SANTA BARBARA STATE COLLEGE

EL GAUCHO

Vol. XXI

SANTA BARBARA, CALIFORNIA, FRIDAY, MAY 1, 1942

No. 28

Polls Remain Open Until 4 On 2 Campuses

Although somewhat dimmed in comparison to the fervor of pre-war seasons, the political ballyhoo and vote-getting "big-talk" of enthusiastic electioneers can be heard throughout the campus today as students at Santa Barbara State turned their attention toward selecting student body leaders to serve during the coming year.

Under the plans of the election committee headed by vice-president Howard Clapp, the polls will be maintained at only two points for campus voters to wield their power of electoral choice. These will be in the student body offices on the Riviera campus and in the main hall of the industrial education building on the cross-town Leadbetter mesa. Polls will be open at 8 a. m. and close at 4 p. m.

Holding the spotlight in the local campaigning is the race for the Associated Student president's post with four aspiring student politicians, representing diverse factions on the Gaucholand campus, in the running. Heading the ballot will be the four candidates, George Blumenson, John Flaxa, Russ Haney and Dick O'Brien.

Blumenson, lone non-organization candidate, includes among his activities chairmanship of the rally committee, editorial manager of El Gaucho, producer-director of the current Roadrunner Revue, extensive work in the college auditorium in both drama and talent show productions and membership in the junior high department.

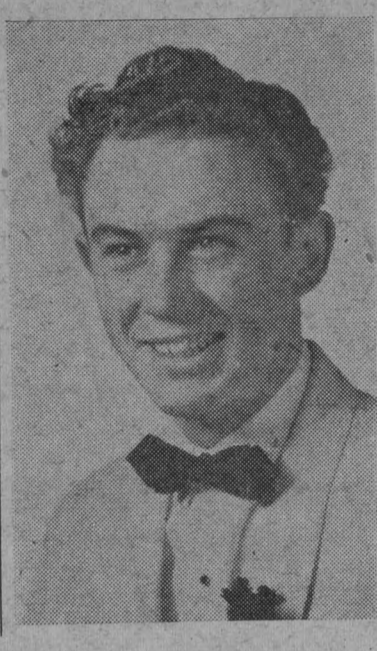

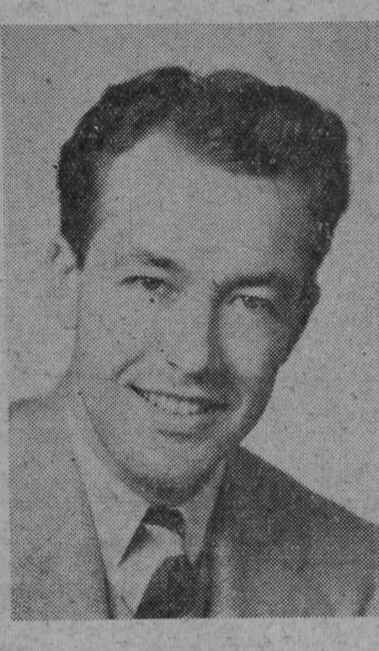

Chief activity for Flaxa has been that of script manager of the recent Barbary Coast carnival along with his work in organizing Beta Beta Beta, honorary biological science fraternity, and membership in Gamma Sigma Pi social fraternity and the science department.

Included in the campus activities of Haney are numerous appearances in the college auditorium in plays and talent shows, speech activities, membership in Beta Sigma Chi social fraternity and the speech department.

O'Brien's record on campus surrounds his work as president of Sigma Alpha Kappa social fraternity, secretary of the Interfraternity council, membership in Blue Key, rally committee and the social science department.

Vying for the office of vice-president are Alan McDonald, Gamma Sigma Pi; Marian Michaeli, Chi Delta Chi; and Ruthe Suggs, El Gaucho editor and member of Delta Zeta Delta social sorority. The names of two women will appear on the ballot as candidates for A. S. secretary, Gerry Cockins, dance director of Aspirants for the head office in the government of the Associated Students of Santa Barbara State college, whose platform appear below, include GEORGE BLUMENSON, JOHN FLAXA, RUSSELL HANEY and DICK O'BRIEN. Polls for student voting on the two campuses will remain open until 4 p. m. today.

La Cumbre Sets Purchase Deadline

Collegians who fail to reserve copies of La Cumbre, 1942 yearbook, before Friday, May 8 will be fined $1 which will be added to the original price, it was announced by Graduate manager Bill Russell yesterday.

Students who hold fall and spring A.S. cards may purchase yearbooks for $1.50; with one semester card, $3 and without either card, $5. These will be boosted to $2.50, $4 and $6, respectively, after the deadline according to Russell.

