GABEL TO LAUNCH LECTURE SERIES THIS AFTERNOON

Dr. Norman Gabel, Ph.D., will present the first All-College Lecture in Bldg. 431, Rm. 102, at 4 p.m. today. The lecture's title is "The Fijian Way of Life" and will describe the country and the natives of the Fiji Islands.

The Fijians were formerly notoriously war-like, cannibalistic, and famous for their great war canoes. The lecture and the color slides will emphasize first the nature of the country: volcanic origin, topography, beaches, reefs, and lush valleys. The racial characteristics and affinities will be illustrated. Slides also will be shown to illustrate the Fijian way of life: their villages, homes, livelihoods, canoe making, and mat making. The kava-drinking debauch and the native dancing also will be shown.

Dr. Gabel conducted his anthropological research during his sabbatical leave in 1954-55. A professor at Santa Barbara for nine years, he is now teaching General Anthropology, Cultural Anthropology, and Ethnography of the World.

KENTON TICKET SALE NEARS END

Tomorrow is the last day set aside for the purchase by students of tickets for the Stan Kenton "Jazz Showcase '55" coming to the campus auditorium Oct. 11. The concert is sponsored by the Associated Students and tickets are priced at $1.25 per person.

The purpose and aims of the concert currently touring the major West Coast colleges have led to his presentation as a marking point whereby students may for the first time see a truly contemporary jazz concert on campus with the all-time greats in the field of modern music.

Bud Shank, brilliant ex-Kenton altoist, is featured with the "Stan Kenton Jazz Showcase '55." Bud was a University of North Caro-

Homecoming Events Procedure Outlined

Homecoming, 1955, is less than two weeks away. Any organization wishing to enter Homecoming in any of its phases—Galloping Gaucho Review, Parade, or the Queen Contest—must submit its applications and fees on the deadline specified for the event in the Sept. 30 issue of El Gaucho, and in the Homecoming brochure.

Organizations wishing to sponsor candidates for Homecoming Queen must have three 8x10 pictures of the candidate turned in to the Associated Students' office, or to Dick Canada, on or before the deadline, Oct. 6. Judging of the candidates will take place in front of the Library, Thursday, Oct. 13, at noon.

Float Chairmen

Special Events Committee Chairman Tom Fitzpatrick reminds all float chairmen that there will be a meeting Monday, Oct. 10, at 3 p.m. in the Associated Students' Conference Room to draw float positions for the parade. Further instructions concerning the parade also will be given at this meeting.

GGR Preview

For Galloping Gaucho Review no shows will be allowed that are not up to University standards. Shows will be previewed by Special Events Committee Thursday, Oct. 6, in the campus auditorium at 7 p.m.

All entrants in the Homecoming Parade are reminded by Chairman Tom to adhere to the theme, "UC Fanta-C."

Dances

The Samarkand Hotel has been reserved for the Alumni Dance, with Gary Hulderman's band providing the music. The place of the student dance has yet to be announced, says Cynthia St. Clair, dances chairman. Han Brendle's band will play for the students. Both dances will be held Saturday, Oct. 15, after the game.

ELECTION ASSEMBLY TO INTRODUCE CANDIDATES

Election assembly for the purpose of introducing to the members of the Associated Students all candidates for Freshman offices, as well as those for Men's Rep-at-Large and AMS Vice Prexy, will take place at noon today in front of the Student Union. This will probably be the only opportunity for most students to become acquainted with the potential officeholders.

The election itself is scheduled for Thursday and Friday, and polling stations will be set up in front of the Student Union and the Library, and, for the IA students, on the Mesa campus. These stations will open at 9 a.m. and close down at 3 p.m. each day, so students should remember to vote early. Freshmen will vote for class officers. Men's Rep and the Constitutional amendment, which appears in today's El Gaucho, will be voted on by all students.

Following is a list of the candi-

President: Jim Black, Jon Champeny, Don Jacobs, Stan Langenluck, Joe Rank.

