● BRINKMANSHIP

Communist China accused the United States yesterday of preparing "to step over the brink of war and commit new acts of war" against North Vietnam. China promised neighboring North Vietnam a helping hand.

● SUMMIT CONFERENCE

Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev wants a summit conference with the President of the United States "as soon as possible" after the November election, diplomatic sources said Saturday. The sources said that Khrushchev is expected to take the initiative for the summit meeting.

National

● RAIL STRIKE

A national rail strike is set for Tuesday, unless a federal mediator can head it off. Francis A. O'Neill, a member of the National Mediation Board, met separately with Michael Fox, representing six shopcraft unions, and J. E. Wolfe, chief negotiator for the railroads, Saturday. The dispute centers around job security and the railroads' use of outside contractors for some of the maintenance and repair.

State and Area

● GOVERNOR'S VISIT

Governor Brown will be in Santa Barbara next Saturday as guest of honor and principle speaker at a Democratic Party $100-a-plate dinner at the Biltmore.

● SALINGER ON RUMFORD

Sen. Pierre Salinger, campaigning in Los Angeles yesterday for a six-year continuation of his appointment, said Saturday that he would rather lose the November election than fail to take a stand on proposition 14, the anti-Rumford initiative. He stated that he was "coming out for a no vote."

● ENROLLMENT UP

Santa Barbara's enrollment at the end of Registration Week outstripped all previous estimates as 7,810 students entered the University.

The preliminary estimate shows an increase of 33 percent, the largest enrollment jump in the campus's history.

The report, showing an increase of 1,934, does not take into account late registration, early cancellations, nor the 280 students in the Education Abroad program in Europe and Japan.

● NEW HIT TUNE

A new hit tune may soon be out, but its composer won't be.

The song, "Please Be Patient," took a first place - in the tenth annual San Quentin Prison Music Festival.

Faculty active in Frosh Camp

To many students the word professor conjures up an image of an academic recluse. Faculty participation in Frosh Camp 1964 demonstrated that this is not the case for professors at this campus.

Twelve members of the faculty participated in a lecture series Thursday afternoon, each delivering a lecture in his particular field. In addition, members of the faculty led two discussions Wednesday and Thursday evenings. These discussions were given to groups of twenty students and their counselors.

Approximately 70 faculty

Cyclist injured

Motorcyclist Donald Peter Winton received cuts and bruises in an Isla Vista collision Thursday afternoon.

Winton was treated at the Health Center after he collided with a car driven by Carlo Martin Golino.

After a stop, Golino started across Embarcadero del Mar into the cyclist's path, according to the California Highway Patrol.

Quarter plan to be studied

Plans for year-round use of the UCSB campus head the list of new business to be discussed tomorrow night at Legislative Council's second meeting of the semester.

The meeting, the first to be held on campus this semester, will begin at 7:00 p.m. in North Hall 2106.

Also on the agenda is a dis-

Death takes 3 of UCSB staff over the summer

Three UCSB professors died over the summer.

Frances Colville of the Women's Physical Education department succumbed following an illness. She was 44. Miss Colville received her Ph. D from USC and joined the Santa Barbara faculty in 1965.

Mrs. Genevieve Haight of the English Department died after falling down a flight of stairs. She had been with the University since 1942. A continuing memorial scholarship fund is being established in her name at the Santa Barbara National Bank. Friends wishing to contribute to the fund should contact the bank or the AS Business Office.

Edgar Lane, associate professor of political science, died July 29 at his Goleta home following a short illness. Dr. Lane received his Ph. D. from the University of Michigan and came to Santa Barbara in 1960. Friends of Dr. Lane may contribute to the Cancer Fund in Santa Barbara.

A Lane Award is being planned by graduate Poli Sci students.

Bus for Whittier

At least forty students must sign up for the rally bus to Whittier for the September 26 Gaucho-Poet football game.

Sign-ups will be taken in the AS Office off the Student Union patio starting today through Wednesday. Whittier again will be nationally ranked and, hopefully, again upset by the Santa Barbara team. Students interested in attending other Gaucho games should mention their preference when signing up.

ussion of the recent meningitis epidemic hoax which sent 50 frightened students swarming to the health center.