Members of the junior class will place gayly colored leis over the shoulders of graduating seniors at the Leilani Prom tomorrow night from 9 to 12 at the Montecito Country club as a traditional farewell for those who will sail for the last time from Gaucho Isle.

Under the direction of Dorsey Stewart, decoration chairman, an island atmosphere of palms, flowers and dimly lighted lanterns will serve as background for the dance. Music will be furnished by Doug Hoag and his orchestra.

Junior and senior class members will be admitted free upon presentation of their class cards, while underclassmen may obtain tickets in Dean Bennink's office for 55 cents per person. Guest cards are also obtainable according to Peggy Lou Anderson, social chairman of the junior class.

Child Educators Present Play For Primary School Audience

Roadrunner Sales Drive Opens Monday

All Gauchos are urged to participate in the ticket sales campaign, which begins Monday, for the Roadrunner Revue. An award of two free tickets, at the retail value of 55 cents, will be given to each student selling 10 Revue tickets, according to Graduate manager Bill Russell from whom tickets may be obtained.

Each group of tickets sold will be accredited to the organization to which the seller belongs. The organization compiling the greatest amount will receive a trophy. There is no limit to the number of tickets and subsequent awards which may be earned by the individual.

Tickets are to be retailed for 55 cents, regular admission, and 83 cents for reserved seats, tax inclusive in both cases. The show will be staged Wednesday night, May 13 for high school students and service men at the special rate of 25 cents. For collegians and townspeople, the Revue will be produced Thursday and Friday nights.

One day Bob and Pat and Petunia, the dog with the lavender nose, went walking through the forest. Suddenly Bob and Pat discovered that they could not find Petunia. At this point Mr. Puffo, master magician, happened along to aid in the search for their pet.

So goes the plot of "Mr. Puffo's Magic," a four-act play to be presented by the early childhood education department tomorrow afternoon in the college auditorium at 2.

The play, an annual spring semester project presented by the department's class in creative play activities, serves to instruct class members in the art of entertaining youngsters of the third grade level. Future primary school teachers gain experience through the project.

Members of the class wrote the play, constructed costumes and properties, wrote music and originated dance routines.

Proof that it will be entertaining to youngsters was obtained last week when class members visited each elementary school throughout the city and presented a 20-minute preview of the entertainment.

Associated Students Presidential Candidates Reveal Platforms

While on council I have:

1. Attempted to institute a housing commission to investigate poor student housing.
2. Proposed an amendment giving the minority campus a voting council member.
3. Attempted to investigate high prices in the cafeteria.
4. Tried to see to it that our curtailed funds will cover a long range activity program.

All these and many other things have I attempted to do because I believe that an Associated Student organization should safeguard the welfare and well-being of its members, whether on or off the campus. Thus, I make but one promise: I will do my utmost to preserve and advance the welfare and well-being of the Associated Students.

GEORGE BLUMENSON

All that I can pledge myself to at this time is a sincere hard-working administration that will carry out what it deems to be the will of the student body as a whole.

However, I realize the need for:

1. More intra-mural activities which will have to be emphasized due to the emergency situation.
2. Definite action on bettering relationships between the two campuses.
3. A well-rounded and representative social calendar that will appeal to the students as a whole.

Remember, that my only pledge is "to serve the majority of the students as they want to be served."

JOHN FLAXA

1. There must be an increase in the kind and effect of associative contacts with townspeople and organizations for the purpose of increased cooperation.
2. We must support the continuance and expansion of a well-integrated intramural sports program to compensate for the obvious decrease in inter-collegiate activity.
3. There must be specific dates reserved on next year's calendar for inter-campus (Mesa and Riviera) activities, that we may both benefit by the increased reciprocal support, activities, picnics, dances and special assemblies.

I frankly petition you to give me your support that I may next year execute your will, and put a progressive, beneficial program into effect.

RUSSELL HANEY

In order that the Associated Students of Santa Barbara State college may function most fully and effectively, I feel it is necessary that:

1. Greater cooperation between individuals and greater cooperation between groups must be achieved and the two campuses must be more closely united.
2. A fairer and more complete representation be established.
3. A social program be set up which will serve the needs of those who return and particular ration which will exist.
4. Athletics be emphasized and encouraged to the fullest extent possible under the budget allotted to this field.
5. The honor system be supported and promoted.

EDITORIALLY SPEAKING . . .

Health Educational Programs Merit Student Appreciation

During the past two weeks two assemblies have been held at Santa Barbara State college meriting honorable mention from the editorial department of El Gaucho. Not just ordinary programs these, but rather the type of assembly that is both entertaining and helpful, tremendously so, in combating the maladies most destructive to modern living.

Much credit is due the health education group, made up of faculty members, for taking the initiative to organize a series of educational programs designed to foster better relations within the all-important machine, the human body.

