Players Present Comedy

All Students Cast in Play Are New on Campus

Ashworth Directs
Definite Date Not Set; Scheduled in November

Don Hart and Joan Drennan will take the leads in "The Royal Family," a three act comedy to be presented by the College Players club in the middle of November, it was announced yesterday by Bill Ogle, manager of dramatics and debate.

Gwen Caven, daughter of Julie Cavendish, will be portrayed by Blanche Steward and the part of Fanny Cavendish, the mother, will be played by Marie Persons. Alfredo Chaved will be seen as Herbert Dean and his wife Kitty will be played by Mildred Pearson. Others in the cast include Ted Hanley as Harry Stewart, Garlyn Basham as Oscar Wolfe, Grange Lewis as Gilbert Marshall, Janine Rupertos as Della, Dee Peck as Joe, and Norman Coy as Gunga. McDermitt, an ex-prize fighter, a chauffeur and two hall boys have not as yet been cast.

None of the students in the cast have ever appeared in a Santa Barbara State College production before, states Mr. Ogle.

The comedy by George Kaufman and Edna Ferber deals with a family of actors and actresses, their problems, quarrels, triumphs, and the lure of the stage. Julie Cavendish, the family shock absorber, is confronted with the problems of helping her daughter choose between marriage and a career, helping Anthony out of a breach-of-promise suit, settling the quarrels of Hrbeetr and Kitty Dean, and supplying the family with money.

Each part is distinctly a character one and the play moves rapidly on brilliant lines from one uproarious scene to another.

"We have given the casting of 'The Royal Family' a good deal of thought and we believe the students we have chosen will present a play we can be very proud of," stated Mr. Ogle.

The first reading of the play was held last night in the Men's club room and regular practices will begin immediately, according to Ogle.

The College Players presented two plays last year. "Good Morning Bill," a three act comedy by Noel Coward, given during the fall semester, and "Hay Fever," a P. G. Wodehouse production, given in the spring semester.

Dean William Ashworth, faculty adviser for the Players' club, will direct the production.

Outing Club Stages Drive

A membership drive, starting October 15, for new members for the Outing club, is now in progress. It will continue for two weeks and end by a meeting of all the new and old members at the end of that period.

Willis McCollough, president of the Club, is in charge of the drive. The dues are 75 cents per semester, and membership is open to all college men and women who are interested in outings.

Several trips to the club cabin near Paradise Camp are made during the semester. Once a year, in the spring, a trip is made to Santa Cruz island.

Those interested in joining may do so by contacting Willis McCollough, president; Lois Jo McPheeters, treasurer; or Lucille Bolton, vice-president.

Service Clubs Sell Student Handbooks

New student handbooks will be given out on October 23, according to Margaret Mellinger, editor of the booklet. These directories contain addresses and telephone numbers of every member of the student body, as well as the school yells, songs, and traditions.

The handbooks will be sold at a low price at the general assembly by members of Los Espuelas and the Squires.

Group Asks That State Lead Talks

Santa Barbara State college was chosen to lead the discussion on international economic policies at the preliminary conference of the Pacific Southwest International Relations clubs, attended by Mary Smiley, president of the International Relations club, and Dr. Frederick W. Ganzert, faculty adviser.

Representatives of the various colleges in the Pacific southwest decided to discuss international problems in four round table groups. Mary Smiley and Dr. Ganzert will lead the discussion on Economic Nationalism, Economic Internationalism, and Economic Imperialism. Important subjects such as tariffs, monetary policies and quotas will be discussed at their round table.

Latin-American group
The Latin-American round table group will discuss our present American policy, Latin America and the League of Nations, Cuba, and the seventh Pan-American conference. Students at the round table dealing with the Far East will discuss the Philippine factor and Mongolia.

Lewis Browne
The University of Southern California representatives will lead the discussion of disarmament, covering the alliance background, arms, equality, and munition control. Lewis Browne will conduct an open forum on dictatorships.

Anyone who wishes to attend the conference may do so by making the payment of necessary fees; however, only bona fide club delegates have the right of discussion, all others having the status of auditors. Reservations should be made with Jack Murray or Don Livingston.

Eta Chapter Establishes Thrift Shop

The eleventh annual convention of the Delta Upsilon fraternity will be held in Santa Barbara the first week after the closing of school next June, as was decided at the convention held last June on the U.C.L.A. campus, at which Miss Elizabeth Leonard and Faith Holm were official delegates from Eta Chapter.

Many social events are being planned to make this year's convention a big success. These will consist of breakfasts, luncheons, teas, a formal banquet, a beach supper and a theatre party.

Thrift Shop
At a meeting held Tuesday night at the home of Helen Grady it was decided to establish a Delta Phi Upsilon "thrift shop". The object of this shop is to sell clothes to the needy at a very low price. The fraternity announces that all donations of clothes, shoes or other articles of clothing will be greatly appreciated.

The organization of the shop, the cleaning, sewing, and selling of the articles will all be done by Delta Phi Upsilon girls.