The panic was provoked by typewritten notices posted in San Miguel Hall ordering students who had attended Frosh Camp to report to the Health Center for tests for meningitis. The notices appeared after a 17-year-old coed was found dead in Manzanita Hall.

Council members also will discuss a solution to the problem of on-campus bicycle congestion, the possibility of UCSB participation in a benefit golf tournament and arrangements for the guest campus speakers.

Council's weekly meetings are open to all interested students.

Senior pictures appointments due

For the past fourteen years, seniors have been photographed in caps and gowns. Editor Helen Iddings will break away from this tradition in the 1965 La Cumbre. Women will pose in dark round neck sweaters. Men will wear solid-color dark suit jackets with white shirts and dark ties.

Seniors desiring cap and gown pictures for personal use will be able to make appointments for these at the same time. The studio telephone is 8-2716.

Cost of $2.75 per senior covers only the one picture that the yearbook staff obtains for use in the annual.

Buses added

Bus service to and from Isla Vista has been expanded to two buses this morning and will continue to operate during regular school days.

Buses leave from married student housing and access streets along Colegio Rd. at 7:30 a.m., 8:30 a.m., and 5 p.m. for the campus.

Buses leave from the parking lot loop in front of the Student Union Coffee Shop at 12 noon, 5 p.m., and 10:30 p.m.

A cruel joke

With total campus enrollment spiraling at its present rate, a comparable rise in the number of malicious pranks, false alarms, and hoaxes might be expected.

This does not have to be the case.

It takes two or more people to form a conspiracy. Many cruel "jokes" need not occur, if one of the pranksters has the not-so-common sense to ask himself the results of the intended prank.

Diane Lee Kirk, a 17-year old coed from San Mateo, was found dead in Manzanita Hall Sunday Sept. 13. Tuesday morning, as reported in El Gaucho:

"Unidentified persons in San Miguel Hall posted typewritten "notices" which alarmed many campus residents by ordering persons who had attended Frosh Camp to report to the Health Center so that tests for meningitis could be carried out. The Health Center has no evidence to support the information contained in the 'notice'."

A moment's hesitation can mean the difference between a regrettable malicious action resulting in anxiety for untold numbers, and "just" the normal tragic feelings which accompany the death of a fellow student.

One of the more intangible attributes of a liberally educated person, is his sense of compassion for his fellow man. Some learn this early, without ever attending college, some learn while attending, and some never learn.

We would hope that those students who learn of a vicious prank-in-the-making will take it upon themselves to dissuade the pranksters from their inhumanity.

AFTER DEADLINE

Beware of 'poly-tickitis'

By HARRIET WENGRAF
Staff Writer

As of late July, a new kind of bug--or tick, to be exact--has infested our population. Because of the many effects of its democratic bite, it has been dubbed the "poly-tick." This tick is not visible to the unaided eye, and is said to enter through the head while the latter is being thoughtfully scratched.

The effects of its bite are most visible in the facial expression or audible in the vocal chords of the victim. Loud blasts of hot air are emitted through the mouth at irregular, but frequent intervals and in extreme cases of the disease, the victim has been known to lose control of the arms, causing the fist to curl and strike other persons in the immediate vicinity.

Landslide victory?

Rick Schwartz seems to think that vilification against Goldwater may have a negative effect and thereby elect the Senator. I agree with this judgement about campaigning in bad taste.

I suggest, therefore, that Mr. Schwartz examine some of the literature available at the American Opinion Bookstore in Santa Barbara. I am sure that after perusing some of this material, he will be forced by the logic in his previous letter to predict a landslide victory for the President in November.

I might also add that the Democratic Party HAS been partially cleansed by the recent departure of Senator Strom Thurmond of South Carolina.

Bravado

Dear Editor:

"Those who would answer every problem with nuclear weapons display not bravery, but bravado, not wisdom, but a wanton disregard for the survival of the world and the future of the human race."--Lyndon Johnson, New London, Connecticut on June 3, 1964.

"The commander of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization should have control of small tactical nuclear weapons for defensive purposes." - Barry Goldwater, Cleveland, Ohio, Veterans of Foreign Wars Speech in August 1964.

