Doug Hoag's Orchestra Plays at Samarkand Formal Tomorrow Night

Dance Follows Hawaiian Theme For Third Year; Faculty and Lowerclassmen Purchase Bids

Bidding "Aloha Oe" to State college graduates, junior classmen state the Leilani prom tomorrow evening at Samarkand hotel's Jade room from 9 to midnight. Draped in leis, seniors are the honored guests at this traditionally Hawaiian farewell formal. They will be admitted by their class cards, according to Junior President Howard Joham, head of the host group.

Arranged on a ratio of three to one in favor of slow-tempoed dance-ostations, the formal's music is under the baton of Doug Hoag, it was announced by Frank Jones who is in charge of the dance groups.

Sweet Leilani

As designed by Kelly Hopmans, the dance programs follow the theme of the prom which is the third yearly affair under the present name. Christening of the annual social event came at the height of popularity of Harry Owen's "Sweet Leilani." Prior to that time it had simply been known as the Junior-Senior prom.

In charge of decorations are Dorothy Ann Myers and Josephine Williams with Andy McIntyre in charge of the orchestra.

Faculty Attend

All faculty are extended a cordial invitation, it was stressed by Joham. Dean and Mrs. Paul A. Jones, President and Mrs. Clarence L. Phelps, Dean and Mrs. William Ashworth will act as hosts and W. Charles Relding, Dr. and Mrs. Harrington Wells and Dr. and Mrs. Harry Girvetz as sponsors.

Besides the juniors and seniors who are admitted by class cards, lower classmen may purchase bids from Dean Lois Bennink's office for $1.10 a couple and 60 cents for outside guests.

Severy Talks On Drugs at Science Meet

Describing two recently discovered drugs, sulphamamide and sulfa-pyridine, Miss Hazel Severy acted as main speaker at the faculty science seminar, held Tuesday afternoon in the Associated Women's Clubroom.

Used in the treatment of pneumonia, spinal meningitis, and other diseases, the two drugs are still partly in the experimental stage. In 1937 sulphamamide was mixed with an improper solvent, forming a poisonous solution which caused the deaths of 87 people. It is still dangerous if used carelessly.

Present at the seminar were Dr. and Mrs. Fredrick Addicott, Dr. Helen Sweet, Dr. Mary Erickson, Dr. Ernest Bickerdike, Mr. Harrington Wells, Mr. H. Klyne Headley, Mr. Marshall Miller, Miss Margaret Erwin of the Museum's staff, and Dr. Emmett Martin. Dr. Martin, who is doing research work in the local branch of the Carnegie Institute foundation, will be guest speaker at the May 21 seminar, his topic being "Transpiration of Plants."

Phi Delta Pi Inducts Pair

Phi Delta Pi, honorary women's physical education society, held its formal initiation Sunday at the home of Mary Alice Murray in Mission Canyon. The new members inducted were Jane Boland and Elizabeth Randall.

Following the ceremony, tea was served at the home of Miss Gladys Van Fossen, 520 East Valerio, in honor of the initiates. Those present were Misses Jessie Lady, Mary Louise Moore, Eileen Cozier, Mary Alice Murray, Elizabeth Randall and Jane Boland.

Faculty members present were Miss Elizabeth Sehan, Mrs. Maria And-

Council Sets 1940 Budget At $31,000

Legislators Elect Joham Chairman Of Activities Board

The legislative council passed the Associated Students budget last night; a minimum of discussion featured the consideration of each item and the allocations remained as drawn by the finance committee.

A total of $31,000, based on an expected enrollment of 1550 next year was allocated to run next year's student body affairs. Each activity was given a relatively larger allotment than that received in 1939-40, with the outstanding increase, that of publicity budget which was raised from $500 to $1500. Graduate manager Donald M. Follet announced that the increase would cover the salary of a full-time publicity and advertising man who will be selected on student council approval upon a recommendation of the Press Control board.