Each program will attack common detriments to better health as, for instance, alcoholism and cancer. These are not the curses of merely a few but rather both have a large percentage of victims each year. Both must be counteracted by an educational and health program as vitally important as any academic work. This educational program furthermore, must not deal with fantastical cures and generalized statements which apply only to more advanced cases, but it should be a down-to-earth means of instruction in how to recognize the trouble before it becomes uncontrolled.

The majority of students, too often, are so busy with run-of-the-mill academic and extra curricula chaff that they pay little or no attention to problems of health. They may eventually have to be faced in their many and varied allotropic forms. Problems of nutrition, problems of tuberculosis, the heart, and many more ills. It is essential that we know how to recognize these problems, how to combat them, and above all, how to prevent them.— N. S.

Capital to Campus! . . .

By JAY RICHTER

If there are any comforts to be had from war, one of them is the fact that it raises old Ned with bureaucrats who have taken root. New and younger government men have a way of upsetting old habit-patterns.

A recent graduate of Ohio State was making up a file to expedite his agency's work. Coming to "Miscellaneous," he discovered he was unable to spell the word. He promptly labeled that drawer of the file "Things," and went calmly on about his business.

Maybe you've noticed. A Selective Service ruling has it that men married since Dec. 8, 1941, cannot be deferred on the basis of dependency unless they "prove the status was acquired under circumstances beyond the registrant's control."

"The circumstances escape me," remarked a recently-wed, ex-Marquette student.

The Government is bringing the problem of shortages to the college students' door by way of consumer conferences, co-sponsored by colleges and the Office of Price Administration. They are being taught to be cagey "conservers" as well as smart consumers. The Chicago area conference, March 2 through 7, in which 20 colleges participated, is a case in point.

'May The Best Man Win!'

This is election week, week of pats on the back, free cigars, free promises and a lot of free chaff from the land of corn. Today is the climax: free elections.

Potential officers are characterized by that beaming election grin from ear to ear. Friends, acquaintances and enemies receive full benefit from the benevolent beam that serves as an A-1 vote-getter.

Biggest day of the week is speech day when the likely candidates get up on platform or soap box and make promises ranging from soup to nuts. In glowing phraseology, they cajole, challenge, threaten and argue with the voting public to cast their vote for Johnny Jones, whose planks are unheld by this bit of hooley "Wont be in the draft so vote me for graft" and he closes his speech with a touching amen.

Cliques and clans get together to back their candidate, that most sterling of characters, "one of the boys." At this point a little of that back-stabbing comes in with each of the gangs tooting its tin horns and belittling the other fellow.

The great day has arrived finally, the bickering and dickering is just about over and the smoke of battle fades in the distance for another 12 months. As has been often said before, "May the best man win," and so on ad nauseum.

Much Ado . . .

BY GEORGE BLUMENSON

Comes now a plan by which every Gaucho should be able to eat a good meal in the cafeteria, for no more, and in many cases less, money than such a meal would cost downtown. At the suggestion of this column, Nick Tsardis, el cocinero, announces that he is putting out a special luncheon every day. This luncheon, which will include soup, entree, vegetables, potatoes, bread and butter or roll and ditto, ice cream or pie, and coffee, will be on sale Monday for 35 centavos. This is better than you could do for a meal of the quantity and quality downtown. We've been beefing about prices for a long time—well, here is a good meal at a good price. Let's go, Gauchos. The food is muy bueno, the price is right, and tires are scarce. Eat on the campus, and try one of these meals.

Lots of stuff going on this week-end. Elections this morning and afternoon, Delta Zeta super-fashion show tonight, Lelani Prom tomorrow night, A.W.S. tea, Sunday, and, weather permitting, beach also. On the ticket for this week-end for many people who are up here to get a few studies out of the way are term reports, which are rapidly coming due, and third-quarter tests which come up next week.

At long last the boys in Washington have removed their feet from their desks and gotten around to doing something constructive toward lightening the burden of this war for Mr. Average American. For a long time F. D. R. and Leon Henderson have been trying to do something toward lightening this burden, but a recalcitrant congress has been impeding these efforts. Tuesday night, in his speech, the president explained the step which he took—the step which the American people have been waiting for him to take—the step limiting war profits and cutting-out the war profiteer. Of course, the president did not say that it was a step designed to cut war profiteering, this limiting of incomes to $25,000, but it was. This is also a step which will take the burden of the payment for the war off the shoulders of Mr. A. A., and put his share of the burden of the war on the shoulders of the men who are making millions upon millions of dollars out of the war effort.