This common disease is highly communicable and is frequently contracted by hand-shaking and back-slapping, but the poly-tick is most often, and most dangerously, contracted by coming into contact with an infected victim who is expelling abnormal amounts of hot air.

The poly-tick, next to the tsetse-fly, is one of the oldest disease-carrying insects known to man. It may infect anyone between the ages of fifteen and ninety years of age; and a nationwide epidemic is known to occur in the United States regularly every four years, while smaller local areas of the country are said to suffer sporadically from migratory swarms of poly-ticks.

After-effects of the disease caused by the bite of this insect include: a bitter taste in the mouth, black eyes, loss of friends, and, upon occasion, broken bones.

Advisors investigating the poly-tick and the unique disease resulting from its bite have formulated five rules to serve as safety precautions against the insect:

1. Keep mouth closed when it is obvious that a poly-tick is about to bite.
2. Retain a friendly expression on the face.
3. Wash hands often.

"An educational institution is one that tries to offer what it thinks it knows. If you don't want it, you don't have to take it."

--Robert M. Hutchins, Center for the Study of Democratic

4. Avoid blasts of hot air (especially when accompanied by loud noises).

5. Poly-tick bites are best cured by vigorous mental activity dealing with more harmless matters.

Art department gains new profs

Four new faculty members, three from Rome and one from Michigan State University, will join the Art Department at Santa Barbara this semester.

Fulbright-grant holder Mrs. Irma Cavat, an assistant professor of art, has exhibited her work in a number of one-man shows in France, Italy, and throughout the United States. She has been awarded the Yaddo Fellowship and a New York University Scholarship.

Miss Suzanne Edwards, Assistant Art Professor, has taught upper division and graduate courses in ancient and medieval art at Michigan State University. Miss Edwards holds memberships in Phi Beta Kappa, Phi Kappa Phi, and the College Art Association.

Joining the Art Department as lecturers are Lothar Kestenbaum and Norman Neuerburg. Kestenbaum, a sculptor, studied at the Hochschule fur Bildende Kunst in West Berlin.

Neuerburg, a Fellow in Classics to the American Academy in Rome, has previously taught at the University of California at Berkeley and Riverside, and at Indiana University.

Brown cards please

"All those who have brown cards, get them out and my assistant will exchange them for white cards. These you are to turn in on the appointed day. All those without brown cards for this class will have to leave. Sorry."

And so professor Socrates opened the 15th annual running of the sophist's lament.

The notes are the same as those used the first day professor Socrates, with a brand new doctorate, held his class. Only the year has been changed to revise the calendar.

With a magnificent gesture, or officious grunt, the publish-int doctor begins the ancient ritual of passing on the torch of learning to those who are younger, if not less wise.

Once a doctor of languages was heard to comment that he was a no-good doctor. When asked for an explanation, he smiled and said wryly, "Because I cannot heal."

And so the "no-good" doctors and their patients, ill with the malady of youth, meet once again to correct the ailment. In four years of hard work, they tell us, the cure is almost certain; and with one more year of Advanced Study, the patient is almost certain to be cleansed of a youthful, open mind.

In extraordinary cases, the only cure is a life-time of paper work as the head of a university department, and then the once youthful, sharp mind is buried under the mountains of "necessary" paper work.

Each four years, the cycle begins again.

Some, less fortunate, are never cured, and go on to be scholars, rejecting the paper shuffling life of the academic-politician, accepting instead a life of meditation. And in the end they die; a death that also comes to the department heads, we are told.

The basic difference appears to be the amount spent on the funeral.

In order to let the patient choose the best possible spa, the University has had published a new film, "Which Campus?". In the film which quotes Robert Frost, a white, no doubt protestant, Anglo Saxon male, ponders over which road to take: the one that goes to the left or right of the Santa Barbara lagoon.

"Two roads inverged in a yellow wood," drones the voice of the narrator.

Berkeley, UCLA, Davis, Riverside, San Diego, Santa Barbara? The stacatto beat of a jazz score adds to the confusion created by the choice.

Does it matter? Of course it does. Swahili is offered at UCLA.

But anywhere you go, sooner or later, you will meet the brown card, the backbone of our educational system.

