Carpinteria Grammar School Receives $49,050 PWA Grant

Coming as an almost complete* surprise after all hope had been abandoned for securing a PWA grant to aid in the construction of the new grammar school, was the telegrams received last Saturday by E. D. Solari, clerk of the school board, and the Chronicle from Congressman A. J. Elliott which read as follows: "Pleased to advise that public works administration will today grant forty-nine thousand fifty dollars to Carpinteria School."

Although hopes of the board had been somewhat re-newed by the announcement of the administration's new spending program such prompt action was not expected. Apparently projects that had qualified for PWA grants and for which districts had raised money which had not previously been approved because of lack of PWA funds were given first consideration.

Fortunately a technicality had resulted in the rejection of all bids for the $40,000 balance of the bond issue a few weeks ago and it was necessary for the board to re-advertise them with the result that only last week the County had

WILD FLOWERS NEAR COALINGA

Carpinteria May Get New Post Office Under Program

Coming on the heels of the announcement that Carpinteria had been given a PWA grant of $49,050.00 to aid in the construction of the grammar school is the advice that Carpinteria has an excellent chance along with Lompoc and Guadalupe of obtaining a new Post Office Building as the result of the administration's plan to increase business and employment by federal government spending.

The postoffice business of Carpinteria, Guadalupe and Lompoc has already been investigated by postal officials and the erection of new buildings found to be warranted. The chance of these towns for new buildings will depend largely on whether the proposed $25,000,000 building fund is expended on a few large governmental buildings in larger cities or whether it is spread out over a larger territory and used for

COUNTY BEACH PARK TO BE OPENED MAY 1

Preparations are now being made for the opening of the County Beach Park at the foot of Linden Avenue on May 1st. One life guard, Gates Foss who has previously been on duty at the Gaviota Beach, and an assistant guard, Kenneth Coffman of Carpinteria, will be placed on duty.

Although many of the southern beaches are discontinuing the use of rafts since statistics prove that they are one of the major factors in beach accidents, Carpinteria Beach will be provided with a raft, at least for this summer. The old raft which pounded to pieces last fall has been replaced and a portable life guard tower, replacing the stationary one erected by the Lion's Club last summer which was destroyed by ground swells during the winter, will be installed.

BILL & JERRY'S TO SERVE BREAKFASTS

As the result of many requests from patrons Bill & Jerry's will open at 6:00 a. m. serving a complete breakfast menu starting today. Harry Jones, formerly of Fillmore, has been engaged to take care of the additional work occasioned by this added service.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Treloar have returned to their home in Downey after visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Treloar.

THREE INJURED IN CRASH HERE

Three persons received painful injuries in an accident which occurred Tuesday afternoon about 4:00 p. m., near the addition being added to the packing house when a car driven by C. B. Franklin struck a car driven by Earl Harsh, upsetting the Harsh machine.

Harsh, who is employed by Charles Batsch, his daughter, Nancy, and Mrs. Elsie Peterson, all occupants of the Harsh car, received cuts and bruises. Harsh and his daughter were taken to a Santa Barbara hospital where they are recovering and Mrs. Peterson is being cared for at her home. Mr. Franklin was not injured.

SPELLING MATCH TO CELEBRATE SCHOOL'S WEEK

It will behoove Carpinteria residents to get out their dictionaries during the next few days and start studying up for the big spelling match which will be held in the High School Auditorium next Thursday evening at 8:00 p. m. as a part of the celebration of Public Schools week. The more formal type of program has been abandoned this year in favor of the spelling match which will enable the public to participate in the program. All organizations are being asked to enter contestants in the event, which is also open to individuals who may wish to try their skill. Rev. Deane F. Babbitt will act as master of ceremony and a large crowd is expected to turn out to watch the contestants struggle over the little used tongue-twisters that will find their way on to the list of words.

In addition to the spelling match displays of work of the various high school and grammar school classes will be placed in windows of local stores.

MRS. L. N. M'KINNEY SUFFERS PAINFUL ACCIDENT

Mrs. L. N. McKinney suffered two severely bruised hands Sunday afternoon at her home, when she had the misfortune to be caught in a washing machine. Mrs. McKinney was alone at the time of the accident and her hands were caught in the machine in such a manner that she was unable to free herself and was unable to make neighbors hear her cries for help. Fortunately her husband returned from a neighbors shortly after the accident occurred and was able to release her. Following first aid treatment at the office of a local physician she was returned to her home and is recovering from her painful experience.

L. R. CARTER IN L. A. ATTENDING FIRE COLLEGE

L. R. Carter, chief of the Carpinteria fire department, has been in Los Angeles this week where he is attending the Fire College which is being conducted by the Los Angeles Fire Department. The course will extend over a three weeks period and Carter will return to Los Angeles again next week after spending the week-end in Carpinteria.

