Gorrie and Troy Candidates in ASB President Election

Six Associated Student officers, including Student Body president, will be chosen by Gaucho voters in a special election, March 10 and 11.

For three of the vacant posts, Associated Students secretary, woman representative-at-large, and sophomore class secretary, the election is merely a formality, as there is but one candidate seeking each office.

The candidate for Associated Students secretary is Pat Williams. Melinda Horn is sole applicant for the position of woman representative-at-large.

A similar situation exists for Mary Molina, as she alone seeks the position of sophomore class secretary.

Pete Kane and Steve Joseph will vie for the job of mens representative-at-large.

The office of freshman class secretary has two hopefuls, Marilyn Swift and Margaret Murdock.

An Apology

There have been plenty of times when athletic teams wearing the colors of Santa Barbara College had good reason to be a little incensed at the rest of the student body. More often than not in recent years, the students have afforded the teams little moral support. The dirth of student rooters at football, basketball, track and baseball contests must have been discouraging to the athletes.

But this year's basketball team pulled a childish little stunt on the night of Wednesday, Feb. 18 that comes close to evening the score. That night, playing a game against Westmont College at the Armory, the basketball team was guilty of a thoughtless act which is one of the worst examples of public relations seen here in a long time.

The Westmont students, who were hosts at the game, were putting on a little halftime entertainment—just as Santa Barbara had done earlier in the year when we were the hosts to Westmont at the Armory. The Santa Barbara team, after waiting a few minutes on the sidelines, impatiently broke up the act by beginning their warmup exercises right in the middle of the court area where the entertainment was going on.

It must be admitted that the team had some reason to be annoyed. They had been kept waiting for five minutes at the beginning of the game while the Westmont team was getting last minute instructions in the dressing room. The halftime entertainment admittedly ran over the customary time allotted for the intermission.

But the entertainment that Santa Barbara had staged in the first game had gone over the allotted time, too, and the Westmont team had politely waited until its conclusion.

But all that is beside the point. The important thing is that Santa Barbara College was the guest at this last game. Common courtesy dictated that the team allow the hosts to complete their halftime entertainment.

The Gauchos have enjoyed pre-eminence in local collegiate athletics for many years. Westmont is a relatively new school.

It behooves the Gaucho teams and the student body to act like adults in such matters. Nobody benefits from a high-handed display of temperament such as the basketball team put on against Westmont. Indeed, the only result was to cause ill feeling among the Westmont students and the handful of townspeople who were present.

The damage is done now. Little can be done to right the wrong.

But Gaucho athletic teams might well remember that the mark of a "big time" school is an ability to treat lesser rivals with courtesy and generosity.

And if, by some remote chance, the Westmont student body should read this editorial, let it serve as an apology for at least a few Santa Barbara College students who do not condone the action of the basketball team. J.P.

Blood Vessels Tell Age, Study Shows

"You're only as old as your blood vessels!" So the old family doctor told his patients without any particular scientific data to back it up.

Now Dr. Daniel J. Perry of the University of California School of Medicine and Dr. Irwin Linden of the West Los Angeles Veterans Hospital have data that indicate the old family doctor was right.

Their studies show that after the age of 20 small blood vessels become increasingly fragile. Over 70 per cent of normal people past the age of 60 that were studied had extremely fragile capillaries.

The study involved used of the Rumpel-Leede's test, in which a blood pressure cuff is applied to the upper arm for a given period of time. Fragility of the small blood vessels is determined by the number of capillaries in the arm that rupture following the test.

Santa Barbara College was authorized to grant the Bachelor of Arts degree in several departments in the year 1935.

Dr. Dewey Barich Speaks to I.A. Club

Monroe, chairman of the industrial arts department; Dr. Kermit Seefeld, associate professor of industrial arts; and Dr. Scherer.

HILLTOPPER!....

One of his likes is to "get into everything", and Danny Escalera is busy doing just that. His newest activity is serving as President of the Associated Men Students.

