Formal Senior Ball Culminates Social Season at Rockwood

Announcement of Engagements Features Gay Evening for Associated Students; Social Chairman Presents Senior Queen

Climaxing the most eventful social season in the history of Santa Barbara State as well as the college career of graduating seniors, will be the Senior Ball, annual formal student body dance, to be held Saturday, June 8, at Rockwood from 9 p.m. until 12:30 a.m. and featuring the music of Doug Hoag and his nine piece orchestra.

As is traditional, the Senior Queen will be presented after the third dance by Ellen Seymour, chairman of the social committee. The Queen will be selected by the Social Committee from a list of senior women submitted by the class, and her identity will be kept secret until her presentation to the student body. Cliff Romer, president of the senior class, will be introduced at this time also.

"Queen's Waltz"

The fourth dance will be a Queen's Waltz and will feature lighting by a huge crystal ball of mirrors hung from the center of the room lending romantic atmosphere to the occasion.

Another highlight of the gala evening will be the announcement of engagements of campus couples. The Queen will introduce the women on the stage, who will in turn name their fiancés, and then be presented with a wrist corsage. Engaged couples who wish to take part in this ceremony may see any member of the social committee to arrange details. Names will not be disclosed before the announcements are made. In order to participate, one person of the couple must be a college student, but the other may be off-campus.

Hosts and Sponsors

Hosts and hostesses of the affair will be members of Sigma Alpha Kappa and Tau Gamma Sigma respectively. Sponsors will be Dr. and Mrs. Harry K. Girvetz and W. Charles Redding.

Spring flowers and blue ceiling lights will enhance Rockwood's beauty for the evening. The dance will be by programs with pencils furnished.

Students will be admitted without charge on presentation of student body cards. Senior class members and February graduates of this year may take out-of-school guests without charge by asking for a card in Dean Lois M. Bennink's office by June 7. Other student body members may secure guest cards for off-campus dates in the Dean's office for $1.

In charge of this last affair of the season will be members of the social committee including Ellen Seymour, general chairman; Pete Bin-croft, publicity; Sally Entz, orchestra; Ronald Hurt, decorations; Barbara Leach, programs; and Walt Ziegler, intermission.

Miss McPeak Gives Advice

Although Dr. William Ellison, head of the social science department, is recuperating from a major operation undergone earlier this week and is still in the hospital, Miss Rea McPeak, assistant in social science, announces that students desiring guidance and program advice can obtain information by calling at the department office in the administration building.

Dr. Ellison will remain in the hospital for two weeks and will remain at his home for two weeks in addition, Miss McPeak reports.

Students Must Lead Way in Keeping Country Out of War

This summer vacation will find every student of Santa Barbara State college with a task to fulfill. It will be a harder one than any we have been required to do in our studies, and the result will be more important than any grade.

The job will be in keeping a level head in the present world crisis. And if we fail, the penalty may be the loss of all our liberties, our homes and, perhaps, our lives.

Seldom before in the history of the United States has there been such a panic based on fear as there is today. "We may be attacked." "We cannot protect ourselves." "Hitler is coming." These are the symptoms that tell that the propaganda, that goes under the guise of peace, is fast leading us towards its real goal—war.

What can we do to accomplish our job? We must keep our emotions controlled by our intelligence. We must not, under any circumstances, declare "we are doomed to war." We must, above all, bring our democratic rights to bear upon those who represent us, and demand peace, and no participation in foreign wars.

There will be, and even now are, those around us who say we should send our troops to cure the ills of Europe. But we must tell them that if war is a cure, then the cure is worse than the disease. For war brings on an endless cycle of just those things we fight to prevent.

By this we need not conclude we shall give no aid to the allies, who fight, in a large degree, for the ideals in which we believe. But our help must be safe and sane, and not involve giving up our democratic government and our standard of living.

We must also extend our defenses. But we want no army of offensive strength. For the warlords, with their new toy, might want to play with it. They would hardly be content to have fifty-thousand planes, that cost in the billions of dollars, sitting idly in the hangers. This would constitute no air armada of defense.

We must keep our heads, also, when Martin Dies, the all-American boy from Texas, in collaboration with Winchell, Hearst, Pegler and practically every form of public misinformation in the country, uphold the "fifth column" scare in the already growing war panic. They will want you to suspect everyone. They will directly and indirectly brand thousands of innocents among the handful of guilty. And while waving the flag in one hand, they will be shoving us into the war with the other.