The course covers all phases of fire fighting and latest methods and Carter expects to obtain valuable information for use in directing the local departments in combating blazes which may occur in this area.

Carter, Chief Tenny of Santa Barbara and Chief Dowley of Ventura were extremely fortunate in being numbered among the few outside of the members of the Los Angeles department whose applications to attend the college were accepted.

NOTICE

All persons who have signed up to contribute to the salary of a street-sweeper to keep the business section of Carpinteria free of trash and debris are asked to make their payments direct to William H. James, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, at the C. of C. office next door to Huber's Cafe.

Mrs. William Best of San Mateo has been a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Franklin.

ATTEND SANTA BARBARA C. OF C. LUNCHEON

Among those who attended the Santa Barbara Chamber of Commerce Luncheon on Tuesday were William H. James, David Sawenberg, Clifford Benedict, Bud Riley and A. M. Clark.

Charles A. Horrworth, director of public relations for the All-Year Club of Southern California, guest speaker at the luncheon, stressed the value of the tourist trade to the entire county and stated that Santa Barbara county can only reap the maximum harvest of tourists dollars when all of the county realize that they are in the tourist business, regardless of occupation.

Dr. and Mrs. Henry T. Babcock arrived Sunday afternoon for a short visit at the home of Rev. and Mrs. Deane F. Babbitt.

* With everything in readiness including track and field and arrangements for broadcasting directly from the field the Twenty-fifth Russell Cup Track meet will get under way tomorrow morning at 9:30 with one of the largest list of entries in its history. Members of the American Legion, sponsors of the event, and of other organizations will assist in handling the crowds, keeping time on events, etc.

The morning will be devoted to elimination trials and the final events will be run off during the afternoon. Starting at 2:30 and continuing to 4:30, the Chamber of Commerce has made arrangements with KTMS to broadcast the events direct from the track, with Phil Sanford, sports announcer for KTMS at the mike. A feature of the broadcast will be the presentation of the Frank Wykoff trophy by Wykoff to the winner of the 100 yard dash, the event in which Wykoff won his honors in the Olympic Games.

Thirty schools have accepted the invitation to participate in the event and have entered a total of 684 athletes in the three divisions

FISH AND GAME DIRECTORS ENTERTAINED HERE

Directors of the Santa Barbara County Fish and Game association were entertained at dinner by the local directors last Friday evening in the Memorial building. ### TWO REEL FILM TO BE SHOWN AT YOUTH FELLOWSHIP MEETING

On Sunday evening at 7:00 p. m., a two reel picture, "Making America Safe for Youth," will be presented in the social rooms of the Community Church by the Youth Fellowship Group. The picture is distributed by the Society for Visual Education and comes highly recommended. John Lyman, president of the High School Student Body will operate the projector and Myron Sturmer, president of the Fellowship group, announces that the invitation to attend this meeting is extended to all high school students as well as adults in the Carpinteria district.

C. S. Miralis returned Sunday from Coso Hot Springs where he had spent the past week.

* It's the talk of the town!

Women throughout the community are planning to attend the friendly class for home-makers, the Motion Picture Cooking School, scheduled to open at the Del Mar Theater on May 4 at 2:15 p. m.

A welcome invitation to the wise is sufficient, and the only invitation needed for this cooking school is that extended to every woman by The Carpinteria Chronicle. There is no charge to see any of the showings of "Star in My Kitchen."

Because this newspaper stands ready to sponsor all progressive developments, particularly when they effect the homes of the community, it is presenting this motion picture romance of home-making entirely free.

"If I could only see exactly how she mixes and handles her pie-crust."

That comment has been heard from beginners and from more experienced cooks.

THAT CERTAIN FEELING

Now, if ever, comes the time when you'll be smitten with the authentic variety of that feeling known as "Spring fever."

With the full flush of Spring spreading over California's hillsides, and the warm tides of summer but a few weeks distant, this mid-season spell may bring in its wake that certain tired feeling.

However, the chances are excellent that the decided drop in vitality, which used to characterize Spring fever, won't be assailing your bones and marrow. If it does, watch your diet! This is the Spring-seasoned advice of Dr. R. Adams Dutcher, head of the agricultural and biological chemistry department at Pennsylvania State College.

"Eat plenty of fresh fruits and vegetables," he urges, "to supply the body with much-needed vitamins and to attack the toxins left by colds."

Dr. Dutcher adds that Spring fever is rapidly dropping into the class of dying ailments. In the old days, he points out, people had little in the way of fresh fruits and vegetables during winter months. Being scarce and expensive, fruits were luxuries to display in the mantle-piece bowl.