Long ago, somewhere in the much maligned dark ages, a group of students would gather around the robes of their cleric-professor and listen to what he had to say; then as we understand it, they would discuss it amongst themselves. After the lecture they turned in their brown cards.

At one time, a group of students didn't like what they were being taught; someone had told them that it really didn't meet the demands of an ocean age, or something equally ridiculous, so they moved to the outskirts of town and brought in lecturers to teach them, presumably what they needed to know. So began the modern university.

Now, the government goes to one side, decides what it wants to discover, and lures the universities along the road to research, with offers of inflated money.

The best way to balance the educational and research efforts of the university is for the students to talk as loud as the government. Unfortunately, they haven't the money.

The road to modern education is paved with good intentions. Without the intentions the whole system might be doubted.

Lou Rose hires fashion columnist

Beth Goodfriend, a sophomore history major, will be the new fashion columnist for the Lou Rose Annex in downtown Santa Barbara. She is replacing Marilyn James who graduated last spring, and will be writing columns once a week.

Miss Goodfriend, who is from Saratoga, California, is a member of Sigma Kappa Sorority and has lived in that house since spring semester. She was a member of Elections Committee last year and is historian for Sigma Kappa this year.

An Annex fashion show is set for Saturday at 1 p.m. in Santa Cruz. These shows as well as the column will suggest clothes for campus life.

Miss Goodfriend feels that "with all the major fashion magazines showing college girls how to dress well, it is much easier today for them to do so."

Democratic Workshop

Students for Democrats kicks off its campaign work with a workshop next weekend. Contacts for interested students are: Dave Mainland 7437 in San Miguel, for residence hall men, Mike Iversen, for residence hall women, in 6432 San Miguel, and Steven Pierce, 6510 Madrid Road for Isla Vista students.

Purpose of the workshop is to acquaint students with the work planned and the methods to do the work. Work topics planned are: surveys, information distribution, car-bumper sticking, debates, car-pools, and social events. Topic discussions will be conducted by people who will lead this work.

Any questions concerning the workshop should be directed to Mike Iversen before 7 p.m. at night. All interested students are urged to attend.

Frosh class officers to be elected Oct. 19

Elections for Freshman Class officers and three other elective positions will be held on October 19. Sign-up sheets will be in the AS Office today through Oct. 5.

Freshman class positions open are president, vice-president, and secretary-treasurer. To run for these offices, students must be registered members of the freshman class and carrying a minimum of 12 1/2 units. They must have had at least a "C" average in school work done last semester and must maintain a "C" average during their term of office.

Freshman class president is required to preside over Frosh Council meetings, handle publicity for freshman activities, and form committees for the homecoming float, class movies, and service projects.

He must also plan and schedule all freshman meetings and activities through the Activities Calendar Board, and attend Legislative Council meetings as a non-voting member to keep in touch with Associated Students activities.

The vice-president takes over Frosh Council meetings in the absence of the president, and chairs or takes part in the major freshman committees. The secretary-treasurer keeps the minutes for Frosh Council meetings and handles the financial transactions of the class through the Graduate Manager's Office.

Positions for two Women's Representatives at Large are open for candidacy. Any woman student may apply.

Two Non-Affiliated Representative positions are open, one for men students and one for women. Applicants for this office must not be affiliated with a fraternity, sorority, or residence hall.

One man and one woman are needed to fill RHA Representative positions. Students interested in this office must be affiliated with a residence hall.

Candidates for all these offices must have maintained a "C" average in college work done last semester and must be carrying a minimum of 12 units. They must have an over-all "C" average and must maintain this average during their term of office.

All candidates are required to attend a meeting in the Student Union Quiet Lounge on Oct. 6 at 4 p.m. They must take a test on the AS Constitution and Robert's Rules of Order on Oct. 8 between 3 and 5 p.m. or Oct. 9 between 3 and 5 p.m. All publicity is due on Oct. 12 and no publicity may be put up until then.

A position for Sophomore Class secretary-treasurer is also open.

HARRIERS DROP WESTMONT, GRIDMEN LOSE TO SF

Cross country sweeps, 22-35 over Westmont

by CLIFF CHERNICK
Sports Writer

Led by two Freshmen, a Sophomore, and a Junior, the Gaucho cross country team literally ran over Westmont 22-35 on our scenic course Saturday. Rick Schankel, Jeff Rawlings, Jim Allen, Jack Roach, scored a blanket finish for first place, with John Brower coming in twelfth.