Next September we want to be continuing our education or pursuing our chosen field. We want no guns in our hands and hate in our hearts. Under one circumstance, and one only, will we endanger our lives. That is to protect our own country. But when asked to fight overseas, our answer must be such an emphatic NO, that the question will never be asked again.—L.G.

Editor's Note:

This is the column we have been looking forward to for the past two years. Not just an ordinary column, this last one, we said and not one crammed with the sentimental slush characteristic of most editors' "thirty dashes," but an epic, perhaps, on what we do or don't like about this institution, or a terse editorial on events of the day. As it happens, all we can think of is the fact that this is our last effort and that finding the right words to put down is like pulling teeth.

We started pushing a typewriter as a columnist for El Gaucho two years ago. With the audacity that could come only from being a sophomore and a greenhorn in these parts, we egotistically labeled this column, "The Syd." We didn't care who we took nasty cracks at, starting from the top and moving on down the line. Chief recipients, we believe were Doug Duckham, last year's student body president, Harry Sloan, Bill Russell and Lloyd Borstelmann. Inadvertently, we made a remark about the football squad's trip to Fresno and spent two hours on Spud the Harder's carpet. We thought the band didn't look too good at the Tournament of Roses parade and spent three days beating off band members who wanted to argue the point. But the way of the world tends toward forgiveness and forgetting and we gradually smoothed things over.

Looking back over this past year, we are inclined to think that editorial responsibility has had a mellowing effect. We have bothered some of the people some of the time, but on the whole, the beefs have been few and far between. Which makes us very sad, now that we look back. We can attribute this unresponsiveness only to the fact that our two patient readers have at last given up.

Then, it has been very difficult to heckle the student council and the administrators of the student body. Such efficiency is positively disgusting, we thought, as we attended meeting after meeting in search of something to howl about. But our boy Robert Anthony Scalapino leaves no loopholes. His second-in-command, Carlos Bee, is a colorful target at which to shoot, but we exhausted that source early in the year.

Throughout the past year, a number of incidents, some colossal, some minor, have made their way into our memory. . . . Billy McArthur's two touchdown dashes through the entire Oxy team. . . . The long battles in the council chambers over abolition of the Board of Athletic Control. . . . and the setting up of a new Board. . . . Bee, the eternal com, winning a jitterbug championship in competition with the cream of the freshman class and trying to regain his dignity as a senior and cadet teacher ever after. . . . "Scoop" Douglas, who we have heckled these many months, diving into two feet of water and sporting a magnificent head bandage. . . . Frederic Hile's prize lemon, "Three Flashes and Two" and his two masterpieces, "Both Your Houses" and "Romeo and Juliet" . . . Irving Manspeaker as the whiskey-guzzling, hard-bitten politician in the former and Winnie Nichols' frail "Juliet" . . .

But we could go on with this slush forever.

Next year's El Gaucho is in good hands, so we leave without remorse. Our very polite Mr. Willard May has served faithfully and without reward as news editor this past year. Jack Newman has called the turn on Gaucho sports, assisted by the ever-present George Monroe Stepanian. Our editorial managers have changed as often as the page's make-up but Tommy Wharton, Bert Powers and Lew Garrett have been faithful. So, too, has been our staff of freshman reporters who have covered the campus like a tarpaulin. We are predicting that this gang puts out not only an "All-American sheet," but that the prized "Pacemaker" award is achieved.

Without further ado, then, and with the hope that we don't see you in the trenches, we offer this as "thirty."—SYD COHEN.

Gau-Show Case

By MARY RONK

The world is made up of "wishful thinkers"—millions of them—and we are no exception. We sit and dream—and WISH that we could board a tramp steamer to-morrow for who knows where—BUT—and we leave it at that.

PATRICK DRURY is outside the category. He wished, and then DID something about it, and as a result, he lived in France during one of the most interesting periods of the country's recent history.

While "Pat" was in Europe the Olympic games were being held in Germany and brown, white and yellow brothers throughout the world met in friendly athletic competition. Still, in that three year period before, during, and after the Olympic games, France was in a state of near revolution, and meanwhile, Mussolini invaded Ethiopia; the Spanish War began, and the march into the Rhineland stirred France into readiness for war! Scenes of today's conflict in France are familiar to Pat for he visited and lived in many of those French towns.

