

AS Council Lauds Change In Cafeteria

President Selects Student Aids

Councilmatic attention was focused on the recent cafeteria reorganization last night as President John Falxa reported to the executive council on the shift in both personnel and prices effective October 1.

In this report Falxa acknowledged the work of President Clarence L. Phelps and the faculty committee who have worked in conjunction with Miss Francie Spike, new director of the campus cafeteria to lower the costs of food in an effort to meet the student budget.

Responding to the president's report, the council voted approval to a note of thanks to the home economics department faculty and students who are donating their time in preparing food for the students until a new chef arrives to replace recently resigned chef Nick Tsarius and his assistants.

Under the new setup a student committee of three will work faculty committee in charge of the cafeteria to iron out any problems or conflicts which arrive. President Falxa is in charge of appointing the student representatives.

Also included in the order of business was the approval of the minutes of a meeting of the Activities Control Board which included plans for restressing of the honor code on campus and recognition of Phi Psi, science society.

Following this action the councilmen elected Ozzie Osborne as student-at-large on the Board of Athletic Control.

Deadline for applications for the offices of rally chairman and representative on the student finance committee was re-extended until Wednesday at 4 p.m.

Amid a "back to the farm" atmosphere, Gauchos will open the Associated Student's social season with the "Harvest Hop" Saturday, October 10. Slated to be held at Rockwood, the dancers will enjoy music by Tommy House and his orchestra from 9 to 12.

Serving as hostesses, members of Tau Gamma Sigma sorority will combine with Beta Sigma Chi, hosts, to serve as the official welcome committee, in conjunction with members of the social committee. During the year, other social and service organizations will be asked to serve as hosts and hostesses, according to Willa Fairfield, chairman of the committee.

Admission to the dance will be by student body and guest cards, it was announced by Miss Fairfield. Guest cards may be secured in Dean Bennink's office at a charge of 50 cents. Faculty sponsors will be Mr. and Mrs. Siegrist and Dr. and Mrs. Rauch.

Gamma Sigs, Dirty Seven Clash Monday

1942 Intramural Opener Set for Phelps Field

With both teams setting their sights on overwhelming victory, the Gamma Sig pigskinners clash with the Dirty Seven gridgers in the 1942 intramural football season opener slated for 3:30 p.m. Monday at Phelps field. Dean Charles L. Jacobs will introduce the season's festivities by lofting the initial kickoff.

Marking the termination of many weeks practice, Monday's grid miniature features power versus speed—the power being supplied by ex-varsity gridgers Ernie Saenz, Butch Engle and Jesse James on the Dirty Seven roster, and the speed by Dick Rider, John Falxa, Harry Redoglia and Chuck Crow defending Gamma Sig honor.

In contrast to the collegiate eleven man grid team, the six-man intramural units provide the greatest form of spectator football-for-man ball for the more complicated and intricate plays of the larger teams.

Already having signified their hopes for winning the season crown are teams representing Beta Sigma Chi, Sigma Alpha Kappa, freshman class and the Independants. Any other campus groups wishing to enter the competition must fill out entry blanks available in athletic director Theo Spud Harder's office not later than noon today.

YWCA Slates Fun Fest

Marking the initial event of their fall social calendar the Y.W.C.A. is sponsoring a Fun Fest Sunday at 3 p.m. in the A.W.S. clubroom, according to Chairman Phyllis De Pew.

Assisted by a large committee of "Y" girls, Chairman De Pew has arranged a program of games, singing, and refreshments for the event.

"Why the Y" was the topic for discussion at the first meeting of the Y.W.C.A. group Wednesday evening. President Pat Daugherty led the discussion and Miss Margaret DeHaan, group adviser, explained the position that the college Y.W.C.A. holds in the national organization.

Gauchos Hold College Sing

Community singing will feature the second all-college assembly to be held under the direction of Dick O'Brien, director of assemblies, Tuesday fourth hour in the auditorium.

Also scheduled for the morning program is an explanation of the new intra-mural activities under the leadership of Frank Jones, and review of the honor code system which is sponsored by the Activities Control Board.

Social Committeemen Try New Program As Supplement to Student Body Activities

Opening the fall series of student body affairs, members of Gamma Sigma Phi fraternity will play host tomorrow night at a "Jam Jive" at Junipero Serra hall from 8:30 to 12 p.m.

