In the third consecutive night of disturbances in Isla Vista, 13 persons were arrested, at least two persons and three policemen were injured, many persons were clubbed, and tear gas permeated the town, and a dusk to dawn curfew was imposed.

Throughout the night, police were firing guns, gates were clubbed, fights were started, and several students' apartments were broken into by police, at least one person was shot and at least one other was struck by a police car.

Following is a chronology of the night's events as best as can be reconstructed from numerous and conflicting reports:

6:15: Rally is called at Perfect Park. 150-200 persons gather. Police patrol area.

7:00: Officers north on Embarcadero Del Mar, throwing rocks.

7:15: Nordine started on the loop. Crowd growing. Helicopter arrives overhead and announces that I.V. is in a state of "extreme emergency," that the administration is coming to protect private property and order crowds to disperse in the name of the people, or they will be subject to arrest.

9:25: Police gain control of Embarcadero Del Mar, throwing rocks at side streets.

Six to eight police attempt to break up Isla Vista-Del Mar throwing rocks through a window and injuring a girl inside.

Sheriff's pickup truck with M-76 grenade launcher mounted on back and 25-30 Highway Patrolmen carrying shotguns arrive at Francisco Torres.

9:40: Four of five police cars, traveling at about 60 m.p.h., swerves onto left side of Camino Pescadero between Tripc and Pasado striking a pedestrian, Robert Brevig, injuring him 15 yards onto the pavement. Brevig is picked up by an ambulance and taken to Cottage Hospital.

First report is that he is dead on arrival at hospital. At 10:45, hospital denies that anyone brought in DOA. At press time, Sheriff's department announces that Brevig is in serious condition; hospital reports that he is in satisfactory condition.

10:10: Police begin shooting. Four to five shots fired in a car on Embarcadero Del Mar. Molotov cocktails and fire bombs are thrown at police.

10:15: Five police throw rocks and bottles at three students in front of Stop and Go Market. Fifteen police arrive, single out one student, and begin beating him over the head. When another student, Steve Johnson, protests, police begin beating Johnson on the legs.

10:40: First unconfirmed report of use of pepper gas by police.

11:15: Twenty CHP cars now in Isla Vista area. 500-600 students still in area.

11:20: Windsor Tinsdale, a 35 year old Goleta resident and student resident by Robertson Gym, is shot in the shoulder by a University policeman. He is taken by ambulance to Goleta Valley Hospital. Hospital later reports him in satisfactory condition.

Government car, a Mercury Comet, is set on fire on Embarcadero Del Mar. In addition, demonstrators burned several stores, including a liquor store.

11:30: Approximately 12 shots by police fired at a black Valiant attempting to drive off the area.

EDITORIAL: Inevitability & Futility

The violence which has become a fact of life in Isla Vista since Tuesday afternoon is, above all else, a graphic and inescapable indicator of the frustration which has been latent in our community. If we have an community at all, it is a community based on common frustration—born of powerlessness, alienation from one's pre-programmed life, and contempt for authoritarian institutions.

The situation is desparing to all, and we feel compulsion for those whose frustration became overwhelming. But it is time for all of us to assess the political and human price the community has already been forced to pay: the forces of occupation are here; community people are harrassed, beaten, assaulted; police, too, are hurt, and the anger rises on both sides.

On the other hand, the local press says that William Kunstler and Bill Allen are responsible; the "mad, aimless, anarchy" can only be caused by irrational individuals, not irrational conditions, they imply. Sooo the anger between the occupying forces and the students will boil over, and students will lose. Some may die. Middle America, feeling personally threatened, still won't understand. Reagan and Agnew and Mitchell and the notaries are less than human and must be eliminated.

The violence of the past three nights, therefore, must not continue any longer. We condemn the violence; for as is obvious to all—even to those who threw the petrol bombs and set fires—these acts only bring more repression, more fascism, more arrests and more injuries.

The Santa Barbara News-Press has hastly editorialized about the reasons for and nature of the Isla Vista riot. It concluded without definite evidence that the disturbance was planned in advance. Yesterday's News-Press editorial asserts "In Isla Vista, stockpiles of rocks and Molotov cocktails made ridiculous the claim of student leaders that the riot was 'spontaneous'". (When EL GAUCHO asked editor and publisher Stuart Taylor where this information came from, Taylor admitted that it was second hand, from a student who called in and reported what he said he saw.)