Larger Allocations

With the allocation of $8,500 for the retirement of the deficit, Finance Chairman Frank Douglas announced that the debt, as it now stands, would be paid by next year.

Howard Joham, junior class president and second vice-president of the A. M. S. was elected by the council to fill the post of Activities Control board chairman for next year over three other applicants. Member-at-large from the council will be Kelly Hopmans, newly-elected senior class representative.

Main Discussions

Main discussion of allocations centered around those for assemblies and for debate and dramatics. The College theater will receive $500 next year, an increase of $200 while the forensics department will receive $150, an increase of $75—Director of assemblies Carlos Bee's plea for an additional $25 was denied, the allotment remaining at $100.

Final approval of the budget will rest on student body approval, a budget assembly being scheduled for Tuesday, June 4 in the College auditorium.

On recommendation of the finance committee and a petition to the council, the legislators voted to allocate the surplus of El Gaucho's funds this year to next year's budget.

Members of the council will meet for the last time this year for a dinner-dance at El Paseo on Thursday, May 23.

This scene from the Roadrunner Revue may be a reminder of Saddy Hawkins day, but in reality BENADETTA SEBASTIAN is singing "Some Day He'll Come Along, That Man I Love" to DOUG MATSON. The action appears in the "registration" scene.

New Council Appoints Cohen, Wharton, Parks to High Posts

Newly elected Jack Richards, A. S. prexy for next year, had a premature chance at the traditional Santa Barbara State college gavel Thursday noon in Pine Hall and his legislators appointed five students and one faculty member to six important positions.

Most influential student positions were awarded Syd Cohen, editor of El Gaucho, and Tom Wharton, finance committee member, to student-at-large of the Board of Athletic Control and Finance Chairman, respectively.

In addition Margaret Parks, a member of this year's social committee, was elevated to that body's chair, and Doug Mattson, director of the Roadrunner Revue, was appointed Rally Chairman.

Milton Berman, star first-sacker on the Gaucho baseball team, was made Physical Education representative to the Board of Athletic Control. A third appointment to that board was that of economics instructor Dr. Fred Halterman to succeed Dean Paul A. Jones as faculty representative.

All the above appointments were recommended by President Richards and were without exception given an o. k. by the new Legislative Council.

Members of the new council have been invited to attend regular sessions of the incumbent politicians to "learn the ropes." They have also been asked to attend their council dinner which will be held in several weeks.

AMS Play, Dine at Hobo Brawl Today

Highlighting the calendar of the Associated Men Students social activities this year will be this afternoon's Hobo Brawl, annual stag affair, to be held at Hendry's beach. Games will begin at 2:30 p. m. and dinner will be served at 4 p. m.

Teams sponsored by various campus organizations will compete in tugs of war, relays, sack races and other sports. The menu for the day will feature inch-thick barbecued steaks with garlic, chili and beans, French bread, ice cream and coffee. Dinner will be served free to all men presenting their activity cards. Others will be charged thirty-five cents.

President Bill Sears announced that all men who did not make reservations by yesterday noon cannot be accommodated at the meal, but are invited to bring their own supper and join in the fun.

The Printers, who won the intramural basketball championship, and the Gridiron Club will be guests of the A. M. S. at the affair.

Teachers Give Original Play

"Swish, the Wind Baby" will be presented by the Kindergarten Activities Class of the Department of Early Childhood Education, May 25 at 2 o'clock in the College Auditorium. Admission will be 25 cents for adults and 10 cents for children. The script, music, dances and sets are all creative work done by the students under the instruction of Miss Edith Leonard. Student body members are invited to attend.

Music Groups Give Festival

Culminating their school year except for participation in commencement exercises, five musical groups gave a festival concert last night in the music hall. The second program to be presented in honor of music week, May 5-11, the A Capella, women's glee club, men's glee club, male quartet, and string trio each gave one or more selections. First of the two highly successful programs of the week was given Tuesday night, also in the music hall, by voice students of Mr. Van A. Christy and piano students of Mr. Lloyd Browning.