Westmont's Bill Cockerham took the lead at the half-mile point and held it through the first mile and a half. Roach, Allen, Schankel, and Rawlings stayed close behind him.

heat for first place. One minute and nineteen seconds later Brower crossed the finish to wrap up the meet for UCSB.

Coach Adams was extremely pleased with the 22:17.6 min. time turned in by the four boys. He expressed confidence that his team will have a fine season, due to its depth. Later in the year he hopes to have Brower, Rollie Cavaletto, Art Grix, and Reo Nathan running along side his top four. Adams also looks forward to the coming seasons because of the youth of the entire team.

Roach, Allen, Rawlings, and Schankel are also expected to

AS I SEE IT...

By MIKE IVERSEN
Sports Editor

Each new year offers its challenges; this one is no exception. First among these challenges is Student Support. Without it, Sports becomes the process of improving physical prowess; with it, Sports is a valuable part of the educational process called College.

Athletic events are the largest lab exercises on this campus. The fellowship of supporting a common cause unites a crowd of individuals, where a lackadaisical attitude divides it. More can be learned from this experience about human nature, than in most of our college experience.

In short, student support of athletic events is not a burdening trial, it is a responsibility. A community of people come together because they gain more from that association. So it is here.

The opportunity of student support lies before us. We of the "EL GAUCHO" Sports Staff will try to make Sports more personal to the student. The rest is up to you.

MAKATO SAKAMOTO - 17 1/2 year old 1963, 1964 US Gymnastics Champion performs Olympic Cross on rings.

Olympic Gymnasts perform Thursday

U.S. Olympic Gymnasts give their final performance before Tokyo at UCSB on Thursday September 24, in Robertson Gym at 8 p.m. Makato Sakamoto heads "The best U. S. team ever," according to Head Coach John Muir.

Bolstering the team's chances are Jack Beckner, Larry Banner, Armando Vega, Ron Barak, Gregor Weiss and Rusty Mitchell. Each captured an NCAA title during the past six years of competition. Sakamoto, Banner, and Weiss are rated good chances for gold medals.

Performing on the high bar, the even and uneven parallel bars, the side horse, the tumbling mat, the still rings, and the free-form exercise, the team will take one and one-half hours to complete its exhibition.

Price for students is $1.50 with adults paying $2.50 and children $1.50. Tickets can be purchased at the Business Manager's Office in the Student Union Complex. Profits from this performance benefit the Olympic fund.

The Olympic fund offsets the cost of sending our athletes to Tokyo. All money must come from private sources, with exhibitions figuring heavily in raising the money.

Basketball Meet

All Freshman Basketball players report to Robertson Gym Wednesday, September 21, at 4 p.m. Freshman Basketball Coach Ralph Barkey stressed that this is the first meeting of the year and urges all players to attend.

WHO'S FIRST? - Harriers Jeff Rawlings, Rick Shankel, Jim Allen, and Jack Roach stride as one across the finish line against Westmont Saturday. Scene was the new campus course.

During the next mile and a half all five ran bunched together about 150 yards ahead of the field. Then, with a mile left, Cockerham fell behind the pace and eventually finished fifty yards back in fifth place. When 100 yards remained, Roach and Allen called for a blanket finish, and the four Gaucho runners strode past the judges in a dead add a great deal to the track team in the spring. Allen will move up to the Varsity this year from the Frosh team, where he holds both the mile and two-mile records (4:22.1 9:35).

Roach was last year's top varsity miler and two-miler, owning records in both (4:19, 9:29.8).

Gauchos eleven nipped, 7-0, by SFVS

by MIKE IVERSEN
Sports Editor

"Our men looked pretty good on defense, however, I thought we would do better offensively," said Head Football Coach Jack Curtice of UCSB's 7-0 loss to a fired-up San Fernando Valley State team Saturday night.