But today this fresh produce is available everywhere. Thanks to large-scale marketing, intelligent advertising, and efficient distribution, the cure for Spring fever is at everyone's hand. It is, in fact, no farther away than your nearest modern grocery store.

Today we can confidently say, "Good-bye to that tired feeling!"

PUBLIC SCHOOLS WEEK

When we see today's youth in foreign lands stumbling blindly after the heels of demagogues, heedless as the mice that scampered to their doom after the Pied Piper, the words of H. G. Wells strike with telling force.

That great historian, after surveying the tumult and the shouting, the selfishness and the war-making, of our present world was led to declare civilization was running a close race between catastrophe—and education!

In education alone, in the development of youth's rich stores of skill and talent, in the broadening of their intellectual horizons, in the deepening of their human sympathies, in the growth of their tolerance and a wholesome skepticism, lies the hope of today's world and the promise of civilization's ultimate triumph over catastrophe.

California recognizes that fact. She has set aside the week beginning April 25 as Public Schools Week to bring the importance of that truth home to every parent, to every person, who believes he has a stake in tomorrow's world. California, whose teachers and schools rank among the finest in the nation, set the example for the rest of America when she, first of all her sister states,

The Churches

Carpinteria has a number of Churches, whose pastors and members will be glad to welcome you to their services.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SOCIETY

Christian Science Society, Carpinteria, a branch of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Mass., holds service every Sunday at 11 o'clock a. m., Sunday School at 9:45 o'clock. Mid-week meetings every Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock.

A reading room is maintained in the church building, open Tuesday afternoons (except holidays) from 2:30 to 4:30 o'clock.

"Verily, verily, I say unto you, The hour is coming, and now is, when the dead shall hear the voice of the Son of God: and they that hear shall live." These promises of Jesus, from John, are the Golden Text in the Lesson-Sermon on "Probation after Death" on Sunday in all branches of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Massachusetts.

The Lesson-Sermon includes these verses from the Psalms: "The law of the LORD is perfect, converting the soul: the testimony of the LORD is sure, making wise the simple. The statutes of the LORD are right, rejoicing the heart: the commandment of the LORD is pure, enlightening the eyes. . . . Who can understand his errors? cleanse thou me from secret faults."

Among the passages from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, are the statements: "Willingness to become as a little child and to leave the old for the new, renders thought receptive of the advanced idea. Gladness to leave the false landmarks and joy to see them disappear,—this disposition helps to precipitate the ultimate harmony. The purification of sense and self is a proof of progress."

METHODIST CHURCH

Melvin J. Addington, Pastor
 Morning Service: "After Easter What?", 11:00 a. m.

Evening Service: "He's Coming Again?", 7:30 p. m.

Wednesday Prayer and Bible Study hour, 7:30 p. m.

Though Easter is the peak of Christian Revelation it is by no means the end of Christian experience, for we must press on toward perfection. We must remember, that on the Christian calendar after Easter there came the disciples' Pentecost. For the believer's Pentecost it takes the utmost farthing of self-centeredness, an absolute surrender. Distinctive Christian invitations as given by Our Lord are "come," "carry," and "go."

We can be thankful that He has not only promised to be with us always even unto the end of the world, but he has promised to come and receive us unto Himself. The Church has been strengthened by this hope.

For our Prayer and Bible meditation on Wednesday evening our thoughts will center around the ninth chapter of Hebrews.

THE CARPINTERIA COMMUNITY CHURCH

Rev. Deane F. Babbitt, Pastor.
 It is the purpose of the Church to relate men to God, and to conserve the highest values known to civilization. An active ally in the work, the Church School, beginning at 9:45 a. m., "Education to Evangelize." Classes are provided for students of all ages.

"The Inner Refuge" is the sermon-subject as announced by the pastor. "A man shall be as a hiding place from the wind and a covert from the tempest.—I live, yet not I, but Christ liveth in me." They who put their trust in Him, shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty.

WOMEN IN THE NEWS

By LEONE BAXTER

Laugh if you like, behind your dry martini or cuba libre cocktail, but the youth of California may yet upset the very wet wave of public and private drinking that has rolled over the country during post-prohibition years.

Boys and girls in their 'teens and twenties, according to the Women's Christian Temperance Union, are pronouncing it unsmart to be identified as wine shop habitués. There's been a marked and sudden upswing of youthful interest in the W. C. T. U. program of recent months. And many mothers will learn with interest that the swiftest increase in membership to that organization has been contributed by young people.

Recent advertising research shows that the modern woman has 1,794 major desires, compared with the 92 modest wants which her grandmother attempted to satisfy.

Modern living, of course, makes almost mandatory the current need for countless things that women-folk a couple of generations ago didn't have—and perhaps didn't miss: radios, automobiles, club memberships, electric refrigerators, beauty shop ministrations, movies.

