France Protests to League

On behalf of France and Belgium, Pierre-Etienne Flandin, the foreign minister of France has presented to the League of Nations council a resolution which condemns Germany for violating the Locarno treaty. Although Germany would be deprived of a vote in the casting of ballots to decide whether or not the reich should be condemned for remilitarizing the Rhine zone, the League council has extended to Hitler an invitation to attend the sessions at London in reference to the recent crisis. A second invitation has been extended to Germany to attend the meeting and now the council has decided that whether or not Germany is present today immediate action will be taken on the Franco-Belgian resolution. Hitler has offered to send a representative to the meeting if Germany would be given equality, and if consideration would be given to his proposals for peace. France has threatened to quit the League if Hitler's requests were granted.

Income Taxes Return

Estimates made of income tax returns just before the deadline revealed that the treasury would receive at least 50 per cent more revenue this year than in 1935. Over fifty million was collected this March as compared with over thirty-six million for the corresponding time last year.

Germany Celebrates

Making his third speech in the Reichstag election campaign in connection with the celebration of army day announced in Frankfurt on-main that "the world must know that there are not two or three different opinions in Germany but only one." Blaring trumpets, marching bands and troops in Berlin and other cities called together the people to celebrate the first anniversary of Hitler's making of the new German army.

With the theme in honor of St. Patrick's Day, the industrial education and elementary departments are combining and giving a joint party in Ebbets Hall, Friday evening, March 20, at eight o'clock.

A program will be presented during the intermissions and cards will be played, with prizes given to those who have high and low scores.

STATE MAY HAVE ALUMNI CHAPTER AT SANTA MARIA

Mrs. Jane Abraham, college alumni secretary, will attend the formation of a new alumni group at Santa Maria, Friday, March 20, at 5:30 p.m. in the Methodist Episcopal social hall.

Hickory Stonewall Jackson, State alumni of Los Alamos will be in charge of reservations for the dinner which will be sixty cents. All graduates and faculty are invited to attend. The meeting will be conveniently held at the same time as the Santa Maria institute.

The State alumni chapter at Pomona will journey to Ontario to aid in the formation of a chapter there Saturday, March 28.

Mary E. Hill will be in charge of arrangements and reservations for a luncheon at 1:00 at 642 East E. street. There will be a charge of fifty cents.

These new chapters are being organized due to the distance the alumni are forced to travel to attend the meetings in Santa Barbara.

A Brief Moment in the Conductor's Residence In World Travels, Henry Eichheim Collects Many Objects D'Art

Entering the home of Mr. Henry Eichheim, conductor of All-Southern California Symphony orchestra, is entering into the sanctum of culture. The great oak door that shuts out the outer world speaks of refinement and beauty. The house itself is one of George Washington Smith's masterpieces, a Spanish "casa" in the finest interpretation of the word. Mr. Eichheim in his travels throughout the world has collected musical instruments, paintings, furniture and objects d'art from everywhere. Though the Orient predominates in his collections and the subtle beauty of ancient Java and Bali is here, surprisingly, when one suddenly comes upon the fresco of Ramos Martinez depicting a Mexican couple of the Peon class standing guard over the entrance from the patio, it too seems to be an integral part of the home.

In one corner of Mr. Eichheim's studio hangs a temple bell, not dissimilar to a dish pan with a bulge in the center of the bottom. This bell was found in the ruins

Rosenblatt Also Nominated for the Honor Position in College Symphony

Bradford Tozier, Santa Barbara State student and upperclassman, was chosen as concert master for the Southern California All-College Symphony at tryouts held Sunday afternoon in the music hall.

He has studied under Roderick White of this city, and Sam Mateski, musical instructor of this city, and has played in Clerbois' Little Symphony and concert orchestra and Roderick White's community orchestra. He recently presented concert programs at El Encanto hotel in Santa Barbara and Santa Paula.

Norman Rosenblatt, from Southwestern university, was also nominated for this honor position. He has played in the symphony for the past three years.

Budgets Are Due in Controller's Office

All budgets for appropriations for the next year should be turned in to the comptroller's office before Monday, March 23, according to Fred Allred, student body comptroller.

If the budgets have not been handed in by that time a penalty of five per cent off the final budget will be imposed.

Statements are due from all departments and organizations which receive money from student body funds. Last year's budgets and the forms for those of the coming year are available at the comptroller's office.

Discussion of the budgets will take place at a meeting of the finance committee, after which they will be presented to the student council for approval.

of a temple which had been abandoned for at least two centuries, yet today as it hangs there it still sends out its sonorous, awe-filling "aum" as it did centuries ago.