We hear reports of untold millions being made, but perhaps the prize tale of all concerns the parts plant which made one piece of an airplane propeller. Started in 1939 with a capital of $500, in 1941 this same company paid its president a bonus of $141,000; paid his secretary a bonus of $30,000. Now this type of thing is stopped. This money will either be taxed away to pay for the war effort, or else it will be distributed among other employees, which will spread it around a bit.

Leon Henderson took the final step—another step which the American people have been waiting for. A price ceiling has been set on almost every commodity which vitally affects the American people.

Suggs-estions

"What a difference a day makes" used to be the truth-telling title of a yesteryear Tin Pan Alley production. Just so the 24 hours, in the current instance, will give reason for relief or grief for will-be or would-be Legislators. It is this corner's not-too-original guess that a runoff for the major post will be a certainty. Pre-election soap boxing was effective from the less touted candidates, bringing the four to almost even par. With the pendulum swinging, in none of the directions, forecasting is decidedly undecided.

The best Suggs-estion that we can make to the individual voter is to select his candidates, wisely, intelligently. Bear in mind that the captain of the team sets the pace, but that a feeble line can wreck the best-planend play.

Election day also determines a major constitution change, or more correctly, constitutional addition. Presented in last week's council meet and to the assemblage Tuesday, the revision has to do with augmentation of council by one new member. This new member is to represent the "minority" campus, now Mesa, later Riviera. The step is an advised one, and directed toward strengthening the bond between the two campuses. Suggs-estions: please approve it.

Idle tongues and critical minds will have their field days this comink week designated by Blue Key as Beef week. Take any or all of their numerous topics and pick it to pieces. Remember that heckling is without value, but constructive criticism is in order always. We'll wager that some excellent thoughts will emerge from this project.

A blind compliment came to Roadrunner Revue cast this week in the form of an invitation from the Coordinating Defense Council of Santa Barbara which is directed by Earl Plescia. The bid is for the Revue cast to produce their show at one or several of near-by military training camps. A question of insurance arises before a final stamp of approval may be placed upon the plan, but the council met the invitation, as read by Director Blumenenson, with an approving not. (Side-light: It is unfortunate that the same cooperation and courtesy is not evident in all members of the faculty in preparing the show for presentation to the student body, the townspeople, the high schoolers and to service men. The endeavor is primarily a money-making and entertaining scheme and is deserving of every boost available. The Revue has a fine reputation, is among the oldest of Gaucho traditions . . . why must we have certain misunderstandings and lacking cooperation from ANY one?)

Gaucholand Gathers Gripes For Blue Key Beef Week

Introducing Beef week to Gaucholand Monday, Blue Key service fraternity, presents a form of student poll in which the opinions of individual students are discussed before the council, resulting in "appropriate" action.

Barrels will be placed at convenient locations on campus into which the suggestions may be placed. Extending from Monday to Wednesday, the poll will be brought up before the council Thursday night at its regular meeting.

The following subjects are proposed "beefs" to be listed on the questionnaire sheet: student government, social activities, athletics, assemblies, library, Gaucho clubroom, cafeteria and co-op store, campus appearance, spirit, honor code, campus traditions, inter-campus relationships, organizations (social, service, honorary), housing, three-year program, publications, graduate manager's office, parking and department dues.

"We urge all students to participate in this effort to improve the campus and to offer constructive, practical criticism. Only legitimate beefs will be recognized by the council," said Burke Adams, president of Blue Key.

An innovation in the school, Beef week may be a release for the pent up feelings of the many members of the student body who for the past semesters have been offering suggestions and criticisms to no avail, Adams believes.

Faulkner Directs Annual Formal Music Concert Tuesday Evening

Next Tuesday evening, May 5, will see the presentation of the Santa Barbara State college orchestra in its annual formal concert, under the baton of Director Maurice Faulkner. Featured in this year's program are three outstanding instrumental soloists—Marcel Guerman, 'cellist; Dorothy Perry, pianist and Henry Schwab, violinist.

MARCEL GUERMAN, 'cellist, appears Tuesday in the annual formal concert of the orchestra. Also on the program are Henry Schwab, violinist, and Dorothy Perry, pianist.

All three are veterans of the concert stage; Guerman has a fine reputation for his remarkable tone and technique, having played in several of the leading symphony orchestras in the U. S. in addition to his concert work. Miss Perry, a music major here, is considered an unusually capable pianist. Considerable experience in recital, ensemble and radio work recommend her very highly.

