300 WILL ATTEND PLAY DAY

SECOND PLAY IS PLANNED BY NEW DIRECTOR

Announcement of preliminary plans for the production of a play this semester was made this week by Eddie Davens, who was elected student manager of dramatics in a student body meeting held last Tuesday.

Following his election, Davens took steps immediately toward plans for a Spring dramatic production. Signatures of all students interested in campus dramatics are being secured through a notice posted on the quad bulletin board, and within a few weeks Davens hopes to have chosen a play.

That the play will be given in Lobero Theatre, as was last semester's, was the tentative opinion of the new drama manager.

Suggestions have already been made concerning the kind of play to be produced, and it is Davens' hope that additional student suggestions will be made. Decision will be made as to whether to attempt three one-act plays or one production of three acts, and as to the nature of the play, whether comedy, classical, tragedy, farce, or melodrama.

When asked if he had considered the suggestion of a dramatic association Davens said, "I shall not attempt to organize a dramatic club until I have determined the student interest."

Several students have offered to assist Davens in the forthcoming production, among them Girvan Higginson, who was manager of properties for last semester's play.

Stadium Fund Lacks $4000 to Completion

Statement of finances in the Phelps' Field project was made this week by Virgil Gillum, chairman of the student committee. Approximately $4000 is needed to complete the stadium, according to the report.

The statement follows:
Amount pledged$2,258
Amount deposited 1,919
Anonymous 1,000
From Playground Fund 122
Amount paid out 1,919
Balance in bank 885
To be collected 1,436
From Max Rosenberg, S. F. 100

A campaign to raise funds among alumni of the college is being launched this week under the direction of Robert Wormser, and it is expected that a large amount of the sum needed will be secured from this source.

Dr. Maxwell Writing Book on Shakespeare's Costumes, Properties

Dr. William Maxwell, instructor in English, is writing a book on costuming and stage conditions of Shakespeare's time, entitled "Shakespeare's Use of Costume and Properties."

Sections of the volume will be published in magazine articles this summer. Dr. Maxwell is doing the majority of his work in the Huntington library of Pasadena, known for its extended as well as complete line of books.

Shakespeare's reference to costumes and properties, the stage directions, and actors' references will constitute the source from which Dr. Maxwell is securing his material.

NEW BUILDING DEDICATED ON FOUNDER'S DAY

Founder's Day, celebrating the twenty-first year of the college, and dedicatory services of the new Ebbetts Hall were held jointly in the home economics building last Saturday at twelve-thirty. There were two meetings, the first being the luncheon at twelve-thirty with the second and main part at three o'clock.

During the luncheon plans for a plaque which have been made were presented by Kathryn Bishop of the art department to Miss Ebbetts. A short talk was given by Miss Maude I. Murchie, chief of the state division of home-making in which she praised the work of the home economics department in the past and foretold better things for the future.

McDougall Presents Building
George McDougall, chief of the state's department of architecture, presented the new building to the school, opening the official dedication services. President Phelps made the acceptance speech followed by a dedicatory prayer by Rev. Charles E. Deuel.

Dr. Lewis Carson, professor in philosophy, made the dedicatory address, paying tribute to the founder of the college, Mrs. Edna Rich Morse, to Miss Anna S. C. Blake, to President Phelps and to Miss Ebbetts.

Many of the alumni of the college and of the home economics department particularly were present for the program and for the High-Tea which concluded the day. The Women's Glee Club sang twice during the program, once during the luncheon and then afterward on the stairs for the ceremony.

College Orchestra To Play for Flower Show

Under the direction of Clifford E. Leedy, the college orchestra will accompany a chorus of forty voices in an operetta to be given for Santa Barbara's flower show. The operetta, under the direction of Prof. M. Beasley, is going to be in keeping with the Santa Barbara Spanish Days, and is to be given the 21st and 22nd of this month.

DANCES WILL BE DROPPED; FEES REMAIN UNPAID

Postponement of the next student body dance, which was slated for March 29, was announced this week by student officials, following a general survey of the organization's finances, which show a large deficit due to the lack of student body members.

One-half of the Spring semester dances are to be eliminated because of the shortage of funds, according to President Llewellyn Goodfield. Unless the non-members on the campus pay their $10 fees this situation will not be remedied.

Preliminary steps in the matter were taken last week when student officials authorized distribution of The Eagle to members only and established a 50-cent admission to all college dances for non-members and alumni.

The next dance will take place on April 26, Betty Procter, social chairman, said yesterday. It will be a Spanish costume affair and will be held at Rockwood clubhouse in Mission Canyon.

Dedication Date for Phelps' Field To Be Postponed Till May

Dedication of Santa Barbara State's new stadium and athletic field to President Clarence L. Phelps, probably the most influential person in its purchase and development, was postponed this week by student and faculty officials due to rain conditions and conflicting campus events.