One is moved to wonder how many of those modern desires would remain as seeming necessities should the enticingly worded, beautifully illustrated advertisements of newspapers and magazines suddenly be halted or reduced, perhaps, by half.

Moderns have learned casually to accept a great deal from life. But if there were no carefully phrased and picturized ads for modish dresses and hats, for shiny, powerful new cars, for gracious homes and adequate furniture, for jewels, genuine or not, and for the million and one gadgets that make modern living what it is—the "must have" list of most women (and of their relatives, too) probably would decline in a strikingly similar ratio to that of the diminished advertising.

Proving that in California, at least, women don't mind an occasional mild joke at their expense—if it's a good one—the booksellers report that most in demand around Easter time, when people were decking themselves out in last-minute finery, was the best seller, "Fashion is Spinach," which knocks the props from under the very word, "fashion," debunks the racket of gown designing and lifts the curtain on cut-throat tactics behind the gilt-edged bids to foreign salon showings.

A QUARTER-CENTURY check-up on the 1913 winners of the Better Babies contest sponsored by the Woman's Home Companion, today revealed that the state of California accounts for twenty percent of all the former prize babies whose names have been made public.

The babies were chosen twenty-five years ago from contestants in every state in the union for their perfect health and outstanding brightness. Their present-day pictures, in the current issue of the magazine, show Mrs. Ruth Hawley, Oakland; Mrs. C. Jean Gross, Santa Ana; Mrs. John Hayner, Los Angeles; Mrs. John Seixas, Alhambra; Mr. Gordon Case, Crescent City; Lucille McBride, Davis; and George Morton Fish, Carpinteria; who represent the Golden Gate State in the Silver Jubilee of the contest. Mr. Fish is the father of a child who is also a better baby.

Nation-wide in its scope, the Better Baby movement was designed to promote child health through the mediums of public enlightenment and social legislation for the purpose of eradicating disease, ill health, and the mortality rate incident to child-birth, as well as furnishing instructions on the care and raising of children. This pictorial testimony gives a graphic account of the progress that has been realized over a period of a quarter-century in this phase of American life. It is indicated that California, due to its climatic and social condition, has fared far better than other states.

OVER 200 ATTEND DINNER GIVEN FOR DR. FRANKLIN

More than 200 persons attended the testimonial dinner Wednesday evening at Sabella's Cafe tendered Dr. Walter Scott Franklin of Goleta, Santa Barbara County's own candidate for lieutenant governor.

The dinner was the occasion of Dr. Franklin's first public appearance in his own community since he announced his candidacy for the second ranking office in the state and persons attending the meeting were deeply impressed by his sincerity and his platform of humanitarian measures for raising the standards of living in California.

Percy Heckendorf, district attorney, acting as toastmaster introduced the speakers, which included Pat Maher, mayor of Santa Barbara, C. L. Preisker, chairman of the Board of Supervisors, Robert Craig, Los Angeles attorney and manager of Dr. Franklin's campaign, and Dr. Franklin.

Both Mayer and Preisker praised Dr. Franklin's unselfish devotion of many hours to various civic affairs in Santa Barbara county since he took up his residence in Goleta some years ago and Craig gave highly encouraging reports of the progress of the campaign which was but recently launched.

Attending the dinner from Carpinteria were: Mr. and Mrs. John B. Hudson, Mrs. Ann Wayfleet, Bud Riley and A. M. Clark.

Housekeeping Is Biggest Business

HERE'S a fair representative of the nation's biggest business—homekeeping. It even tops banking and railroading, according to the United States Department of Labor. And yet the homemaker belongs to no union; has formed no organization; she works as an individual, year after year without wages, without her day off and too often without a vacation. Seldom does she have a maid to assist her, and rarely does her husband so much as offer to wash the dishes. She prepares anywhere from 750 to 1095 square meals a year and the only time she gets a break is when she insists that modern-automatic equipment, such as an up-to-date gas range, be installed in her kitchen. But among some 30,000,000 housekeepers, more than 15,000,000 rely upon gas for cooking; 8,000,000 of them still use coal and wood; 6,000,000 use oil; and 1,000,000, electricity.

SALES TAX HELD MAIN SOURCE OF SCHOOL REVENUES

LOS ANGELES, April 18— Importance of the sales tax to California's public educational system cannot be over-emphasized, William G. Bonelli, member of the State Board of Equalization, points out, following a study of state budget figures for the 1937-39 biennium.

"General fund revenue for this period," Bonelli stated, "will total $338,405,189, of which the sales tax will contribute $179,992,280 or 53 per cent. All other sources of revenue for the general fund total $158,412,899 or 47 per cent."

"During this biennium the general fund must provide for educational purposes, $162,904,350, distributed among grammar and high schools, junior colleges, state teachers' colleges, special schools and the two universities.