Five-foot-ten-inch Danny is a junior majoring in junior high education. His activities include president of Scabbard and Blade, Blue Key, and Sigma Tau Gamma. Last year he was in Squires, and last semester, vice-president of AMS.

Danny likes football and basketball, and claim that steak—the kind AMS will have at the steak fry—is about the most heavenly food in the world. Also, in the way of classes, he favors parties, coffee hours and beach time. If you look for Danny around campus you are most likely to find him with blonde Gerry Folsom, to whom he is officially pinned!

When it comes to dislikes, boring teachers and scarcity of money are the bears that plague him.

As for an ambition, Danny says "To graduate!" So between Gerry, AMS and all Danny's many activities—a year from now will find him a certified teacher!

New Major To Be Offered In Fall

Closely related to the historical and social heritage of this community, a new major field of study will be offered next fall at Santa Barbara College, it was announced recently by Dr. Elmer R. Noble, dean of liberal arts.

To be known as "Hispanic Civilization," the new major will coordinate the courses of several departments for the purpose of giving students a sound foundation in knowledge of Spanish and Portuguese speech and culture.

This major curriculum has been the subject of special study by a faculty committee composed of Dr. Philip W. Powell, associate professor of history, chairman; Dr. Stephen S. Goodspeed, assistant professor political science; Dr. Kurt Baer, associate professor of art; and Dr. Samuel A. Wofsy, assistant professor of Spanish.

Spain and Mexico will be stressed in the courses due to present faculty interests and community traditions, and will reach back into Indian cultures and Spanish influences in California history.

Planned requirements for the major include selected courses in Spanish and Latin American language and literature, history, anthropology, and political science. Spanish art, music, and Latin American economics, now partially presented in the general courses, may later be developed as special courses.

Having completed their first assignments for the contest, Dolores and Judy must submit two more monthly assignments before being eligible to win.

Twenty lucky winners will be chosen from the 750 College Board members to spend the month of June in New York putting out the 1953 College Issue of Mademoiselle.

William E. Dole Is Awarded Art Prize

William E. Dole, assistant professor of art, was awarded a prize of $50 by the Hallmark Art Award on Dec. 10. The 100 winning works of art were exhibited at the Wildenstein Gallery in New York, sponsored by the U.S. National Commission for UNESCO.

A painting by the late Donald Bear, director of the Santa Barbara Museum of Art, who was a lecturer at Santa Barbara College, also won a $50 prize in this competition.

Dole's winning watercolor, entitled "Winter Evening; City No. 2," is one of a series of city scenes which he is doing.

Recently two of his paintings were accepted by the California Water Color Society for their exhibitions.

In 1935 the special secondary teaching credential in music was authorized for Santa Barbara College.

BASKETBALL TEAM ENDS SEASON

Lose to Cal Poly, LA State, Fresno; Last Place in CCAA

The Santa Barbara College basketball team wound up the season by winning two second-half scoring battles, but they don't pay off on just two quarters and the Gauchos took it on the chin again. They lost to Los Angeles State 69-63 on Friday night and to Fresno State by a 67-64 count on Saturday.

The Gauchos finished out the season with one of the most disappointing records in history—five wins and 16 defeats. Ten of those losses were in CCAA competition, marking the second year in a row that Santa Barbara has failed to win a conference game.

After dropping a 94-69 decision to Cal Poly in the hostile confines of the Mustang gym Wednesday night, the Gauchos returned to the Armory last weekend determined to win at least one of their two remaining games. And they almost turned the trick.

After trailing both L. A. State and Fresno State at halftime, the Gauchos turned on the heat in the third and fourth quarters. It was a little too late, however, and both rallies fell a little shy of victory.

Against the Diablos on Friday night it was Ron Balden who almost turned the tide. The thin man from Fillmore clicked on seven out of 11 field goal attempts in the second half, added three free throws for 17 points—all in the third and fourth quarters. But the visitors stalled effectively in the last few minutes and preserved their lead.