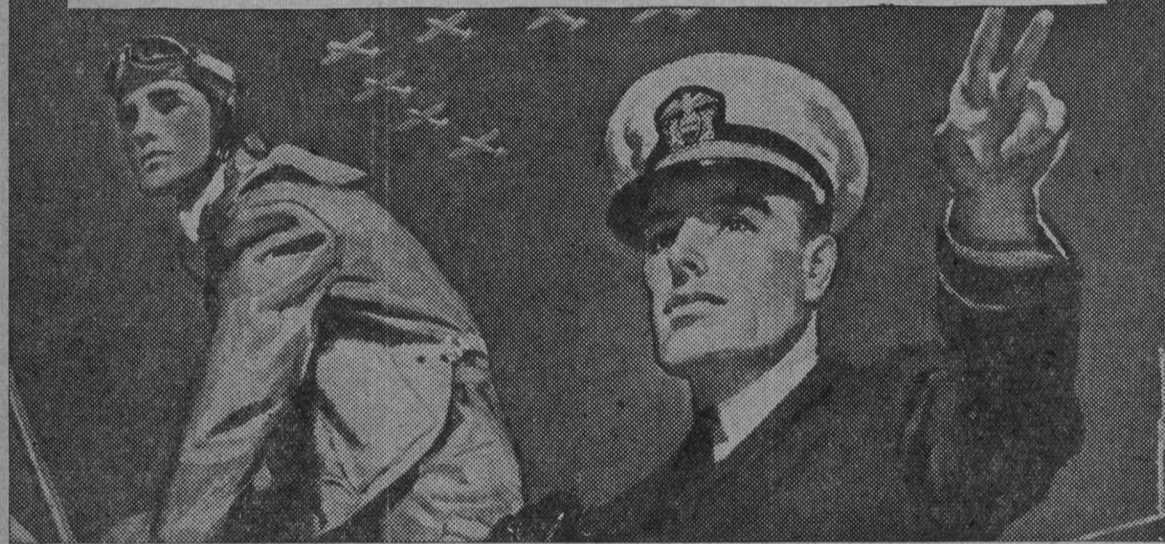

Schwab is likewise considered a thorough master of his instrument, having studied both at home and abroad under outstanding teachers and having given converts in the leading musical centers of both continents.

The program promises to be both varied and interesting, consisting of the overture to "Iphigenia in Aulis," by Gluck; first movement from the Boccherini 'cello concerta—Marcel Guerman, soloist; Romance from "La Reine" symphony, Haydn; Rondo from E minor piano concerto, Chopin—Dorothy Perry, soloist; Adagio Pathetique, Godard; and Polonaise Brillante, Wieniawski—Henry Schwab, soloist—J. M.

DON'T QUIT COLLEGE
if you are 17^{THRU} 19 and want to become a Naval Officer!

You can serve your country best by acting on this new Navy Plan now!

YOU WANT to fight for your country! Are you willing to work for it? To toughen yourself physically? To train yourself mentally for a real job in the United States Navy? If you are, the Navy wants you to enlist now. You don't have to quit college. You can stay in college, continue your studies to prepare for active duty in the air or on the sea.

And your college will help you do it! In cooperation with the Navy, it offers all freshmen and sophomores who are seventeen and not yet twenty, special training that may win for you the coveted Wings of Gold of a Naval Aviation Officer or a commission as a Deck or Engineering Officer.

How to Become an Officer

To get this special Navy training, you enlist now as an Apprentice Seaman. Then you may continue in college, but you will include special courses stressing physical development, mathematics and physics. After you successfully complete 1½ calendar years in college, you will be given a classification test.

Aviation Officers

If you qualify by this test, you may volunteer to become a Naval Aviation Officer. In this case, you will be permitted to finish the second calendar year of college work before you start your training to become a Flying Officer.

However, at any time during this two-year period, you may have the option to take immediately the prescribed examination for Aviation Officer... and, if successful, be assigned for Aviation training. Students who fail in their college courses or who withdraw from college will also have the privilege of taking the Aviation examination. Applicants who fail to qualify in this test will be ordered to active duty as Apprentice Seamen.

Deck or Engineering Officers

Those who qualify in the classification test and do not volunteer for Aviation will be selected for training to be Deck or Engineering Officers. In that case, you will continue your college program until you receive your bachelor's degree, provided you maintain the established university standards.

Those whose grades are not high enough to qualify them for Deck or Engineering Officer training will be permitted to finish their second calendar year of college. After this, they will be ordered to duty as Apprentice Seamen, but because of their college training, they will have a better chance for rapid advancement. At any time, if a student should fail in his college courses, he may be ordered to active duty as an Apprentice Seaman.

Pay starts with active duty.

It's a real challenge! It's a real opportunity! Make every minute count by doing something about this new Navy plan today.

Locals Fete Journalists

Tri-county journalists met on State college campus Tuesday for the annual Fourth Estate high school Journalism day. Due to present war conditions, many of the schools that had previously attended the confab were unable to make the trip.