Turning to another corner one sees shelf on shelf of Oriental percussion instruments, from tiny bells to great temple gongs. The small bells shrilly ring out when struck, with a penetration that is one of the secrets of the Oriental bell makers, and the large bells have great round tones that fill the room with their sound, and the vibrations seem to roll on forever.

Leading off the studio is the work and dark room where Mr. Eichheim pursues his hobby of photography. He has made some eighty-five prints of famous artists and portraits of other interesting people, and his work in photography is hardly less renowned than his work in the music world.

It was interesting to hear Mr. Eichheim tell of the various musical activities he has done during the past year. He finished his Second Sonata and played it on tour of the Pacific coast and later played it at the New England Conservatory of Music during his stay in Boston. While in the east he conducted the Boston Symphony and the Philadelphia Symphony orchestras in numbers of his composition, new and unknown to them.

Earlier in the year he had conducted the San Francisco Symphony in his ballet "Chinese Legions" with Adolph Bolm and the San Francisco Ballet Company dancing. Throughout the year he has given many lectures on the music and culture of the Orient.

Mr. Eichheim, with his twinkling eyes and jovial personality is more of a father to the college orchestra than its conductor. He strives to give the students a technical knowledge and appreciation for the world's great music, so that throughout life they may, on hearing these pieces, be well acquainted with them, and have that much more appreciation for the world's culture.

Child Welfare Meet Held Last Week in South

Many State College Faculty Attend Conference and Participate

A conference on Direction and Improvement of Industrial and on Child Welfare was held in Los Angeles last week, March 9-13 at the Biltmore hotel. This meeting, a special conference called by State Superintendent of Public Instruction Vierling Kersey, is the first meeting of its kind to be held in California. The directors of the conference are planning to make it an annual meeting.

State Faculty Attend

Several State college faculty attended. They were President C. L. Phelps, Mrs. L. S. Price, Dr. Charles Jacobs, Dr. Elizabeth Bishop, Miss Edith M. Leonard, and Miss Elsie Pond. Dr. Jacobs and Miss Leonard participated in two of the discussions. Jacobs speaking in conferences on teacher training and on appraisals of the new school and its educational outcomes. Miss Leonard was a member of the discussion panel of the conference on "Early Childhood Education."

The program included general and individual group meetings. State faculty members arranged their programs so that one of them would attend a different group meeting each time. The general program covered various timely and outstanding educational topics.

Curriculum Development

The Monday general conference was concerned with curriculum development, with Dr. A. A. Douglas presenting the report of a state wide committee on the "Scope and Sequence of Major Learnings in the Curriculum." This was followed by reports on curriculum developments in each division of the educational ladder.

Tuesday, the theme of the general meeting was "The Professional Education of Teachers for Today's School," the discussion being led by M. L. Darsie, dean of teacher's college, U.C.L.A.

Leonard Reports

Miss Edith Leonard reports, "The trend of teacher training will be toward training in a 'personality clinic' and prospective teachers will have to reach certain standards before being admitted to student teaching." She adds "Integrity and sincerity were considered the most outstanding and important characteristics needed for those who plan to teach."

Two important Wednesday conferences were held, one for the purpose of discussing the factors influencing the development of a wholesome personality. Dr. A. A. Raubenheimer, professor of education at U.S.C. led this discussion. Another topic was "Planning the School Plant to Fit the New Curriculum."

California Designer Visits State Campus

George B. MacDougal, state architect, will be at State today to check the plans for the proposed new machine shop building.

It has been found that the first estimated cost of the building was approximately half of the actual cost. It is possible the building will not be built this semester because of the lack of the extra funds that would be necessary to complete it.

First Southern All-College Symphony

Assembling in the Santa Barbara High School auditorium, April 21, 1931, approximately one-hundred student musicians from all parts of Southern California participated in the First All-College Symphony ever presented in this state.

Henry Eichheim, composer and conductor of note, conducted the orchestra in its first public appearance and has directed it for the last five years, this year being his sixth. Clifford Leedy, founder and music instructor at the college, also presided as general chairman for the organization and has held that position since its founding.

L. Leslie Serves 3rd Symphony

Prominent Gaucho Works His Third Term as Symphony Business Manager

For the third year, Lawrence Leslie, well-known senior and president of the art department, is serving in the capacity of business manager of the All-College Symphony.

