women, according to Mr. Priestly, who disarms his audience with feminine frumpiness. "For in this country, busy women in all walks of life, with very little time and money, augmented by the flair for fitting phraseology, women are weighing the words of, 'What Think Ye of Christ?'"

But it's doubtful that even the most charming, eager-to-please American woman is capable of telling Mr. Priestly is likely to meet in his travels; he is a man who might go frumpy like her proverbial cousin, even to middle ages or old age. The "freedom" of American women, according to Mr. Priestly, is a heavy yoke as their house-hold drudgery of former years, which many modern women long since have abandoned. It's a swindle of upper-class women, according to Mr. Priestly, that they are not helping to care for their older mothers.

SEBASTIAN WINS APPROVAL OF WRESTLING FANS

Wrestling fans who attended last night’s show were given a treat in the match between Nick Lutze, the Venice lifeguard, and Don Sebastian, the new singing muscle twister from Mexico. Sebastian held the championship title in Mexico and, if he continues to make good, Vaughn Derianian, met Les Grimes, a newcomer.

In the curtain-raiser, the local boy who looks as though he would make a good wrestler, Vaughn Derianian, met Les Grimes, a newcomer. The second event brought back Steve Strelich, the wild man from Hollywood. Strelich traded bad faces with Jim Pedigro, also new to Santa Barbara.

161 CUYAMA VALLEY ROAD OPEN

The Santa Maria Division of Highways has reported to the Touring Department of the National Automobile Club that the road through Cuyama Valley, which has been under construction for nearly a year, is nearing completion.

In the Shafter area, flower growers have noted that the drought has brought about a reduction in the size of the plants.

KERN COUNTY FLOWERS

Owing to heavy rain and cold weather, flower development has been retarded in Kern County, according to reports received by the Kern County Chamber of Commerce. In the Shafter area, flowers should be nearing their height by the end of this month and, under mild and warm weather conditions, should last for two or three weeks in their showing. In the Arvin district there has been still less development. The White Wolf Grade is bordered by a little color but it will be two weeks before it nears the peak.

The semi-windup brought to the right-hander, and Mike Kevy in the finals. The score by sets was 9-7, 6-8, 6-4. Some of the finest tennis seen in Santa Barbara was enjoyed by a capacity crowd of enrollees at the stadium courts. All contestants were in top form, and there was constant applause for the many excellent shots made. Preliminaries to the finals were played Sunday morning, with Tom Kryger and Henry Shanks losing to Allen and外国, 6-4, 6-4. The second semi-final match was played later, with the Barton-Kevy team downing Paul, Jr., and Don Wilson, the top-flight brothers’ team from Ventura. This match was one of the closest of the series; final count being 8-6, 0-7.

Of interest to many younger girls in Santa Barbara will be the junior girls’ tennis invitational matches, to be held at the Billmores on April 30. C. W. Rishkovich and Hal Gerber, local managers of the tournament, announce it will be open to girls under 18, and girls under 16. The local teams will be pitted against the junior girls of Ventura, under Harold Chaffee.

Emile Goux served until 1895 when he was succeeded by S. B. Schauer who served as County Auditor.

S. B. Schauer took office as County Auditor, is the fact that at that time the entire assessed valuation of the county was but $32,875.00 and that twenty years later, when he retired, that valuation had almost tripled, reaching the sum of $25,204,150. Mr. Schauer served until 1919 when he was succeeded by Albert T. Eaves, the present auditor.

Mr. Schauer served until 1919 when he was succeeded by Albert T. Eaves, the present auditor.

Mr. Schauer took office in 1919 and showed that the number of warrants issued during the past 19 years of his term of office, was approximately $4,000,000 per year.

According to information brought to light by Mr. Eaves, the amount of business handled by the auditor’s office during the past five years has reached about $100,000,000, and the amount of business passing through the office during that period has increased to $4,000,000 per year.

PURCHASE OF U. S. SAVINGS BONDS SHOW GAIN HERE

(Continued from page 1) demand has grown steadily. Up to March 7 of this year the total number of bonds sold throughout the country amounted to $1,846,932,755, purchased by more than 1,200,000 investors, representing almost every business day since March 1, 1933, when these bonds were first sold, of $1,700,375.

The rapid increase in the demand for these bonds has been the fact that the sale of Savings Bonds is now a matter of record. For each business day since March 1, 1933, when these bonds were first sold, of $1,700,375.

The Government to date actually retains more than 92 per cent of all the money that has been invested in Savings Bonds, less than 8 per cent of the bonds sold having been redeemed. The bonds come in units of $25.00, $50.00 and $1,000, with the $100.00 units prevailing. Each unit of $25.00 unit rank second, the $250.00 unit, third, the $1,000 unit fourth, the $5,000 unit fifth.

The majority of the registered owners indicate that they are buying the bonds out of income and replies to a recent questionaire sent out to bond hold­ers indicate that most purchases are made to provide funds for education of children, retirement funds or to set up a reserve for emergency use.

Among the features of the bond purchase, which ensure their purchase are safety, the constant availability of the funds and the fact that Savings Bonds increase 3% per cent in value if held until maturity.

FARM BUREAU TO CONSTRUCT OWN BUILDING

"Santa Barbara County Farm Bureau members, concurred with the statement just issued by President Ray B. Waver of the California Farm Bureau Federation that construction of the state headquarters building at Los Angeles is free from indebtedness from indebtedness from the very start, is one of the most pop­ular projects undertaken by the Farm Bureau, and meets with their heartfelt approval. "Our state organization merits a permanent home of its own. The dream of twenty years now is in being realized. We feel that our proportionate share of the 35,000 membership dollars, virtually charter members, whose names are to be engrafted in the corner stone. "No organization has accom-lished or is accomplishing more for California agriculture than the Farm Bureau. "It's objectives, as stated in the by-laws are "To work for the solu­tion of the problems of the farm, the home, and rural com­munity, by use of the well-grounded advantages of organized action, to the end that those engaged in the various branches of agriculture may have opportunity for happiness and prosperity in their chosen work."

The Farm Bureau, unique in the organization, which works closely with the Agricul­tural Extension Service of the University of California and with the United States Department of Agriculture. Membership in the Farm Bureau is on a farm family basis, including men, women, and boys and girls. "I call on all of our officers and members," Mr. Smith said today, "to do their part in mem­bership acquisition so our country may be fittingly represented in the 3,000 quota of membership of the farm bureau."