The News-Press editorial makes no attempt to help its readers understand what the violence of the past three nights, therefore, must not continue any longer. We condemn the violence; for as is obvious to all—even to those who threw the petrol bombs and set fires—these acts only bring more repression, more fascism, more arrests and more injuries.

"What's wrong is inside people's heads"

To the Editor:

"It is this group, safe in its lily-white suburbs, that must be convinced. Mao says, "Power comes not only of the gun," and a revolution cannot win a shooting war with the power-structure. The standard answer is "Fuck the 'silent majority,' they are pigs." This may be true, but the Revolution can't come about as long as middle-Americans are afraid enough of violence to close their eyes to the power of ideas. The power of ideas is not only the result of fear—fear that one's ideas are not meritorious enough in themselves. The violence I saw tonight in Isla Vista was not the result of fear. But more than that, it was a statement of a lack of faith that our ideas will prove meritorious enough on their own. Meaninglessness violence is not only an unplanned act, it is tactically stupid. It is part of a self-suffiling prophecy which says, "We can't win any other way so let's get violent." The violence insures that we won't win. Because like it or not, the "silent majority" does exist.

To the Editor:

"In the absence of landlords, rents and prices disproportionate to the violations, danger is not always present, except police, occupation by one social class who live there by necessity due to the extreme difficulty of living elsewhere, no legitimate self-defense, economic deprivation by outside interests, social, physical and cultural isolation, high crime rate, and over-policing by an outside agency. So as a ghetto, Isla Vista is reacting to its frustrations, finally, in the same manner, that Watts and Newark reacted to their's.

Basic powerlessness, social ostracism, no legitimate voice, contempt from those in power—these are the standing social-political conditions Isla Vista's own hands where applicable; try the Allen case: all channels exhausted; Administrative refusal to negotiate, maintenance of status quo at all costs; try the arrest of 19 students for "crimes" which 2,000 others could have been charged with.)

And then, The Incident(s): two arrested Tuesday; Richard Underwood grabbed, arrested, beaten in front of a nervous crowd on Wednesday. The rocks start flying at the man who does the dirty work. And it all begins.

Where it goes from here, we have no idea. We do hope the police get out of town. We do hope students start out, that we must start reeducating—not the bank or the realities, but our own lives and our own way of continuing the struggle for a humanistic society.

"The violence can only be suicidal at this time. It can only make complete destruction of the 'Movement.'"

People burn, burn people
To the Editor:

I think I see a parallel. If we don't like a certain form of government in Vietnam, we go in and burn down villages and their inhabitants. If a coup d'etat occurs in Santo Domingo, former President Rafael Trujillo riddled the city with bullets until the situation suits our ideals.

If we don't like our own government, the Moratorium Committee gets lawyers
To the Editor:

I want to take this opportunity to briefly explain the status of the Vietnam Moratorium concert initially scheduled for Feb. 22 in Los Angeles.

By a variety of devious means, the Los Angeles City Council and the Los Angeles Police Department have successfully caused the concert to be postponed several times so that it is now scheduled for March 15.

Though the purpose of the concert is to raise the much needed money for the peace movement in this country, enormous bonds and a few obscure city ordinances have been imposed on the Moratorium Committee, diminishing the possibility of a successful concert.

Consequently, the Moratorium Committee has hired six lawyers full-time for the purpose of procuring an injunction against the actions of the city officials in Los Angeles. The result of their efforts should become known shortly, and the Moratorium Committee will proceed accordingly.

In order that tickets might become available to students on this campus it was necessary to sell them in advance of the final contract negotiations. Otherwise, students would have had to drive to L.A. once tickets became available to the public. But since the status of the concert is in jeopardy now, ticket sales here have been stopped pending further deliberations.

Presently, I would like to ask the more than 1,000 students on this campus holding receipts for tickets to hold on to them until a final decision is made. For those students who purchased tickets at the initial price of $2, please come in and deposit an additional 50 cents, a price increase necessitated by the Los Angeles Police Department.

Fortunately, several British groups that would not have been able to make the Feb. 22 performance will be here on March 15 besides the groups already committed. If and when the concert is performed, it will be the greatest conglomeration of rock stars ever assembled.