"It is obvious," Bonelli said, "that without the sales tax revenue the general fund would be five million dollars short of the amount required for public education and would have no money for various departments of the state government which have no income but depend upon the general fund for their support. Without the sales tax some other form of taxation would necessarily have to be enacted to maintain the schools and operate the state government."

"Of the $162,904,350 required for education, grammar schools will receive $82,353,000 and high schools $57,572,260. The balance of $22,979,000 is apportioned to junior colleges, state universities, teachers' colleges and other educational institutions."

Rose Queen Stays

Cheryl Walker, queen of the 1938 Pasadena Tournament of Roses, has received a new contract at Paramount studio, where she has been since film scouts discovered her on a parade float last New Year's day. Her next appearance will be in "Men With Wings," William A. Wellman's Technicolor air cavalcade.

Modern Home Exposition Opened in Los Angeles

Twenty-five percent of the people of Southern California are dependent on the home building industry for their livelihood, and to stimulate the building of homes civic leaders of the Southland are sponsoring a mammoth Home Show to be held in the Pan Pacific Auditorium, Los Angeles, starting April 21st and running for eleven days.

It will be a complete exposition of the products of more than one hundred and fifty concerns making or distributing building materials, home equipment and furnishings with their respective displays so designed as to educate the public on the improved quality and lower prices of modern home building necessities.

A unique feature of the Southern California Home Show will be a complete home built within the auditorium. It is to be a model home designed by an architectural committee to meet the requirements of the average wage earner. It is to be a five room dwelling of the modified California type and is to be fitted with most of the conveniences and comforts found in pretentious homes. Special attention has been given to placement of lighting outlets, heating and ventilation. The home will be furnished in keeping with its size and beautifully landscaped. It is designed to be available on F. H. A. terms for less than $30.00 per month.

Another feature of the show will be the beautiful kitchen used in the motion picture "Merrily We Live." It will be used by the gas companies to demonstrate the art on fine cooking under the direction of well-known home economists.

There will be daily meetings of the Housing Congress during which national authorities on home building and furnishing will be the speakers, and a special program of daily events is being arranged by committeeman G. E. McDonald.

The Show is sponsored by the Building Contractors Association of Southern California with the cooperation of the Realty Board, Chamber of Commerce and the Federal Housing Administration.

From this session grew rehearsals of Smith's material which has been developed into the revue which opens at the Lobero tonight, following a successful engagement in Hollywood and which will undoubtedly meet with praise and approval of Lobero audiences.

Modern Designs In Pianos On Display At Bekin's

Taking cognizance of the fact that modern homes demand styles in pianos that are in keeping with the modern trend, piano manufacturers have made radical departures in piano designs during the past few years. Three of the newest designs, which include bungalows and console models, are now on display in the Piano Department of Bekin's Van & Storage Company at 15 E. Mason Street in Santa Barbara. There also may be found a nice assortment of baby grands and practice uprights at unusually low prices which are made possible only by the fact that the department is operated with a very low overhead and this savings passed on to the public.

In addition to a complete stock of pianos, Bekin's maintains a modern piano service department with a personnel thoroughly experienced in the care and repair of pianos, organs and electric pianos. This department may be contacted by calling Santa Barbara 6101 or by calling at the warehouse at 15 E. Mason Street.

OXY, GAUCHOS VIE IN TRACK EVENTS SATURDAY IN S. B.

Newly-crowned champions of the Southern California conference, Occidental College tracksters take on some non-league opposition on Saturday when they battle Santa Barbara State in the northern city.

The Bengals will go into action against the Gauchos without the services of their great little all-around star, Claude Kilday. The versatile veteran left early this week for Lawrence, Kansas, where he competes this week-end in the decathlon at the annual University of Kansas Relays. Kilday will take on the nation's finest all-around athletes in the meet, and may turn in a surprise despite the fact that he weighs but 155 pounds.

Oxy will still be favored over Santa Barbara despite Kilday's absence. The powerful proteges of Joe Pipal turned in an impressive double victory over Whittier and Redlands last week-end, their great field event strength completely subduing the Poets and Bulldogs.

Santa Barbara displayed fair power in a triangular meet with Compton Jaysee and Caltech last week. Bud Gibson, 440 ace, ran a close second to Tom Lawson of the Tartars in a 49s race, indicating that he should take Bengals Sherman Danby, Harold Wieman, and Jim Harvey on Saturday.

The high hurdles should offer the hottest match of the meet. Oxy's hurdling "twins," Paul Sampson and Ed Brigham, will have their hands full in the form of Gauchos Frisholz and Gray, who ran one-two at Compton.