Directors Schedule Special Performance Wednesday for High School Students; Bill Marvel's Orchestra Provides Music

By WILLARD MAY
El Gaucho News Editor

'Midst the furor and fanfare of city-wide publicity and ballyhoo, half-a-hundred Santa Barbara State College students tonight begin final rehearsals for "College Life", ninth annual Roadrunner Revue, to be presented Wednesday, Thursday and Friday nights of next week in the administration auditorium.

Inasmuch as the orchestra of Bill Marvel is being used to furnish music for the production, a special performance has been scheduled for Wednesday night and will be opened to students of Santa Barbara High School only.

Seniors Attend Last Breakfast In Ebbets Hall

Graduates Choose Class Gift, Get Announcements From College Book Store

Seniors meet Tuesday morning, May 14, in Ebbets hall, for the final breakfast before graduation. In charge will be class president Cliff Romer. The guest speaker will be Dr. Irving A. Mather speaking on "Opportunities in the Teaching Field."

Important business measures are to be transacted at the breakfast, which begins at 7 a. m.; one of which will be the choice of the class gift. To date, three suggestions for the gift have been offered: a sun dial for the new college campus, a time clock for La Playa stadium, or a picture. Pat Quinn heads the committee for the class' final choice.

Miss Jane Abraham, class adviser, will make it known that graduation announcements will be ready by May 15 in the college book store and that orders are now being taken for caps and gowns. The first order is to be sent off on May 28 by the co-op, but no payment is necessary until the date of actual use.

Under senior executive board members Betty Palmaynes, Shirley Cort and Mabel Forsyth, the class picnic is scheduled for Sunday, May 26.

Fourth Estate Plans Hayride

Fourth Estate club members met Tuesday evening in the A. W. S. clubroom, and mapped plans to have a combination hayride and party a week from Sunday evening.

The party will be held at the home of Andy McIntyre, treasurer. Dancing, games and refreshments will highlight the evening. Future plans for the organization's support of the Santa Barbara Junior high school newspaper, "The Informer" were discussed.

New Soph Squires, Chosen Yesterday, In First Meeting

Organizing for early and efficient functioning, next year's Sophomore Squires meet today noon in Pine Hall. The eighteen men, whose job it will be to handle incoming freshmen at the opening of the fall semester, were chosen by votes of ten prominently active classmen and President Johnny Caldwell.

Selected for their cooperative spirit and leadership, the 1940-41 Squires under Caldwell include Stan Aspitte, Stan Bartlett, Bill Brown, Art Chauvel, Stan Darrow, Walt Lohman, Dan Logan, Alex McGilivray, Kenny Mardis, Hal Romero, Bob Sherman, Kenny Smedley, Dalton Smith, Bud White and Doug Winters.

In today's meeting definite plans are to be formulated for the traditional activities, the Kangaroo court the mud brawl and various belittling tasks for freshmen.

Suggested also has been a Squires auxiliary which would be made up of sophomore women who are interested in aiding and actively supporting the men in their work. Life of the group would be only during the initiation season and with no infringement on functions of the estab-

More than 100 art department members and their guests are expected to depart for King Neptune's domain tonight at 8:30 in a gala party to be held at the Santa Barbara Yacht Club on Stearns Wharf.

Taking a cue from a recent party held by some of Hollywood's "elite" the artists have chosen a theme for the evening's festivities "Surrealistic Chapeaux" and in order to be in harmony with the motif of the Yacht Club decorations, these will be of a nautical origin.

Another unique feature will be the issuing of passports and the holding of King Neptune's court, as it is done on board ships while passing the Equator.

Events in Europe Show Black Future for Allies

Within the past few weeks more has happened of international importance than at any time since the hostilities in Europe commenced.

Whether or not the Nazis may secure permanent control of the Norwegians is at present still conjectural, but at the present writing the situation looks none too promising for those elements in the Allied command who hoped to secure a new and more vulnerable front upon which to continue the attempt to crush Nazism.