After crossing, Pat worked as a private secretary to an English clergyman, and while he worked he studied French informally. Later he spent six months in the French stock exchange—after that there was three months on a farm near Deauville. One of his most interesting experiences was his work as tutor to the son of a French Countess, where he lived in a beautiful old French chateau built in 1653.

Student Spurns Fraternities for Race Prejudice

NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J.—(AP)—A refugee student in Rutgers University has declined membership in Alpha Zeta, national honorary agricultural fraternity, because it admits white students only.

He is Martin L. Cohnstaedt, enrolled in the college of agriculture. His father was a principal editor of the Frankfurter Zeitung before the Nazis took power in Germany.

"When I came to this country 30 months ago," Cohnstaedt said in a letter to the fraternity, "my greatest desire was to serve the country of my choice, to give it everything I have in return for its willingness to open its doors to me.

"But how are we to serve the cause of agriculture in this country if we lose what we esteem highest: character and tolerance? I lost home and friends due to a denial of tolerance. Prejudice may be human. But if we do not master it, what may become of our good work?"

Goldberg Gadget Return Books

When Harvard University's Widener library is closed, students make use of a "Rube Goldberg invention" to return their books.

"Student slides book (A) through slot (B), down slide (C), to tray (D). When enough books are on the tray a photoelectric beam (E) is intercepted, causing jack (F) which supports tray to sink to floor. Dropping of the tray sets off alarm clock (G), which rings and calls watchman (H), who comes and collects the books."

Voice of the Campus

OR WHAT'S YOUR BEEF?

Dear Editor: In the recent budget assembly I noted that $1800 had been allocated to the football team. The debts incurred by the football team on trips, while representing Santa Barbara State College, are also a high sum.

Do you think it is fair to give the greatest amount of money, meant for student organizations, to an activity which contributes more subversive publicity to the college than can be counterbalanced by the little benefit received from it by the student body?

It is to such incidents as that which occurred in Fresno last season that I refer. If we are content to view football as "just one of the major sports at State College" and not as THE major sport, why should we "lift our eyebrows", as large institutions have done, when football players conduct themselves in a manner befitting only a convention of needle-headed Neanderthal men?

Snoopidity

By Basil Vance

They're still raving about the Gamma Sig formal. Have you seen the lockets that the lucky gals were given? Class, no kidding!

Bob Newman is sporting some high school stock. She is Doris Hartfeld, a blonde bombshell!

Also exploring the high school field is Bob Hamilton, who escorted his kid brother's girl friend, Jane Courtney, to the R. O. T. C. blow-out.

Jean "Rusty" Russick is longing for a tall, dark etc., guy to take her away for the summer. Her s. p. is reported to be Bart Reynolds.

John Biller is reported stuck on a little blonde who belonged to an ex-student body president. Is Dell losing her grip?

Ralph Udell can hardly wait for summer vacation so he can get back to Betty Ann "Babe" Graser, the Corcoran cutie, who is Santa Barbara bound next semester. Sumpin' to look forward to!

Doug Duckham and "Tiny" Gapp have both joined the union of free lancers again. This indeed is good news, as both are tops in their respective "fields."

Stan Ostling has been with Jeanne Houston too often lately to class it in the coincidence bracket. Why doesn't someone tip off Earl Carroll about Adeline Harp—or are we selfish?

Pauline Hayes upset the dope bucket when she resisted temptation in all its inviting forms to remain true to her Beverly Hills boyfriend. Nice going.

Muriel Wolfe seems to have taken a sudden tumble for a printer, which leaves Denny out in the cold again. Or does it? Latest flash says Nelson has thrown Helen over in favor of the would-be railroad queen, Wolfe.

It's funny how some people don't like to see their name in print. Don Estey used to be my friend. Or do you suppose he really likes it?

That pair of nuggets, Harry Tannatt and Leigh Silliphant both settle all of their feelings in Glendale. Could it be that our coeds are slipping? Or just smart?

Aileen Tate's ex-boy friend is blowing in town Sunday. Wonder if she'll be on hand to give him a hello after her recent engagement?

Our campus sweetheart, Beanie Shedd, is going all the way back to Annapolis just to see her boyfriend graduate.