Oxy will go after victories in every field event, and the javelin appears to be the only one which will give them trouble. Tex Chasson, Bengal tosser, will meet Sprague of Santa Barbara for first honors in the spear throwing competition. The other field events appear to be in the bag for the Tigers. Vern Ogle should take the pole vault and high jump; Walt Middleton is favored in the broad jump; Don Carpenter needs only to display his usual form to win the discus; and Johnny Van Etten should keep the shot put well in hand.

Uncle Sam's "Peace Table" at New York World's Fair 1939

NEW YORK—(Special)—Giant steamshovels are tearing away at the soil and hundreds of men are working on the $3,000,000 Federal Area for the New York World's Fair where Uncle Sam will preside, figuratively, at a 1939 world peace table that is expected to have a lasting beneficial effect upon international relations. Uncle Sam will be represented by a huge Federal Building which will be placed at the head of a Hall of Nations, where foreign countries, 64 of which have agreed to participate, will show their official exhibits at the Fair. All the buildings will be grouped around an enormous parade ground which will be the scene of parades, pageants, drills and other colorful events of a like nature, and where many thousands of Fair visitors will gather on opening day to listen to a speech by President Roosevelt. The architect is Howard L. Cheney.

This structure, which is now being built under the direction of the United States New York World's Fair Commission, will contain exhibits interpreting the background and functions of the legislative, judicial and executive branches of government. Secretary of Agriculture Henry

A. Wallace is Chairman of the Commission and its membership includes Secretary of Commerce Roper, Secretary of Labor Perkins, Senators Wagner and Copeland of New York and White of Maine and Representatives Merritt and Wadsworth of New York and McReynolds of Tennessee.

* * * * * Behind The Scenes In American Business * * * * *

BUSINESS— The unseasonal weather last week in many parts of the country and heavy snowfall in the Middle Western area and Atlantic seaboard had a dampening effect on pre-Easter sales in retail stores. April retail trade generally, however, is expected to show considerable improvement over March. Three important items last week would indicate that business is slowly turning upward. First, shipments of the United States Steel Company last month were the largest since November, totaling 575,000 tons; second, sales of new automobiles turned upward for the upwards for the first time since last July; and third, engineering construction awards for new buildings were the best in March since 1930 and were 32 per cent ahead of 1937.

WASHINGTON— Most important development of the week in the Capitol was the defeat of the reorganization bill by the House of Representatives. With the House in open revolt it seems likely that the highly controversial wages and hours bill will also be tabled for the present. The administration announced a new plan for an enlarged public works program which will require an expenditure of from two to six billion dollars. It is proposed to finance this in part by non-interest bearing loans to local communities which would be callable in 50 years. Despite this feature the national debt will skyrocket well over the 40 billion dollar mark if the plan is approved.

WHEAT CROP— Crop experts predict that the largest winter wheat crop since 1931 is in the making and estimate that the crop will run to 717,000,000 bushels, which would be some 30,000,000 bushels greater than last year's crop. It is believed that the winter wheat crop alone will exceed domestic needs by some 70,000,000 bushels. Unless a sudden demand for wheat develops from abroad it is likely that farmers will receive less for wheat this year than in several years past. Early last week May wheat declined to approximately 80 cents a bushel, lowest it has been in three years, then British flour makers began to buy and the price rose.

LABOR AIDS CHINA— American labor last week declared that it has a vital stake in the war between China and Japan. Labor's Committee for Civilian Relief in China announced that already 4,000,000 American workers had joined the movement which seeks to raise funds to aid more than 30,000,000 Chinese civilians who have been victimized by the Japanese invasion. The committee pointed out that if Japan succeeds in enslaving 420,000,000 Chinese and in gaining control of that country's resources, she will soon flood American and world markets with products made by cheap labor and force American factories to either lower wages or shut down completely. Tokyo carpenters get 75c a day, painters 68c a day, paper makers 40c a day, and women factory workers only 23c a day, according to the United States Monthly Labor Review.

THINGS TO WATCH FOR— A chemically treated package of charcoal and shredded paper, which it is claimed will bring the fire in your furnace to full flame in five minutes. . . . chromium steel "wall paper" for rooms . . . unbreakable eyeglasses made of transparent plastic material. . . antiseptic paint to keep walls sterile, made with ethylal which gives off vapor deadly to germs. . . automatic baseball thrower which will put any kind of a curve on a ball. . . bed mounted on pulleys so that it can be raised to ceiling during daytime. . . a coal dust carburetor which its inventor claims will run an automobile 35 miles on a gallon of dust.

NO SMOKING

Only GAS ranges bring you smokeless broiling

Even the most modest meal can taste like a feast when it centers around a good broiled dish. Broiling brings out the most delicate flavors in foods. And with the new gas ranges, you pay no penalty in smoke. The reason is that a special receiving tray drains off melted fat; and any spattering is completely consumed in the flame. Gas alone among practical cooking methods offers this clean, smokeless broiling. Examine the new ranges today. Ask about the convenient terms.

