Senior Class Meets Sunday

Launching Senior social activities for the class of ’44 is the breakfast to be held this Sunday in the college cafeteria. All Seniors and faculty members are cordially invited to attend as the most important social affair of the class will be a part of the University of California. Odie Meyers promises plenty of good food; and Cathy Reid will take care of the decorations for the affair.

Seniors are urged to sign the breakfast list on the bulletin board in the Administration building.

It is hoped that the first social affair of the class will be a success—one so, come on, Seniors, let’s start the year right and attend the breakfast,” Seaman urged.

U. C. Regents Meet Today

Will Santa Barbara State become a part of the University of California? That question probably will be answered today when the California Board of Regents meets in Berkeley.

Members of the Board of Regents visited Santa Barbara last month to study the local situation. They held discussions with civic leaders and representatives from the college. President Clarence Phelps and Dr. Will Ellison presented the college’s viewpoint.

At that meeting chairman Chester Powell asked “what was wanted in the way of educational change?” The college representatives pointed out that steady progress had been made under the present program, and although the standards are different than the university’s, equal results are produced.

No other program was presented, and it was generally assumed that if the college is taken over by the university it will continue to operate under the present setup.

Lab Fees Due Today

Today marks the deadline for payment of student laboratory fees. They are payable at the Comptroller’s office which is located in the Quadrangle. All fees are listed in the current college catalog.

Pan-Hellenic will hold its traditional Oriental tea Sunday from 3 to 5 p.m. in the A.W.S. Clubroom.

Presiding at the tea table will be Dr. Helen Sweet, Mrs. Carswell, Mrs. F. E. Stebbins, Mrs. Jane Abrahams, Mrs. Ruth Doolittle, Dr. A. P. Beaver, Mrs. L. Chesheweth, and Mrs. C. D. Woodhouse.

Junior Class To Hold Party

An old-fashioned party will be “the thing” when the Junior class gives a party for the student body on Friday, Nov. 5, in the college cafeteria. From 8:30 on students will duck for apples and dance Paul Jones', Virginia Reels, and other square dances. Slacks and sport clothes will be in order. The social committee emphasizes the fact that this dance is not necessarily a date affair. If you don’t have a date, come anyway. Refreshments will be served later in the evening.

Planning the party are Bobbie Berry, social chairman, Marian Agamanill, Helen Meyer, Barbara Schmidt, and Maren Finley.

EDITORIAL

It may be trite by this time, but it’s still a sanguine expectation to hope that the signs plastered around the Lobero, “Martin Dies Here”; may have the same significance of “George Washington Slept Here”.

Now, an editorial in the News-Press last week denounced those captious local critics of the gentlemen from Texas by stating “Who are these people who have learned how to judge what their neighbors shall hear?”

Certainly we do agree that Martin Dies has a right to his opinion. No one with any sense of justice desires that his freedom of speech be abrogated. But we do object to his addressing Santa Barbarans under the auspices of the Lobero Foundation as representing, to all purposes, the opinion of this group and with on conscientious effort made to present someone with a different viewpoint in conjunction with Dies. No doubt there will be enough people willing to pay $1.10 and $1.65 for the privilege of hearing Mr. Dies. But an ostensibly and often ostentatiously public-minded organization should enlighten the citizenry more impartially. We might ask in turn, “Who are these people who have learned how to judge what their neighbors shall hear?” Merely because the Lobero Foundation has more influence than its critics does not signify that it is right.

The News-Press implies that because Dies is a colorful national figure, one should welcome an opportunity to hear him. Furthermore, his views are becoming an increasingly important part of American planning and will be one of the deciding factors in America’s post-war activities.”

Others know Martin Dies as a rabble-rousing Communist bater, inveighing against the “reds.” Nation-readers ,union supporters, and even dancers in government bureaus, and concerned mighty little with the dangers of Fascism. Says the paper, “His assertions have been dramatic. They have had an unqualified directness that has tended to elicit emotional response—for, or against—rather than philosophical consideration of the abstract qualities and quantities involved.” What a pretty euphemism for demagoguery!

What would the News-Press say if by some miracle the Lobero Foundation should bring to Santa Barbara John L. Lewis, another dramatic figure, commanding the support of a large section of the public, and whose views may be important in a post-war world?

But the News-Press needn’t worry.

FRESHMEN SENTENCED BY “KANGAROO” COURT

One of the Gauchos favorite customs, the “Kangaroo” Court, was presented for the enjoyment of students Thursday, Oct. 14. Freshmen were sentenced for violating sacred laws, or simply because they are freshmen.

Hearing and pronouncing sentences were Dill Jackson, bailiff, Bill Lawrence, chief justice, aiding him, George Bradvica, Jean Casey and Joyce Evans, justices. Adding dignity to the occasion was the long white underwear worn by Bill the bailiff.

So that she might have plenty of space in which to carry out her sentence Mary Jean Ray was assigned to bob for an apple in the quad’s pool. Never let it be said that in a democracy people are confined to close quarters for minor offenses such as neglecting to let citizens know, by the green ribbon in the hair, that they are exalted freshmen.

Rosemary McCoy and Charlotte Hanker were, for reasons unknown to the press, sentenced to make love (that’s no punishment), to “Skiff” Dahl, and Bob Lucas respectively. Pursuing her usual tactics Rosemary dashed at “Skiff” in caveman style. Charlotte preferred college style, and needless to say not a word was heard.

Because of their unabashed love for freshmen it was deemed proper to mete out some form of punishment to “Bobbie” Berry and Ed Hambly. A quick wade across the pool brought them to their senses, and it was the hope of the court that such socially undesirable actions will be curbed hereafter.

Sentence was served on one freshman by Bill Jackson for being unable to sing the Alma Mater, but when he in turn was asked to sing the same song he apparently suffered from a mental block. The court being very impartial in the reformation of freshmen and upper classmen ruled that he too should splash about in the pool.

The first session was brought to a close by the Conga beautifully executed by the men. Perhaps someone should have tipped them off to the fact that “Pistol Packin’ Mama” is of mid-western origin, not latin.

Cooke Dances Next Weekend

Bringing something entirely new to campus activities, the social committee announces two overnight dances sponsored jointly with Campe Cooke, and scheduled for October 30 and 31 and November 6 and 7. These dates are limited, because of transportation difficulties, to 100 women each; those women wishing to attend are requested to sign the list posted in the office of the Dean of Women as soon as possible. Women are reminded that their standards and parent’s approval must be on file in the office before they will be permitted to go on any scheduled overnight trips. A barracks will be assigned to the women, and they will be invited to eat “chow” with the regular “mess” detail.

Mrs. C. D. Woodhouse, Misses Phoebe Steer and Dora Wieson will serve as chaperons for the first dance.
