Take 4 Cups, Sweepstakes With Pi Phis; Chi O, Sig Ep-Alpha Phi, Lambda, SR Win

A capacity crowd of over 5,500 spectators filled the County Bowl to listen to the annual UCSB Spring Sing and watch the Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity walk off with four awards Saturday night.

Teaming with the Pi Beta Phi sorority, the SAEs won the highest 'Sing prize—sweepstakes—for their rendition of "Tryptych."

This performance was also good enough to earn the annual Musicianship Award, presented by Phi Beta, national music honorary.

Novelty, Quartet

In addition the SAEs won first place in the novelty division with their comic version of "The Sorority Game." The SAE quartet was judged tops in the quartet division for its performance of the spiritual "Sit Down, Servant."

Lambda Chi Alpha won the fraternity division for its singing of three Sigmund Romberg selections.

Chi Omega copped the sorority division with a "French Medley." Sigma Phi Epsilon - Alpha Phi won the mixed division with the opening number, "The Creation."

Two prizes were given in the RHA women's division. Neblina-Ribera-Villa Marina won first place with "Camp Songs" and Laurel Hall was awarded second for a Western medley.

Spring Sing general chairman Shelley Shapiro was pleased with the event. She had high praise for the Sing committee, especially Hal Jones, who constructed the stage backdrop, and the MC of the evening, Johnny Grant.

"It was a marvelous performance," stated Miss Shapiro. "Everyone who took part should feel proud."

Rock Hudson Film

"Written on the Wind," starring Rock Hudson and Dorothy McGuire, will show on campus Tuesday, May 19. Cal Club is sponsoring the film. Proceeds go to the SU building fund.

HANSEN ELECTED RHA PRESIDENT

Pat Hansen was elected president of the RHA in last week's elections. All other offices ended in deadlocks since none of the candidates secured a majority of votes cast. Runoff elections were held yesterday.

Hansen defeated write-in candidate Jim Ambroff, 396-81.

However, write-in candidates succeeded in two other offices. Gene Smith, a write-in, and Clark Reynolds were deadlocked for vice-president and Susie Wong, write-in, and E. Michael Lee for treasurer.

For secretary Mary Ellen Fairbanks and Debby Frieden, both appearing on the ballot, were forced into a runoff.

The new RHA constitution passed by an overwhelming 378-to-24 margin.

Editors, Committee Positions Available

Applications for editors of UCSB publications close today, while openings for committee and board chairmanships end Friday. As of Friday afternoon there were only two applicants for El Gaucho editor, John Lauritzen and Arlen Collier.

There were no applicants for news editor, editorial director or sports editor. La Cumbre and Student Directory editorship positions also are open.

President-elect Guy Shipp announced Friday as the final day for committee and board chairmanship signups. Committee posts open include assembly, awards, charities, finance, publicity, rally, social, standards, special events and student union.

Shipp will make the final announcements of the new chairmen Tuesday, May 19.

Kenner's article, "Letters in the Space Age," was delivered earlier this year as the UCSB Faculty Research Lecture of 1959.

Peter Everwine, author of "Winter Stop-over: Astronomical Clock, Strasbourg," is on a writing fellowship at Stanford.

Dorothy Donnelly, whose light versical pieces, "Afternoon of a Gnat" and "Postcard: Bones of a Sabre-tooth Tiger," appear in Spectrum, has published verse in Poetry, The New Yorker and the Hudson Review.

Dick Phipps Elected New IFC President

Dick Phipps, Sigma Phi Epsilon, was elected by Inter-Fraternity Council to serve as president for the fall semester, 1959. The action was taken at an IFC meeting last week.

Don Clausen, Sigma Alpha Epsilon, was named vice-president; Henry Hill, Kappa Sigma, secretary, and Alan Toole, Lambda Chi Alpha, treasurer.

The IFC also passed a resolution recommending to the IFC Executive Council that fraternities be limited to one major activity per semester.