Sophomore center Joe Kohler provided the second half spark against Fresno. He hit 16 points in the latter stages of the game, but again the rally was a little too late.

Kohler, incidentally, bested two of the top men in the conference in scoring duels on both nights. He hit for 19 points Friday night to top the Diablos' big John Barber, who had 16. Then Saturday night he had his best night of the year, clicking for 21 points to top the Bulldogs' Len Tucker, who had 19.

Three Gauchos wound up their collegiate careers in the weekend action. Captain Lloyd Heavin, Dick Prigge and Bob Chapman all played their last for the Blue and Gold.

Kohler topped the Gaucho scorers for the season with 259 points for an average of 12.3 per game. Heavin was next with 214 points and an average of 10.2.

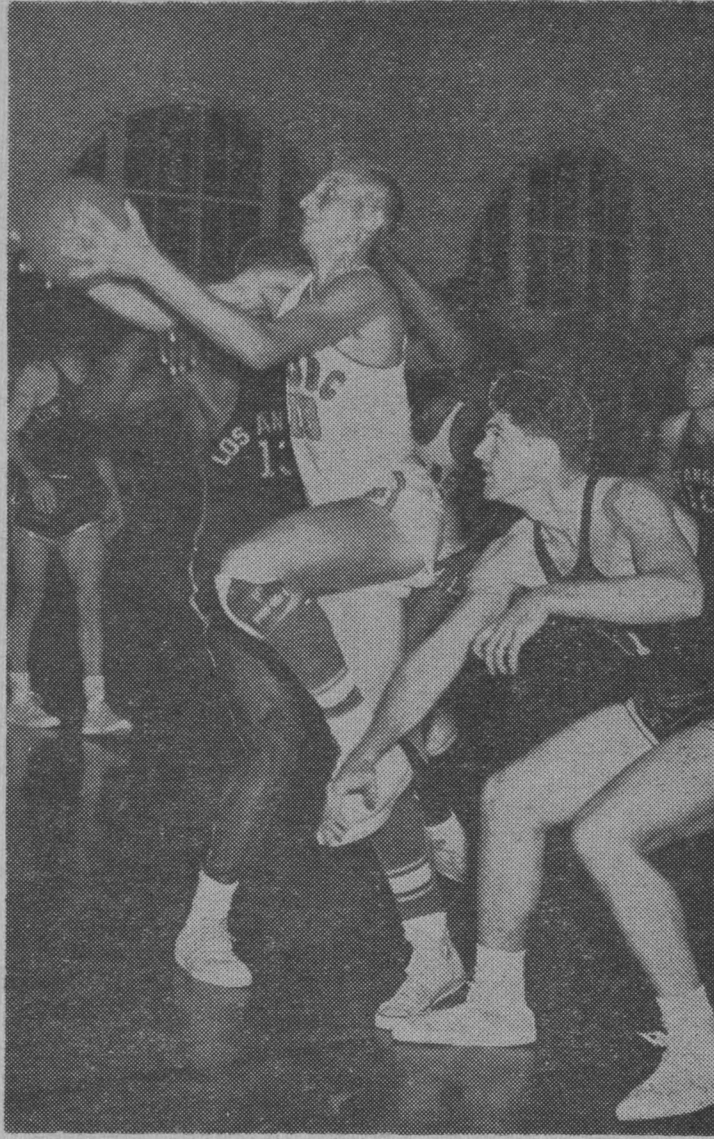

The final statistics:

Inter-Class Meet Takes Track Spotlight At La Playa Tomorrow; Five Lettermen Return

Coach Nick Carter gets his last chance to look over prospective track team members tomorrow afternoon when the annual Inter-Class Track Meet will be held at La Playa Stadium.