Profs Steal Hitler Methods for Final Examination Technique

June is the month of marriages and misery. Just about this time of year, stary-eyed maidens become as excited as the proverbial old, bald-headed gentleman in the front row. On the other hand, students anticipate the approach of June with helpless apprehension, for June is the month of finals.

Floods and earthquakes may sweep over the country; war may be declared—even the girl friend may call it quits, but no disaster possesses the vast scope of tragedy as does a week of finals.

It is interesting to note a partial similarity between finals and blitzkriegs. Authorities on finals say that the "fifth column" in this case may be recognized through the subversive activities pursued by instructors: secret night meetings, a whispered word between classes, signals and knowing glances. Some professors have even been known to suggest the coming of the attack to their classes.

One day, proclamations appear, posted on walls, in classrooms and along walks. By then, it is too late for students to organize their forces and prepare to take defense measures. The time has come! Knowing that there can be no retreat nor compromise the frightened students prepare themselves as best they can; to fight to the death if need be.

Then, out of a clear, blue sky, the dreaded blitzkrieg strikes, furious and brutal in its swiftness. The unprepared fall before its terrible onslaught, while the fifth columnists chuckle with glee.

For a week the battle rages. Many students have been known to go mad, screaming in their fear or drooling at the mouth. The braver ones grimly stick to their posts, fighting back as best they can.

Through these measures, it is hoped that the brunt of the attack may be diverted into other channels. Experts—at the present—can anticipate no weakening among the forces of the "blitzkrieg" and suggest that students carry out their defensive preparations. Inasmuch as the latter measures prove ineffective at times, it is expected that the future will bring about a reform in methods of procedure, thereby greatly alleviating the terrible and destructive forces of the blitzkrieg. —Vincent Williams.

On The Sportside..

By JACK NEWMAN

Jack Newman's radio column, "On the Sportside" will be presented throughout the summer on KDB, each Wednesday evening at 7:15 p.m.

Coming under the wire for the final time this year, I feel that there still remains a lot to hash over, but I'll be damned if I can think of it.

But, time, and even Gardy Gardenhire must go on, so here I am at the end of the year with plenty to say and can't remember it.

I know Bill Sears is going to have an interesting summer. He revealed plans the other day of sailing to Japan this vacation to have at a little barnstorming with brother Dale, chums Morris, Lippert, Vaughn, and their Trojan basketball stars. It'll be fun—IF he gets there—you know, torpedoes, war, etc.

Al Sprague is headed for a big time in the fall. He is going back East with roomie Doug Oldershaw to tryout for a spot with the New York Giants. He isn't positive yet, but he's got a contract and can go if he chooses. Others to take a crack at pro football will be speed demons Howie Yeager and Bill MacArthur. Both were set to try out with the L. A. Bulldogs, but the southern team has disbanded.

This is all—there ain't no more. Starting next year you'll meet a great fellow, George (William Randolph) Stepanian, in this corner. Thanks.

Athletic Teams Cop Two Conference Championships; Scribe Forecasts Banner Achievements During 1940

Writer Sees Successes for Hilltoppers

By GEORGE STEPANIAN
El Gaucho Sports Associate

Taking a peek into the future, your sports scribe sticks his neck out and forecasts one of the most brilliant years in the history of Santa Barbara State college when the 1940-41 sports season gets underway next fall with the football campaign.

Los Gauchos won two championships this past season in basketball and baseball, took third in football and last in track. If Spud Harder's grid charges look as good on the field as they do on paper, the locals should add the football title to their list next fall.

Although the defending champions, San Jose, will have another potent squad, its shifting of Duke Tornell, all-conference tackle, to fullback post is a confession by Spartan coaches that their attack is not as strong as they would have it.

Meanwhile the Hilltoppers with a galaxy of transfers expected to enroll next fall are looking ahead with relish. Sam Henderson, All-Southern California junior college fullback, Green, Santa Ana end, Dave Hengstler, All-Southern California tackle from Santa Monica, and Butch Engle, crack guard on the Gaucho freshman squad of 1938, are among the nuggets expected to put in an appearance when football rolls around.

The basketball situation appears still brighter. Coach Willie Wilton loses only one man, Bill Russell, guard, from his championship squad, and has able replacements in Walter Wood, 6'6" transfer from Oklahoma, and Dean Johnson, one of the best forwards in Southern California circles.