Vice President: Janet Hammeras, Roger Gertmenian, Murial Prislis, Martha Sutcliffe, Toni Saadi, Jug Wyse, Ted Zundal.

Sec.-Treasurer: Dianne Biggar, Mary Henderson, Dulce Wilmott.

AMS Rep.: Rovida Nesbit, Pat Pratt, Neila Weirsema.
AS Men's Rep-at-Large: Dick Goode, John MacLellan, Salvatore Sanchez Jr.
AMS Vice Pres.: Rolland Jacks.

Proposed Amendment

On the ballot in the coming Associated Students' general elections will be a proposed change to the AS Constitution.

The change comes in Proposition No. 1, Article IV, Section 4 of the Constitution. The amendment proposes to add to the non-voting members of Legislative Council already listed "the president of the Residence Hall Council, the president of Pan-Hellenic and the president of Inter-Fraternity Council."

Preferential Voting System Explained

Preferential voting, initiated at SBC in the spring of 1954, keeps all the advantages of the conventional system and at the same time adds several distinct ones, the first of which is that run-offs are eliminated. The main advantage is that the voter has a better chance of putting his choices in office. If his first choice is not voted in, he may still be able to put in his second or third choice.

Marking Ballot

Voting is as follows: Opposite the names of the candidates you put the number "1" after your first choice, "2" after your second choice, "3" after your third choice, and so on. The voter must number his choices consecutively and cannot mark a candidate "3" without a "2" and a "1" appearing also. Numbering can continue until all candidates for any office are so marked.

According to the handbook on the system: "Since the tabulation and determination is not made on the 'lowest number wins' basis, those 5's and 4's can never affect their receivers in any way except favorably. This is the single most important idea to get across to the voters: Any number placed after a candidate's name can do nothing but help that candidate."

Under the Preferential System a candidate has to receive at least one vote over one-half of the total ballots. Thus, a candidate may be defeated, even if he is the only candidate running, by the simple fact that he does not receive enough votes. Therefore the ballot must be marked even if only one candidate runs.

Number All Candidates

The Election Committee urges all students to place numbers opposite all the candidates' names in order to have a better representation of the students' feelings. Indicating your choices cannot harm your candidate and may in fact be beneficial to him.

The point to be stressed is that in no way is this system inferior to the conventional system and it has at the same time definite advantages as outlined above.

BILL THOMAS presents trophy to Dulce Wilmott, winner of Freshman Queen Contest. Presentation was one of the highlights of the annual frosh indoctrination program which was concluded last week.

FROSH ACTIVITIES REACH CONCLUSION

Santa Barbara College's traditional freshman indoctrination program came to a climax last Friday at the annual Frosh Tribunal. The highlight of the occasion was the selection of Dulce Wilmott, Manzanita Hall, as Freshman Queen.

A select group of sophomore students passed judgment on offending freshmen. The guilty were given "constructive tasks" to carry out in front of the trial audience. A full week of activities preceded the tribunal. On Saturday, Sept. 24, the "Big C" project was carried out by a band of industrious frosh. A huge block letter "C" was placed on a hillside in Goleta foothills, at a point that can be seen from the campus. The work was followed by a song fest.

On Thursday the annual mud brawl took place behind the Student Union. Amidst a great deal of black, wet, UCSBC soil, the freshmen emerged victorious.

BONFIRE, DANCE SET FOR FRIDAY

There will be a bonfire rally Friday at 7 p.m. in conjunction with the Cal Poly game on Saturday. Yell leaders will be on hand to lead school songs and yells. The rally will be followed by a dance in the auditorium from 9 to 12 p.m. The dance is free and is sponsored by the Residence Hall Association.

Float Applications

Applications for Homecoming floats will be accepted only on Friday, Oct. 7, between 9 a.m. and 4 p.m. at the Graduate Manager's office. Applications will not be accepted before or after this time.