Unlike the Intramural Meet which was held last week, lettermen will be eligible to compete tomorrow. It will be the final tune-up before the Long Beach Relays Mar. 14. The thinclads who look good in the Inter-Class Meet will probably get a trip to Long Beach.

But it is likely that lettermen will have little effect on the outcome of the scoring in tomorrow's meet. There are only five numeral winners on hand and almost every event is wide open. Such men as High Jumper Joe Riddick, Quarter Miler Wayne Percy, Broad Jumper Jim Beacom, Miler Hugo Nutini and Javelin Tossers Marvin Ashby will have plenty of competition from newcomers. Only Nutini, the defending CCAA champion, and Percy are likely to have things their own way.

Missing from the scene will be such stalwarts as Leo Jennings, a two-year CCAA broad jump champ, Don Crie, Roscoe Morris, Richard Leffingwell, Ken Eccles, Bruce Marhenke and Jack Sinclair. Graduation and the Army have taken their toll.

Some of the outstanding new men Carter is depending upon are John Godfrey in the sprints, Jerry Downing in the 880, Galen Pearce and Morton Ward in the two mile, Dennis McGrew, Bill Garman and Richard Lorden in the hurdles, Charley Green in the shot, Grant Gaunce in the discus, Sal and Trino Padilla in the high jump and Jack O'Cain and Norman Grimm in the pole vault.

There are several other new men who may make the team, but the season is young and Carter hasn't had a good chance to evaluate their talents.

Block C to Sponsor UCLA Game Ticket Sale

Block C, the lettermen's organization at Santa Barbara College, will sponsor the ticket sale for the opening baseball game of the season, against UCLA at Laguna Park Saturday afternoon, Mar. 14.

Tickets for the game may be obtained from any member of Block C or at the Graduate Manager's office.

Santa Barbara College first became a State institution in 1909 and named the Santa Barbara Normal School of Manual Arts and Home Economics.

TWO INTRAMURAL RECORDS SET

Don Shipman and Dick Metz shattered two old records in the broad jump and low hurdles respectively at the annual Intramural Track Meet held last Thursday afternoon at La Playa Field where over 136 Gauchos showed for their annual day.

The Beach Rats meanwhile gnawed their way to victorious honors in scoring 107 points for the evening; 49 points ahead of their closest opponent. SAE fraternity was honored as the fraternity with the highest score.

In the hurdles Metz stretched his legs for first places in both the high and the low. His record for the low's was 13.7 seconds; his high hurdle mark was 9.5 seconds.

Shipman sailed over twenty feet and three and one-half inches to set a new record for the broad jump. Meanwhile Ned Parson leaped over the five and a half foot mark to top the other high jumpers. In the pole vault Mike Grimm cleared the bar at 11 feet leading over his opponent.

John Carlson put the shot 36 feet and one inch, the best of the muscle competition. Grant Gaunce spun the discus 110 feet while Wayne Braman catapulted the javelin a gapping 140 1/2 feet.

At the races Johnny Godfrey took the 100 yard dash in a sharp 10.3 seconds and the 220 yard run at a 23.5 second mark.

Galen Pearce took honors in both the mile and the 880 run. The speedy long-distance sprinter pulled himself across the white ribbon four minutes and 57 seconds after taking off. His 880 time was clocked as two minutes and 14 seconds.

Jerry Downing claimed the 440 yards in less than one minute. His time was 55.4 seconds. Bob Hottel ran two miles ahead of his four other competitors to the tune of 11 minutes and 30 seconds.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon's relay team clipped the 880 yards in one minute and 41.6 seconds.

As this year's Intramural Track Meet ended Dr. Ernie Michael prepares the arrangements for the Interclass Track Meet to be held tomorrow afternoon at 3:30 at La Playa Field.