Lorenzo Dall'Armi, chairman of the affair, extends an invitation to all student body members and their guests to attend and announced that similar affairs will be slated throughout the semester if tomorrow's dance proves a success.

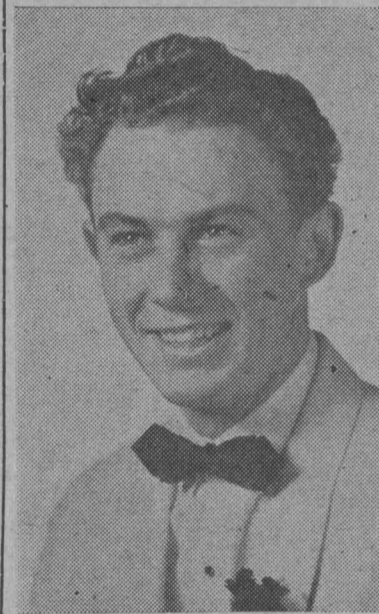

Informal dress will be the order of the evening with men asked to wear coats and ties, Dall'Armi stated.

Music will be furnished by means of recordings. Chairman Dall'Armi explained that the Associated Students have agreed to contribute their collection which has recently been increased by the purchase of a number of new disks, recorded by the nation's top flight bands.

Admission has been set at 30 cents a couple and 25 cents stag, with an A.S.B. card. Guest cards may be obtained from Dean Lois M. Bennink for a nominal fee.

Junipero Serra hall is located at the corner of Garden and Los Olivos streets and is served by the State college bus.

Pasatiempo

By NATALIE STEWART

In the embryonic stage last week but soon to emerge in concrete form is the S.C.W.V., or more lengthily, the State College Women Volunteers. The group, originated by Dean Lois Bennink and now in the hands of the AWS, is a service group designed to provide women on short notice as dancing partners, canteen workers, stenographic aids for duties relative to the armed forces.

Such a group deserves the support of the fair haired gals who have been singing about not being able to do anything for man or country. Similar programs are being instituted and organized at all the major colleges and universities in the country and furthermore are proving successful.

To date there have been about 250 inquiries from interested campus coeds and this number should skyrocket considerably within the next two or three weeks as the plan goes into operation.

The plan deserves the cooperation of each woman on campus. Then too gals, the duty part should be subservient for it should be a lot of fun.

The S.C.W.V.

By EDIE VAN METER

It seems to me
That there could be
Some more cooperation!
We must unite
If we're to fight
This battle of our nation.
So all you gals
Collect your pals
And prepare to do your part.
There's lots to do
For you and you,
But first, we've got to start.
We've got to work,
We mustn't shirk
The jobs that must be done,
And if you smile
All the while
There'll be a lot of fun.
Now come along
And join the throng
And take it from me
We're making the start
If we do our part
And join the S.C.W.V.

Klamath Falls 'Incident' Shakes Democratic Freedoms

From an Associated Press dispatch datelined Klamath Falls, Oregon, Sept. 21, we learn that a mob of 1000 "patriotic" American people saw fit to attack a meeting of Jehovah's Witnesses, a minor religious sect which has recently been headlined in newspapers all over the nation, and, through use of stones, clubs and brickbats, violently broke up the meeting. However, sugarcoats the Associated Press dispatch, no damage was done except the bloodying of a few of the heads of the Witnesses.

It is deplorable that a religious sect refuses to salute the flag of the very nation to which it turns for protection, but under the Bill of Rights to the Constitution these people have the right to refuse to salute the flag. The Bill of Rights does not state that all people must salute the flag, and therefore, if their religion believes in paying allegiance to none but Jehovah, these people cannot be forced to salute the flag.

Refusal to salute the flag does not make them any less good Americans than their neighbors in Klamath Falls. Jehovah's Witnesses have suffered through their refusal to salute the symbol of allegiance to this country. Their people may not hold public office, and in many other ways they have considered themselves martyred.

But now comes the spark which might set off the torch of religious persecution throughout America. 1000 of the good citizens of Klamath Falls, no doubt good 110% Americans, disagreed with what Jehovah's Witnesses believed, so they resorted to violence. They resorted to violence when this nation is attempting to preserve unity in order that it may speedily win the greatest crusade for toleration and freedom the world has ever seen. Right at this time the "patriotic" citizens of Klamath Falls decided to take the law into their own hands.

No doubt there are groups in Klamath Falls which don't like the Jews. No doubt there are groups in Klamath Falls which don't like the Catholics. No doubt there are groups in Klamath Falls which don't like the Protestants. No doubt there are groups in Klamath Falls which don't like law and order.