The Executive Council will probably discuss the recommendation later this year, according to president-elect Phipps.

Should the recommendation pass, fraternities would be limited to either Homecoming or GGR in the fall and Barbary Coast or Spring Sing in the spring.

Foreign Affairs Expert Dr. Arthur Steiner Speaks on Communes in Communist China

Dr. H. Arthur Steiner, noted author and political scientist and recognized specialist in international law and foreign affairs, will deliver the All-College Lecture today at 4 p.m. in the classroom auditorium. This is the annual lecture on East Asian Studies.

Dr. Steiner, professor of political science at UCLA, will speak on the subject, "The Current Phase in Communist China: The People's Communes."

Steiner earned his PhD degree at Berkeley and has served on the UCLA faculty since 1931. He was twice chairman of his department.

Political Text

Steiner is author of several books on foreign affairs, including Principles and Problems of International Relations, regarded as an authoritative text on the subject.

Since World War II he has specialized in studies of the Far East with special attention to Communist China.

Asian Travels

He has traveled widely in Asia, visiting Japan, China, Soviet Russia, Hong Kong, the Philippines, Burma and other countries.

He lived in pre-Communist China while on the faculty of the National Cheng-chi University in Nanking, principal training institution for Kuomintang diplomats.

In 1951 he was appointed Director of Studies at the National War College, operated by the Joint Chiefs of Staff. In 1956 he was appointed U.S. specialist and was attached for duty with American embassies in Ceylon, Pakistan and Burma.

Fiscalini Withdraws; Shipp Named Rep

John Fiscalini, IFC president, men's rep-at-large and former candidate for AS president, withdrew from school last week.

Fiscalini told El Gaucho that unexpected financial problems prevent him from completing the semester. He will go to work for Merced County shortly.

Fiscalini said he will re-enter UCSB next fall.

AS President Stan McGinley will appoint President-elect Guy Shipp to fill Fiscalini's vacated Council position tonight.

"With the budget sessions coming up it is important that we have a full staff of voting members," the president said. "Besides it will give Shipp some valuable experience as a voting member before he takes over next year."

MUSIC FESTIVAL CLOSES WITH CHAPMAN WORK

"Suite of Three Cities," by Dr. Robert Chapman of the UCSB Music Department, will have its premiere performance tonight in the final day of the sixth annual Music Festival.

The suite was written for a trombone quartet and will be performed tonight by UCSB students John Pleasant, Gilbert Adams, Oliver Marr and Ron Largent.

To close the evening's entertainment and the Festival, Zoltan Kodaly's masterpiece, "Te Deum," will be sung by four vocalists and the large University chorus.

The orchestral score will be played in a two-piano arrangement prepared especially for the occasion by Wendell Nelson. Mrs. Marjorie Nelson, his wife, will join him for the performance.

The vocal leads will be sung by Miss Marjorie Westra and three guest soloists, Joan Winden, Timothy Fetter and Archie Drake.

Tonight's finale will include a new work by Ingolf Dahl, professor of music at USC, done by the UCSB 16-piece brass choir directed by Dr. Maurice Faulkner.

Nine women vocalists, students of Miss Westra, will sing the three-part "Litanies a la Vierge Noire," by Francis Poulenc, accompanied by Mahlon Balderston on the organ.

"THE CREATION," done by the Sigma Phi Epsilon fraternity and the Alpha Phi sorority, won first place in the mixed division in the annual Spring Sing competition last Saturday night. More than 5,500 spectators watched the annual event in the Santa Barbara County Bowl. Photo by Eldon Tatsch

Critic Calls Spring 'Spectrum' Interesting and Stimulating

by Arlen Collier, News Editor

Spectrum's Spring-Summer issue went on sale yesterday in the bookstore and in front of the library. On the whole it is an interesting and stimulating issue.

Dr. Hugh Kenner's essay, "Letters in the Space Age," is extremely thought provoking. Whether one agrees with Kenner or not, his essay must be admired for its clarity and soundness of argument. He maintains that Letters are now influencing science rather than the other way around, which seems to have been the case in the past.

