Gaucho Swordsmen Top Trojans for 2nd Victory of Season

Four Guardsmen, Powers, Nelson, Gross Wagner Come Through with Another Victory for State; 2 Men Stop Champion

The Gaucho Guardsman, State varsity fencing team, won its second victory of the current season when Captain Delaware McLaren led his crew of Swordsmen up from U.S.C. for a three-weapon match last Saturday evening.

Although the pre-mastepopular had figured State for a victory, the bands not the long-time competitors they are likely to encounter this year, for it was previously known that Hal Ford and Tom Harvey, two veteran swordsmen, were losing for Troy. Although McLaren, Pacific coast paper and rerun champion foil fencer, was the most dangerous man on the men, Powers and Theroux stopped them as well.

The Gaucho Guardsmen are headed by Captain Delaware McLaren. McLaren is no stranger to fencing. He is a member of the United States team which participated in the 1938 Olympic Games. McLaren is known as an expert fencer and is expected to do well in the coming season.