Are we then, to open our papers some morning and read that the bigots in Klamath Falls have started a pogrom; incarcerated priests and monks; thrown into prison their Protestant clergymen with no damage done but "a few bloody heads?"

This is one of the things that we are fighting for: The right of every man to worship as he pleases, in what ever manner he pleases. This is what America is fighting for. But Klamath Falls seems to have borrowed a few pages from the books of Herr Doktor Goebbels on the matter of religious freedom.

The really patriotic citizens of Klamath Falls realize what America is fighting for. But they probably wonder what Klamath Falls is fighting for. G.B.

Much Ado . . .

By GEORGE BLUMENSON

The American people are going to the polls this November to vote for the men who will either guide this nation through this war to a glorious victory or to an inglorious defeat. In the past we have taken this question of elections lightly, but now we must decide once and for all whether or not democracy will win out.

There are men running for congress this November who have been cited by the Dies Committee, the F.B.I., and many independent investigators as not only being sympathetic to the Axis powers, but also actively aiding the Axis in its attempts to infiltrate and indoctrinate this nation with its propaganda.

Congressman "Ham" Fish is on the Republican ticket in New York. In Michigan, Gerald L.K. Smith, long a Naziphile, is running on the Republican ticket with a slogan of "Tires for Everyone". This slogan, despite the fact that experts have told us that there is no more rubber—that we must conserve what we have.

There are men running who have been, for years, against aid to Britain, Russia, France, Ethiopia, Spain, China—against aid for everyone but the Nazis. In a democracy these men have a chance to run for office. But it is up to the American people to see that these men are defeated. These "Americans" cannot change their spots and their beliefs overnight. A man could not possibly have been a conservative isolationist and a lover of the totalitarians on December sixth and then wake up December seventh a liberal interventionist. Somewhere there must be isolationist or totalitarian germs lurking.

These men must be defeated. We cannot, we must not, hear any talk of a peace. This war must be fought to an end, for it is then and only then that we can pick up the olive branch without fear of it being a hand grenade.

There must be no talk of peace on the part of these men in the congress because of all those men and boys who have already laid down their lives because they believed in democracy—these men and boys who staked their lives on the principle of the "greatest good for the greatest number".

This writer is not overly religious, but he manages to draw some sort of religious parallel from this war. The forces of evil are drawn up against the forces of good. This may well be the final battle, with all the peoples of the earth fighting. We do not believe in a literal judgement day, but we do believe that judgement day may be upon us, for the longer this war drags out, the more civilization retrogresses.

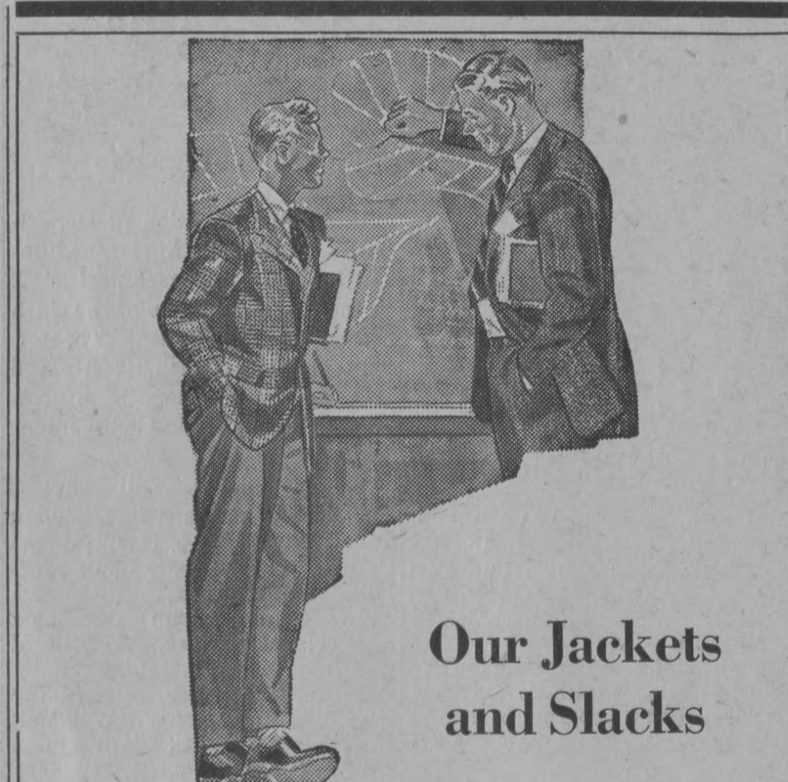

That is why we must choose well in this coming election. We must elect competent, thinking men.