J. Paul Sheedy* Switched to Wildroot Cream-Oil Because He Flunked The Finger-Nail Test

Here's a sad cotton tale: poor Paul was in a stew about his hare until his paw wrote: "I ear you got a bun on because your girl left you. Now, lettuce look at the bre'r facts. To get in on the bunny huggin', smart rabbits foot it down to any toilet goods counter for Wildroot Cream-Oil, America's biggest-selling hare tonic. So fuzz thing tomorrow, invest 29¢ in a bottle or handy tube. Contains soothing Lanolin. Non-alcoholic. Grooms the hare. Relieves annoying dryness. Removes loose, ugly dandruff. ENGLE ROUNDS GAUCHO BASEBALL TEAM INTO SHAPE FOR DEFENSE OF CCAA TITLE

Davis, Morris, Baird Look Good with Bat; Pitching Staff Appears to be Very Strong

By Mike Noonan

With three weeks of rugged practice sessions behind them, the Gauchos baseball team candidates are rounding into fine shape, and the feeling around the clubhouse is that last year's CCAA co-champions might well be on that road again.

Although Coach Engle believes his wards are a good two weeks away from top form, recent scrimmages have shown some sharp hitting and fair pre-season pitching. There also was shown a strong need for improvement in the fielding department.

The big sticks for the Gauchos seem to be Bill Davis, last year's all-2C2A choice at shortstop, and veteran infielder Gary Morris. Davis has smacked a number out of the park, and he just might be on the way to another fine season at the plate. Another lad who has shown considerable talent with the big sticks is little Bucky Baird, the young freshman athlete out of Atascadero High School, who has looked even better on the diamond these past few weeks than he looked on the gridiron last fall. Bucky is being considered both for third base and the outfield.

Pitching Important
Connie Mack always maintained that pitching is 75% of baseball. Such being the case, Engle should lose little sleep these cold spring evenings, for he possesses two very capable hurlers from last year's championship club and a number of promising newcomers to bolster the staff. Jerry McIlvaine was the league top hurler in '52, and teammate Bob Emirhanian also finished the season with a respectable record. Both these boys have been progressing steadily.

Among the newcomers to the mound staff are Buck Taylor, Jack Butefish, and Dick Love, all capable right handers. Love is another promising freshman who pitched last season for Mark Keppel High where he compiled a highly respectable record of 13 wins and 2 losses against top prep school competition.

The regular squad is not set, but outstanding performances have been given by Davis at short and Morris at second, with newcomers such as JC transfer Joe Duenas, a smooth working third baseman from Compton College, vying for the open infield positions.

Corrie Is Back
Leading the outfielders is versatile Dave Corrie, another returning letterman. Here, too, new blood is counted on to bolster the squad, with Baird, Ken Trout, and Gordon Weber all working toward berths on the regular nine.

A game with the classy Tokyo "Giants" is a possibility for this weekend, and whether the Gauchos will be in top form for this one can not yet be known. However, with things as they are now, one can look for another winning year for the Santa Barbara club, even with such top collegiate nines as UCLA, USC, and Fresno State on the schedule this spring.

The Santa Barbara College student newspaper has been known by four names in its history. It was first known as "Nais" with the first issue in 1915. In 1921 it was changed to "The Eagle." Ten years later the name was changed to "Roadrunner" and 1934 to "El Gauchos," which is the paper's present title.

POEM?
The dribble is gone,
The hook shot, too.
The referee's blatant
Whistles are through.

The days are brighter,
The sun shines gay.
Basketball is over
And I say, Hurray!

The hit and run
Now takes the stage.
The double play, the steal
Are all the rage.

It's bunt, and hit,
And dig and fight.
Coach says "Take two—

There is no other
Thrill so great
As to see a slugger
Pound the plate.

So Run, Gorrie! Hit, Davis!
Rack up the score.
Slide, Gary! Jump, Ray!
I'm ready for more.

Give us the pitch
You big McIlvaine!
Spring's here, boys:
It's baseball time again.

