GERMANY CREATES STIR

Following the reoccupation of the demilitarized Rhine zone by Hitler's troops in violation of the Versailles treaty, all Europe has been in an uproar. An estimation has been made that 50,000 German troops have set up camp near the border and in retaliation France has 100,000 men to the front. Under the tense situation, there is a grave danger that frontier incidents would precipitate another European struggle. French diplomats are now at work to obtain allies to punish Hitler and force the Germans to evacuate the front. Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden of England has warned Germany that England will go to the assistance of France and Belgium in case they are attacked in a violation of the Locarno pact. However Anthony Eden also made it clear that England is willing to consider the proposals which the German dictator has announced in an attempt to get new peace covenants.

BILLIONS FOR DEFENSE

Congress has been urged to pass a defense appropriations bill of more than a billion dollars. Representative Glover H. Cary in speaking of the bill referred to the critical situation in Germany and Japan said that, "in these times it is necessary that our navy and army come up to the absolute minimum as requested by the budget bureau." The bill includes funds for 33 planes, 12 destroyers, and 6 submarines.

WALKOUT WITHHELD

James J. Bambrick, leader of the building service workers strike in New York city, reversed his plans and withheld his threatened plans of ordering a walkout of building workers in Manhattan's Grand Central area and in Brooklyn and Queens. This action came following a conference that Bambrick had with Mayor La Guardia of the city. Police reports indicate that 2,008 buildings have been affected by the strike and that so far a total of 189 persons have been arrested in connection with the strike.

MUSSOLINI GOES ON

Italy again has announced her determination to carry the fight in Africa to the finish even though she has promised France to support her in holding Germany responsible for the Locarno pact violation. It has been reported that there has been a slight cessation in activities because Italy has tentatively accepted the proposal of the League of Nations to listen to possible plans for peace.

Noted Violinist to Play for Orchestra

In addition to the program previously announced, the Los Angeles Philharmonic orchestra will present Bronislaw Huberman, noted Polish violinist, who will play the Beethoven Violin Concerto in D major. He will play this selection with the orchestra. Huberman has been acclaimed throughout the country for his fine playing.

This concert is the last of three given this winter by the Philharmonic orchestra. Student tickets may still be obtained from Mrs. Helen M. Barnett of the music department.

Tau Omegas Gather at Club Chico Party

Plans for a theatre party on Saturday evening March 14, at Club Chico for alumni, members, and pledges of Tau Omega fraternity were completed at the regular meeting held last night.

Following a basketball game between the alumni and the members, a reception was held at the home of Harry Moore.

Dean Ashworth Plans Student Guide Program

Divisions Will Be Under Separate Heads to Assist Students

Under the supervision of Dean William Ashworth a tentative plan for guidance of lower division students at the State college is now being worked out to facilitate the making of programs, selection of classes, and to advise the students as to the best procedure of selecting courses.

The purpose of the plan is to help lower division students in scheduling the classes which they wish to take. Under the present set-up the work of helping new students work has been handled by Dean Ashworth.

Under the new plan the upper and lower divisions will be taken care of by separate heads. The heads of the departments will take care of the upper division and the lower division will be taken care of by other teachers in the department.

All freshmen and sophomores under this program will receive the benefit of individual guidance and advice as to who will tell them what courses they should take and how the departments operate. "This will lay the foundation for the courses in the upper division," stated Dean Ashworth.

This new system is not yet complete in all details and committees, but by the beginning of next semester it is hoped to have the system working. It will save time in planning courses and also lessen the changes in programs which are so prevalent at present.

Lower division unclassified students will be aided by approximately six teachers to be selected by the dean.

Pasteurs Life Theme for Student Contest

An essay contest is being sponsored by the Granada Theater on the subject of "What part of Louis Pasteur's life was the most impressive." The essay is not to be longer than 100 words and preferably less.

The theater has offered five double passes for the five best essays that are submitted. The contest ends next Monday afternoon at 4:00 p.m. Any student wishing further details may contact Dean William Ashworth.

Sig Alph Stooges Sport Pastel Lids

Don't ever bother to go to the beach 'Cause all of the atmosphere's right within reach.