Gaucha Show-case

By RUTHE SUGGS

Displaying today trivia, small talk of big people, vice versa, and back again. Had there been more time for peeking than for student teaching, conclusions more consequential might have resulted. Enough apology, here's with a quick look at the showcase:

OLGA ORTNER, curly-lashed lass from LLACC and Lockheed, confesses the freshman-like trick of attending Monday classes on Tuesday. Chem didn't match up with ed psych, so she caught on at the fourth hour.

Leading the youthful campus "liberals": BUD CARNEY, with cap. Also searching for cause-and-effect in government systems, and upholding Russia's form: MAL LIVINGSTON, a frosh who cockily plants his number 12's on a clubroom table. Hardly appealing, we'd editorialize.

Bitten on knitter: ROBERTA LAMON, a freckled and brown-eyed DD, who began her first woolen project this week. She plans to frame it, a sock.

Campus twosome remaining from a last year's beginning: PEGGY TIMEWELL and BOB MARDIAN. The femme's just entering, but the number one Beta Sig (Mardian) had her stalked.

Good-looking couple: JEAN McALLISTER, brunette; DON DRULINER, blond.

The print shop and editorial staff most happily welcome the belated return of BRUCE BRADY, whose big worry is physics, whose concern is page make-up.

Uncorking on Wednesday night heralded the planting of the Big Stone on third finger. The principles: DOTTIE TENNYSON and BOB STEVENS. We add, congratulations!

ODIE MEYERS is the charming wearer of a tailored coat of dove grey twill. (Her own.) To further identify her, she'll be the girl on JIM MIKOS' arm tomorrow night.

TOM LOEFFLER has Tau Omega's Big Idea to tell tonight at their dance. What that idea is, we can't reveal, but the plan is apropos to Everyone on campus. (And off, eh Tom?)

Claiming to have strong toes, as developed in dancing lessons of earlier days: JACKIE POUND "Absolutely immune," she declares.

Fraternities Slate Rush Activities

Beta Sig met Monday evening with the coming social events as main topics of discussion. Open house is planned for Monday, October 12, to be held at the frat house. Also planned for this month is the annual Mardi Gras, held on the eve of Hallowe'en, October 30. In charge of these two events is Alec Mac Gillivray.

Gamma Sigma Pi
The regular business meeting of Gamma Sig was held Monday evening preceding a joint meeting with Delta Zeta Delta sorority. Discussion centered around open house which is to be held Tuesday, October 13. Pledging was also discussed but no definite plans have as yet been announced. Appointed in charge of intra-mural competition was Fred Lincoln.

Sigma Alpha Kappa
At the Monday meeting of Sig Alpha plans were made for their forthcoming open house which will be October 15. Also planned was the annual dinner meeting scheduled for next Monday night. Plans were discussed for a picnic, but no date was decided upon. In charge of these events is Donald McKenzie.

Tau Omega
Plans for the Tau Omega conference dance to be held tonight at Junipero Serra hall were completed at the Monday evening business meeting. Wednesday, October 14 is the date set for open house to be held at the Elk's club.

Greek Women Fill Fall Calender With Open Houses, Teas

Greek women were busy this week setting dates and planning the affairs to be held honoring the faculty members, and the open house events which will be held throughout the semester for the purpose of welcoming and getting acquainted with women who are new to the campus.

Operetta Cast Tentatively Set

Major portion of the casting for "Pirates of Penzance" was completed this week as Dr. Van A. Christy, director, announced the tentative cast for the comic Gilbert-Sullivan operetta.

In the leading roles are Dorothy Bushell and Anne Rudderow, Mabel; Mary Lynn Drake and Dorothy Perry Keniston, Ruth; Louise Brownlee and Mary Ellen Hall, Edith; Roberta Lamon, Kate; Tom Dowan and Vic Jacobsen, Major-General; Rodney Colvin, Samuel; Nino Baudino and Kenneth Wilhoit, Frederic; Paul Kliss, sergeant of police; and Thorton Marker, pirate king.

"Tryouts will still continue until all parts are filled," declared Dr. Christy. "It is hoped that two people will qualify for each part".