Please bear with us and have a little patience. Until the people have the power, such inconveniences are bound to occur.

Congratualtions to gang
To the Editor:

Congratulations to gang!!

War, pregnancies and riots are a lot easier to start than stop. The idiot-children who started the riot Wednesday night have succeeded, if nothing else, in permitting Reagan, Lagomarsino and Bill Huddy to nod their heads knowingly and say to the people, "I told you so!"

Amazing as it may seem, BILL HUDDY WAS RIGHT!!

Right wing KEYT said that the students would go ape-shit, and sure enough, they did. The most ridiculous aspect of the riot was the pointlessness and purposelessness of it. Ninety-eight per cent of the people participating were there from sheer boredom.

REVOLUTION IN THE STREETS!! Bullsh*t.

It was a lot closer to a Roman mob than a revolution with a purpose. Maybe to avoid further disturbances the state should provide free circuses and Wonder Bread every Wednesday night.

The sad part of it is that the unrest which was originally motivated by legitimate grievances has been dissipated into meaningless mob violence.

Not a goddamn thing has been achieved. Go out into the community and see how much damage has been done.

All the bullsh*t which the conservatives have been handing the public for weeks is now irreparable.

In the months to come, UCSB students can expect no sympathy what-so-ever from the community, regardless of how justified our future demands may be.

Several I.V. realties, stores damaged

All of our bank records are intact in the vault. "We are presently doing business out of our Hollister-Sturke branch in Goleta." Second hardest hit was Beaumont-Gribin Von Dyl (formerly I.V.), which suffered about $1,500 worth of damages. All of the windows in front and some of those in back were smashed.

In addition to glass damage, the front end of a desk was smashed, rock damage nured the inside walls and clock, and demonstrators wrote on the outside of the building. Losses at Embarcadero Company were estimated at $300-400. The main damage entails the destruction of the plate glass door. According to a spokesman for the company, all important records were removed Wednesday morning in anticipation of further trouble. The spokesman added, "We were really very fortunate in that they took nothing except two filing cabinets and left the records (that had not been removed) in our office."

All operations of Finear Enterprises were really very fortunate in that they took nothing except all important records were removed Wednesday night. Goleta Valley Realty, also hit by the violence, could not be reached to discern the extent of damages.

In addition to the realities, various stores suffered damages. The Village Green Men's Store had $120 worth of damages, resulting from the breakage of their front window.

Also hit was Isla Vista Bookstore. All of their windows were smashed, but the owner had no idea of the amount of damage. Isla Vista Market suffered around $350 worth of damages. The windows and doors were broken and his alarm was set off. Isla Vista Revall Drugs lost three large plate glass windows, the worth of which are unknown.

In response to reports of outside agitators and demonstrations, secondo Business Office Manager also stated that they "felt fortunate"; damage here totaled only about $50, including two broken windows.

Broken windows constituted the major damages at Finear Realty and Ventura Enterprises. Neither company was able to estimate the financial damages incurred Wednesday night.

Reagan on riot

Vista events, Reagan replied, "Months ago we got information from the meetings of these student groups. We knew about the rent strike in Berkeley and about the new revolutionary tactics of attacking businesses rather than only campus administrations.

"There is less mood present and more bombarding and misogyny. I think this indicates some organization. This is the same pattern that happened in Berkeley with the street people."

On the question of outside agitation Reagan responded, "It happened so fast, I haven't been able to find out. I wouldn't be surprised if the reports later showed outside agitators."

"I was happy to hear that there were students on the other side who tried to halt the burning of the bank. These appear to me to be far more typical of the students. The rest are cowardly, littlebums who have been doing what they have."

There had been a rumor circulating that Reagan planned to call a Regents' meeting to prohibit Kunstler from speaking on other UC campuses. Reagan replied, "No, I will speak with administrators concerning Kunstler before I call a Regents meeting. I am not aware that he is scheduled to speak on other campuses."

"Personally, I believe it is the height of foolishness to invite Kunstler to speak anywhere... He is just a middle-aged juvenile delinquent."

Before Reagan went into a closed executive meeting with the supervisors, he spoke briefly in front of supervisors, press, university representatives including Chancellor Cheadle, and Isla Vista realtors, Jack Schwartz and Mabel Schultz.