The Sig Alphas are sporting their beanies so rare Like small beach umbrellas 'round school everywhere. Pledges are wearing 'em, frat brothers laugh.

Colored pink, colored blue—it's a cap 'n' a half.

They doff 'em to ladies, to faculty too,

(Hat's off there, yuh pledge, or it's ten swats for you)

They'll wear them till "Hell Week," then get something worse,

And if they're not careful, they'll land in a hearse.

But if, after "HELL WEEK," those caps are still here,

We'll make pretzels of pledges and dunk them in beer.

State Artists Present First Amateur Show

Contest Open to All College Students; Winners Act in Roadrunner Revue

Staging the first amateur broadcast ever presented at the State college, a pay assembly will be held Tuesday, March 24, during the second hour in the State college auditorium. The price of admission will be ten cents per person.

This assembly which is open to all students is being presented for the purpose of raising money to buy decorations for the Gaucho club.

On the amateur program will be students who can dance, sing, play an instrument or present any form of entertainment. The stage itself will be set to represent a regulation sound studio with Alfredo Chavez acting as master of ceremonies and Garlyn Basham impersonating Graham McNamee. Tentative plans also call for installation of a public address system and for having an orchestra on the stage to accompany the actors if necessary as they go through their routine.

The winners of the contest will, in all probability, appear in the Roadrunner Revue. It is not known as yet whether the judges will be the audience or a committee.

At present the following students are expected to appear on the program: Louis Trigueiro, Bradford Tozier, Al Bine, Spike McNeill, Marjorie Davidson and Miriam Turton.

Any other student wishing to appear on the program should contact Alfredo Chavez or Garlyn Basham before March 15.

'Buck Passing'

Contesting a recent editorial in this column, we received a letter yesterday which attempted to clarify a situation on our campus which has become tainted in the minds of both the faculty and the students.

It concerns the "Old Cad," student body automobile, and a surface argument which contends with paint, numerals and freshmen responsibility; but underneath this skim is one of the leading examples of "passing the buck" for which this institution is outstanding.

Though the letter is useless in its attempt to clarify the present problem, we include it here as a consolation to the frosh class.

"Dear Editor—In an editorial in El Gaucho of Friday, February 28, 1936, entitled "Something Lacking" were made many accusations which, I feel, if not answered will lead the students of S. B. S. C. to gain an incorrect opinion of the present Freshman class, and I am writing in an effort to clarify this misunderstanding.

"At the beginning of last semester a group of Freshmen painted '39's' on some of the rocks and towed the student body 'Cad' to a conspicuous place on the campus. All this was done in a spirit of class rivalry and fun. Said fun being over, the same group repainted the rocks and towed the car to a place designated by Fred Allred, student controller, who planned to have it repaired by the I. E. department. (Mr. Allred wishes to make it known to the student body that the Freshmen were relieved of all responsibility for returning the car after they parked it where he wanted it.)

"I am trying to show, through this explanation, that our responsibility ceased as soon as the car was parked at the place directed and the '39's' were repainted."—Danny D'Alfonso, Freshman class president.

It appears as expressed in the above letter that we were not in full possession of the facts. Our answer is briefly, did you ever try to open a can of tomato souce without a can opener? Though sincere in every detail and whole-heartedly written, the letter presents only a one-sided view of the situation and sheds no light on who owns the "Old Cad"? or on why it now exists in such a deplorable state?

From the minutes of the athletic board of control, we find that the automobile was offered for sale to the associated students on April 12, 1934, though technically it already belonged to them. A student was delegated to convey the board's action to Fred Allred, student body controller. The contact was never made as Allred received no such word; and thus, the car was passed off by one group and never received by the other. Who owned it?

Allred, in view of his position as student overseer, assumed the responsibility of the car and had it kept in fairly efficient service. In the Spring of '35, the "Old Cad" was used by the track and boxing teams on several different trips.

During the summer the car was turned over to the State of California for work on Phelps field, and in August a mishap occurred, the battery was short-circuited and rendered useless.