AUTOS MUST STOP FOR SCHOOL BUSES!

You are obliged by law to stop your car upon meeting as well as on overtaking any school bus stopped to take on or discharge passengers. The Automobile Club of Southern California public safety department, which quotes the Vehicle Code as follows:

"Automobile drivers either meeting or overtaking a school bus halted on any highway outside of a business or residence district to load or unload pupils must come to a full stop and then proceed not faster than ten miles an hour for a reasonable distance."

A number of arrests are being made and motorists penalized for failure to stop. Some drivers are under the impression that the law does not apply on three or four lane highways, others have the terms business or residence districts confused, and still others feel themselves in the clear when no children are actually trying to cross the road. The Vehicle Code makes no exceptions and chances should not be taken. Fines or jail sentences may be imposed, and are likely to be heavy for repeated offenses.

Public school buses are chrome yellow and bear the words "School Bus" front and rear.

Santa Fe Granted Right for San Joaquin Bus Service

The California Railroad Commission on Monday authorized Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe Railway and its subsidiary, Santa Fe Transportation Co., to establish a coordinated and integrated rail and bus service in California.

The 100-page decision, written by President Wallace L. Ware of the Commission, climaxed the most laboriously and thoroughly contested struggle ever waged by opposing transportation agencies in the history of California regulation. The decision was approved unanimously by the five members of the Commission.

Two years were required for the public hearings before Commissioner Dare during which a transcript of 17,205 pages of testimony was compiled; 584 witnesses examined; 855 exhibits received and more than 3,000 printed pages of briefs filed. The case was submitted for decision last January 1.

According to the decision Santa Fe will be permitted to inaugurate streamlined train and bus service between San Francisco and Los Angeles via the San Joaquin valley; between Los Angeles and San Diego; between Los Angeles and the California-Arizona State Line via Needles and between Bakersfield and Barstow.

"California has reached a development that demands the proposed service," the decision declares. "The millions of people that are already available as potential patrons, combined with millions more that future development portends, require and deserve the advantages and conveniences that are inherent in the proposed co-ordinated rail-bus dedication.

"Nowhere in the nation is there a field comparable to that which is involved in the territory that Santa Fe seeks to serve, where the trend of increasing population in recent years has been so great, where there is equal promise for continued growth, where agricultural and industrial development has been so marked, and promises for increased development are so bright, where such favorable highway and climatic conditions exist, and where passenger transportation by common carriers is limited to a single bus operation and railway system, commonly owned.

"We believe in this field the public interest requires the kind of regulated competition proposed by Santa Fe. The service proposed is not alone in the public interest, but is likely as well, to result in a salutary and much needed rejuvenation of all the common carriers involved herein.

"Over three and a quarter million people are potential patrons of this improved and proffered service. The Commission considers this multitude as affording ample traffic to sustain the carriers that are in the field as well as the proposed service. These millions through their representatives have spoken throughout the pages of this record in demand of effective competition. The Commission believes that anything less than substantial suppliance of the effective service which is offered in these Santa Fe applications and hereinafter authorized is tantamount to an existing inadequacy of service."

The fares to be established are at the rate of 1½ cents per mile, considerably lower than present bus or rail charges. Tickets will be honored either on train or buses at the same rate. Santa Fe proposes a service between San Francisco and Los Angeles via streamlined train to Bakersfield and stage from Bakersfield to Los Angeles in nine hours and 35 minutes; three hours and 30 minutes faster than the fastest bus service now available and five hours and ten minutes faster than present rail service through the valley.

Bus lines will closely parallel the Santa Fe's rail service in the state. Passengers will be permitted to take part of their trip via bus or rail, make unlimited stopovers, and resume it on either of the methods of transportation.

perienced cooks at many cooking schools. Craning necks and anxious eyes, trained on the stage from the sides and back of the demonstration hall, have failed to catch all of the important steps in pastry-making and other culinary arts. Only the early birds in the very front row have had a close-up of the stage in the past, and even they couldn't peer directly into the mixing bowl.

Now the wizardry of the camera has solved the problem, making it possible for every person in the Del Mar Theater to share each fascinating stage of the planning, measuring blending, and baking in practical, up-to-the minute kitchens.

Keeping pace with the baking, roasting and frying, a series of salads and frozen delicacies will parade in and out of the adaptable electric refrigerator, which will reveal its host of possibilities for simplifying labor and marketing, and contributing to good health and good food.

What to do with left-overs? How to take the gloom out of laundry day? How to save time, energy and temper in meal preparation? How to be attractive in spite of the daily rush? How to make the piecrust that men love to eat? How to give first-aid to fallen cakes?