Lawrence Thornton's short story, "The Vocation," is the best short story to appear in Spectrum this year. He tells an interesting story of a young man studying for the priesthood who sees his dream shattered before him. Thornton deals with the inner workings of his protagonist's mind very deftly.

Georgia Pearce's "The Kiss" is on the whole a good story, but seems to be too cluttered. What she has to say is obscured to some extent because the reader must wander with Miss Pearce too often too far from the central theme of the story.

Kerry Gough's story of two young Americans living in London, entitled "Barbara, Are You Grieving?", seems very stilted in its diction. His plot is interesting, but he fails to develop it satisfactorily. His characters are inconsistently developed, leaving the reader confused. He sets up Barbara as a very nice person and then destroys her with one deft blow by calling her a "broad" before the story is half over. Throughout the story the reader is aware of a seeming insecurity in dealing with the language.

"The Parakeet," by Tom Chamberlain, is a vignette about life in a bar. Chamberlain creates an effective mood in the story. His dialogue is excellent and his characters seem fairly well defined, but the story does not quite seem to come up to expectations when it is finished. Chamberlain is tantalizing his reader by leaving him just short of satisfaction.

"Winter Stopover: Astronomical Clock, Strasbourg," by Peter Everwine, is excellent poetry. It is almost too perfect. His meter resembles the astronomical clock he mentions in his title. His imagery and diction are superb. Dorothy Donnelly has created Polls close today for the AS runoff elections. Polling booths are located in the library patio (9-4, Student Union (11-1) and the dining commons (11-1).

Runoff Elections

Officers to be decided include women's rep-at-large between Carol Saindon and Pat McCarthy, and RHA women's rep between Marilyn Jacobs and Barbara Schiller. Both are voting jobs on council.

Carol Dotson and Donna Weyand are campaigning for Senior Class secretary-treasurer. Doris Worrell and John Whitman are opposed for Sophomore Class vice-president.

Jim Davis and Bob Parsons are running for AMS president.

a very thought-provoking, entertaining poem in "Postcard: Bones of a Sabre-tooth Tiger." Her other poem in this issue, "Afternoon of a Gnat," rates a poor third to the other two poems.

Containing Kenner's essay, the two short stories, "The Vocation" and "The Parakeet," and Everwine's poem.

Hard-Hitting EBACs Drub SAE Club, 12-1; Johnson, Haertel Head Winning Attack

by Jerry Patch, Sports Writer

The East Beach Athletic Club slugged its way to a 12-1 conquest over Sigma Alpha Epsilon in the campus intramural softball championship game last Thursday. Tall Tim Johnson was the game's "big man" as the EBAC hurler threw three-hit ball, struck out nine and batted in two runs. "Easy Ed" Haertel was East Beach's top man with the timber, the 6-5 first-sacker driving home three scores.

After a scoreless first inning, the Athletic Club, behind a sacrifice fly from Bruce Jones, a walk to Bob Webster and base hits by Tom Morgan and Johnson, slapped the softball for four runs before SAE twirler John DeCicco could retire the side.

In their half of the third the SAEs pushed across one unearned run to make the score 4-1. The game went along quietly until the bottom of the fifth when the EBACs unleashed another four-run barrage to boost their margin to 8-1.

In the lower half of the sixth, after holding Minerva's Lions scoreless again, the East Beachers erupted for their third four-run inning of the contest. The big hit in the inning was Mike Rutter's long triple to left. Rutter finished the season with an over-all average of .617, tops around the circuit.

The game's deciding factor was the inability of the SAE nine to hit the servings of East Beach's Johnson. The losers' impotent run output constantly kept the pressure on their own hurler, DeCicco, who was faced with the task of quieting the roaring EBAC bats.

Certainly the Sig Alphas were hampered by the loss of able hurler Jerry Rocco, and catcher Benny Dyas, who dislocated his thumb in the second inning.

