GUAchOS, SAGEHENS PLAY TONIGHT

SBC SEEKS FIFTH WIN OF SEASON AGAINST STRONG POMONA ELEVEN

by Phil C. Jacks, Jr.

Director, UCSBC News Bureau

With a forecast of clear skies and a cool night, the Santa Barbara College Gauchos and the Pomona-Clairemont College Sagehens will meet head-on tonight at La Playa Stadium. Kickoff time is set for 8:15, but the wise fan will be on hand long before game time, because all indications point to a large crowd.

This should be a whale of a ball game tonight. The two teams are pretty evenly matched, each with an aggressive line, and both squads possessied of fast and shift-y backs. For the football fan who likes to see a lot of scoring, this game should fill the bill. For very nicely, both teams figure to shoot the works.

The Sagehens come up to Santa Barbara working on their fourth straight Southern California Intercollegiate Athletic Conference championship claim. Their list for this fourth crown received a jolt last week when they dropped a 14-0 decision to undefeated Redlands University, but the Pomona boys are still very much in the thick of the race.

KEY MAN

Key man in the Pomona single wing attack is halfback Jim Linholdt, who on a full stomach tips the scales at something over 210 pounds. For a little guy he does an awful lot of things for the Sagehens, and he does them all well. He calls the signals, runs, passes, punts, and still finds time to play a fine defensive game. In 1955 he led the SCIAC in punting, was second in passing, second in total offense and fourth in scoring. His efforts earned him an honorable mention on the Associated Press Little All-American team.

Another Pomona mighty-mite that the Gauchos will be seeing a lot of tonight is fullback Brad Fink, who stands only 5'6" but in his football class. Fink hits the line like a 200-pounder, and is fast. He may even be the second in his secondary.

The Gauchos, however, can match the Pomona backfield powerhouse at every spot. Leading gaucho gainer Pat Salatino is out of this one because of the SCIAC ruling against third string players. Several other Gauchos have been shifted, Brunello finds himself at guards, with Pat Hoover and Herb Williamson backing him. Trauthen, who completed seven of nine passes against the Aggies, will be at quarterback, with Greg Fidenzio Brunello, who goes to Fidenzio Brunello, who
Big Things Are Now Small — Sayovitz

Featured for the next All-College Lecture, scheduled for Tuseday, Oct. 30, at 4:00 p.m. in Room 102 of Bldg. 431, is Dr. Joseph J. Sayovitz, Associate Professor of Industrial Arts on the Santa Barbara campus.

Lecturing on "Small Packages: Minirunification in Industry," Dr. Sayovitz will explain the trend toward the reduction in size and weight of the finished products of industry.

While there are many industry-wide examples of miniaturization, perhaps one of the most outstanding examples of the trend is the newly developed transistor. This unit has a number of unique characteristics which result not only in a comparatively small unit in itself, but in a tremendous reduction in the space requirements of associated components, according to Dr. Sayovitz.

The development of the transistor will be used as a general example of the concept of miniaturization in the lecture, which will be compared to the development and use of the vacuum tube which is replacing in many applications.

TALKERS HELD ON CAMPUS NOW

Over 200 students from some 30 colleges and universities in the southern California area will arrive on campus this afternoon to participate in a two-day practice speech tournament.

This tournament, hosted by Santa Barbara College, will give members of the forensics teams of various colleges an opportunity to sharpen their tongues and to compete with an eye toward the Western States Speech Tournament to be held in Stockton next month.

Topics

Events in this tournament will be manuscript reading, oral interpretation, extemporaneous speaking and discussion. The topic for the last two events will be "What should be the role of the United States in the Middle East?"

SBC will be well represented in this tournament, which will be held in the campus auditorium. Some 20 Santa Barbara students will be competing in the various events.

In the next two weeks the SBC debate teams will journey to Los Angeles City College to participate in a practice debate tournament. Debaters are busy preparing for the tournament, which is devoted to happenings in the music world, stated, "There's a real wild group, Oscar Wilhide, and at the Santa Barbara Choral Society.

Buddy Collette is featured in the group and is equally well the clarinet and alto sax.

Carson Smith is a familiar same to jazz enthusiasts, and University of Southern California will appear here on the campus auditorium Oct. 30.

Tickets will be at the Manager's office.