It won't be necessary to ask the questions, for expert home specialists have anticipated these very problems. They know what bothers many an experienced housekeeper, because it is their job to know and to counsel helpfully.

Fun, novelty and entertainment are joined throughout the feature picture, for it is always fair weather when neighborly cooks get together. Homemaking has a universal appeal, and every woman is eager to learn the newest news of her craft.

Cooking, romance, modern kitchens, and clever actors and actresses do not tell the complete story of this 1938-model cooking school. The picture is a whole laboratory of modern ideas and wise counsel, touching on latest developments in home equipment and accessories, including laundry methods, ways to prepare left-overs, beauty secrets, hints on saving time and labor, and fresh suggestions on how to entertain graciously, as well as how to be thrifty.

It won't be necessary to carry pad and pencil and try to scribble measurements in the darkened theater, because free recipe sheets, with complete formulas for many of the delicious dishes prepared in this Motion Picture Cooking School will be distributed daily.

Surprises in store for readers of the Carpinteria Chronicle will not be limited to free entertainment and instruction, since there will be daily gifts, many of which will bring pleasure and renewed appreciation of "school days" long after the final graduation on the closing day.

Join the parade of home-makers on May 4, 5 and 6 in the Del Mar Theater at 2:15 p. m.

Carpinteria May Get New Post Office Under Program

construction of post offices and other small Federal Buildings.

The present building which was built in 1931 and leased for ten years has already become too small to accommodate the increased business that has passed through the Post Office during the past few years and if Carpinteria continues to grow as rapidly during the next few years, post office employees will be seriously hampered in their work by lack of sufficient working space.

In the event that a new building is granted Carpinteria, it would probably take considerable time to decide on a site and constructing the building so that the present location would probably be occupied until the present lease has expired or in case the building was completed before that time, the present building could probably be re-leased for other purposes without difficulty.

Carpinteria Grammar School Receives $49,050 PWA Grant

agreed to purchase them when it was found that premiums offered in the second lot of bids had been lowered. Had the bonds been sold to a bond house it would have been impossible to re-call them with the result that interest would have continued on the bonds until the date of maturity.

The school board met yesterday afternoon and decided to let $23,000 of the $40,000 sold to the county remain un-issued. The remaining $17,000 will be used to purchase the new site outright, instead of over a period of four years as previously planned before news of the PWA grant was received. The high school will in turn purchase the old site from the grammar school district over a four year period, this money to be raised from the general school tax which has been running at practically the maximum allowed by the state so that no further increase in taxes for the high school district may be expected. It is believed that sufficient savings can be effected in the high school budget to pay for this land.

T. C. Kistner, architect for the new school, met with the board and the plans which had previously been approved by the state division of school house planning were formally accepted by the board and immediately forwarded to Washington for approval of PWA officials. Since these plans are entirely different for the original set approved by the PWA pending the outcome of the first bond election which failed to carry, it is necessary that they be approved by Washington officials before bids are asked for on construction.

It was decided by the board to purchase water for the new school from the Carpinteria Water Company rather than to attempt to pipe a supply from the high school system.

Also before the board was the matter of the purchase of a new school bus. Following a recent inspection the State motor vehicle department ordered one of the buses replaced but granted permission for its use for the balance of the school year. The board will meet again next Thursday to go further into this matter.

Mr. and Mrs. Phil Dane had as their guests Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Norval Dice of Santa Maria; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Dane and daughter, Doris, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Dorsley of Los Angeles; Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Haggey of Glendale.

Exchange Widens Citrus Distribution

New markets reached to take full advantage of existing demand

THE problems of over-production can be called solved only when crops are adequately sold through the normal channels of trade.

While proration and sales to government agencies are important, they afford temporary relief rather than permanent remedy.

Ultimately, demand must be brought in step with production through educational activities exemplified by Sunkist advertising. Meanwhile, the full force of present demand must be utilized.

Seeking out this demand and reaching it with supplies are phases of distribution which the Exchange is well equipped to handle.

The Exchange has its own sales offices in 57 leading United States and Canadian markets, including Hawaii.

Through them, the smallest hamlets are brought within reach.

Each year, the Exchange's dealer service men make nearly 100,000 personal calls on the retail trade, promoting increased sales through displays, correct margins and seeing that Exchange fruit is everywhere available to the consumer.

For distribution outside our borders, the Exchange has representatives in Europe and the trans-Pacific. Because the Exchange was prepared, it was able to take advantage of unusual conditions to ship 278,000 boxes of Sunkist Navels in European trade this winter.

In the Exchange, growers have the advantage of a widened distribution for their fruit. It is another of the benefits of cooperation which increase as more join hands within the industry.
