SEASON ENDS IN TOUCH FOOTBALL

With the intramural football season now ending, many of the teams interested in the many men now engaged in intramural competition are concerned about the fate of their teams. The sport drawing the most attention is the mud football. Two teams were involved in the most recent match. The first team was the Mud Bowl. The second team was Mud Bowl II. The game was played on the football field, and both teams were evenly matched. The game lasted for several hours, with neither team able to score. The mud Bowl ended in a tie at 2-2, and the teams were declared co-champions of the season. The mud Bowl has become a popular sport among the college community, and many teams are already looking forward to next year's competition.

HIGH CALIBRE PLAYERS OUT FOR FRESHMEN

The season ends in touch football with a low of the final game. However, most of the players will return next year. The team has not made any decisions about the future of Coach Trailblazer and the other seniors. Coach Trailblazer's contract will expire next year, and it is uncertain whether he will continue in his position. The freshmen will be coached by Coach Troublemaker, who was impressed with the way the freshmen handled themselves in the season. Coach Troublemaker is known for his tough coaching style and his ability to bring out the best in his players. The freshmen will be looking forward to working with him next year.
