REGISTRATION PROCEDURE--The registration lines will form at 9 a.m. today, with non-veteran students reporting to North Hall and veteran students reporting to the auditorium in the administration building. Those who have not yet obtained a copy of the Summer Session Bulletin which includes all classes scheduled, may secure a copy at the Registrar's office in the Administration Building. For the 1954 Summer Session there is no minimum load, however  $6\frac{1}{2}$  units constitute the maximum load without petition. Excess loads may be granted in exceptional cases by petition when Aug. 1954 or Jan. 1955 graduation would otherwise be hindered. Need for excess programs is to be established by the student and his adviser with approval by the appropriate academic dean. Classes will begin Mon. June 28, and class enrollment cards will be filed with instructors on that day. Completed registration books will be collected at the office of the Registrar Thurs. and Fri., July 1 and 2. Cover of registration book must be signed by department chairman or adviser and by Dean of Men or Dean of Women. Health examinations are not required for the Summer Session.