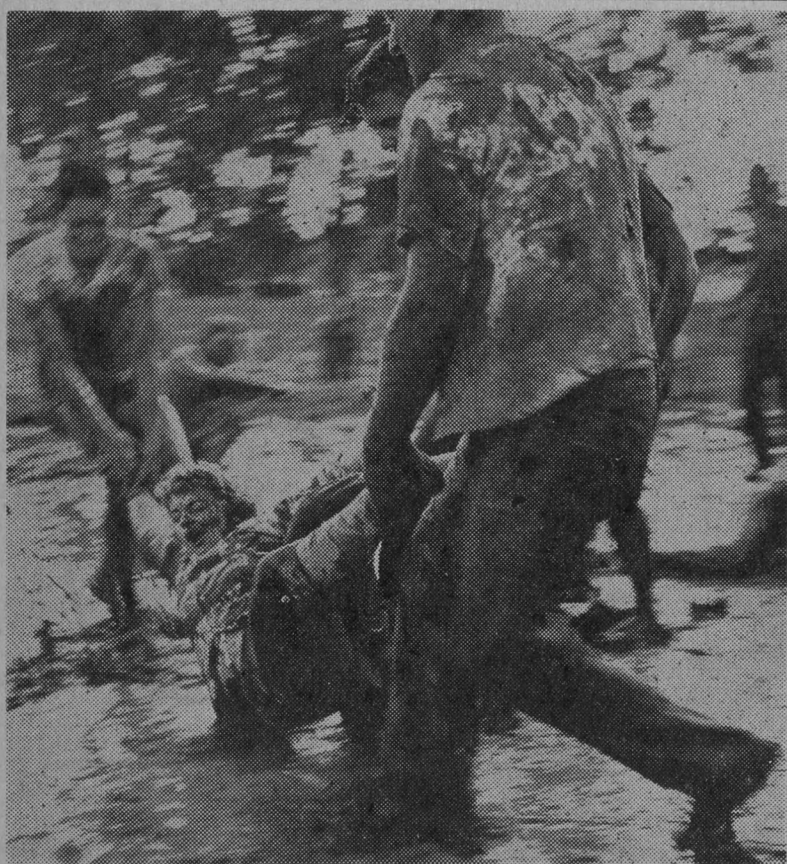

Where Was Combs? Soph Pres Tells All

"They grabbed me!" declared Sophomore President Jerry Combs in a terse voice, as he told the El Gaucho staff of a kidnapping that occurred last Thursday afternoon. Combs reported that on the day of the mud brawl, four unidentified students pulled up in a white Ford convertible, grabbed him, and, though he "fought like a tiger," they managed to overpower and hustle him off to a secret beach retreat where he was tied to a secret tree.

The abductors left Combs there, but returned later with still another sophomore, Dave Pascal. Then Combs and Pascal were taken by their assailants to the top of La Cumbre Mountain where they were unceremoniously dumped. The two bewildered sophomores proceeded to walk down the breadth of La Cumbre back to civilization. They arrived home in time for dinner.

Extend Lockout Hours

The Office of the Dean of Women has extended the lockout hours until 2 a.m. for those women students who are attending the Cal Poly game. This extension of time is to insure safe driving back to Santa Barbara. The usual 1:30 a.m. hour holds for those not attending the game.

From The President's Desk . . .

An important decision will have to be made next Thursday or Friday by each of you, concerning the proposed Constitutional change. Common sense dictates that it is unwise to continually change our Constitution, since it was designed to remain intact in substance as a guidepost for the Association. This proposed amendment, however, was felt by Legislative Council to warrant the change. The amendment would add the president of the Residence Halls Association, president of Panhellenic and president of Inter-Fraternity Council to the non-voting membership of Council, now composed of committee and board chairman, the Mesa Campus Representative, and the Deans of Men and Women. Council members felt that these three individuals represented the largest segments of the Associated Students, and therefore were entitled to a seat on Council from which they could voice problems or views particular to their organizations.

Since these three persons are not elected by the Associated Students but by their organizations, it would be logically incorrect to give them an equal vote with those Council members elected by the AS.