In addition to carrying on the many tasks which fall to the lot of the business head of such a gathering, Leslie has through experience, made himself the student assistant who knows all the answers and does all the odd jobs which have to be done in order to insure the symphony concert the success which it yearly enjoys. As a typical "man-behind-the-scenes," Leslie makes posters, sees to all the arrangements for the use of the Lobero theatre, collects the larger and more unusual instruments needed for the orchestra, looks after the chair seating and proper lighting of music stands, and on the night of the formal presentation is at the beck and call of Clifford Leedy and Henry Eichheim, and must be able to furnish all the missing links needed to complete the production.

Alpha Theta's Discuss Plans for Activities

Meeting at the home of Stella Mae Smith, 907 Bath street, at 6:30 Monday night, the Alpha Theta Chi sorority made plans for their social calendar.

A tea will be given for the alumnae, active and pledge members of the sorority, on March 22, at the home of Margie Woods. Mrs. Lloyd Hitchcock will act as patroness and preside at the tea.

Haverland Article Tells of Symphony in March Magazine

An article entitled "A Symphonic Experiment," written by Della Haverland, custodian of the Lincoln library, appeared in the March issue of "Bindery Talk," a magazine published by the Pacific Library Binding company of Los Angeles.

The review includes a short history of the unique musical event, with the schedule and program of the sixth annual concert to be given tomorrow evening at the Lobero theatre. The article presents the All-College Symphony as an activity aimed to destroy the feeling that interest in music is dying.

Although the symphony is primarily a musical project, Miss Haverland pointed out, many educational values are derived from student participation in the preparatory, publicity, advertising, cafeteria, housing and social activities connected with the annual event.

C.L. Phelps Greets Players, Directors

The Santa Barbara State college is highly honored in being host to such a distinguished group of young people as are assembled here from some eighteen or twenty colleges and universities of Southern California.

Our appreciation is extended to the directors and students of all the visiting colleges for their fine cooperation, and our thanks, to the good people of this locality for entertaining these guests in their homes. Especially is the college indebted to Henry Eichheim whose ability as a director gives assurance of continuing success of this ambitious undertaking.

Do We Realize?

As the sixth All-Southern California College Symphony approaches, we can not submerge the feeling that the majority of the students of Santa Barbara State college fail to recognize the invaluable opportunity being presented to them in the annual concert.

Symphonies played by the picked musicians of the leading universities, colleges and junior colleges of Southern California and directed by a world famous conductor, who people in Paris and London pay fabulous prices to hear is something that has been handed to us year after year. In Henry Eichheim, the music lovers of Santa Barbara have, locally, one of the leading musicians of the world, yet they fail to realize it.

Directly to Henry Eichheim can be traced the last five successes of this annual all-college event. All who participated in the orchestras of other years will unanimously declare that Mr. Eichheim has a rare personality which instantly endears him to those working for him. He is not a man who attains his effects by force of his dominance; rather he reasons with his performers and asks them to lend their best efforts, and when the going is hardest, his smiles and jokes work magic on the tired students.

That Mr. Eichheim is a man of extraordinary personality, a superlative musician, and a conductor of visionary faith, is obvious as he returns each year to face the amateur musicians, of sundry abilities and temperaments, and mold, through crowded hours of tiring rehearsals, a finished program, beautiful and as near technical perfection as possible in the time allotted. Outstanding performances of the recent years are purely the result of Eichheim's inspirational conducting as he teaches each student musician to appreciate the intricacies of the masters' compositions.

To the founder and director of the All-Southern California Symphony, Clifford Leedy, is acclaim appropriate too, for his untiring efforts in forwarding this epochal musical project. Seemingly a million and one details are arranged and completed by the efficient staff of students that Mr. Leedy organizes for each of the yearly events.

We point out, not vainly we hope, the energy and effort that goes to make up these annual features of the Santa Barbara State college campus that the students and townspeople will regard it as the musical privilege that it is.

A Toast

Though welcomes to the musicians and the guests of the sixth All-Southern California College Symphony through the medium of El Gaucho have been long forthcoming, we hope that their sincerity a few hours before the concert will aid in providing the necessary inspiration for an unparalleled performance.

We, in our unostentatious capacities on the outer sphere of the symphony activity, have absorbed tangents of the ardent enthusiasm radiated by the orchestra members and the committee chairman so that we have enjoyed offering to our guests a special edition of El Gaucho commemorating their endeavors

Polarized light, made available by a recent development, promises many important applications, and particularly one which will eliminate the glare of headlights.