Three divisions were open for the writing contests. Sports award went to Donald McCloskey, journalist from Santa Barbara high school. Taking the news writing division was Doris Childers, yearbook editor from Arroyo Grande Union high school. The local high school stepped back into the light as Elsie Cascadden took honors in the editorial division.

Ardle Pierce, city editor of the Santa Barbara News-Press, told of "Propaganda and the Press" in his address to 30 luncheoners. Lura McMillen presented a comedy skit to the delegates. George Blumenson was master of ceremonies at the luncheon.

Training

Dean Urges Attention

Students who are interested in officers' training programs are urged to keep in constant touch with the dean of men's office by watching the bulletin board in the administration building.

Changes in the rules and regulations are made at frequent intervals. Some of these may affect vitally students in this institution. For example, information has just been received that college students who have been ineligible for enlistment in Class V-1, United States Naval Reserve, by reason of being over 20 years of age and ineligible for Class V-7, United States Naval Reserve, by reason of having attained junior status subsequent to April 15, 1942 have been given a changed status. The rules have been "modified now to permit the enlistment in Class V-7 of students when they attain junior status, provided they were over age for enlistment in Class V-1 while they were sophomores."

Under the provisions of this amendment as set up by the councilmen, the Mesa campus will be given a voting representative in the A. S. cabinet. However, the representative must carry a minimum of six units of academic work on the minority campus from which he is elected.

Appropriate to the debut of May and Spring Fashion, men of Gaucholand received attention this week:

Worth noticing is the beanie worn by Cliff Kopitzke, it goes so well with his new victory hair cut. Always well dressed are Bob Stetler and Bruce Ashton. Of course they look a little conspicuous around the 'dirty cords and sloppy sweaters worn by many of the fellas, a really welcome change. G. Blumenson's clothes are obviously the best fitting on the campus, most outstanding is his green cord shirt and beige sleeveless sweater, topped by a knee length tweed jacket. Howie Eckles can always be identified in a crowd because he seldom is without a tie. Strictly collegiate in style are Ozzie Osborne and Bob Stevens. The rain coat worn by Jimmy Lytle, and borrowed from his roommate, has a certain great charm about it, resembling a circus tent. Always well pressed, his clothes I mean, is Dick Thomas of the Mesa campus. Beautiful in beige is Bob Webb. Usually better than average on the fashion angle are Bill Tewell and Norm Stow. Well dressed in conservative styles and colors—Donald MacDougal and Howie Clapp. Carelessly masculine in dress—Alex MacGillivray and Johnny Lindholtz. Looking just like his name in a dainty red and black plaid flannel shirt which reaches his ankles, is Mouse Mann. The dirtiest cords on campus are undoubtedly those inhabited by Harry Redoglia. Usually looks as if he'd just had his ears scrubbed by his mamma Stanley Darrow. Never without his green sweater—Cliff Greybehl.—B. G.

Students Read Script for Speech Contest

Something new in the way of oratory competition, a script reading contest, will be given by the speech division on Tuesday, May 12.

Under the direction of W. Charles Redding, the contest will offer speech credits as well as experience in the field of oratory. Winning contestant will receive a gold cup, presented by the Associated Student body.

Preliminaries, on May 12, will be held in room 25 with advanced speech students acting as judges. Scripts of not over 1200 words on any subject will be read over a public address system to an audience of college students.

Applications must be in Redding's hands before May 11.

Monday's meeting was devoted to plan making for the joint Gamma Sig-Sig Alpha picnic, scheduled for Sunday at Manning park. It was decided that baseball game, to determine sport superiority of the two fraternities, will be held.

A joint meeting with the Tau Gamma Sigma's has been scheduled for the next meeting of the social fraternity.

SIGMA ALPHA KAPPA

Details for the formal dance, to be held in the Jade room of the Samarkand hotel on May 9, were completed along with plans for the Sig Alpha-Gamma Sig picnic. Don MacKenzie was installed as the new vice-president for the fraternity.

Next Monday's meeting will be in the form of a smoker. Guests will be the Beta Sigma Chi fraternity.

BETA SIGMA CHI

Dr. Stanley Rauch, science instructor, formally became the new sponsor of the Beta Sigma Chi fraternity.

Plans for the formal, to be held on May 22, were discussed.

We've been talking all along about things for ourselves—but now it's time to start talking about something for mother.

Here's a chance to repay her for all the happiness she provides in the nicest way possible for Mothers' Day is May 10.

And surely by giving her a present that is somewhere among those lovely gifts Jack Rose has selected especially for this occasion, you'll make it the most wonderful day she has ever known.

Topping the list of these lovelies are the "Butcher Boy Linen" knitting bags embroidered in gay colors for $3.50—and the "Corsachet" a perfumed corsage and matched sachet of the flower's natural perfume for one-dollar.