Apparently Il Duce is interested in the reported effectiveness of the German air armada over the British fleet, and the chances of the Nazis are thereby enhanced in his opinion.

Of course, the main question in the minds of Americans now is, how would it affect America if Italy joined Germany in the present war?

No individual can be absolutely certain what he will be doing twenty minutes from now... somebody said. There's always the possibility of something happening—something which might change the most carefully laid plans in the world.

Three years ago Bill Guidinger was busily engaged in the sheet metal material preparation department of the North American Aviation Company Inc. watching some of the country's outstanding bombers, trainers, and observation planes develop.

In the case of education versus navy, education won as far as Arthur Scott—now a junior—was concerned. The case history might read—"graduation from Oxnard high school—one year's attendance at Occidental—2 years at Colorado School of Mines—middle weight boxer for Denver Athletic Club—United States Navy, four years, held petty officer position as metal smith, second class, in Asiatic fleet—Santa Barbara State college since January, 1938"

Perspiration Increase Shows Summer Here

Summer-time is here. I can tell that she has arrived by the increase of perspiration on my neck and by the decrease of clothes on women.

What with sunburn on the uppers one finds it pretty darn hard to concentrate on studies. Yes sir, summer brings along a lot of things besides flies and mosquitoes.

In any other part of the country May would usher in the spring; those cool pleasant days when everyone decides it is too hot for the furnace. Then they have to hold spring house cleaning to keep from freezing.

Well, I happen to know an Iowa transplant who one day last week decided it was about time for a spring cleaning. He figured he had plenty of time in as much as his cords would still bend at the knees and he had one more clean pair of socks.

Now, to make a long story short—he don't live with us any more; environmentalists his folks are, you know—we all favor the arguments of heredity.

Scribe Finds Mexicans Use Strange Slang

The caballero who said the "Greeks have a word for it" needn't have looked across the Big Pond. Our neighbors the Mexicans have a word for it; in fact most of the words they use aren't considered in a course in IB Spanish.

The average tourist in Mexico may as well bury his English-Spanish and vice-versa dictionary or trade it for a "no savvy" sign when some of the gay blades come out with some of the day's slang.

Here are some of the sayings that stopped me while I was there. To "fall dead" is the act of paying what is due. Although there is a word in Spanish for brunette, more than often they use "black"; a thing that is out of order "does not blow"; the elevator may not blow or the car may not blow when you need them.

As a greeting they might say, "hello hand". A person who is a tightwad might be termed "an elbow"; and a person who is silly may be called "iron," like the kind you press shirts with.

All the girls are termed viejas which literally means old women. If a person is slick or fast they might remark about how "butter" he is. A person who is lucky gener-

Snoopidity

Your usual scandal-man, Basil Vance is away on the Rancheros Visitadores trip, so consequently, the column, this week, is written by a guest columnist. Please bear with me.

Our congratulations to the freshman and sophomore classes for the success of the "Puppy Love Prom". From all we hear, juniors and seniors, as well as the frosh and sophs really enjoyed themselves and this was due to the informality of the dance. More power to you!

Speaking of the Puppy Love Prom, there were quite a few dancers who seemed to really enjoy themselves. To enumerate some, we find Muriel Wolfe and Denny Nelson; Helen Marr and Frel Acres; Kenny Mardis and Cozette McCoy; Bobbie Ellis and Kelly Hopkins (who, incidentally, won the prize for the best costumes); frosh Prexy Alex McGillivray and Ruth Travis and numerous others.

Some have been wondering what this strange power is that Leona Rasmussen has over Don MacGilivray. (It seems to keep him jumping through the well-known hoops) Mystery of the Week

It's a mystery where Tommy Guerrero and Bill Sears acquired the nicknames of "Jerk". Any information on this subject would be greatly appreciated.

We wonder what the high school gals possess that the college co-eds lack. It is apparent that the high school May Dance last week was heavily attended by the college male element. To name a few of the escorts we present Johnnie Costas, Doug Winets, Frankie Jones, Stan Bartlett, Kenny Smedley, Dave Eberts and Dick O'Brien.