I sincerely feel that these organizations should have a voice on Council; I therefore heartily recommend an affirmative vote on the proposed Constitutional change.

CHARITIES COMMITTEE will meet Thursday at 1 p.m. in the Conference Room of the Student Union. All committee members are asked to attend.

HISTORY CLUB will hold its first meeting of the semester on Thursday at 7:30 p.m. in the Recreation Room of the Student Union. Dr. Philip W. Powell, professor of history, will discuss the research work he did in Spain last semester while on sabbatical leave. Refreshments will be served at the meeting which is open to all interested students.

KAPPA DELTA PHI, honorary society in education, is planning for its general meeting tomorrow a barbecue at the home of Dr. Glenn W. Durlinger, 1820 Olive St., at 5:30. Entertainment and games have been provided for all those who will attend.

KAPPA DELTA PHI officers for this year are: Anna Lee Mitchell, president; Robert Long, vice president; Mary Lee Van De Walker, recording secretary; Ruth Nicolson, corresponding secretary; Robert Kaiser, treasurer, and Paul Miller, historian. Dr. Glenn Durlinger is the chapter's counselor.

FLYING CLUB has invited those interested in aviation to join the club. Merritt Bauer can be contacted for information by phoning 8-7562 evenings. Reasonable rates for flying and two fully insured planes are offered by the club to aeronautical students.

FRENCH CLUB gathered at the home of Dr. Robert Beachboard, sponsor of the organization, for its annual French dinner last Thursday evening. After dinner, old and new members joined bravely in numerous choruses of "La Seine" and other French favorites; a business meeting followed, and the evening ended with an interesting demonstration in hypnotic technique by John Kepper. Next meeting will convene this Thursday at noon.

Rauch Reads Papers

Dr. Stanley E. Rauch, professor of mathematics and chairman of the department at UCSBC, is in Chicago this week to present two of his research investigations at the fall meetings of the American Institute of Electrical Engineers and the National Electronics Conference.

Yesterday a paper entitled "Zero Signal Stability and Noise Suppression with Magnetic Demodulator-Amplifiers," of which Dr. Rauch is a co-author with L. J. Johnson, was to be presented to the National Electronics Conference. Today Dr. Rauch was scheduled to deliver an address entitled "Design Principles of Flux Switch Alternators."

$2,000,000 WARREN HALL DEDICATED

A new $2,000,000 building on the Berkeley campus that houses one of the nation's most modern public health schools and cancer research laboratories opened its doors to students and researchers for the first time at the beginning of this semester.

Earl Warren Hall provides permanent quarters for the School of Public Health and Cancer Research Genetics Laboratory, offering facilities for training and scientific investigations in these areas unequalled anywhere west of the Mississippi River.

Dedication ceremonies held Sept. 17, which were followed by an open house for public inspection of the building, featured an address by Dr. William P. Shepherd, second vice president of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company and well-known national leader in medical and public health activities.

LUCKY DROODLES! LUCKY DROODLES! YEA!

WHAT'S THIS?

For solution, see paragraph below.

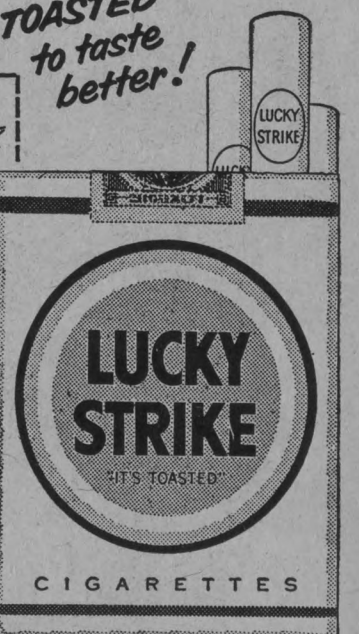

A FLIGHT OF IMAGINATION prompted the Doodle above—it's titled: Flying saucer with Lucky-smoking crew. But it's a down-to-earth fact that Luckies taste better than any other cigarettes—and for down-to-earth reasons. First of all, Lucky Strike means fine tobacco. Then, that light, mild tobacco is toasted to taste even better . . . cleaner, fresher, smoother. So, "Glurg shrldu!" (In saucer language, that means, "For taste that's out of this world, light up a Lucky!")