Spud Harder's baseball team may get more competition from its 2C2A rivals next year but should again cop the title with games to spare because of its pitching superiority in the persons of Jim Fitzgerald and Cliff Wrightson, both of whom were selected on the all-conference nine.

Only two men are lost from the squad, Pierino Merlo, regular outfielder, and Forrest Gardenhire, number 3 chucker. Merlo will be replaced by either Walt Lohman, star freshman horsehider, or Joe Blake, reserve varsity outfielder.

The track outlook alone looks dismal. The locals finished a bad last this year, and to be frank, the situation seems just about as bad next year. The spikemen lose valuable men in Captain Bill McArthur, sprinter-hurdler, Al Sprague, javelin thrower, and Jim Miller, high jumper.

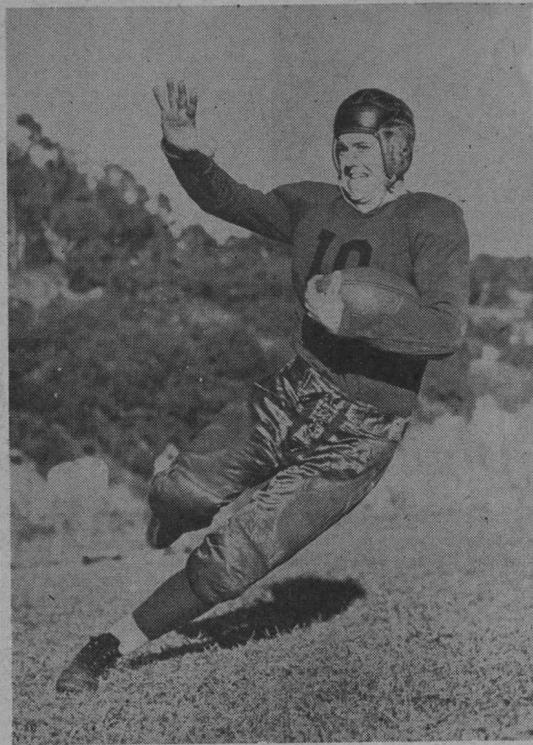

However, a better than average freshman track squad may aid in lifting the locals out of the track doldrums. Heading the incoming list is Jerry Ferro, ace distance runner, who will prove a welcome addition to the varsity squad, and Jim Kilroy, hurdler.

Should the Gauchos capture three championships next year, it will be the first time in the history of the league that the feat will have been accomplished in major sports.

Gymnasts Perform In Y.M.C.A. Circus

Complete with peanuts, clowns, ringmaster and thrills, the local Y.M.C.A., aided by the State College gym team presented its annual circus Wednesday night at the downtown "Y".

Over 250 spectators jammed the gymnasium for the performance, acclaimed the most successful to date. The circus marked the final appearance in Santa Barbara for several members of the Gaucho gym team including ex-captain Don Brown, who with captain Art Steiner highlighted the program with the Coast-famous "Crocodile" act.

Sport Staff Selects Four 'Gauchos of the Year'

Reviewing the 1939-40 athletic year, El Gaucho sports scribes selected four men as especially outstanding during the past year of sports activity. The four chosen were Tom Guerrero, basketball, who was also selected most valuable man on the cage team for the second

HOVIS BESS, sprint sensation, was fourth athlete chosen by sport staff as one of "Gauchos of the year."

Gauchos Trim Cub Fencers

Definitely establishing itself as the most powerful fencing team west of the Rockies, Santa Barbara State college's great quarter of swordsmen completed its 1940 season with a clean slate when it handed the Los Angeles City college fencers a sound trimming last Wednesday afternoon in the local gymnasium.

Led by Sid Getzowitz who won all of his matches with the phenomenal distinction of not even being touched by the rival swordsmen in any of the matches, the Gauchos defeated the southerners 8 to 1 in foil and 6 to 3 in epee and sabre.

Previously the locals had knocked over the strong San Diego State college team in the 2C2A finals held in San Diego. As the Aztecs had knocked over U. S. C. and U. C. L. A.

straight year, Hovis Bess, track, a sophomore. Bess in his first year tied the 100 yard mark at 9.9s and the 220 record to 21.2s besides taking top honors in the furlong in the 2C2A conference finals.

Jim Fitzgerald, baseball, hurled the local nine to eight straight wins before finally losing his final game. Among his victims were the strong University of California and Loyola nines.