For this position of the week, we nominate Freddie Baer. Fred was elected President of the Senior class and has been seen escorting three different campus beauties on three successive nights. It looks like he's out after the record held jointly by Bus Bolas and Bill McArthur.

It is certainly too bad that Frances Simpson is so wrapped up in her boy friend down south because, from comments around the campus she would have quite a waiting list.

Another way of saying the same thing is "to be at the fourth" And last but not least, a beautiful girl is classified as "piocha" which is the word for a certain type of beard. Students Vote On Budget in Meet Tuesday

Students will have the final say on just what is to be done with their ten dollar student body fee next semester when Associated Student President Bob Scalapino presents the final budget passed last night by the Legislative Council to the student body for approval in the general assembly fourth period in the auditorium.

In addition to final action on this important business, Santa Barbara State's championship basketball lettermen, C. C. A. A. champs for the 1939-40 season, will be given their awards. Besides regular honors, they will be given gold engraved basketballs.

Procedure will consist of reading the itemized budget by Secretary Bernice Shedd, after which students may ask any questions of Scalapino, or other legislative council members who will be present.

After the questions have been answered, motions will be in order, either to pass or revise the council-passed document. A majority vote will be necessary for passage.

Editor's Note:

On these hot summer days when the ink and ideas do not flow freely, we occasionally skim through our exchange list in search of an idea. From the Florida Flambeau, published by the Florida State College for Women at Tallahassee, Florida, we sighted the following gem entitled, "Student Views Negro Problem; Indifference to Uncle Tom's Cabin Symbolizes Feeling of Most Southern Collegians toward Old Slave Race."

This "Old Slave Race" angle intrigues us. Immediately, we see that the Southern Belles do not know that the Negro race was freed in 1865 and that very few of the old slaves are now alive. The Southern Belles, we think, are still using Margaret Mitchell's history of the "Snivel War" as a Bible.

The young lady writing the article is very frank. She says, "It is amazing how liberal we aren't in the South," seeming to imply that the writer is not at all inclined that way. Later on, to show her liberalism she states, "I can believe and honestly feel that something has to be done about the way negroes are housed and more especially about the pitiful meagerness of their education. And yet I can drive through niggertown and feel that things are not really so bad. They are happy. All their friends live in hovels, too."

Our Belle of the Old South goes on to say, "None of us can help the indignation we feel when a Yankee mistreats our negroes or our contempt when he fears them. We want to take care of them and we want to do it our own way."

Notice the Southern vernacular: "niggertown," a word despised by all Negroes, and "Yankee," usually prefixed by "damn." This specialized vocabulary is as much a part of the Old South as fried chicken, corn pone, magnolia trees and mint juleps. We are quite certain that Southerners "want to take care of" their Negroes and "want to do it their own way." One favorite device used in the South is that of using the Negro as a scapegoat, of pointing him out to the sharecropper as the white man's worst enemy. This leads to the second device, a quaint old Southern custom known as "lynching."

Ever since the war between the States, if not before, anti-lynching bills have appeared before Congress. Most of them have lost out when a vote was taken, but the majority have never been put to a vote. The usual procedure is for a Southern senator, who is greatly perturbed over the attitude of his constituents, to filibuster until Congress adjourns or until the sponsors of the bill give up in disgust.

Our little Southern friend continues, after admitting that a change could go, for the picture, as we have seen it of the negro's is necessary, "... we cannot imagine in what direction a social treatment in the North fills us with an involuntary disgust. The negro should stay 'in his place.'" What the Flower of Dixie means by the North's treatment of negroes is not clear to us, but if she means that "we 'uns" treat Negroes like human beings, in most cases, the issue becomes clarified.

Our Flamboyant Flambeauteer concludes with, "... in spite of four years in College I think I shall never read Uncle Tom's Cabin or forget that the two most famous men in United States history are not Washington and Lincoln but Washington and Lee." Ha, Ha. —S. C.