Kay Myers and Helen Cooley, alumni members, have been invited to be the advisers of the fraternity for the coming year. It was also decided that pledging will be held next semester.

Lobero Offers Rates for College Students

In order to stimulate interest of college students in the work they are doing and to insure the management of financial support of their presentations, the managers of the Lobero are offering a special rate of admittance to five plays for the price of $1.00, plus a student body book.

The play to be offered this week will be "Dark Tower" by George Kaufman and Alexander Woolcott. In the near future "Macroples's Secret" and "Christmas Carol" are scheduled.

On the campus tickets may be obtained from either Dorothy Weber or William Ogle.

Miss Bradley Talks to District P.T.A.

Miss Alice Bradley of the home economics department spoke before the district P.T.A. yesterday on "Feeding the Child."

Miss Mercedes Berger, State graduate of last year, arranged the program for the meeting.

New Advertising Policy

Because of inefficiency and misunderstandings arising concerning State's advertising policy, El Gaucho faces a financial crisis.

The coming weeks mark a trial period. Whether or not publication will continue on the same basis used in the past will be determined by the results of the coming advertising campaign. The situation causing the crisis was inevitable under the past advertising policy; the outcome depends on the success of the new policy and on the support and co-operation of students and faculty.

With justifiable reason, the merchants of Santa Barbara have objected to methods used by college publications in obtaining advertising. They maintain, truthfully, that there has been no apparent system in vogue. Representatives from any number of student body and private enterprises call on each merchant. These representatives have no identification. Frequently duplication and general mixups result. At all times there are more agents than necessary, and this lack of organization resulted in a nuisance to the merchants.

In the past merchants have looked upon advertising in college publications as gifts or donations. With four collegiate enterprises, El Gaucho, La Cumbre, the football programs and the student directory, they rightfully argue that the price of school support comes high.

Steps to be taken by the student body in the face of this criticism are clear. In the first place, some uniform system must be adopted in regard to selling the ads. Then the merchants must be made to see that advertising in student publications is not a donation, but that it will bring them as much business as advertising in any other paper.

Keeping these facts in mind, suggestions for improvement have been considered by the student body controller. He has outlined a new policy, one that will put all publications on a self-supporting basis and will, at the same time, satisfy the merchants of Santa Barbara. No attempt will be made to make a surplus over the amount necessary to meet the expenses of

A. W. S., Men's Club Meet for First Time Tuesday Morning

Reconsideration of a constitutional amendment proposed last year to appoint a nomination committee for the semi annual elections was the main order of business at the men's club meeting held Tuesday morning during the second hour.

The amendment states that a committee shall be appointed each semester to post a list of nominees one week in advance of the election and that nominations from the floor will also be in order.

The amendment will be revised and presented for consideration at the next club meeting.

The amendment, proposed last year by a committee appointed by Bob Maine, was dropped because of lack of approval.

Following the business "Goldie" Goldsmith led the group in a number of yells. Johnny Olson accompanied the group singing.

EDITOR ISSUES FIRST NUMBER OF MAGAZINE

Striving to present an interesting college magazine for college men and women and to serve as an adequate medium for national advertisers who wish to cater to the college class, Formal, a new college magazine, makes its first appearance this month in the collegiate circle.

Material in Formal will consist of student written articles and short subjects written by nationally known business and social leaders, combined with sophisticated humor and articles on colleges and college life. Frank criticisms and suggestions will also be published in an open forum column, and all students are urged to contribute any material they wish.

For a platform Formal favors world peace, religious tolerance, sane sex education and all things that are harmonious with the art of fine living.

Jr. High Department Plans Buffet Supper

The Junior High department will hold their first departmental dinner of the semester in the Cafeteria Saturday evening, October 20. It will be a buffet supper and all members of the department who have paid their dues will be admitted without charge. Other members and guests will be charged 50 cents. Dancing and games will comprise the evening's entertainment insuring a good time for all.

Miss Steer Asks for Signatures

Phebe Steer, secretary of Kappa Delta Pi, requests all C.S.F. seal bearers to sign a slip in the office of the dean of women. This request is important.

Pomona Quits Southern Cal. Sport League

In resigning from the Southern California conference, Pomona college surprised officials in athletic circles. Their resignation was dated Wednesday, October 10. They requested immediate action.

Authorities from the southern campus stated that the action was the result of previous and lengthy deliberation. However a more recent cause is attributed to the late withdrawal of Caltech from the conference and the resulting rule concerning freshmen teams.

That rule states that "conference freshmen shall meet no teams representing institutions granting a regular bachelor of arts degree outside the conference." Pomona and Occidental were in favor of accepting Caltech's request that this rule be set aside for one year. However the majority vote was against them and the motion was defeated.

Could Not Break Schedule
Pomona still felt obligated to play out their schedule which included a game with Caltech frosh and it was the opinion of the administration that Pomona could not stay in the conference and break existing rules. Resignation was the following step.