Williamson Has Some Big New Boys on Hand For '53 Grid Season; Nine-Game Slate on Tap

Football is some six months away but already Coach Stan Williamson is laying plans for the 1953 season. He is as proud as a peacock these days over the two-score odd grid stars who enrolled for classes at Santa Barbara College for the spring semester. Most of them are big, strong-looking and of proven calibre.

The advent of single platoon play doesn't seem to phase the "Great White Father". He claims that the "bulls" he has in the corral can go both ways.

A nine-game schedule has been lined up for 1953. Gone from the slate are such standbys as Pomona-Claremont and LaVerne, but Fresno State is back on the agenda. The rest of the schedule is much the same as 1952, when the Gauchos lost two games—to Whittier and Cal Poly. Both those teams are on the schedule.

The complete schedule:
Sept. 25 Whittier at SB
Oct. 2 Occidental at SB
Oct. 9 Cal Poly at San Luis Obispo
Oct. 17 L.A. State at SB (Homecoming)
Oct. 24 Fresno State at Fresno
Oct. 31 Cal Aggies at L.A.
Nov. 6 Pepperdine at SB
Nov. 14 S.F. State at S.F.
Nov. 21 San Diego State at S.D.

Intercollegiate athletics at Santa Barbara College were discontinued in 1943 for the duration of World War II.

Stephen Goodspeed Lecture To Follow Stephen Krayk's "Violin Masterworks"

"The Unification of Western Europe" will be the topic of Dr. Stephen S. Goodspeed, assistant professor of political science, at today's all college lecture at 4 p.m. in Pine Hall 100.

In his lecture on "Some Masterworks for Violin and their Interpretation," Stephen Krayk, assistant professor of music, said that interpretation is the touchstone of every musical artist's playing. Mr. Krayk demonstrated interpretations of various works, showing how the masterpieces could be well or poorly interpreted in order to bring out, or not bring out, the artistry of the composers and the works. He emphasized that while an interpretation always remains a personal matter for the artist, there are basic principles of musical intuition and good taste of the artist.

Baroque Period

From the Baroque period, Mr. Krayk chose Handel's Sonata in D-Major to show the several ways of interpreting the work with regard to the tone quality, trills, tempo and slide. His remark that it is "just as bad to play Romantic music without schmaltz as to play Baroque with schmaltz" was aptly put, indeed. Mr. Krayk spoke on and demonstrated parts of Bach's Chaconne for unaccompanied violin. In its original form it is, according to Mr. Krayk, the most beautiful, hence the most difficult. In order that an audience may understand the work, it becomes necessary to emphasize the beginnings and endings of the variations in some manner, either by playing softly or loudly, slowly or fast.

Romantic Period

Brahms' Opus 78 in G-Major was used to show interpretation of a work from the Romantic period. This work appears to be taken

Dr. Cushing Speaks At Biological Meet

Dr. John E. Cushing, assistant professor of bacteriology, at Santa Barbara College, spoke at the meeting of the Marine Fisheries Biologists of the California State Department of Fish and Game held at the Mar Monte Hotel Monday and Tuesday.

Dr. Cushing discussed "Serological Techniques Useful in Making Racial Studies of Fish" based on research he has been doing at the College for the past three years. The aim of this study is to develop blood typing techniques in fish research which will eventually lead to separation of breeding stocks of fish. The research is made possible through the funds from the University of California's Scripps Institution of Oceanography arranged by Dr. Carl L. Hubbs, professor of biology at Scripps.

Two other Santa Barbara College faculty members, Dr. Elmer R. Noble, Dean of Liberal Arts, and Dr. Donald M. Wootton, assistant professor of zoology, were also invited to attend the meeting.

Applications Due For Qualification Test

All eligible students who intend to take the Selective Service College Qualification Test in 1953 must file applications at once for the April 23 examination, Selective Service National Headquarters advised Santa Barbara College officials today.

An application and a bulletin of information may be obtained at any Selective Service local board, J. E. Terral, Director of Test Administration, stated in the announcement. Following the instructions in the bulletin, the student should fill out his application immediately and mail it in the special envelope provided.