Dr. Baer's New Book Describes Mission Santa Barbara's History, Sculpture, Art

Dr. Kurt Baer, associate professor of art at UCSBC, has just published the first comprehensive description and evaluation of the art work in Mission Santa Barbara, entitled Painting and Sculpture at Mission Santa Barbara.

The book, which was published by the Academy of American Franciscan History, Washington, D.C., went on sale last week. It contains 151 illustrations, including reproductions of old drawings of the mission showing its development, and many fine photographs of the mission interior and its art work. These pictures were taken by Dr. Robert McCoy, assistant professor of industrial arts at UCSBC, Ray Borges, News-Press photographer, and the author himself.

Dr. Baer, who is the official art historian of the Old Mission, devotes the first portion of his book to the history of the mission and provides much interesting background information on its development. This is followed by a catalogue of the mission's paintings and sculpture, each item accompanied by one or more photographs. In each case the dimensions, description and, whenever possible, the source of the work are listed.

The author stated that much of the early history of the mission art is no longer known. "In such works as these, where documentary evidence as to the exact origin of the sculpture and painting is virtually lacking, much must of necessity depend upon comparative study and assumption. The regrettable absence of signatures on the majority of the paintings can to some extent be attributed to the practice of concealing what might be works of important masters; thus, the signed work of a ranking artist (as was often the case) might disappear from so public a building as a church."

Dr. Baer, who has spent five years collecting material for this book, carefully studied every available book or document describing the mission or mentioning some or any of the works contained in it. In his opinion, the attributing of many paintings in the mission to celebrated artists, made by writers in the past, has been "grossly inaccurate in almost every instance."

The author will soon publish another book on the art in Mission Santa Inez.

AT THE MOVIES

by Jack Nakano

The only outstanding motion picture of high entertainment quality is "We're No Angels" at the Airport Drive-In, a delightfully told tale of three prisoners loose on Devil's Island. There is a particularly pleasing performance by Peter Ustinov, whom you might recall as Nero in that gross epic, "Quo Vadis," of several years ago. "The Girl Rush," the co-feature, does give an opportunity for Rosalind Russell to demonstrate her versatile talents.

Star-Studded Preview At Granada Theater

Scoop! Tomorrow evening at 8 p.m. the Granada Theater will be the scene of a fabulous Hollywood-style major studio preview with Marlon Brando and nearly 200 other motion picture celebrities in the audience.

The Granada Theater management has announced that due to the importance of the motion picture preview, the regular feature will not be shown and the box office will open at 6 p.m. for ticket sales for the preview. There will be no seating after 8 p.m. and the management advises that, since there will be no advance sales, those wishing to purchase tickets arrive early.

Special stereophonic sound equipment is being installed for the color film.

POLY TICKET SALE ENDS TOMORROW

Tomorrow is the last day to get bus tickets for the Cal Poly game for this Saturday. Tickets are on sale in the Graduate Manager's office for $3.

Pompoms or rooters' caps will be required of all those who plan to sit in the rooters' section.

Half-time stunts are being planned by both Cal Poly and UCSBC.

Dean of Men, AS President Request Gauchos Cooperation

Our annual football game with the Cal Poly Mustangs approaches. Inevitably the game induces strong feelings of rivalry and school spirit and this is certainly as it should be. All of us have happily noted a real increase in both the quality and quantity of spirit this fall, and our only hope is that it can be sustained throughout the school year.