The new material, Polaroid, is made up of multitudinous minute artificial crystals, imbedded parallel with each other in cellulose. The light which has passed through these crystals vibrates in one plane only, according to the theory, unlike ordinary light rays, which vibrate in all planes at right angles to the direction of the beam—See?

Thus polarized light will not pass through another sheet of Polaroid having its crystal structure arranged in a plane perpendicular to that of the polarizing medium. Anyway, if headlight lenses contain one form of Polaroid and a windshield the other, the lamp itself will be but faintly visible behind the glass, while the illumination will be almost as great as ever. Enough of this, if you see the light.

Up and coming popular tunes, heading for the top, are, "Let Yourself Go," and that new drinking song called "Giddy Giddy" or some such title.

Have you ever noticed the psychological effect of the appearance of pages in a book? A volume with narrow margins, long unbroken masses of type and no space between chapters, gives a feeling that the book knows too much and is trying to force it all on the reader. One spurns it or reads it he must, with a feeling of resistance.

You meet so many brave and noble people on the road. They are always glad to risk your life for you.

Wealthy people can understand the Einstein theory. To them, everyone is relative.

'Studes,' Says Prof, 'Don't Know Score'

According to Dr. William Carpenter MacCarty of the graduate school of the University of Minnesota, you are ignorant of the realities of life if you're of college age. He has life figured out in the following fashion.

1. Pre-birth—age of ancestral defects.
2. Birth to 16 years—age of supreme ignorance, affection and confidence.
3. Sixteen to 25—age of energy, optimism, imagination, adventure, discovery, invention and ignorance of the realities of life.
4. Twenty-five to 55—age of egotism, self-confidence, selfishness, over expansion and frequent mistakes.
5. Fifty-five to death—age of experience, wisdom, tolerance, conservatism and simplicity.

In addition to being ignorant of the realities of life, you (if you're a co-ed) are probably also badly spoiled—at least so says the "doc."

NEW NYA FUNDS GIVE POSITIONS

An additional allotment of $600 has been added to the N. Y. A. funds of Santa Barbara State college.

Thirteen students, six men and seven women, will be given jobs doing clerical work in the offices of the faculty members. Also, workers who have been underpaid in the past will receive additional payments. Only those students who already have their applications on file will receive the new positions. There are still many requests for N.Y.A. workers that can not be filled because of insufficient funds.

The $600 will be divided into $200 allotments to be distributed during the next three months. Previously $1380 was the total of the pay checks for 95 students. The present total is $1580 per month for 108 workers.

This and that on the Sport Pampas:

Catcher Bob Rezzonico almost started a free-for-all in the eighth inning of Saturday's ball game with Compton jaysee when he "tagged" a Tartar batter on the back . . . Investigation after the game showed stitch marks from the ball on the visitor's shoulder blade . . . Both teams and a lot of Gaucho Alumni became quite concerned over the action . . . Bud Ewing and Jean Campbell arrived at Phelps field when the shotput was about over and Coach Carter had to talk like a Dutch Uncle to get them into the event . . . Bill Gray had a bad time in his lap of relay . . . He almost stopped at the 400 yard mark and lost a lot of ground for the Gauchos . . . But Larry Bowlus ran a blistering quarter mile to make up the lost distance and then some and put the Staters out in front by a comfortable margin . . . Only a hand full of fans turned out to witness the week end sport festivities . . . In fact there were more kids from the junior high schools than State students at either baseball game or track meet . . . According to "McDuff" McDonald, Star distance runner, something should be done . . . He suggests that the Controller or somebody sponsor a "bank nite" in conjunction with all athletic contests . . . Oxy's junior college transfers are bolstering their athletic stock considerably . . . Claude Kilday, who is a sophomore and weighs around 150 pounds, almost single-handedly defeated Cal-Tech's track and field brigade . . . All he did was win the 100 yard dash, both hurdles, and the shot, as well as grabbing a second in the discus, one in the javelin and placing third in the high jump.

Varsity Nine Beats Ventura and Loses to Compton J. C.

Compton Stages Ninth Inning Rally to Nip Hardermen by Score of 8 to 4

Winding up their practice schedule the State college Gauchos divided a pair of games over the week end, thumping Ventura J. C. 7-2 on Friday and dropping an 8-4 decision to Compton J. C. Saturday. Both games took place at Pershing Park.

Coach Harder's diamond men clamped down in the first inning and refused to allow the Pirates to work in any runs, the Buccaneers' only scores came in the form of two circuit clots by Lilly and McIntyre in the fifth and seventh innings. Lloyd Erhard drove in the Gauchos' only four bagger, connecting in the second inning. Lloyd also led in batting three safeties in four trips to the plate.