"Pop" Wells, zoology professor and one of Santa Barbara State's representative to the Southern California conference committee said "The action taken by Pomona was indeed a surprise as they showed no intentions of resigning from the conference at the committee meeting the Saturday before, October 6. As a matter of fact, Pomona was delegated by Dr. Osgood Hardy of Occidental college to act as chairman of the conference to work up a new resolution on eligibility."

Etude Chorus Gives Concert in Afternoon

The Etude Ethiopian chorus, under the sponsorship of the Santa Barbara Women's club ways and means committee, will give a concert Sunday afternoon, October 21, at Recreation Center.

Miss Freita Hall, lyric soprano and director of the chorus, organized this chorus with people from all parts of the world.

In the last few years the group has sung in more than fifty screen productions including "Show Boat" and "Emperor Jones" with Lawrence Tibbett. A few of the group sang in the recent Will Roger's production "Judge Priest."

Tickets can be secured on the campus from Miss Wilhemina Menken in the registrar's office.

Balboa Orchestra Plays at Casino

Russ Plummer and his Balboa Rendezvous orchestra will play a one night engagement at the Casino Gardens in Ventura Thursday evening, October 18. Plummer and his band have played for collegiate crowds at the southern dance spot for the past several months.

A reduction will be offered to student body card holders.

Goldsmith Outlines Policy for Cheerleading, Rallies

Leader Organizes Mystery Shrouds for Games

Yea Team! Let's Go!
A 'New Deal' has been dealt in cheerleading as well as in athletics. As a first step in further backing a fine team and a fine coach, 'Goldie' Goldsmith, college yell king, is organizing a rooting section of at least 50 men and 50 women to act as a 'pep' backbone of the college rooting section. This group of students will have special seats reserved for them at each game and their duty will be to act as the 'central lung' of the cheering. All interested can sign lists on all school bulletin boards.

A separate section for college students alone is being worked out by the Student Activities committee. The location has not been definitely decided upon, but it probably will be on the South side of the field. This concentration of students into one section will be a great help in leading yells.

Annual Affair Given to Raise Funds for Freshmen Awards; Prizes Arranged for Ticket Sales Contest

Junior Chamber of Commerce will be host again this year at a "Scholarship dance" at the Ambassador ballroom for the benefit of students at the State college Friday evening, October 19, after the Redlands football game.

The first of these benefit dances was given last year and they will be continued in the future as a regular annual affair, according to M. O. Myers, vice-president of the local junior chamber.

Registrar Calls Senior Meeting

Extra! Extra! There will be a senior breakfast Thursday morning, October 18, at 7 a.m. sharp.

Price, 25 cents.
The breakfast will be held at Ebbets Hall and election of officers for the coming year will take place. Also a sponsor and committees will be appointed. All seniors are urged to attend because of the important meeting which will follow the breakfast. All faculty members are cordially invited to be present.

Mrs. Clow and Mrs. Miller in the president's office, are taking reservations.

Faculty Rides in Caravan to Alumni Meet

Several members of the faculty will travel en caravan to Bakersfield Sunday morning for a meeting of the San Joaquin Valley group of alumni. The event, an innovation in alumni gatherings, will be a basket luncheon held in Jastro park on West 18th street if the sun shines, or at the high school cafeteria if the day is rainy.

Lawrence E. Chenoweth, an alumnus who is the Bakersfield city superintendent of schools, will be toastmaster for the occasion. Eunice Uebele, president of the Valley alumni group, and James Tinkle, secretary-treasurer, with the help of committees are arranging for a program with speakers.

Leaves Early Sunday
The caravan will start from the campus at 7 Sunday morning and will arrive in Bakersfield sometime before 1 o'clock. Members of the faculty and office secretaries who plan to attend are President and Mrs. Clarence Phelps and family, Dean Lois Bennink, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Bennett, Mr. and Mrs. "Spud" Harder, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Cummings, Mr. and Mrs. Byron Abraham, Mrs. Ruth Doolittle, Miss Phoebe Steer, and Miss Wilhemina Menken.

CASE FEATURES PHOTOSTATS OF MANUSCRIPTS

Photostat copies of English literary autographs from the collection of the Huntington Library can be seen in the exhibit case in the library. In addition to the autographs, there are also translations prepared by W. W. Gregg, who is an authority on Elizabethan handwriting.

There are three specimens, two in Elizabethan and one in Gothic handwriting. Those in Elizabethan, by Thomas Kyd and Benjamin Jonson, are easily read in the original, but the Gothic example, by Thomas Dekker, is illegible due to the fact that it was written with quill pen on paper of a very poor quality.

These autographs are from a collection belonging to Dr. William Maxwell of the English department.

Dr. Berkeley Blake Lectures to Class

Rev. Berkeley Blake of the Unitarian church in Santa Barbara will talk on "Primitive Religion" and "Historic Christianity," for the sociology class, Wednesday, October 17, fifth hour.

Dr. Blake has already given a lecture on primitive religion, and will give another on historic Christianity in the near future. For the sociology class, however, he has kindly combined the two.

President Urges Support

"We should cooperate with the Chamber of Commerce by giving them our whole hearted support in order to show our appreciation for what they are doing for us," states "Bud" Lambourne, student body president.