Unfortunately this spirit may be improperly channeled and spill over into activities which are nothing more than vandalism. This always results in property damage which affects both the Associated Students and the University. Dollar losses to both may be great. Also losses to individuals resulting from accident are often great. Deaths have occurred from thoughtless pranks. Each fall previous to the ball game with Cal Poly the Associated Student Body presidents of the two institutions have joined with representatives of the two colleges' administrations in an effort to prevent acts of vandalism. It has been found that only stern measures can forestall these foolhardy actions. Hence, Cal Poly has agreed that if any of their students are apprehended on our campus in acts of vandalism they will be immediately suspended from college. Also their Associated Student Body will reimburse Santa Barbara College for any damage done. In return we have similarly agreed that if any of our students are caught on the Cal Poly campus, parallel and strong disciplinary action will be taken at once.

In view of this agreement let us all heed the pleas of your Associated Student presidents and not diminish your enthusiasm but channel it in directions that will spur the Blue and Gold team on to victory. Personally, my advice is to stay off the Pal Poly campus and away from San Luis Obispo until immediately previous to game time. Then let's all follow the Gauchos to San Luis and victory next Saturday.

Lyle Reynolds
Dean of Men

Traditionally Cal Poly and Santa Barbara have been rivals. Particularly this is true during football season, and one may expect a great deal of spirit to accompany the meeting of the two colleges. We have learned from experience, however, that not all of this is confined to good clean fun. Certain misguided pranks have resulted in the destruction of personal and public property on both sides. This is not to say that our traditional rivalry is not good; only that individuals must think twice before acting, for their actions reflect not only upon themselves but upon the University.

An agreement calculated to reduce vandalism has been worked out between our colleges, whereby any Cal Poly student guilty of such action on our campus is automatically suspended from Cal Poly and similar harsh action to be meted out in the case of our own students on the Cal Poly campus. This point particularly should be kept in mind since we will travel to Cal Poly for this season's game. Unless our actions are above reproach, we cannot expect to avoid retaliation from Cal Poly students. Also it is much easier for a student body composed entirely of men to devise and carry out such pranks as we have experienced in the past. In short, we must watch our own actions and think twice before retaliating against some minor skulduggery, possibly starting a chain reaction. These things must be kept in mind if we are to keep Cal Poly on our athletic schedules and maintain good relations between our schools.

PE Majors Meeting

There will be a meeting of all Physical Education majors tonight from 7:30 to 10 in Bldg. 431, Rm. 102. Art Hawks, president of the southern section of CAHPER, will speak to the group.

Men's PE Program

One of the most underpublicized and yet most important aspects of the athletic program at Santa Barbara College is the Men's Physical Education program.

All male students except junior transfers, are required to take PE 1-1 and 1-2, preferably in their freshman or sophomore years.

The program for one semester consists of four weeks of volleyball, six weeks of golf, and four weeks of boxing. The second semester contains six weeks of swimming, four weeks of badminton, and four weeks of wrestling.

The combative sports, boxing and wrestling, are requested by the Armed Forces, and swimming is requested by the National Safety Council.

Tests are given at the beginning and end of each sport and the results are compared to the national scale.

SIDELINE CHATTER . . .

by Glenn Dickey

The forgotten men of college sports, the cross-country team, opened their season last Saturday with a fine showing at the AAU meet at Mt. San Antonio College.

Cross-country has been called the loneliest sport of all. Crowds at a cross-country meet are unheard of. No cross-country man ever has to worry about autograph hounds; there are none. The average fan, and even a highly informed one, would be stumped if you asked him to name the national cross-country champion.

What I'm leading up to with this long-winded exposition is that the Gauchos have an excellent cross-country team this year and you should get out and support them if you can. Their first home meet will be this Saturday when there will be both a four-mile run and a two-mile novice run.

If you get nothing else from watching the meets, you will get a chance to see some budding track stars in action. All of the boys running will be on the track squad, and some of them, such as Gordon McClenathen, will be the backbone of the squad. You track fans can get a jump on your neighbors by seeing newcomers Al Schram, John Joohan, Sid Riggs, Jerry Quintana and Jamie Chapman in action. Keep your eye on Schram. Everyone who's watched him says the boy has a great future.

