DR. SOHN OF HARVARD LAW SCHOOL TO GIVE SPECIAL LECTURE ON RUSSIA

Prof. Louis B. Sohn of the Harvard Law School, expert in international law and author of numerous books and articles on legal subjects, will give a special lecture tomorrow (July 24) at 3 p.m. in the New Classroom lecture hall.

His topic will be, "Russia: Enemy or Competitor?" The talk, sponsored by the faculty committee on arts and lectures, will be open to the public without charge.

SPECIAL PANEL TO DISCUSS READING CONTROVERSY

"The Controversy About Reading: A Panel" will be the nature of a special discussion to take place in the new classroom lecture hall on Tuesday afternoon at 3 p.m. This debate is staged by popular demand, stemming from views put forth by Dr. E.W. Dolch in his recent All-College lecture.

Participants will be Dr. Dolch, visiting professor of education and well known authority on the teaching of reading to children; Dr. Walter H. Muller, associate professor of botany at UCSB; Mrs. Glenn Reitz, teacher of primary grades at Laguna Blanca School and writer of a national syndicated newspaper column, "Occupation Housewife;" and Dr. Thelma Damgaard of the Santa Barbara City Schools. Dr. Homer D. Swander, chairman of the Committee on Arts and Lectures who are sponsoring this special presentation will act as moderator. The public is invited to attend.

FINAL EMPIRE FILM MONDAY

While the sun never sets on the British Empire, the curtain falls nonetheless on the illuminating Empire and Commonwealth film series on Monday, July 27. The final offering, "Road to Independence", will be shown in the New Classroom Lecture Hall at 3 p.m.

"ROSE TATTOO" OPENS AGAIN TONIGHT AFTER RECEIVING RAVE REVIEWS

Wafted by rave reviews, the sparkling Santa Barbara Community Players' production on "The Rose Tattoo" sails into its second weekend run tonight. Curtain time at the campus Little Theatre for the Tennessee Williams masterpiece is 8:30 - which holds for the Friday and Saturday performances too.

The show is directed by Dr. Stanley Glenn of UCSB's department of speech and drama, and stars Christine Laird and John Crawford. Reservations may be made by calling the Associated Students Business Office (Graduate Manager) in the Student Union. Admission for adults is $1.50, and there is a special $1.00 rate for students.

NATURE STUDY INSTITUTE BEGINS AUG. 3

Summer session nature lovers in need of a good excuse for tarrying longer hereabouts need look no further.

Handily commencing August third is the two-week 27th annual Institute of Nature Study and Conservation, offered by University of California Extension in cooperation with the Santa Barbara Botanic Garden and the Santa Barbara Museum of Natural History.

Headquarters will be the Museum grounds. Daily sessions will be held, Monday through Saturday, with a top-flight teaching staff recruited to instruct in seashore life, native birds, elementary science methods, rocks and minerals, astronomy, native plants, ecology, conservation, and western trees.

Aside from morning classroom work, afternoon sessions will feature field trips, films on wild life and conservation, tours of Montecito estates and gardens.

Moreover, all's arranged so you won't miss a moment of Fiesta fun!

Enrollment (which must be paid by July 31) is only $38. Full information may be had by contacting the Extension office at 129 E. Carrillo (2-9118).

YOUTH AUTHORITY GROUP ON CAMPUS

Over the weekend, some 300 delegates to the conference of the Southern California Youth Authority will be meeting on campus.

Four more conferences will be held at UCSB during the month of August and one in September. Approximately 1000 conferees will attend these meetings.

As previously announced, both the Southern California Folk Dance Federation and the Film Festival Conference will begin on August 16. The Society of California Accountants will meet August 23-26; Phi Lambda Theta Conference-August 26-29; and Western Economics Association-Sept. 2-4.