Four prizes will be given to the students selling the most tickets during the ticket sales contest that began yesterday. Two prizes will be awarded to women and two to men. The first prizes will be five dollar clothing merchandise orders and the second prizes, two dollar and fifty cent clothing merchandise orders.

Points Determines Winners
Arrangements for the dance are being handled by Mr. Myers. "We are making this dance one of our major projects for this year and we are concentrating our entire efforts to make it successful," Myers states.

Music for the evening will be furnished by Fred Lambourne and his orchestra.
The first prizes will be five dollar merchandise orders from Huggins' and Myers'; the second, twenty dollar orders from Ott's and Denno and Johnston's.

Author Tells of Exhibits

Featuring the history and success of the exhibit case in the college library, an article by Della Haverland, Lincoln librarian, entitled "College Library Exhibits," appeared in the October copy of "Pacific Book Bindery Talk," recently received in the library.

Miss Haverland in her article emphasized the interest of both students and townspeople in exhibits appearing in the case and the great amount of material available for display.

During the year the exhibit was changed every two weeks. All material on display was connected in some way with books. Interesting exhibits included copies of old newspapers, first editions, and facsimiles of manuscripts and letters written by famous men, including Charles Darwin, Emile Jusserand and others.

Displays showing the costumes or dolls of foreign countries were also featured.

Adviser Entertains Activities Council

Miss Sweet gave a buffet supper at her home last Tuesday evening, October 9, for the Activities committee, of which she is adviser.

A business meeting was held following the supper and plans were discussed regarding novel stunts and entertainment to be put on during the halves of future football games. To provide such entertainment is one of the many functions of this committee. Chairman Paul Woods presided at the meeting.

Station Men Make Free Car Stickers

Wnidshield stickers depicting the State college Gaucho, are being distributed by Tommy and Willie's Service Station at Solo and State streets.

The stickers were designed by Howard Bush, '33 alumnus, who also designed the masthead for El Gaucho.

Miss Wilma Lowsley, financial secretary, left Sunday for a two weeks' vacation in Palm Springs. She will be gone about 18 days.

Scholarship Dance

The junior chamber of commerce, in sponsoring the after-the-game dance next Friday at the Ambassador, is making a contribution to State that warrants the support of every student body member. In a spirit of helpfulness and cooperation, they gave four freshmen scholarships for the current year. This dance is to raise funds to pay for these scholarships.

Last year the junior chamber of commerce gave a student body dance. The student body supported it only half-heartedly.

This year it's up to the present members of S.B.S.C., students and faculty, to show the organization whose faith in our college is so great, that the college appreciates the efforts of the group and is willing to help them in return.

Thanks to the junior chamber of commerce for their cooperation. Thanks to the student body for their support.

One Paper, Please

While it is gratifying to know that students are glad when El Gaucho is distributed Wednesday mornings, it is not so nice to come around a little later in the day and hear that the papers are all gone.

With seven hundred being distributed early Wednesday, it seems obvious that some student must be taking more than one. After all, one's enough!

I Saw It in the Papers

By DON MACLEOD

Jugoslavia, one of the Versailles Treaty's patchwork states, mourns their assassinated king. All continental Europe is in a state of turmoil. Bitterness and hatred find many means of expression. Evidence points to terrorist gangs from Croatia, where discontent and opposition to Yugoslavian rule have always run high. The Croats want independence, or at least autonomy, claiming that the Yugoslavian government has exploited and impoverished their country.

There was a time in history, after the failure of the Treaty of Vienna, when people realized that harsh terms and patchwork states could not endure. But in the aftermath of war, precedents are often forgotten, resulting later in serious complications such as the one which Yugoslavia and the rest of the world as well are now faced with.

Dr. Howard K. Beale, as the product of two years research, gives a dramatic expose of the forces which control our schools. The article appears in Harper's magazine for this month and has already started wide comment. The expose definitely attacks certain forces in America which are working in direct opposition to an intelligent solution of our social and economic problems.

Business, says Dr. Beale, is the most dangerous impediment to social progress, for it has come to dominate our school boards and through various devices prohibits freedom of expression to such an extent that our whole school system has become a sham, a bulwark of the status quo. Subsequently, he goes on to say, America is swamped with a host of super and pseudo patriotic organizations, ancestor worshipping organizations and numerous lesser groups which use the Constitution as an implement to censor all liberal tendencies.

Dr. Beale's article presents a clear and understandable analysis of the school situation and concludes that until the shackles are taken from our teachers, social progress will be a slow and painful process.

The Los Angeles Times, The Saturday Evening Post and other champions of reaction have been pointing proudly, with something of a paternal pride, to the fact that England has emerged from the quagmires of depression by merely sitting tight and waiting.

A different story, however, was told to a group of Boston business men by the Marquis of Lothian, British statesman and Liberal leader. In direct contrast to the American conception, Lord Lothian attributed Britain's prosperity to the fact that it had carried out a plan of social insurance and taxation to level the great inequalities of wealth. Both employers and workers, he said, are working together in carrying through these reforms, and that Britishers accept this redistribution of wealth as an essential ingredient in democratic government.