Bill McArthur, football and track, was the Hilltopper's chief breakaway threat during the grid season, four times breaking away for gains of 60 yards or over during the season. McArthur was also a valuable asset to the track team, several times performing iron man feats of competing in four or more events.

Of the four "Gauchos of the year" only McArthur is graduating, which forbodes no good for the 2C2A squads during the next athletic season.

Fresno Sends Tracksters East

FRESNO, May 29.—Fresno State College will send three members of its track team which was undefeated in intercollegiate dual competition this season to the National Collegiate Athletic Association meet to be held in Minneapolis, June 21 and 22.

The three traveling tracksters will be Bobby Madrid, distance runner; Leonard Sundahl, javelin tosser, and George Hofman, pole vaulter.

Madrid, who broke the record for the two-mile event in the Far Western Conference meet held recently in Fresno, will be pitted against some pretty classy competition at Minneapolis.

In dual meets, the Gauchos claim to Far Western laurels is unchallenged.

The title holders were led by Captain Jack Gross with Bert Powers, Bob Merrill and Getzowitz completing the squad.

BILL MCARTHUR, TOMMY GUERRERO, and JIM FITZGERALD, selected "Gauchos of the year" by the sport staff of El Gaucho.

Whittier Concludes Spring Training

WHITTIER, May 29. Climaxing over four weeks of spring training, Whittier's 1940 gridiron team turned in their suits last Wednesday evening until they come back this fall to face a terrific nine-game schedule that the Southern California Conference champions will be faing without the services of eleven stellar performers from last year's outfit.

Tom Guerrero, Ripsch Star in Title Drives

By JACK NEWMAN
Sports Editor

Santa Barbara's Galloping Gaucho from the American Riviera can look back over his athletic accomplishments since last September, stick out his chest and shake hands all around with the coaching staff.

It's been a great year—the best in fact in the history of Santa Barbara State College.

Two California Collegiate Athletic Association championships, basketball and baseball, plus having a better than average gridiron machine that walloped eternal foe, San Diego State, 19-0, for the first win in 11 years.

Spud Harder's varsity football squad started the year by winning five games, losing four, and tying San Francisco University's powerful eleven, 0-0. Dynamic fullback Mose Neely was the Gaucho spearhead, while speedy Billy McArthur proved the top climax runner of the season with his sensational breaks for pay dirt. Linemen "Greek" Valos, Larry Pickens, Blynn Wilson, and Ed Larsen were outstanding.

As the football season was drawing to a close, Willie Wilton was grooming his varsity basketball crew for a crack at the 2C2A crown which was ultimately to be theirs—and how! Winning 21 out of 30 contests, the '40 squad will go down in Gaucho annals as one of the scrappiest aggregations to wear the Green. Sparked by elusive, shifty, Tommy Guerrero, and aggressive Larry "Crash" Brewster, the locals nosed out a surprising San Jose quintet for the crown by one game. Pushed all the way by a great San Diego squad that took a disastrous "nosedive" as the season was drawing to a close, the Gauchos played on their nerves in the final few games. Newcomer Lowell Steward, dusky tip-in artist, paced the local scoring attack by gathering 280 tallies.

Acquiring the amazing record of 20 wins and only 4 losses, the Gauchos' varsity baseball team led at the plate by Bob "Shanty" Stansbury, giant catcher who banged out a .378 average, won the 2C2A baseball championship for the second time in as many years. The Hardermen were practically invincible with a pitching staff, second to none in collegiate baseball, and an infield that was the envy of the coast.

Seven men, Jack Fitzgerald, Don Ripsch, Eddie Markham, Jim Fitzgerald, Cliff Wrightson, Bill Adamson, and Stansbury, were named all-conference selections. Pierino Merlo, outfielder, was named all-conference utility man.

Coach Roy Bohler's track team, with the exception of Hovis Bess, star dashman, Captain Bill McArthur, versatile sprinter, and Charley Crow, diminutive pole vaulter, was handicapped for talent, but despite their stymies, managed to make a fine showing in the face of stiff competition.

Caudillo Hurls Nine to Win In Close Tilt

Each Squad Gets Eight Hits; Morgan Stars for Winners

Behind the heady pitching of Paddy Caudillo, the junior class intramural baseball team defeated the 1220 club, 7-4, to win the State college championship.