Under authoritative direction the battery was removed from the car by William Rust, automotive instructor, and taken to the college shop for repair. It was at this point that the freshmen towed the "Old Cad" to the campus.

"Said fun being over" the car was removed as previously related and parked in the I. E. driveway close to the shop so that the battery might be replaced. Thus it was allowed to stand for five months, technically still the property of the State of California, while Rust refused to work on the car because it was a "disgrace to the college."

Hopelessly deadlocked it is obvious that no amount of "clarifying letters" will straighten out this entanglement of authorities. We suggest that the associated students investigate and determine the ownership; then authorize some one to dispose of it as junk. On the completion of such action, we believe the point of contention will have been removed and so also the present craze of "Buck Passing."

Book Chatter

By ARTHUR BATCHELDER

We kinda suspect Steve, a ghost writer, for a wee bit of a while—but he's got a good wife for a change so he's out. That old rotter, Waddy Darr, left his platinum lighter lying around, so after a while he's cleared. An' how about that guy who owned a pet crow, or the cop-killer last seen near the scene of the crime?

What am I ravin' about?—you say— why, ain't I told you, well bless my red socks I'll be goldurned if I ain't. Why I'm talkin' about that new believe-it-or-not book, no, heck no, not by Ripley, but by Phoebe Taylor, the name is "The Crimson Patch."

If you all want to know more about the book, you just go get it yourself and read it.

Hello, you old lovers of squeamish murder stories. I got one for ya called "The Havana Hotel Murders," by Dudley. And if you like back-ground, well it's one of those stories where the back-ground is almost the whole thing.

Stone Cody's "Outlaw Posse" is just the newest thing for you fans of Western stories—all about the big bad men and how they capture the girl, or do her an injustice like the Maverick boys in this western-thriller. Elizabeth thinks they killed her Uncle Fred, but she'd better watch Sheriff Blaze McArthur. The book shore is a top-notch.

WHOOPEE, HOT DOG, HOTSY TOTSY—Agatha Christie has brought out a new rip-roarin' murder—WHEEEEEEE !!!

In the "A.B.C. Murders" we find a homicidal maniac is choosing a couple of towns and victims in alphabetical order, there are slugs and stranglings murders galore.

Agatha shore goes to town this time!

Music - Art - Drama

C. BRUCE TOMLINSON

Current drama generally reflects contemporary thought and opinion.

No one can deny that our age is dominated by psychology, not only normal, but sub- and abnormal. The latter are no doubt responsible for our excessive sex consciousness. An increase in sex perversions has been apparent with the result that homosexuality is the latest scandal; and two close friends of the same sex are liable to be the subject for gossip mongers.

"The Children's Hour", play at the Lobero this past weekend, deals with somewhat this type of situation. Two teachers who run a girl's school are reported to be Lesbians by a malicious and selfish pupil who will stop at nothing in order to get what she wants or to be continually the centre of attention. Her lies result in ruining the lives of the two teachers.

Ten years ago Mary Tilford would have had a different lie to tell, but ten years ago it would have been as shockingly good drama as the present charges of Lesbianism. And the results would have been just as disastrous. Conceiving tales and telling scandalous lies for one's own advancement is not so uncommon. Righteous minded wives can relate the most sinful gossip over the back-fence and, strangely, seem purified when done. Men run a competitor down with distorted reports without any qualms. Probably we are all guilty of occasionally building ourselves up at some one else's expense. It is only that false reports of personal character are the easiest to make and the hardest to erase—and make the best drama.

"The Children's Hour" is a well written play. Audience interest runs high and is never permitted to sag. The coast production of this New York success is well cast; true, no famous names are listed, but that only insures your concentration on the play rather than the actor. After its dress rehearsal performances here the play will no doubt run more smoothly. It should be one of the most successful plays of the season.

SPORTS

Boots and Spurs

By JACK DAVID

It is interesting to note that Jean Campbell, sophomore discus sensation, had four throws over 140 feet at Long Beach Saturday. Any one of them would place him first in the All Conference meet. His best effort of 147 feet 2 inches breaks the official conference record by approximately eight feet, which is something that should make Gaucho fans sit up and take notice.