On The Sportside..

By JACK NEWMAN

"On The Sportside", Jack Newman's radio column, may be heard each Wednesday evening on KDB, the Mutual Broadcasting station at 7:15 p. m.

Was glad to hear in a way, that the annual Coast-Valley game was postponed until May 22. This will give the local fans a chance to get out and see a preview of the 1940 football machine. It was originally scheduled for Tuesday night, but inasmuch as things weren't organized completely, and officials felt that not everyone knew there was going to be a game, it was moved up until a week from next - Wednesday.

Set for La Playa field, and sponsored by the Gridiron Club, these tiffs are always spirited and you can figure on a lot of action.

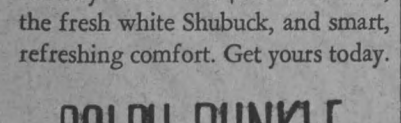

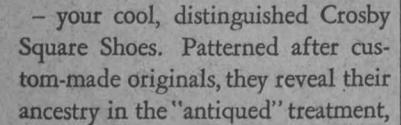

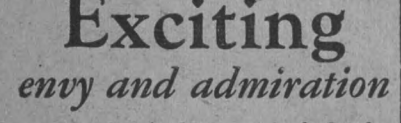

Ernie Saenz heads the Coast aggregation, while little Walt Condeley will general the Valley crew. On the face, it looks as if the Coast has a slight edge, boasting more experience and weight.

While on football, it seems as if the Gaucho will take a back seat to none in the 2C2A next season. San Jose loses 12 lettermen, including the great Leroy Zimmerman, and equally great, according to a number of men who played against him, Herman Zetterquist. The Spartans will also be without popular Dud DeGroot who was responsible for building the powerful 1939 team from the ground up. Fresno will not be much better than last year, while San Diego is an unalterable factor. The Gauchos will, however, be at least fifty per cent stronger, and ready to give any of them plenty of trouble. Valuable assets will be newcomers Tom Reid, Bob Stockton, Bob Scott, Larry Bemoll, etc. Veterans Jessup, Wilson, Saenz, Condeley, Costas, Neely, Swank Heinberg, and Co. are also counted on heavily.

It has been mentioned that an intramural, inter-organization, or some such type of track meet preceding the regular track season would be a practical way of discovering new talent for the varsity squad. Sounds like a good suggestion. We know, as does any other interested fan, that this year's track squad was far from being as good as it could be. Bill McArthur, varsity captain, bemoans the fact that there are innumerable men enrolled in school who are potential first place winners, yet they did not report for track because they either felt that they were not good enough, or that they were not needed. THEY WERE NEEDED. And any other suggestions that could remedy this situation will be gladly accepted by myself, Coach Bohler, and Bill McArthur.

Gridders Prep For Annual Spring Fracas

Hilltoppers Play Coast-Valley Tiff At La Playa Field

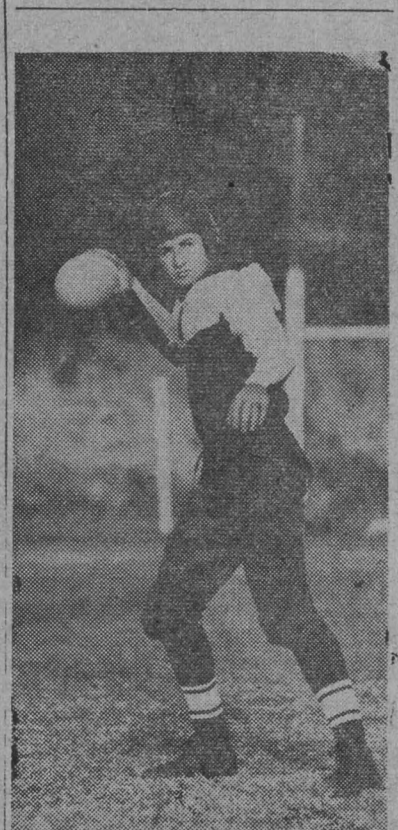

Spring football's classic, the annual Coast-Valley brawl, has been postponed to Wednesday night, May 22, at La Playa field, announced Theo "Spud" Harder, varsity grid coach. Ernie Saenz, sharp-shooting passer of last year's eleven, will handle the Coast squad while diminutive Walt Condeley, blocking halfback, heads the Valley team.