Although each team gathered eight hits, Caudillo kept the 1220 bingles scattered, while Tommy Guerrero and Bill Morgan's timely hitting for the juniors gave their nine a safe lead.

PATSY SAYS...

Dear Jean,
I just heard that you are going to spend the summer in Catalina. I certainly do envy you because it's just the place to have a wonderful time.

Swimming, tennis, golf, hiking, dancing at the Casino—all of that is going to call for an extensive wardrobe isn't it? Of course you can save a great deal of money if you choose outfits that can serve double duty. I have a nifty suggestion—since the newly adopted theme of the Jack Rose Shop is "Everything Under the Sun", (and what could be more appropriate because they do have all the clothes under the sun you would want), why not come down and I'll help you find what would prove fitting and smart for any Catalina occasion.

For instance this red sport jacket and navy skirt that I'm showing today would be just the thing to wear to the dances. And, inexpensive—only $5.95 for the jacket and $3.95 for the skirt!

Well—the semester is at an end, and inasmuch as I am not graduating, nor the class valedictorian, I'll leave you—bye—have a swell time...

Till next semester —PATSY

El Gaucho Lists College's Leading News Events of Year

By LEW GARRETT
El Gaucho Editorial Manager

Parading before Santa Barbara State college students during the past year have been a series of events that have fallen into the category of "big news," both from the standpoint of their closeness to students and prominence on El Gaucho front pages. As is this paper's custom, following is a summary of the events that "made the headlines" in the past two semesters.

Leading the field on the scholastic front was the announcement by the administration that four new majors, added to the local curriculum, had given every student a wider field from which to choose his studies. On January 15 President Phelps stated that in the field of science two new majors had been added (General Science and Biological Science) and also a pair in social science (General economics and Political Science).

Closely correlated with this widening of education opportunities was the total enrollment for the spring semester, 1940. Over 1535 students purchased Associated Student cards, breaking all previous records.

On the campus political front was the legislative council's actions in taking a scissors and pastepot to the constitution. Most important was their action of November 30, "Council Abolishes Board of Athletic Control." Flaying the old faculty-dominated board, the council, under President Bob Scalapino, set up a body in which students held a majority.

Elections, in one case, the closest ever held on campus, shared the limelight, as usual. In winning the presidency of the A.M.S., Howard Eckles needed a pair of runoffs to defeat Warren Dorn and Mickey Berman. In the initial election, only eight votes separated the three candidates.

Jack Richards, blond-haired junior, won the presidency of the student body in defeating Jack Newman in the finals. A record vote of 977 ballots broke all previous records.

Two dramatic triumphs, "Romeo and Juliet" by the College Theater, and the Roadrunner Revue, sponsored by the Rally Committee were hailed by capacity audiences.

In the Shakespearean tragedy, April 25 and 26, Winifred Nichols as Juliet and Carl Jorgensen as Romeo, held leading roles, and were acclaimed by El Gaucho critic Jimmie Fullerton. Frederic W. Hile as Mercutio sparkled in the part he has performed many times professionally on the stage.

The Roadrunner Revue provided many laughs, with Doug Mattson, directing and playing a leading role in the vaudeville-style production. Benedetta Sebastian's singing, and the clowning of Lew Bedell, Carlos Bee, Pat Kelly, Janie Wood and Bob Rego provided much entertainment.

El Gaucho won a pair of coveted awards in competition with college papers throughout the United States. Rated as "Medalist" by the

WINIFRED NICHOLS

Columbia Press Association, the highest possible rating, and "All-American" by the A.C.P., the paper rated among the top journals in the country.

In the annual homecoming day, alumni were treated to a gala parade and rally, and a football game in which the Gauchos bade the old-timers welcome with a decisive win over the California Ramblers. It was on November 2 that the alumni were given the crutch to the campus.

On the sports side, the Gaucho footballers made the headlines when they defeated San Diego in the "big game" by a crushing 19-0 tally. "Mad Mose" Neely ran and passed the locals to victory. CCAA championships in baseball and basketball added to make the sports year the most successful in Gaucho history.

Women took leap year at its word and dragged men to a dance at Rockwood on January 13 in "Sadie Hawkins Day." Everyone from "Li'l Abner" to Hairless Joe" tagged and were tagged to take part in the man-