Stater's Score
The Staters started a steady scoring campaign in the second inning and continued it through the fifth.

Saturday found the Staters in much stiffer competition, and although they dropped the game for the first eight innings, they were the best team. Los Gauchos got out and began to hustle at the first inning and by the end of the fourth frame the Staters were boasting a 4-2 lead over the invaders. The Tartars were a long way from through and in the fifth and seventh innings they added runs to tie up the score. In the last half of the eighth the Southerners knocked Miller out of the box and continued to hit off Bortolazzo, the rally drove in four runs to give the visitors an eight to four lead as State went into the first half of the ninth.

Compton Battery
Midkiff hurled for Compton until the fourth inning when he was hit for three scores. Paxman lifted him and proceeded to hold the Staters scoreless the rest of the game. Heany was behind the plate for the Jaysees.

Miller started on the mound for Los Gauchos and effectively checked them until the eighth rally. Rezzonico was on the receiving end for State.

School Records Toppled in Low Hurdles and Mile Run; Yeager, Hooper Set Marks

Chapman and Loyola No Match for Gaucho Track and Field Forces; Sophomore Sprinter Runs Century in 9.9

Scoring nine first places and breaking two school records, the Santa Barbara State Gauchos won an easy victory over Loyola university and Chapman college in an early season track meet here Saturday. Coach Nick Carter's men chalked up 84 points. Chapman was second with 50 3/4 and Loyola third with 28 1/4.

PEA-GREEN NINE BATTLE VENTURA THIS AFTERNOON

The Gaucho Frosh nine will meet the highly touted Ventura junior college nine, at Pershing Park this afternoon. This game will serve as a comparison between the varsity and freshmen baseballers in their abilities. The "Varsity" easily defeated the jaysee mittmen last Friday, 7-2, in a fast game. Gardenhire or Heber will be on the pitcher's mound, according to Coach "Bud" Cummings. Lane will do the catching, with Lee, Young, Busby, Smith, Monson, Bine, Erbes, Ashurst and Siegler, as the other available material.

Frosh Schedule

The Freshmen have lined up a schedule with 9 or possibly 10 games. The teams already on the schedule include: Redlands' Freshmen, Cal-Poly, San Luis Obispo High School, Los Prietos C. C. C., and the Ventura junior college.

It was "Gardenhire Day" at Cabrillo Field last Saturday when Gordon Gardenhire lead the frosh baseballers to a 19-4 victory over the Santa Maria junior college nine. The burly pitcher had a field day at the expense of both the opposing chuckers and hitters. Hitting out two home runs and a single out of 5 times at bat, Gardenhire also struck out two opposing batters and established some sort of a record when he hit three men.

Santa Maria Tackles Gauchos in Swimfest

The swimming team has definitely scheduled a meet with Santa Maria to be held in the northern city on Friday, April 3, at 3:00 p.m. Time trials are to be held the latter part of this week it has been announced by Norman Coy, who is acting as coach for the local aquatic aces. At present the team is considerably weakened by the loss of Tommy Mills, sprint ace, who has been confined to his bed with a cold.

Howard Yeager turned in the best performance of the day when he ran the hundred in 9.9 seconds, and came back later to lower the 220 yard low hurdle record by three tenths of a second and establish a new school mark of 24.9 seconds.

Hooper Sets Record
Virgil Hooper loafed to a new school record in the mile. The time was 4 minutes 38.5 seconds. The sophomore speedburner had things his own way and won handily by nearly a quarter of a lap.

Dave Rumbaugh nosed out his team mate, Bill Gray, in the high hurdles in 15.8 seconds. Roland McDonald came in ahead of Ian Crow in the second half-mile to take first place. McDonald and Hooper tied for second in the two-mile as they took an easy eight laps allowing Johnny Rygh to breast the tape in 10 minutes 57.8 seconds.

Javelin Is Thriller

The javelin was the thriller of the day with Ellwood Lindley beating out McLeon of Chapman by inches to win the event with a toss of 166 feet 7 inches.

Varner Scores in Boxing Mix

Louis Trigueiro Also Wins Match; 'Spots' Sigler, Jack Smith Lose

Johnny Varner showed the local fight fans that he is exactly what he is supposed to be by pouncing out a decisive four round decision over Rolly Torganson of Jefferies Barn, in the main event at the Mission Athletic club last night.