The "independent" East Beach crew's victory evened the record of fraternity vs. independent rivalry in the major intramural sports. Independent teams triumphed in football and baseball, while the basketball and track titles went to fraternity groups.

Long Beach Here Today For Conference Baseball Finale

The University of California, Santa Barbara baseballers have come to the end of the line.

The Gauchos will have their last chance this afternoon to break into the conference win column when Coach Rene Rochelle's cellar-dwelling club plays host to Long Beach State in a makeup doubleheader which was rained out a week ago Saturday.

The opening pitch is scheduled for 1 p.m., with the first game slated for the nine-inning route and the nightcap an abbreviated seven frames.

Fresno State, scrambling to stay in the down-to-the-wire CCAA pennant chase, speared the Gauchos twice Saturday in a doubleheader on the UCSB diamond to keep Santa Barbara winless in 13 conference contests.

Lefthander Leroy Gregory spaced eight hits while picking up his ninth consecutive victory of the season with an 11-4 decision over the Gauchos in the opener, while his mates outthrampered UCSB in the second outing, 13-8, after Santa Barbara had rallied from a six-run deficit to tie the game in the third.

The Gauchos unloaded 14 hits in the final game, including two apiece from Bill Shortell, Ron Heusser, Ned Permenter, Jim McMichael, Duke Ellington and Bill Wetzel.

Heusser maintained his pace-setting batting performance among the conference hitters with four safeties in eight appearances to keep his average at the lousy .465 mark, while Permenter banged out five hits during the two games, including a couple of doubles and three runs batted in.

Classes in basic French, German and Spanish will be the principal aim of the foreign languages department.

SUSI AND ELFI

Travelers Susi and Elfi Relate Adventures, Visits With Sukarno, Nehru, King of Siam

by Arlen Collier

How to go around the world on $800 will be one of the things discussed by Elfi Hummel and Susi Goll when they speak tomorrow evening in the Choral Room of the Music Building at 7:30.

The two girls met at the University of Vienna and from their friendship grew plans to travel around the world. In the last 14 months they have covered Asia and North Africa extensively.

Nehru and King of Siam

They have met Prime Minister Nehru of India, the Caliph of Tetuan, Morocco, the King of Siam, who gave them a personal message for Yul Brynner, President Sukarno of Indonesia and the Indonesian rebel leader Dr. Hatta, as well as many other notables.

Elfi and Susi attempted to steal one of the most precious Buddhist idols from a temple in Khatmandu, Nepal, and have sneaked into one of the sacred temples of the Parse religion in India where no one outside the faith is permitted. They have hitch-hiked rides on ox-carts, elephants and camels, and have collected rubbish in Paris to earn money.

In tomorrow evening's talk the girls will play music from all parts of the world and show colored slides of their travels.

Both 24 Years Old

Both girls are 24 and European Girl Scouts. Elfi Hummel is from Vienna and majored in journalism and literature at the University. Susi Goll, from Zurich, Switzerland, was studying art at the university when she met Elfi.

Together with a third girl, who turned back after going part way with them, they worked during the three summers preceding their trip as dishwashers in a Stockholm hotel to earn money for the trip. The girls were given $800 by three newspapers in Europe, and set off on their round-the-world trip.

In Caliph's Harem

That was 14 months ago. Since then they have led an adventurous life. They had an audience with the Caliph of Morocco and were allowed to visit his harem only after they had convinced him they were girls. (The two girls travel dressed in Girl Scout shirts and jeans.)

Give Nehru 3 Mice

They were granted an interview with Prime Minister Nehru, to whom they gave three white mice. "When Nehru was in prison as a rebel the only thing he had to keep him company was a mouse in his cell," says Elfi, "so we gave him the mice as a memento of this."

When they were in Siam they were finally granted an interview with the king after he had seen them on a TV show. The king gave them a personal message to deliver to Yul Brynner, congratulating him on the excellent portrayal of the king's ancestor.