Perhaps this was what President Roosevelt was referring to in his last fireside talk when he pointed to England as an example of harmony and cooperation.

New Advertising Policy

labor and machinery and to purchase necessary equipment.

The controller has drawn up a table, showing a conservative estimate of the amount of money college students and faculty bring to Santa Barbara during the year. The table is itemized, showing expenses in detail. With these figures in mind, advertising representatives are equipped to really sell advertising to the merchants. The shop owners can be shown approximate buying power of the college in their respective fields. They can no longer consider advertising in student body publications as a donation; they will see that it is just as vital to them as any other advertising.

With students and faculty spending $383,500.00 a year, at a very conservative figure, it is evident that a large volume of business transacted by downtown merchants depends upon money from State college. In fact the chamber of commerce considers the college one of the leading industries of the city. Besides the sums spent by the students and faculty, conventions and other school activities bring many visitors, who in turn contribute to the volume of business brought by the college.

If the merchants, by advertising in the paper, do their part in supporting the welfare of the college, the students and faculty should be willing to do theirs. As a publication staff, El Gaucho executives will try to see that students and faculty perform this service. Therefore a definite editorial policy is formed: to encourage all members of the college to patronize these merchants who advertise. And that merchants may know that the college supports its advertisers, we are urging students to mention S.B.S.C. when buying.

Freshmen Spirit

Sophomore banner with the numerals '37 in green and white still waves high in the eucalyptus tree on the lawn on the right side of the steps coming towards the quad.

Freshmen spirit seems to be totally dead. Perhaps the sophomore squires could do something about it, if it isn't too early in the morning.

Art—Music—Drama

By MARY TOMLINSON

Buddhism is primarily an artistic religion. Through the many centuries that it has prevailed in China the artists have dealt in purely religious subjects, only recently turning toward secular subjects. The importance of religion to the people and the importance of art to the people. They have worshipped their gods in artistic form and they have visualized their spiritual life in artistic realities.

By way of diversion we went into the Temple Bell Studio on Canon Perdido Street last week to find the shop crowded with Chinese pieces of interest. The shop emanated what seemed to be the magnificence of Chinese furnishings. The cabinets were intricately carved, the most of them depicting stories from the beginning of Buddhism. One particular black cabinet was inlaid with ivory which reminded us definitely of the use that Karoly Fulop made of ivory inlay in his wood-carved panels exhibited at the Faulkner Gallery some weeks ago.

Several statues of the Buddhist gods stood on cabinets nearer the wall, one about four feet high being used effectively for the base of a lamp and shade. The followers of Buddha were seen carved from a gilt, fretted background that decorated a doorway; the God of Children laughed from beneath a table, and carved statuettes of gods stood encased in cabinets.

Chinese paintings adorned the walls, some being done on glass and two being valuable preservations of ancient paintings done by a now obsolete process. Panels of carved ivory and stones mounted on slate showed symbolic flowers and vases which are Chinese motives for worship. A small polychrome sculpture piece idealized marriage in the symbolic union of two figures. Mirrored jewels and stones were displayed in numerous cases.

At Marsh's on East Carrillo street, where the large lions with rolling balls in their mouths guard the front entrance, a similar collection of Chinese merchandise and art is found. The rather unique setting such as seen from the outside only serves as an introduction to what may be found inside. We, also, like to press our noses against the Nathan Bentz store window on the corner of Victoria and State while we wait for the bus.

Physical Ed Majors Convened at Beach

Physical Education department majors met at 5:30 p.m. last Thursday for a beach barbecue at West Beach.

Those present spent a delightful evening playing games and singing, after the hamburger dinner. Wyllys Anderson was in charge of the entertainment.

RADIO NOTES

Lanny Ross, of showboat fame, is now on two sponsored programs at the same time. One is released throughout the nation, and the other is released only on the coast. KFI releases both of them — one on Wednesday at 8:30 p.m.; and the other Thursday at 6 p.m.

Ben Bernie, the old maestro, has returned to his old sponsors, the beer manufacturers. He presents a guest artist every week. KFI at 8:30 p.m. on Tuesday.

Ray Noble, the favorite English orchestra leader of the phonograph record stations, has been planning to visit the United States. However several American orchestra leaders raised a protest, so now Noble has to go to Canada. He plans to broadcast from there.

For news broadcasts dial the following: KFWE, 9:45 a.m., 6 and 10 p.m.; KDB, KFI, or KHJ at 10 p.m. KNX presents their news at 9. All of these are daily features.