Sheriff Webster briefed the governor on the situation, outlining the events of Tuesday and Wednesday, and explained that the real problem with the law enforcement was the lack of forces and the amount of time it took to mobilize additional officers.

Both Schwartz and Mrs. Schultz felt concerned over their safety in Isla Vista. Mrs. Schultz claimed that the administration had warned her that demonstrators may try to vandalize Beaumont-Gribin-Von-Dyl (formerly I.V.) on Tuesday. She was prepared for that and on Wednesday asked the administration if they felt it was over. They warned her, "It was only the appetizer to the main course."

Mrs. Schultz added, "We feel we're fair to the students, but if we don't lower their rents they bomb us."

Schwartz complained, "They didn't bust the windows of the pool hall, which is the pit of all the trouble. The bookstore next door with Communist books was saved and so was the Campus Donut Shop which is the hippie hangout. They only hurt the legitimate businessman."
'Uncle M' world premieres tonight

This evening marks the world premiere of Dubrovnik’s sixteenth century comedy “Uncle M” at 8 o’clock in the UCSB Main Theatre. This first production of an English translation is directed by Georgij Pana, guest instructor and director from the National Academy in Zagreb, Yugoslavia. A classic in the literature of Yugoslavia, it was written by Maria Drize, and first performed in 1550 at the carnival of Dubrovnik.

The production plays Feb. 27-28 and March 4-7. Tickets are available at the Arts and Lectures Ticket Office, the Lobero Theatre, and the Discount Record Center, La Cumbre Plaza.

One-acts are on their way

Coming to UCSB’s Little Theater, next to Ortega Commons, next week will be two bills of graduate directed one-act plays. Playing Monday, Mar. 2, and Tuesday, Mar. 3, will be “417!” by Julian Mayfield, directed by Ed Fisher, “The Space Fan” by James Schevili, directed by Kathy Zeller, and “A Marriage Proposal” by Anton Chekhov, directed by Georgia Allen. Later in the week, on Friday, Mar. 6, and Saturday, Mar. 7, a new bill will be presented, featuring “A Slight Arbe” by Horland Foster, “Talk to Me Like the Rain and Let Me Listen,” by Tennessee Williams, “The Ugly Duckling,” by A. A. Milne, and “A Black Man,” by Leroi Jones. All performances are at 8 p.m. and are free!

‘Los Flamencos’ return to UCen

The evening of Oct. 16 at the UCen was full of unexpected and delightful surprises. Appearing at the invitation of the UCen Activities Committee, “Los Flamencos de las Cuevas” brought the vivacious music and dance of Spanish gypsies to the enthusiastic audience.

The group will be returning to the UCen tonight at 8 p.m. in the Program Lounge. Performing will be “El Cuervo,” Chuck Keyser on guitar and two female dancers, Pepa Torres and Leah Vrastie. The admission is free, so bring a friend.
Gaugers close out season with Fresno, San Jose State

By CLAY KALLAM
Sports Iconoclast
San Jose State and Fresno State are the gaugers and intended victims of the final basketball weekend of 1970 for UCSB (closeness varies), so they round out the year looking for a second placed finish in the PCAA.

San Jose State (3–17) has bad its gas tank left out a season obviously. Anytime you’re 3–17, it has been a banner year, and the Spartans are no exception. Things started off well with a close decision over Arkansas followed by a defeat of Cal in the Hawaii Classic and, of course, a win over Cal Poly.

The Gauchos can handle the Spartan’s defense with ease and should be able to get a win on the road.

San Jose State (3–19) has some of the best players and teams in the country. At one point up to last year’s games against UCSB (the Spartans won both), they gave the Gaucho’s cages all they can handle Saturday night.

Barkey will start seniors Bob Emery, Larry Silvetl and Ron House in their final home appearance tomorrow night along with John Tacholi and Doug Rex as the Gauchos need every player they have.

The姑娘 is still there and would not be a great upset if they were to pull it all together and give the Gauchos an extremely rough game. 6’11” forward Coyt Dietrich and 6’7” center Bernie Vaney are excellent ball players and forwards. Last year’s record of 3–19 was also a banner season, and the Spartans are no exception. Things started off well with a close decision over Arkansas followed by a defeat of Cal in the Hawaii Classic and, of course, a win over Cal Poly.

The Gauchos can handle the Spartan’s defense with ease and should be able to get a win on the road.