Walski Returns

Both the football and baseball squads got a big boost recently when Pete Walski returned to school. Pete was to tour South Africa with an All-American amateur baseball team, and may still do it. At the present time, however, the tour looks like it won't come off at all, and so Pete is back in school and has already joined the football squad. Walski, who played quarterback last fall, probably will play fullback for the Gaucho team this year.

Fresno Strong

Maybe it's just as well that we don't play Fresno State this year. The Bulldogs, CCAA champs last year, claim to be even better this year with just as many good backs and a more powerful line.

Among the returning backs is Dean Philpott (remember him?) who made Little All-Coast last year as a freshman. Probably the best tipoff to their strength, though, is the fact that Fred Bistrick, first-string quarterback for three years, is not expected to be a starter this year.

Basketball

For those of you who believe that basketball is strictly a winter sport, I'd advise you to look over in the gym one of these fine afternoons. Coach Willie Wilton's crew is working out every day, preparing for the oncoming season. Most of last year's team also played summer ball down south.

This year's team will have most of the same cast back from last season and will boast a very strong first-line. The only question is their depth and Willie hopes that some of the newcomers will strengthen that department.

Gauchos Bow to Occidental, 13-0

by Glenn Dickey

Showing a distressing disregard for the cardinal rule of football, i.e., that you have to score points to win, the Gauchos lost their second straight game Saturday night at La Playa Field. The culprit this time was Occidental and the score was 13-0.

The game was a frustrating one for Gaucho fans that saw the Gauchos gain yardage nicely in midfield only to say "excuse me" and give the ball back to Occidental when they got within spitting distance of the goal line.

Occidental showed little besides the ability to score now and then. In between touchdowns they were content to let the Gauchos play with the football, like a doting father amused at the harmlessness of his young son.

The pattern of the game was established right after the opening kickoff. Occidental kicked off to the Gauchos and Halfback Phil Johnson, overcome with the desire to grab the ball and run, tried an over-the-shoulder catch a la Jim Piersall and dropped it. He picked it up, however, before he was tackled on the 16.

Quick Kick

After this dismal beginning the Gauchos pulled themselves together and marched smartly downfield to the Oxy 49 before they were stopped. Pat Mills kicked to the Tiger 16 but Oxy Quarterback Jack Kemp promptly returned the favor with a beautiful 64-yard quick kick.