WAVELENGTHS — Lanny Ross has been sponsored by another company on the coast. He is on KFI every Wednesday evening at 8:30 P. M. Burns and Allen have also started a new series—KDB at 6:30 P. M. Another excellent program that has recently returned to the air is "Twenty Thousand Years in Sing Sing." This program is to N.B.C. what Calling All Cars is to C.B.S. Both are the same type of program, and both emphasize the fact that crime does not pay. For the N.B.C. program tune in on KFI Wednesday evening at 6 o'clock;

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Editor,

As students are presumably interested in teaching jobs and teachers in maintaining a decent rate of pay, I should like to comment on the present situation in California. It was brought to light a few nights ago at the P.T.A. meeting in the High School, that teachers' salaries in the State have been cut on the average 23% while those of other professionals in state employ only approximately 3%. This shows conclusively the present administration's attitude toward education. Now what is Upton's Sinclair's program on education? He proposes small classes, with adequate teaching staff and more individual attention to each student. He proposes that students may earn at least part of their tuition by work in a cooperative farm, factory, or warehouse. Further, teachers will be in demand instructing on cooperative factories. And teachers salaries will be maintained (not cut) by taxing those corporations and individuals who can afford to pay.

Sincerely yours,
HOPEFUL STUDE

To the Editor:

Several vain, weak attempts have been made in the past years to make our mailboxes in the hall of the auditorium building respectable looking and convenient. This year let's agitate for reform and get some action.

Valiant suggestions have been made that only letter size cards or notes be allowed in the boxes to facilitate their handling. This suggestion, if followed by everyone would remedy this deplorable situation, but when the majority of the students, teachers and, heaven forbid, even our respected deans, continue to place pieces of paper in the boxes of every conceivable size and shape how can the boxes be orderly? May I suggest that some person of the faculty or student body be

This Frosh outfit proved themselves a real tough ball club. After being slightly pushed around the first half of their Comnock game, they came back in the second half and scored 13 points. Yeager kept up his scoring average by his long run to a touchdown.

Of the 56 points scored by the Frosh, "Swivel-hips" Yeager has scored 48 digits. Oaks, frosh wingman, caught a pass and scored a touchdown last Friday against Comnock, which leaves two points, gained as the result of try-for-point to be credited to Munson.

Los Gauchos pulled one out of the fire last Friday. Rated as the underdog, the State team showed more power than their opponents. Threatening the goal line often and nearly passing the tottering Spartans to death, though few were completed.

Brilliant heads-up play can be credited to "Man Mountain" Roe when in the last few minutes of first half he intercepted a pass and attempted a lateral to Joe Robinson, who was running in the clear. The attempt failed as the lateral was not passed far enough ahead of Joe as he ran. Roe stormed and fumed a few seconds at losing such an excellent chance for a score.

Tasty tidbits or nasty morsels include such items as Intermural volleyball started this week; Ralph Stockle will be back in the lineup this Friday against Redlands; possibility Leonard Fisher, that stellar tackle, too; there's fifteen men out for basketball already; Sing Sing prison football team beat the Guardian Athletic association team 47 to 3; Don Carter ex-Stater is a star on the Occidental varsity now; Jack Von Efav, senior manager, is the power behind the throne on this year's football squad.

Yeager Flashes 100 yds., Wins Freshmen Tilt

Coming back in the second half, after being pushed all over the field in the early part of the game, the Santa Barbara State Frosh won a surprise victory over the Comnock Cardinals, 13 to 0 before a crowd of about 9,000 fans in Gilmore stadium last Friday night. The game was featured by a 100 yard run to a touchdown by Howard Yeager, Frosh right half.

On the kick-off reopening the game after the rest period at half time, Yeager took the ball over his shoulder on his own goal line, wriggled by a would-be tackler, and proceeded to run straight up the field through a path cleared by his teammates to the Cardinal 40 yard line where he was met by the opposing safety man. Finding his way down the middle blocked off, he cut toward the right side of the field and flashed by like an express train to score standing up. Gruwell failed in two attempts to kick the vital point. On the first try both teams were offside. The second kick was wide. This run was the longest runback of a kickoff of the season on the Pacific Coast and breaks the record for any run made by a S.B.S.C. player.

Late in the third quarter with the ball in possession of the Frosh on the mid-field stripe, Dave Pollock faded back and threw a long pass to Yeager, who took the ball on the 35 yard line and dodged his way to the 10. On the next play Yeager again took the ball and shot over tackle, finally being brought down on Comnock's five yard line. A five yard penalty for too much time in the huddle, set the yearlings back to the 11 yard line as the third quarter ended. At this point Pollock again faded back and shot a pass over the goal to a sure-fingered receiver named Oaks to sew up the ball game. The extra-point was added by a pass, Pollock to Mullock.

Frosh Battle Taft Varsity

Continuing their bid for an undefeated season the S.B.S. Gauchitos will tangle with the Taft junior college eleven next Saturday night on the Northerner's field.

Putting a team on the field that has beaten such rivals as the University of California Ramblers and Porterville and Visalia junior colleges, the Taft backers have odds set at 3 to 1 in favor of the Wildcats.

They have a squad of over 50 men, all of whom have at least two years of football experience. Reports are that the Taft mentor has three lineups that could be called first strings.

Emerging from the Comnock encounter with very few setbacks to the team, Coach "Bud" Cummings predicts that the Gauchitos will be in full strength for this game with the exception of Fred Monson, fullback, and "Donk" Hart, center, who will probably be out for the remainder of the season.