Varner started the fracas by taking the offensive at the first and pursued his opponent relentlessly during the entire fight. Johnny floored his opponent two times, once in the first for a count of nine and again in the second when the bell saved Rolly from what appeared to be an almost certain K.O. Torganson, however, manager to hang on the entire round, but was very close to going down for the count as the bell stopped the contest.

In the semi-windup Louis Trigueiro outfoxed Vince Gleco and received a referee's decision. Trigger lead all the way.

The rest of the Gaucho boxing crew didn't fair so well although they put up a good show, they didn't catch the eye of the judges. "Spots" Sigler put up a game fight but was too erratic in the pinches to be awarded the nod. In the fifth bout of the evening Louis Strong dropped a decision to Joe Vascez.

In the sixth fight Jack Smith started out strong but a punch to the bread-basket sickened him in the second round. As the fight progressed Jack got worse and in the fourth round the towel was thrown in and Jim David was awarded a technical K.O.

YEARLINGS WIN IN TRIANGULAR SOUTHERN MEET

In a triangular meet held at Carpinteria high school last Friday afternoon with Oxnard and Carpinteria high schools, the Gaucho freshmen track team scored 49 points to tie the Oxnard team. Carpinteria was a poor third. Louie Trigueiro was the leading light as far as the Gauchos were concerned, placing first in the broad jump, shot put and pole vault to round out a perfect day. Swatzberg won the 100 and 220 for the Staters, with Green placing third in both races. Hackleman and Parks were second and third, respectively in the 440, while Ryder, Sloniker, Strong and Wells placed in their favorite events.

This coming Friday the Peagreeners meet the strong Bakersfield junior college track team and will have to be on their toes to beat these felows. The meet will be held here at Phelps Field.

For Digestion's sake— smoke Camels

DEEP IN STUDIES.

The strain often shows up in poor digestion. Enjoy Camels for their positive benefit in aiding digestion, by stimulating and restoring the natural flow of the digestive fluids.

Smoking Camels eases tension—stimulates digestion—and fosters a feeling of well-being!

Again and again, we make up for lost time by eating in a hurry. Digestion must meet the strain. How fortunate that smoking Camels during and after meals definitely stimulates digestion and helps to ward off the effects of our hurried, nerve-wracking life—by aiding and restoring the natural flow of the digestive fluids. Today, Camels are being everywhere recognized as a healthful part of the art of dining. Camels are incomparably mild—never get on your nerves or tire your taste. Enjoy Camels with meals and the whole day through, for their matchless blend of costlier tobaccos—for their energizing "lift"—for the welcome feeling of well-being they bring you.

FOR some time the American Association has been a jaded shadow of Big League baseball which hasn't fared too well itself. If enthusiasm and promotion can fill ball parks in Association cities, George Millard Trautman has the proper bellows. "Red" Trautman, new president of the American Association, was born in Bucyrus, O., starred in three high school sports, football, baseball, and basketball, and repeated the stardom at Ohio State University later.

No great shakes as a coach of Buckeye court and diamond teams, "Let-George-Do-It" Trautman shone at promoting athletics. He helped high-pressure through the new stadium. He made Ohio State a glorious and luxurious home for King Football. The city of Columbus borrowed the go-getter for its Chamber of Commerce, and when Promoter Trautman was through, one national convention after another chose Columbus. Then he transferred his skillful hand to the Columbus club in the American Association.

On January 1, 1936, he became Association president. The first of his suggestions was a huge clock in ball parks, to assist fans in speeding up slow Association teams.

Mightiest of Redskins.

ANOTHER Olympics year makes retrospective old-timers give a thought to the winner of the Decathlon in the 1912 games—Jim Thorpe, mightiest of redskins, who today in obscurity plays one of his race in occasional flashy movies of the west. Twice chosen by Walter Camp as an All-American when he played football for Carlisle School, he is generally considered the greatest football player of all time.

Son of an Irish father and an Indian mother, he had the strength of a man at twelve. At Carlisle he performed with equal brilliance on track, basketball court, baseball diamond, hockey rink, in swimming pool, and on horseback.

James Fennimore Cooper could have envisioned no nobler Indian. Today in Hollywood he battles to keep motion picture directors from casting Mexicans in parts calling for fellow Vanishing Americans.

Some feat, we'll agree. But nothing compared to the feat of developing the improved hydraulic brakes you find on new GM cars — not to mention "Turret Top" or Knee-Action. It takes vast resources to pioneer such improvements — and a vast production to make the cost per car as low as it is today.