Whether this mark will be accepted as official is not known. Coach Nick Carter hurried over to the A. A. U. men who were running off the event and got them to write a letter stating that Campbell's toss was authentic. The rest is up to the Southern Conference heads.

This and that from the world of sport:

Coach "Spud" Harder has a couple of boys on his baseball squad who can really lose the horsehide when they set their mind to it. They are Lloyd "Shires" Erhard and Chuck Luse. Both of them connected for 4 ply swats in the week end series with Santa Maria . . . According to Fred Allred, who with Yale Lorden is conducting a golf class of 25, interest in that sport is higher this year than it has been for about one decade . . . A number of handicap tournaments are to be staged later on in the semester which should increase golfing activities still more.

Harold Hart, who coached the Gaucho boxing team last year, is making quite a name for himself around the Olympic Auditorium. Fighting under the name of Tommy Hart, he has scored four knock-outs in as many starts . . . Not since the days of Jimmy Anderson, who used to hold all of the school track records except one or two, has anyone shown the versatility that Louie Trigueiro has . . . his presence ought to add a lot of prestige to the Peagreeners in coming meets.

SWIMMING TEAM GROWS STRONGER

Under the leadership of Norman Coy the swimming team is rapidly approaching mid-season form.

The team has been considerably strengthened by Tommy Mills, who shows great promise in the 200 yard sprint. His form in the water is very good, and Mills will considerably aid the relay team composed of Norman Coy, Chester Cash, and Dave Pollock. Chester Cash is one of the best sprinters State has at the present time, and will be a valuable asset to the squad.

Gauchos Win Few Places in South's Relays

State Places Second in Two Mile Relay; Campbell Breaks Record

Breaking the Long Beach Relays record for colleges by approximately 10 seconds the State college 2 mile relay team had to be content with a second place behind the faster San Diego runners, who won the two mile relay in the fast time of eight minutes fourteen and eight tenths seconds.

The outstanding event to the State rooters was Jean Campbell's toss in the discus. Jean shattered the Southern California Conference discus record by eight feet when he heaved it out 147.2 feet. The old record was 139 feet. Campbell's effort, however garnered him only a fifth place as he was traveling in the company of such nationally famous discus tossers as Kenny Carpenter of U. S. C., Levy of Stanford, and Bobby Jones of the San Francisco Olympic club. Carpenter won the event at 167.55 feet.

Howard Yeager qualified in the trials of the novice hundred, but failed to place in the finals. Neil Beat pulled a muscle and had to quit after clearing ten feet three inches in the pole-vault.

Frosh Bow to Jaysee Cinder Men as Louie Trigueiro Performs

Coach Nick Carter's freshmen ran into stiff competition in the form of Ventura Junior college and lost their opening track meet of the season 68 to 53 Friday afternoon on Phelps field.

Trigueiro won the pole vault, broad jump, shot put, discus throw, took second in the high jump and then came back to win the javelin with a toss of 159 feet and a half inch to top off a perfect afternoon.

Aside from their "Iron Man," the Frosh have not much to boast. The other men who placed in the meet were Swatzberg in the dashes, Hackleman in the quarter-mile, Sloan and Voorhees in the mile, Smith and D'Alfonso in the high hurdles. Cahill placed in both the low hurdles and broad jump, McArthur in the high jump, and Wells and Dorn in the weights.

Maurine Fisher's Shoulder Broken

While horseback riding at the Vandever stables on Friday afternoon, Maurine Fisher, member of the art department, was thrown from her horse and broke her right shoulder. The horse stumbled and threw her off.

State Nine Trounces Jaysee Stick-Wielders in Two Games

Northern Game Ends 8-4 and State's Home Game Hits 12-4 Victory

Over the last week-end, Coach "Spud" Harder's pennant-bound stick-wielders registered victory on two different occasions over the Santa Maria Junior college. On Friday, the Gaucho nine traveled to the northern institution to pound out an 8-4 win in the first game of the series. On Saturday the Hardermen played host to their Northside rivals and sent them home on the short end of a 12-4 score.