He also stated that Taft had the strongest football team in central California and that it would be the toughest game of the year for the Gauchitos. The probable starting line-up for the frosh will be Ziegler, center; Trotter and Stockstill, guards; Gliddon and Gruell, tackles; Mullock and Oaks, ends; Yeager and Swanson, halves; Pollock, quarter and Monson, fullback.

Intramural Leagues Begin Season Games

"American" and "National" leagues have been formed to participate in intramural sports activity for the coming season, according to Fred Allred, student body controller.

"American" league members are Anacapa club, Sigma Alpha Kappa, junior class, sophomore class and College "Y"; "Nationals" are Beta Sigma Chi, Tau Omega, senior class and freshmen class.

Coaches retained by the clubs are Robert Dunam, Anacapa club; Walter Barnett, Sigma Alpha Kappa; Charles Luse, freshmen class; and James Coultas, Tau Omega. Other clubs have not selected their coaches. Each team will also choose a manager.

"With the number of teams already enrolled for action, there will be seven games for each sport to determine the champions of the campus," said Mr. Allred. He continued, "There is room in either of the leagues for organizations wishing to enter a team, but they are urged to hurry their entrance so that the games may be started as soon as possible."

Gaucha Split Tough Game in 0-0 Tie

Battling every inch of the way in their game last Friday night, Santa Barbara State college Gauchos and University of Southern California Spartans fought out one of the most evenly matched contests witnessed in Pershing Park this season.

The equally balanced teams provided a game set apart from the usual lifeless scoreless tie type. The game sparkled brimful with smooth, effective offensive thrusts and stout, rugged goal line stands.

Los Gauchos bid for first scoring honors soon after the opening kickoff only to lose the ball down in the crucial territory. Robinson, pass hurling fullback, standing deep in his own territory, flipped the ball to Voorhies to start the initial drive. An end run by "Greek" Rezzonico and another pass to "Red" Mahoney put the ball on the Spartan 20 yard line, within scoring distance. Here, with their backs to the goal line, the Spartans tightened up and held El Gaucho offense for four downs, after which they punted out of danger, thus staying the first point-gathering drive.

The Southern gladiators retaliated in the next quarter with a drive propelled by the famous Howard Jones "power-house" plays. Progress slowed up and the Spartans attempted a place kick which went wide of its mark.

As the first half drew to a close, State college made another attempt at the Southern California goal, displaying the passing ability of fullback Joe Robinson and the versatile Spartan pass defense. Robinson threw pass after pass into the waiting arms of "Skeeter" Voorhies Gaucho wingman, Rezzonico, halfback and "Doc" Kelliher, stellar back and acting captain only to have a Spartan man rush in with outstretched arms to spoil a perfect completion.

With the kick-off on the second half, Los Gauchos found themselves in a deep and dark hole. The kick-off was wide and appeared as though the ball would roll out of bounds, which would call for a re-kick, but instead it took a peculiar twist and lay dead where an alert Spartan captured it for a first down and ten to go.

Caught in a hole and really up against that final chalk line, Los Gauchos exhibited a rugged, hard charging defense to stop the Spartans cold in their tracks for four successive downs.

Play for the remainder of the game was evenly matched, each team showing power in the mid-field but weakening the strength in the opponents' territory until late in the fourth period. On recovering a fumble on the Spartan 35 yard line, the State team put the pigskin down on the 11 yard line with two plays. The attack was spoiled on the next play when Sax Elliot, S.C. quarterback, intercepted the pass and punted out of danger.

Bright spots during the 60 minutes of playing showed Joe Robinson and his accurate pass flipping arm; "Skeeter" Voorhies with his consistent defensive and offensive play and the superb manner of being the first man down under punts. Others in the line showing a marked improvement were Thornley "Man Mountain" Row, "Barney" Dupes, Joe Nightengale and Wayne Bartholomew, two guards and tackles respectively.

The line-up: State College U.S.C. Spartans Voorhees LE Matthews Bartholomew LT Murrey Dupes LG Wilbur McCullough C DeHette Roe RG Brown Nightingale RT Busby Keith RE Larrabe Mahoney QB Elliott Rezzonico LH Brandt Kelliher RH Rafalovich Robinson FB Munch Officials: C. C. Christiansen (Oregon State), referee; Laurie Stevens (Santa Barbara Athletic club), umpire; James Anderson (Santa Barbara State), head linesman; Edgar Kerrigan (Santa Barbara State college), field judge.

Joe Robinson Varsity fullback and stellar pigskin twirler for "Spud" Harder's eleven. Friday night's game promises to be a aerial duel between Bandy and Robinson.

Hoop Tossers Begin Season

"New system, new opponents and new faces will feature the 1934 Gaucho basketball team," said Coach Hal Davis in forecasting the coming hoop season.

The new system is a combination of the "Doc" Meanwell Wisconsin system and the Eastern Professional systems. It requires the utmost in speed and stamina.

The new opponents will be the Chicago Ghosts, New York Harlemites, Porterville J. C., Visalia J. C., and several athletic clubs.