These are only a couple of my suggestions—many more await your selection at Jack Rose.

Gauchos Set Sights on Aztecs

WIN or LOSE

By OZZIE OSBORNE

One of the hottest track meets ever slated will be the Pacific Athletic Association meet at Berkley tomorrow afternoon, with a star-studded entry list capable of fulfilling coaches and sports wild-est dreams.

Biggest attraction of the afternoon will be the duel between San Jose's Bill Smith and Hal Davis, ex-Salinas Jaysee century dynamo now enrolled at Cal. In past matches, Davis has nosed out Smith's closing bursts of speed, but the San Josean has two 9.5's clocked to his credit since their last meeting.

Smith nosed out Payton Jordan, former USC track great, running for SCAA at La Playa last week. The time for the event was 9.5 (with a slight tail wind) but Jordan is chalked up as the nation's third best sprinter as a result of the 1941 AAU meet when Davis and Barney Ewell of Penn nosed him out by inches.

None the less titanic in importance will be the clash between Spartan Thelmo Knowles and Grover Klemmer, 440 record holder, who now runs the half mile. Plenty of competition for the Spartan wonder boy is in hand, and will be dished out by Klemmer, who ran 1:51.6 in last year's PAA meet. The dusky Knowles has a 9' 10" stride, and is only a freshman, just out of high school competition.

Reports have it that coaches Flint Hanner of Fresno and Bud Winter of San Jose will no doubt be close observers of Fresno-San Jose strength at the PAA, getting a line on how to play their men for the Tuesday meet.

Hilltoppers Plan to Enter 2C2A Carnival

Pending approval of the student council, the Gaucho track, tennis and swimming teams will compete in the annual 2C2A Sports Carnival slated to be held at San Diego May 9, with the trackmen also scheduled for a trek to San Luis Obispo for the Poly Royal Relays, May 16.

At the border city Carnival, the Green and Whites will be represented by a one man track team—co-captain Hovis Bess, for lack of funds will not permit the inclusion of more than one man.

Also on May 9, the Hilltopper trackmen, minus the services of Bess, of course, will meet the Whittier Poet cinder squad here at the La Playa oval in a non-conference meet.

Travelling south with Bess to enter the Carnival will be four members of the local tennis squad.

The Poly Royal meet, originally scheduled for April 25, was cancelled and moved ahead to May 16, because of the soggy condition of the northern oval.

San Diego Cinder Meet Draws Potent Hilltopper Contingent Squad Leaves Campus Today

Reviving the ancient Gaucho-Aztec athletic rivalry, an 18-man Green and White cinder squad leaves the campus at 1 p.m. today, and will trek to San Diego to engage the southern tracksters tomorrow afternoon. The meet marking the first 2C2A encounter of the current season for the locals.

Gauchos co-captain HOVIS BESS, will spark the locals in their feud with the San Diego Aztecs tomorrow.

Looking likely to win in its division is the Hilltopper sprint trio, composed of co-captain Hovis Bess, Art Carter, and Art Westmont. The three will compete in both 100 and 220 yd. cal favorite by virtue of his 2C2A events, with Bess ruling the lo-record of 21.4s in the 220, and his La Playa mark of 10.0s in the century.

As far as distance jaunts are concerned, the Hilltoppers pin their hopes on dynamic little George Soule, who waltzes thru the mile and two mile events at an astounding speed for his diminutive size. Competing against the Southern California Athletic Association last week, Soule took the two-mile event hands down in 10:29.3s., after having been nosed out in the mile by Dick Bernstein.

Coach Carter's charges also look strong in the broad jump, high jump, javelin, and pole vault events. Lowell Steward, dusky Gaucho of basketball fame, holds the 2C2A record of 6' 1 5/8" for the high jump, while Bob Sherman heaves the javelin well over 179 feet.

Carter expresses confidence in the relay squad consisting of Etchart. The quartet runs well Bess, Malcolm, Diamond, and together, and although no official report has been made, have been clocked at winning time.

Information about the Aztec cinder squad is rather scanty, but they have been beaten in their only two meets of the season by Arizona and Fresno State.

Lineups:

- 100—Bess, Carter, Westmont
- 220—Bess, Carter, Westmont
- 440—Etchart, Smith
- 880—Marker, Rider
- Mile—Soule, Novakovich
- 2 mile—Soule
- High hurdles—Sherman, Malcolm
- Low hurdles—Sherman, Westmont
- Relay—Bess, Malcolm, Diamond, Etchart
- Shot—Squires, Bess, Wrightson
- Discus—Squires, Cole
- Javelin—Sherman, Smith, Gheen
- High jump—Cole, Smith, Sherman, Steward

Democratic Committee Names Outland for Congress

The name of Dr. George E. Outland, associate professor of social science, will appear on the Democratic congressional ballot, according to the decision reached by the central county committee of the eleventh Congressional district when it met last Sunday in Santa Maria.