The Coast squad, which has emerged victorious the past few years, again appears too strong for the Valley aggregation and should chalk up another spring victory.

Prominent on Condeley's eleven is Bill Jessup, first string end on last year's squad, who is set for his greatest year, Bob Stockton, 200 pound transfer from the University of Purdue, who will handle one of the tackle positions, and Lynn Lightner, veteran right halfback.

Saenz' team has an edge in experience with Ed Larsen, 205 veteran who was voted the most valuable man on last year's club, at a tackle post, Johnny Costas, passing ace, at halfback spot, Larry Bemoll, hard hitting transfer from Compton J. C. at a guard slot, Bob Scott, transfer from Santa Clara, at fullback, and Madison Swank, veteran, at the signal-calling berth.

With spring practice in its fourth week, the powerful kicking of Tom Reid, U. S. C. transfer, and Stockton continues to hold the spotlight while in the line Larsen and Bemoll have shown up to the best advantage.

ERNE SAENZ, fleet Gaucho halfback, leads his Coast team against Walt Condeley's Valley crew when the two squads meet in the annual spring practice game on May 22.

CLIFF WRIGHTSON and JIM FITZGERALD, were unanimous selections on EL GAUCHO'S All-Conference squad. Both are Juniors and will be eligible next season.

Locals Place Eight on El Gaucho All-Conference Baseball Squad

Eight members of Santa Barbara State's California Collegiate Athletic Association championship baseball squad were placed on an All-Conference team selected by El Gaucho sport staff.

Standing head and shoulders above other squads in the 2C2A, the Gauchos lost but two conference games, plus losing only four out of 24 total contests.

Jack Fitzgerald and Don Ripsch were unanimous selections for infield positions, as were Jim Fitzgerald and Cliff Wrightson at pitching posts. Jack Fitzgerald, plus playing near-flawless ball at shortstop, swatted in 36 runs out of 37 possible chances, while Ripsch performed sensationally at third base pounding out 6 homeruns and running second place in team hitting with .358.

Wrightson and Fitzgerald were first choices on the mythical outfit as a result of their pitching records. Fitzgerald lost but one contest out of eight, while Wrightson was defeated only twice in eight starts. Petropoulos of San Jose was the other selection.

Other Gauchos to place were Bob "Shanty" Stansbury, at catcher, Eddie Markham, second base, Bill Adamson, outfield and Walt Lohman, utility man.

Following are the complete selections:

- First base, Allen, San Jose
- Second base, Markham, S. B.
- Third base, Ripsch, S. B.
- Shortstop, J. Fitzgerald, S. B.
- Outfield, Frizzi, San Jose; Priester, San Diego; Adamson, S. B.
- Catcher, Stansbury, S. B.
- Pitchers, Wrightson, S. B.; Fitzgerald, S. B.; Petropoulos, San Jose.
- Utility man, Lohman, S. B.

Illness Confines Fresno Track Coach

FRESNO, May 9—Flint Hanner, Bulldog track coach, was confined to a hospital earlier this week as a result of an appendix operation.

Hanner will miss the Relays of the first time in fourteen years as a result of his appendectomy. Dink Templeton, former Stanford coach, was desirous of taking charge of the Relays in the absence of Hanner, but the administration voted to give Hal Beatty the position along with that as director of the Far Western Conference and CCAA championships.

Record Entry List Expected for Annual West Coast Relays

Spartans Trim Gauchos for Fourth Defeat

A team of only two track and field athletes will represent Santa Barbara State college tomorrow night when it travels to Fresno for the annual West Coast Relays, Roy Bohler, coach of the Gaucho tracksters, announced yesterday.