The new faces are the transfers from other institutions, among whom are reputed to be some fancy ball bouncers. Another new face will be "Bud" Cummings, who will assist in the coaching.

Campus Coffee Cup Capers

Did you know that five members of our Gaucho varsity are married men? These who qualify for the "ball and chain" club are: Ralph Stockel, "Doc" Kelliher, "Red" Mahoney, Leroy Findlay, and Vester Clemens.

Coach Clarence Schutte's Santa Barbara High School Dons were in en masse Saturday night after their game with Long Beach. They excused their defeat by admitting that they should have partaken of their "Supremes" before the game, instead of afterwards.

Bobby Jones, former Stanford discus hurler and place-winner in ICA competition, is a regular customer in the CCC. "Red" Mahoney is serving his hamburgers with a cute little song and dance these days.

Last Year's Conference Champs Battle Gauchos in Second League Game

In what promises to be one of the hardest games of the entire season for "Spud" Harder's varsity, the Redlands University Bulldogs will bring their famed "aerial circus" into Pershing Park Friday night in an attempt to put the uprising Gauchos back where they used to be.

By comparative scores, Santa Barbara rules a slight favorite, having defeated Pomona 6-0, while Redlands could only get a 7-7 tie with the Sagehens. However, since last year Redlands was first and Santa Barbara last in the conference, and although Redlands only tied Pomona this year, they made 14 first downs to the Hens' 2, which was better in this respect than State could do, the defending conference champions will probably be slight favorites in the long run.

Coach Harder was not altogether pleased with the showing his team made against the U.S.C. Spartans last week, and will spend the week polishing up the Gaucho running attack, and trying to strengthen their defense against running plays. Much time, too, will be spent in pass defense. While this has not shown any weakness so far, it will be tried to the limit by the Bulldogs, who keep the ball flying around most of the time. If Redlands plan their attack as in the past, fans will see more passing in one game than has been seen in Pershing Park in a long time. This game will see the State lineup considerably strengthened by the return of most of the heretofore cripples. This, coupled with the rounding into form of "Tiny" McCullough, giant lineman, will enable Coach Harder to throw practically all the Gaucho's strength into the contest for the first time this year. Stanley, quarterback; Stockel, star halfback; Dorn, end; Fisher, tackle, and possibly Findlay.

Standouts in the Redlands lineup are Bandy and Peterson, backs, and Kitch, end, who usually takes care of the pitching and catching part of the attack. Bandy is one of the best all-around backs in the conference, and it will take a wide-awake Gaucho defense to keep him bottled up.

With the fighting spirit that Coach "Spud" has injected into the Gauchos, they will make it plenty hot for any team in the conference, and if they get over this Redlands game, a championship will not be an entire impossibility.

Sig Alphas Give Dinner, Dance Saturday Night

Prospective pledges to the Sigma Alpha Kappa, social fraternity, were rushed at a dinner-dance October 13. About thirty men attended the dinner held at El Cortijo, and 40 couples attended the semi-formal dance held at the Elk's hall. Music for the dancing was furnished by Fred Lambourne's college dance orchestra.

New pledge guests of the fraternity were Allan Neil, Leob Pauley, Bud Sweger, Barney Dukes, Bill Murphy, Arden Hathaway, and the school yell leaders, Goldy Goldsmith and Jack Knight.

S. B. Entertains Spartan Team

Rockwood became the center of a joyous circle after the U.S.C. Spartan vs Santa Barbara game Friday night. The dance began immediately after the game and by special consent of the faculty sponsors, lasted until 12:30.

A special invitation was extended by the social committee to the Spartan team to attend the dance. One of the Spartan boys entertained the guests, singing "Pardon My Southern Accent." The very choice deep southern accent called for an encore, which was kindly given. Time did not permit another number.

Fred Lambourne's orchestra provided the dancers with plenty of peppy numbers which were intermingled by those ever popular moonlight waltzes. Mary Costa, popular operetta star, sang several solos.

The faculty sponsors for the evening were Miss Gladys Van Fossen, Miss Helen Sweet, Dean Lois Bennink, and Dr. William H. Ellison.

Men Accept Membership in Tau Omega

Meeting at the Margaret Baylor Inn last Saturday night, Tau Omega fraternity held its rush dinner for this semester's prospective pledges. Approximately thirty men attended the dinner, at which Melville Homfeld, president presided.

A short welcome speech to the new pledges, Bob Johnson and Robert Moore was made by Mr. Homfeld and the new men were then introduced to the members present. Short talks on the ideals and the aims of Tau Omega were given by Dr. Charles Pruess, sponsor of the club, and by Harrington "Pop" Wells, a past sponsor of the organization.

At the conclusion of the dinner a number of piano solos and duets were played by Dr. Pruess and Buppy Moore after which the members were entertained with some sleight of hand tricks by Bob Johnson.

The remainder of the evening was spent in playing billiards and card games.

Formal pledging ceremonies for Robert Moore and Bob Johnson were held last Monday night by