Standouts in the Gaucho defense were tackle George Kraus (65) linebacker, Doug Bowman (22) defensive halfback, Larry Scott (48) defensive halfback, Bob Blindbury (49) end, Jay Urban (74) tackle, Ron Stoughton (69) guard, Scott Williams (86) end, Jim Wankum (68) guard and Fred Smith tackle (78), each credited with three tackles and several assists.

Kraus, Blindbury, Urban Stoughton, and Wankum manned the forward wall, while Reynolds, Bowman, Scott, and Williams cared for the ends and backfield. Statistics show UCSB holding San Fernando's total yardage to 128 while its own was 151.

Despite this defensive prowess, UCSB could not jell its offense. Passing success came in spots, but much of the time UCSB quarterbacks Chris Dawson and Bob Heys saw three SFVS men and the moon. Scott and Blindbury made several long (10-20yards) runs but not often enough.

In the second quarter, passes from Dawson to Blindbury and Scott started a spurt, but Dawson was dropped for an 11 yard loss to squelch that action.

After SFVS punted, the Gauchos picked up two first downs before their passing again stalled. Runs by Scott and Jim Orear (38) helped push this spurt forward.

Halftime found the UCSB eleven seven points down. San Fernando had scored with 2:02 minutes left in the first quarter. Leon Greathouse made 22 yards running and six yards on a pass to put the ball on the 21. A 15-yard personal foul penalty moved the ball to the six. Dave Sherbourne then circled left end for the tally.

During the second half, UCSB's main thrust came at the game's end. With two minutes left, the Gauchos were on their twenty. Dawson passed a bullet to Jerry Kearns (80) for seven yards.

Bob Heys (12) then dropped a beautiful sideline pass into Ernie Zomalt's (21) waiting arms for 20 yards. Kearns then grabbed another Dawson serial, this time for 11 yards. The ball was on SFVS's 42 yard line. Charging linemen ended that.

The success of San Fernando's charging linebackers kept UCSB in trouble most of the game. By using three linebackers, the Matadors double-teamed Gaucho offensive linemen. Two or three men usually broke through the Gaucho line with this maneuver, dropping Dawson and Heys for 76 yards behind the line of scrimmage.

Art exhibit scheduled

Opening at the Santa Barbara Museum of Art on Thursday, Sept. 14, is a major exhibition of primitive art from New Guinea. This collection of ritualistic artifacts from the world's second largest island has been assembled by the Stendahl Galleries of Hollywood and is accompanied by a comprehensive catalogue, the foreword of which was written by Dr. Thomas Leavitt, Director of the Santa Barbara Museum of Art.

The bulk of the material in this exhibition originated in the Sepik River Valley which is considered the most important and prolific artistic region of the island.

The artists of New Guinea generally emphasize supernatural and terrifying elements in their magic imbued objects. They distort and combine human, animal and bird forms which result frequently in products having surrealist tendencies testifying to the great faith these primitive peoples place in their Spirits.

This exhibition of the energetic and vital art of New Guinea will continue through November 1 at the Santa Barbara Museum of Art.

Gauchos riders

sought by Glick

Spirited but gentlemanly equestrians are needed to care for and exercise Don Juan, Santa Barbara's "spirited but gentlemanly" registered palomino quarter horse mascot, according to Marshall Glick, Mascot Committee chairman.

Committee member sign-up sheets for the fall semester are available in the AS Office in the Student Union, beginning Monday, September 21.

"There are many positions open for El Gaucho riders," Glick stated, "before and after the activity: grooming, publicity exercising, wardrobe, equipment, and training assistants."

Although Don Juan is reputed to be "spirited but gentlemanly," students are requested to obtain an insurance clearance sheet from the Graduate Manager's Business Office after applying.

WHY WE CARRY GANT

There's more than fabric superiority in Gant. In addition, "needled-into the warp and woof of every Gant shirt" — there's flair-fit show — three vital in-herents that make all the difference when a man wears a Gant.

We chose Gant because they take shirt making seriously. They're hard to please (like we are) when it comes to fit of collar, its roll, its profile—how much it shows above the suit collar. They're fastidious about the way the body of the shirt drapes and folds. All must integrate to achieve that viable ingredient which gives comfort and aplomb. In substance, Gant shirts are keyed to the discerning tastes of well groomed men who appreciate quality. These men are our customers.