With hopes of snapping a three game losing streak, UCSB’s basketball team hosts Westmont College today and San Jose State tomorrow in a doubleheader. The Gauchos enter their third week of the season with their unexpected losing streak-already. Their pitchers are still not throwing the ball where we want to throw it and our hitting average is well below .200.

Leadoff man Doug Rex as the Gauchos need some help in breaking the all time scoring mark set by the Gauchos. Rex will most likely accomplish that task on the weekend.

San Jose State and Fresno State are the gaugers and intended victims of the final basketball weekend of 1970 for UCSB (closeness varies), so they round out the year looking for a second placed finish in the PCAA.

San Jose State (3–17) has bad its gas tank left out a season obviously. Anytime you’re 3–17, it has been a banner year, and the Spartans are no exception. Things started off well with a close decision over Arkansas followed by a defeat of Cal in the Hawaii Classic and, of course, a win over Cal Poly.

We have had a good week of practices," commented Coach George. "I think that we are ready for battle this weekend.

Gauchoes Mason, Frazier-two players with great potential

By GERALD NEECE
Sports Editor

There are many roads open to the black athlete from Southeastern Los Angeles when he graduates from high school. Some choose the junior college ranks where they sharpen their skills and move on to four year schools who bid for their services. Others begin at four year schools and advance under one system, learning the intricacies of the coach’s offense. Some even make it as far as the professional level.

The road for two of these athletes led right here and both will see extensive action this weekend as Ralph Barkey and his cagers wrap up their season against PCAA foes Fresno State and San Jose State. The two are junior Bobby Mason and sophomore Earl Frazier.

Mason is a 6’1” guard from Jordan High who has played a major part in the Gauchos’ successes this season and should be even more important next season with the loss of Larry Silvett and Bob Emery. Besides playing basketball, Mason is active in many other activities and is chairman of the campus HSU. “Bob has played extremely well on occasions for us,” said Barkey, “and there is no student in the country who has the burden of responsibility he carries. His play has been quite good considering the number of activities and interests he has. If he were able to devote more time and concentration next year he could help us to a great season.”

Mason, who transferred to UCSB after a year at Seattle, is an advocate of “fast and loose” basketball. “Going to the hoop is the name of the game,” said Mason and probably drives the key more than any other Gaucho. “Every individual has his own individual strengths and qualities,” said Mason, and with his great leaping ability, Mason is one of the most exciting Gaucho’s to watch.

Frazier is getting to be known as the “Big E” around Gauchos’ basketball circles. At 6’9” he’s the tallest player on the team and certainly could be one of the greatest.

“Earl has tremendous potential,” said Barkey. “He’s probably the best offensive tipper we’ve had here in many years. At this point plans are to play him at forward next year for his quickness and offensive and defensive rebounding strength. If he works during the off season he could be one of the finest players ever to play for us.”

Frazier takes it all modestly. A graduate of Banning High, Earl doesn’t mind the impending switch. “I won’t mind playing forward. Believe me it’s all right with me. I’ll do a lot better facing the basket than with my back to it. I used to think defense was the name of the game but I’m beginning to discover how fun it is to play offense. I’m going to work on my inside moves and shooting this summer.”

Both are potentially great ballplayers, Mason if he could devote more time, Frazier when he learns a little more about the game. But the big thing for Coach Ralph Barkey and Gachoo basketball fans is that they’ll both be back next year.

“This year’s was probably the greatest UCSB basketball team ever,” said Frazier. “NEXT year....”

Super Hugger

If it were an ordinary sportster, we’d have introduced it at the ordinary time.

Instead, we took the time to build a whole new Camaro. We started with a sleek new shape and a low road-hugging stance. We gave it a new V8, and added more hood. A faster fastback. Wider doors. And new deeply contoured bucket seats.

The instrument panel wraps around you. With enough dials to make you think you’re piloting a jet plane.

There are four transmissions. And six power plants. Including a Turbo-Jet 396 V8 that you can order.

Pick the one that best suits your driving. Then go pick on an open road.

And make it one with plenty of twisting turns. Because Camaro has a remarkable new suspension. And standard front disc brakes for a leech-like grip on the road.

New Camaro. The Super Hugger. Other sportsters always feared it might come to this. And they were right. Only their timing was wrong.