Because there is no college class sprint relay, Bohler will not take his crack quartet of Hovis Bess, Captain Bill McArthur, Bill Morgan and Burdette Gandy.

Instead he will take only Bess to compete in the open 100 yard dash against such sprinters as Clyde Jeffries, rated the top sprint man in the world, and Mickey Anderson and Barney Willis of the University of Southern California, and Wolf Heinberg to compete in the open shot put and discus.

Los Gauchos lost their fourth consecutive track meet last week to San Jose, 96 to 34. McArthur's iron man performance was to no avail as the Hilltoppers lacked the all-around strength of the Spartans. The Gaucho captain won the 100 yard dash in 10.0s flat, took second to John Peek of the Spartans in the 220 low hurdles in the fast time of 24.5s, placed third in the 120 yard high hurdles, and placed third in the javelin throw to accumulate 10 points for high point honors.

Showing up best so far are Al Corcoran in the 100 and 200 yard free style events, Howard Clapp in the 200 yard breaststroke and Jack Long and Alex McGillivray.

Veterans Spotlight Whittier Workouts

WHITTIER, May 9—Even though the success or failure of Whittier's 1940 gridiron aggregation lies on the shoulders of fifteen freshmen who will become sophomores next fall, returning lettermen will play a big role with their experienced training.

The fifteen sophomores are replacing eleven seniors of the championship eleven. Most attention in the spring workout has been given them, because they are filling the shoes of outstanding stars.

HOVIS BESS, Gaucho sprinter, travels north to enter the open 100 yard dash at Fresno Relays.

Marty Brill Puts Lions Through Paces

LOS ANGELES, May 9—Coach Marty Brill trotted some thirty-odd hopefuls for the 1940 Loyola University grid season out on Sullivan field for a scrimmage that showed the Lion will be a potent aggregation next season.

Coach Brill has devised several combinations which he will try for the first time this weekend. While the experience in the backfield and at the end positions is conspicuous by its absence, Brill feels they will make up any deficiency in fight.

Barb Ruggers Defeated by All-Star Team

Bill MacArthur, Howie Yeager, Star As Locals Dropped

Santa Barbara's Ruggers bowed 12-6 before the onslaught of a powerful all-star aggregation from the southland last Sunday afternoon to wind up their play for the season.

Competing for the opportunity to represent the far West against the East, the local club put up a tough battle but the all-stars proved too much for them.

Despite the efforts of Howie Yeager, who was injured during the second half, and Mill McArthur, fleet backfield ace, the Barbarians were unable to overtake the lead gathered over them in the first half.

Warner Set For Movies

SAN JOSE, May 7—San Jose State's contribution to the cinema is no campus queen, but the king of the gridiron, Glenn S. "Pop" Warner, who last year returned to the Pacific Coast to pilot the Spartans to a new scoring record.

Along with three other leading coaches, the veteran football mentor will play his own part in what is billed as the greatest gridiron picture of all time, portraying the life of the late Knute Rockne.

After A Fashion

By MARY KUNHARDT

Among the 1940 Spring Collections, Marlynn Carlock made a lovely picture in her powder blue crepe afternoon dress with lace collar and pockets. Her hat was a small white straw trimmed with blue net. It is one of those creations that almost isn't there. Chic!

Smart suited in a two piece "job", Patsy Eaves was especially effective in a gray crepe. Stop-light red accelerated the white-revered attire. Nice!

For a good looking sport suit, notice Geneva Gabriel's brown outfit. The swing skirt is accented by a brown striped tweed buttoned jacket. A white twisted necklace sets the outfit right into the class of the latest styles.

How do you like the new combination of Cool Gray and Hot Pink? Sounds interesting, doesn't it?

Have you noticed that "Sloppy-Joes" are still quite popular among the coeds. These sweaters are nice for those days that start out cold and end up hot, or vice-versa.

If you want to add the dressy touch to an outfit. A jacket is the thing!
