PASTA 101:

A CUT ABOVE IN ISLA VISTA!

Inside:
Club Scene

Pg. 8A

Lyrical Noodles?

Mmmmm. Pasta. What a wonderful food.
It's stringy. It's doughy. It's squiggly good.
And although it is fine to cook in a pot,
The frothing hot water scares me a lot.
The raw strands of angel hair break in my fingers,
The raunchy canned sauce hits my stomach like stingers.

So when I get the craving that I can't ignore
I avoid trekking out to the grocery store.
There's one special place I follow like the sun
An I.V. dinette known as Pasta 101!
At this incredible eatery of noodle delight
I find the best dishes without moral plight.

Because the food's healthy, and that's good, you see,

Unlike most restaurants in downtown I.V.

I step up to the counter with a smile and a wallet

Looking over the foods that will make happy my palate.

And when the cook

says, "My friend, what will it be?"

I say, "Marinara please, and garlic for me."

He says, "What pasta type, penne or ravioli?"

I say, "That's a toughie, do you have some rotoni?"

He says, "Coming right up, and please have a seat!"

So I find me a table and think "This is neat!"

Before I know it, the meal is here

And soon my hunger is gone like last year.

Noodle after noodle, globs of good sauce

Make me realize soon that this place has no loss.

The tender honey bread fills my belly quite nicely

And all at a cost that is never too pricey.

A bevy of beverages could flow down your throat

If you go to this place, and later you'll gloat

That you had a great meal — one with so much flavor

You may head right back for the pasta you savor.

And remember that this place is one with high class

With fine outdoor dining not restricted by glass

Or walls or partitions or chairs of great pain

Although there's a ceiling to protect you from rain.

So when you desire the best food in I.V.