Applications must be postmarked no later than midnight, March 9, 1953. Early filing will be greatly to the student's advantage, it was stated.

Results of the examination will be reported to the student's Selective Service local board of jurisdiction for use in considering his deferment as a student, according to the Educational Testing Service, which prepares and administers the College Qualification Test.

from Brahms' famous "Rain Song," Opus 59. Mr. Krayk played a movement from both pieces to show the similarity.

Classical Period

In speaking of the Classical period, Mr. Krayk said that it is difficult for the inexperienced performer to grasp the simplicity and directness of Mozart's style; very often the performance of modern, and Romantic pieces, and especially contemporary music spoils the performer's technique for Mozart, whose music is so simple that sound technique and simplicity are necessary. He brought out that articulation is very important for an interpretation of Mozart. Expression should be with straight rhythm unless so marked by Mozart; anything to the contrary would be out of style and would destroy the lightness of Mozart's work. Mr. Krayk played some of Mozart's Concerto in A-Major to show how the arrangement of the tutti, adagio movements by Mozart brought out the tone quality in the contrast between the slow and fast movements.

The most able accompaniment by Dr. John Gillespie was welcomed by the audience.

Central Mail Room Will Remain Open at Noon

Effective Tuesday, February 24, the Campus Mail Room will remain open during the noon hour, to service the needs of faculty and employees of the College. After a trial period of two weeks, if this service is determined not to be warranted, it will be discontinued, according to J. A. D. Muncy, business manager.

State Personnel Job Filing Date Given

University of California at Santa Barbara seniors are reminded that March 27 is the final filing date for Compensation Insurance Assistant, a recruiting and training class for persons interested in field work for the State Compensation Insurance Fund.

A civil service examination will be held in April, according to the State Personnel Board.

Any college senior may apply for the examination, as no specific major is required. The monthly salary range is $281 to $325.

Persons in this class are given intensive training in all phases of Workmen's Compensation Insurance, with particular emphasis on the work of the fund relating to field service to policyholders. Most of these positions are in San Francisco and Los Angeles, although there are others throughout the state.

Complete information and application forms may be obtained from the college placement officer, or State Personnel Board offices in Sacramento, San Francisco and Los Angeles.

Clifford Horn Heads Rifle Team for '53-'54

Clifford Horn, a junior from Van Nuys, was recently elected captain of the rifle team for the 53-54 season. Roger Pyle, a freshman from Pasadena, was elected team manager. Both men will be busy preparing plans for a special Spring training session for new members in anticipation of a full firing schedule next year.

Plans are also under way for a shoulder to shoulder match with University of California, at Berkeley in the near future.

Dr. Knife Publishes Article In Monthly

Dr. William G. Knife, assistant professor of industrial arts at Santa Barbara College, is the author of an article in the current issue of "The School Executive," a monthly magazine devoted to the field of public school education and administration.

Under the title of "Can You Put a New Program in an Old Classroom," Dr. Knife describes the space planning needs of the social-civic core program in the schools which aims to develop civic competence and responsible self-direction through the study of important problems in contemporary life.

Dr. Knife made a study of the core program and its required physical facilities for his doctoral dissertation at Columbia University and this article includes some of the research made at that time.

The social-civic core program "includes learning how to live in a democracy, problems of school, community and social living, personal and group guidance, government, and health. The methods utilized include group instruction when appropriate, individual study and conferences when needed, and all the better tools of learning," the author wrote.

This program requires special planning, according to Dr. Knife, and in addition to a description of the recommended study areas, there are two drawings of the rooms, one for grades seven through ten and the other for grades 11 through 14.

Also in this issue is an article by a former assistant professor of industrial arts, Darvey E. Carlson, on "Graphic Arts—A Factor in General Education." He wrote this while serving on the Santa Barbara College faculty.