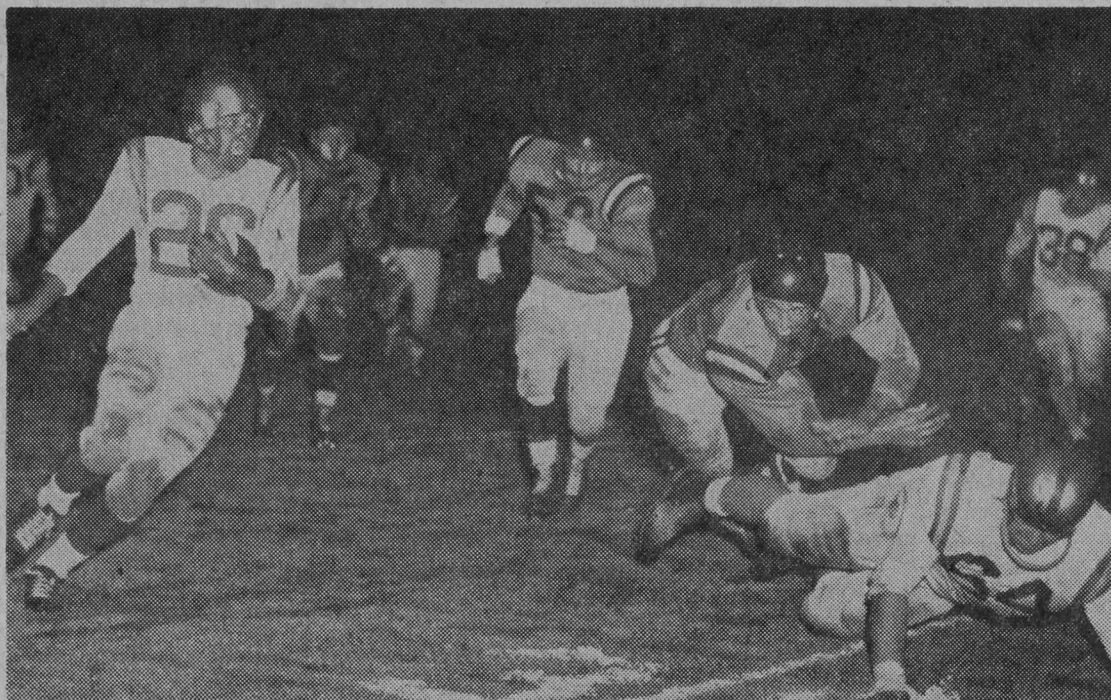

The quick kick seemed to take all of the starch out of the Gauchos and after Sut Puailoa had rushed to a first down, Johnson fumbled on the 25 and Occidental recovered. Kemp then took over, passing to Dick Lopez on the 12 and then carrying it himself to the 1, where he fumbled, with Guard Phil Alfano falling on the ball in the end zone for a TD.

Occidental's second touchdown came with unexpected swiftness with only two and a half minutes remaining in the second quarter. Kemp faded back to pass and, undisturbed by any Gaucho lineman, threw a 45-yarder to End Jim Mora for the score. The politeness of the Gaucho backs on this play was something to watch as they refused to do anything so vulgar as trying to stop the pass. The nearest defender was a good 10 yards away when Mora caught the pass.

Scoring summary:
 Occidental 7 6 0 0—13
 Touchdowns: Alfano, Mora.
 Point after touchdown: Lyon.

SUT PUAILOA, shown ripping off a short second-quarter gain, was one of the few bright spots in last Saturday's 13-0 loss to Occidental.

BOWLING FIRST SPORT IN MEN'S INTRAMURAL SPORTS PROGRAM

Bowling kicked off the men's intramural sports program last Thursday night with the faculty team taking top honors in sweepstakes competition. Bowling competition will continue every Thursday night for the remainder of the semester.

The winning faculty team consisted of "Cholly" Chalberg, Glen Durlinger, Duane Bagley, Ernest Michael and John Klasinski.

The first night results will be used to establish handicaps for the league games.

There is still room for more teams, as three of the teams that were scheduled to compete failed to show up for the first night's play. Anyone interested in entering the bowling league is urged to contact Dr. Michael, faculty head of the intramural sports program, in Bldg. 120, Rm. 212.

The Student Council for this year's intramural program will meet today in Bldg. 420, Rm. 110, at 4 p.m. to decide the final regulations governing the touch football competition this fall. The council, elected from all the representatives from fraternities and independent organizations, consists of seven members. Representing the fraternities are: Jerry Anderson, Sigma Phi Epsilon; Dick Canada, Sigma Alpha Epsilon, and John Lewis, Kappa Sigma. The independent organizations' representatives are: Ed Zimmerman, Birch Hall; Barry Osborn, Yucca Hall; Mark Olincy, Palm Hall, and Gil Romoff, Palm Hall.

Some of the suggested rules that will be discussed for the six-man teams are as follows:

1. Flag ball: If this rule is adopted, the opposition will wear towels around their waists. The tapper must secure the towel to prove the man was touched.
2. Eight downs: As the ruling now stands, the opposing team has 5 downs in which to score; if they fail to do so in that time, the ball goes to the other team. If the new rule is endorsed, the opposition will have four downs to travel half-way to the end zone, and four more to score.
3. One forward pass: Regulations now state that the opposition may make as many forward passes behind the line of scrimmage as they wish; the new rule would limit the number to one.

Because of last year's many injuries, a $5 entry fee per team will be assessed to pay for more competent officials. The council will also ask the Associated Students to donate a sum equal to that collected by the teams to help cover the officiating charge.

BRUCE VARNER, sophomore fullback out with a broken leg, was sorely missed last Saturday night as the Gauchos bowed to Occidental.