Although the initial stanzas of both contests found the hilltop nine seemingly at a loss, they settled down in the latter part of each fracas to bring home the well known bacon. "Bort" Bortolazzo chucked first-rate ball in the first game fanning 16 potential hitters, and little "Spider" Murray proved himself to be no mean hitter, getting 3 for 5 in the second game.

Each Puff Less Acid A LIGHT SMOKE OF RICH, RIPE-BODIED TOBACCO

Over a period of years, certain basic advances have been made in the selection and treatment of cigarette tobaccos for Lucky Strike Cigarettes.

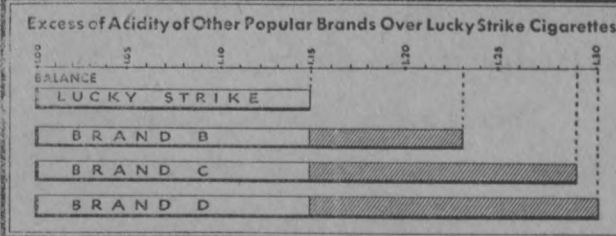

They include preliminary analyses of the tobacco selected; use of center leaves; the higher heat treatment of tobacco ("Toasting"); consideration of acid-alkaline balance, with consequent definite improvement in flavor; and controlled uniformity in the finished product.

All these combine to produce a superior cigarette—a modern cigarette, a cigarette made of rich, ripe-bodied tobaccos—A Light Smoke.

Recent chemical tests show* that other popular brands have an excess of acidity over Lucky Strike of from 53% to 100%.

Gnome Club Holds Sport Dance Pledges Informally Initiated at Party

Honoring pledges, the Gnomes, social club, held a dance at the Stroller's clubhouse on Loma Street Saturday night, March 7, from nine to twelve p.m. A jinx party was also held Friday night in the A. W. S. clubroom, where informal initiation took place.

The St. Patrick's day theme was carried out at the dance, which was a sport affair. Green and white horns took the place of lemons in a special dance, and green clovers with gold numbers also carried out the colors of the club in a grand march led by Leona Grow and Wilbert Dieball. Punch was served throughout the evening.

Sponsors were Mr. and Mrs. C. Putnam. Chairmen of the various arrangement committees were Barbara Bennett, refreshment; Jean Gordon, decorations; Ruth McCulloch, cleanup; and Verna Wilber, entertainment.

Ten girls were given pledge ribbons by Betty Wells, president, following individual introductions to each member of the club at the jinx party Friday night. Each girl was instructed to wear no make-up to school on Monday and Friday of this week and to wear big handkerchiefs pinned on their pledge ribbons and must greet old members as "Miss."

Pledges entertained with a program and relays, and then were sent out in search of their refreshments, which were hidden around on the campus. Mary Agnes Phillips, social chairman, had charge of the affair.

Formal initiation will be held in the very near future at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Byron Abraham, sponsors.

BETA SIGS HOLD CHOW MEIN FEED

Beta Sigma Chi, social fraternity at Santa Barbara State, climaxed their social activity for the last week-end with a Chow-Mein dinner last night at the fraternity house on Cheltenham road in Mission canyon.

On Sunday over fifty members, alumni, pledges and guests enjoyed a picnic at Paradise park over the San Marcos pass.

Following the dinner last night the fraternity meeting was held in which the organization discussed the proposed Dia del Playa, play day, which they will assist in sponsoring. Frank Hayman, president, announced the interfraternity formal as March 21.

Other items of business that were discussed included the plans for the annual Easter morning breakfast at the Biltmore Hotel, and also the fraternity formal which will be held at the Biltmore on April 24.

For centuries the world has gone to the Near East for its flavors and aromas and spices.

...and today Chesterfield imports thousands of bales of tobacco from Turkey and Greece to add flavor and fragrance to Chesterfield Cigarettes.

Turkish tobacco is expensive. The import duty alone is 35 cents a pound. But no other place except Turkey and Greece can raise tobacco of this particular aroma and flavor.

This Turkish tobacco, blended with our own American tobaccos in the correct proportions to bring out the finer qualities of each tobacco, helps to make Chesterfields outstanding for mildness and for better taste.