Composed of Monterey, San Luis Obispo, Santa Barbara and Ventura counties, the district is a newly formed one and is named as the eleventh. Outland was endorsed out of four possible candidates by a 3 to 0 vote. Ventura cast no vote.

Primaries are slated for the month of August and the finals in November.

Outland, who received his B.A. degree from Whittier, his M.A. from Harvard and his Ph.D. from the University of Southern California, has served in many capacities additional to his curricular work. He has been, and is, a member of the Scholastic Standing committee, the Faculty Athletic committee and is chairman of the Curriculum committee.

Endorsed as Democratic candidate of the new eleventh Congressional district is Dr. GEORGE E. OUTLAND, assistant professor of social science.

AWS Honors Mothers With Annual Tea

Sponsored by Associated Women Students the annual spring tea is to be held Sunday in Ebbett's hall from 4 to 6 p.m.

Hostesses for the affair are Faye Thompson, AWS president, Dean Lois M. Bennink, members of the AWS board, and members of the two honorary service organizations for women, Crown and Scepter and Las Espuelas.

Guests invited to attend are women students, their mothers and housemothers, faculty women, wives of faculty members, supervising teachers and Santa Barbara women who are active in civic organizations.

Assisting the hostesses and presiding at the tea tables will be the Mesdames William Ashworth, Charles L. Jacobs, Clarence L. Phelps, F. E. Stebbins, Byron Abraham, Lawrence Chenoweth, Van A. Christy, Laura J. Price, Ruth M. Doolittle, Mary Crosswell and the Misses Edith Leonard, Hazel Severy, Jane Christopher, Katherine Ball, Charlotte Beister, Elizabeth Sehon, Alice Bradley, Winifred Frye, Margaret DeHaan and Florence L. Clark.

The history of this activity, according to Frances Boyton, chairman, dates back as far as 1923. AWS, organized in 1921, had as its major social function "High Tea" for faculty women and faculty wives. This was held at the home of the dean of women. In 1928 the event was the "Mother's Tea" to which women students had their mothers as guests. Again called "High Tea" in 1930, and this was the first time the tea was held on the college campus. AWS spring tea appeared on the calendar in May 1937 and this name has been maintained.

Music Week Recital Fetes A Cappella

As one of the features of National Music week, the A.S. next Thursday evening presents the A Cappella choir, an organization of 48 mixed voices under the direction of Van A. Christy.

Fresh from its recent concert tour, the choir is working seriously on its repertoire, for although several more performances are scheduled before the end of the semester, this annual concert is the high point of the group's activities.

A contrast in mood and in tone color will be furnished by the newly organized triple trio under the direction of Josephine Harper. They will sing one group of numbers, arranged especially for treble voices.

Another contrast will be provided by A Cappella choir member Paul Kliss, who will render a reading from "Innocents Abroad" by Mark Twain.

A Cappella will sing three groups of compositions, ranging in character from a sixteenth century choral with brass choir accompaniment, to one of the most recent patriotic songs—arranged by Christy. Featured in incidental solos will be Nino Baudino, tenor, and Margaret Kerr, contralto.

Brass Choir Plays Sunday

Phrateres Cancel Annual Dinner Dance

Jean Arthur, president of Phrateres, announced that the annual formal dinner-dance will be cancelled for this year.

A combined business meeting and white elephant sale was held on the evening of Wednesday, April 29. Admittance was by a white elephant, wrapped as a gift. These were later auctioned off, with Margaret Reid, secretary, acting as auctioneer. Proceeds from the sale will be used for the Phrateres national convention to be held in Santa Barbara in 1943.

Candidates for elections to be held sometime during the next week were introduced, and nominations were received from the floor. Candidates for the offices are: president, Frances Houghton; vice-president, Martha Feddersohn, and Pauline Schindler; secretary, Catherine Bradley, and Louise Brownlee; treasurer, Agnes Shearer and Elaine Green.

A formal dinner-dance was held at El Paseo last Saturday evening by members of Gnome club and their guests. Patrons for the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Simonds.

Of the allotments, track will receive $40; tennis, $32; swimming, $32 and baseball, $6.

Burke Adams, president of Blue Key, reported that ballots are printed and arrangements have been completed for Beef week which opens Monday. Action will be taken on the criticisms at next council meeting.

Rally chairman George Blumenston read an invitation from Fe Plecia of the Coordinating Defense Council of Santa Barbara for the production of the Road-runner Revue to soldiers in neighboring military training camps. Pending the settlement of an insurance question, the council temporarily approved the mobile unit.