Putting you first, keeps us first.
Soccer championship today, IM frowsh basketball game tomorrow

At 4 p.m. today behind Robertson Gym, IM soccer will probably reach its conclusion, as Phi Sigma Kappa will play the winner of the SMD–SAE contest yesterday afternoon. In the double elimination tournament, however, if the loser's bracket representative (SAE or SMD) should win, the same two teams will clash Monday at 4 p.m. to determine the winner.

In another big moment for intramurals, the IM All-Stars under the inspired leadership of Sandy Greens (0:4) will challenge Bob Divine's frosh basketball team in the preliminary game before the UCSB–SAS contest Saturday night. The 12-man squad is the cream of IM basketball but will be facing a tough battle against Dennis Recor and crew.

In normal IM basketball, two big games highlighted the week's action as the Phi Dels stunned Sigma Chi 58–52 behind Harry Matsoner's 21 points and Greg Christopher canned a 17 foot jumper with 3 seconds to go to give the BSU a 42-40 victory over highly-louted SAE.

In soccer, too, the SAEs ran into a little trouble as Jotge Fulo's goal gave the Phi Sigs a 1-0 victory in the winner's bracket of the tournament Wednesday and advanced Phi Sigma Kappa to the finals. The Phi Sigs also defeated

Matmen move North for final two dual meets

By DOUG AMSTUTZ

With just two weeks left in the season, the Gauchos will travel North for their final dual matches of the season against UC Davis and Sacramento State. The wrestlers will be out to improve on their 10-5 season record when they meet both UC Davis and Sacramento State in a tri-met Saturday afternoon at 2:30 on the Davis mats.

Coach Bill Hammer expects a good showing against both of these teams since UC already holds a tournament victory over Davis at the all-Cal tourney. Although relatively little is known about Sacramento State, comparative scores have indicated that they have a relatively weak team.

The grapplers will be led by 5-9 Ponder and Bruce McCampbell who will be out for his twelfth and thirteenth straight victories plus point man Jim Galvan (126) and captain Kit Lauer who has 18 points on the season. UCSB will also be strong in the upper weights where it has the cream of IM basketball but will be facing a tough battle against Dennis Recor and crew.

Cheadle knocks violence, cites causes

By JOHN HANKINS

Referring to the disturbances in Isla Vista Wednesday night, Chancellor Vernon I. Cheadle issued a statement at a press conference Thursday morning deploring statement at a press conference.

"The University's responsibility for the students arrested was held to be negligible," Vice Chancellor Goodspeed noted, "ordinarily" the University does not punish students for off-campus acts, as per the University policy.

Chancellor further noted that although there are obvious ties between I.V. and the campus "Isla Vista is not a part of the campus."

Remarking that "the police handled it very well," Vice Chancellor Ray Varley felt the initial incidents of violence were not caused by the police.

"We must all dedicate ourselves to stopping such violence or we may all lose the opportunity to dissent even peacefully. I call upon all of us to keep our community peaceful. There is no reason why we cannot resolve differences among us peacefully given the commitment to do so."

Arrested people listed

The students arrested in connection with the Wednesday night disturbances are:

Non-students arrested are:

PERSONS ARRESTED IN CONNECTION WITH TUESDAY NIGHT DISTURBANCE ARE:

Jeffry Bryant, William Holland, Mick Kromann, James Trotter, Greg Wilkinson.

Assistant Professor of Anthropology William Allen turned himself in today (see story, p. 1).

Any one having information concerning the arrests or who knows the arrested persons should contact EL GAUCHO at 961-2694.

Accounts of police violence

Greg Bishop told the newsmen that he had left his apartment at 9 Wednesday night to pick up his girlfriend on campus. While driving downtown Camino Pescadero he saw 60-40 policemen run across the street, and stopped to avoid hitting them. The officers then proceeded to smash all his car windows and those of the car behind him.

Another student Tom Hamann told of standing on the sidewalk in front of his apartment with his roommate, Mike Porter, when the police came. He said that he ran upstairs to his bed but that the officers caught his roommate and he heard him screaming. He later found out that Porter is in jail with bail set at $3,750. The crowd at the press conference urged the newsmen to put these kind of stories in their papers.

Cheadle further stated that "if there were not 70-100 sheriffs and students had not been beaten there would not have been an outbreak of violence."