The dedication ceremonies, which are being arranged by Dr. Jacobs, Coach Davis, Virgil Gillum, and Llewellyn Goodfield, will include several speeches by several prominent townspeople who have taken part in the field's development. The new date will probably be set in May.

KAPPA DELTA PI INITIATES NINE STUDENTS AT BANQUET

Nine students, including eight women and one man, were formally initiated into Alpha Rho chapter of Kappa Delta Pi, international honorary educational fraternity, in an initiation banquet given last Tuesday evening in the dining room of Ebbetts Hall.

The initiates are Jennie Lind, Cecile Morrison, Margaret Elwell, Miriam Smythe, Catharine Horsey, Mildred Smythe, Alice Izant, Mrs. Hattie Maguire, and Alpheus Lincoln.

President Clarence L. Phelps was the principal speaker at the banquet, which followed initiation ceremonies held in the A. W. S. clubroom. Mrs. Fred Pierce,

W. A. A. SPONSORS ANNUAL EVENT TOMORROW; GIRLS FROM 10 SCHOOLS VISIT

Welcome Visitors!

To the girls of neighboring high schools and junior colleges who will come as guests of the college to attend the annual Play Day, a cordial welcome is extended by students, and faculty.

It is the hope of Santa Barbara State that you will make many friends while here and that you will be sufficiently attracted to the beauty and facilities of our campus to give Santa Barbara State a place next year in considering your new alma mater.

Women of the college have given much time and effort in preparation for this event in the hope that their visitors may be impressed with the true spirit of friendliness and geniality for which Santa Barbara State is noted.

More than 300 women and girls from surrounding high schools and junior colleges will attend the annual Play Day to be given tomorrow under the auspices of the Women's Athletic Association of Santa Barbara State.

The schools which will be represented are Carpinteria, Fillmore, Moorpark, Nordhoff, Oxnard, Santa Barbara, Santa Maria, Santa Paula, Santa Ynez, and possibly Lompoc.

"The aim of the Play Day," said Marilyn Jameson, president of the W. A. A., "is not only an authentic one, for we desire also to bring these girls in closer contact with the college girls, and acquaint them somewhat with our campus activities. The responsibility belongs not only to the W. A. A., but to every girl who is interested in the future of this school."

The meet is to be worked out on the plan of the international Olympic Games to be held in Los Angeles in 1932, with each girl belonging to a team representing either England, France, the United States, or Sweden. Points won by members of these groups, either in team games or in individual events will go toward her team total in competition for a loving cup to be awarded at the final assembly. Each girl will have an opportunity to challenge one girl from an opposing team in an individual event, and to be challenged once herself. All

WOMEN ENTERTAIN WITH ANNUAL HI-TEA

Associated Women Students of the college entertained mothers and other guests at their annual High-Tea Saturday afternoon between 4 and 7 o'clock, in the dining hall of Ebbetts Hall. Those in the receiving line were Dean Mildred C. Pyle, Elizabeth Peacock, Virginia Weber, Laura Lou Houghton, Helen Nauman, Marilyn Jameson, Ann Hegeman, Dorothy Curtis, Elizabeth Neblett.

The women's trio of the Glee Club, Inez Cash, Mary Louise Dye and Margaret Barnett, sang several numbers. Miss Cash gave a violin selection.

GOODFIELD SPEAKER

The Rev. Benjamin Goodfield, pastor of the First Baptist church and father of Llewellyn Goodfield, student body president, was the principal speaker at an assembly held last Tuesday morning, the fourth hour. Rev. Goodfield spoke on the importance of recognizing thinking as man's highest form of activity.

NOVEL PROGRAM IS PLANNED BY SENIORS

Class days may come and class days may go, but the one to be sponsored by the Senior class is one that will linger on for many a day. This bold prophecy was made by the entire consent of the Senior class by way of Miss Fay Munger, general chairman. This program, by the way, is to be given Thursday, March 27, during the fourth hour.

Two of the acts will be short skits, one based on the story of Bluebeard, and the other, a pantomime, one Ali Baba and his Forty Thieves. There will be crystal gazers who will be prepared to answer questions that trouble the minds of otherwise carefree students, dancers, and many other forms of entertainment.

Five members of the senior class will have charge of specific acts and they are Madeline Ambrose, Fay Munger, Hattie Mae Harper, Ray Denno and Floyd Kenney. Mrs. Nichols will have charge of decorations.

Benefit Party To Be Given in Rec. Center

A benefit party for John Davis will be given by Tau Omega fraternity in Recreation Center at 8:30 o'clock tomorrow evening. Bridge, 500, and a program of musical entertainment will feature the affair, which more than 100 students are expected to attend. George Cutler and Ben Romer are in charge of the evening.

IT IS NOT TOO LATE

THE expected has happened. Students of Santa Barbara State have allowed themselves to believe that payment of student body fees is an optional duty, and officials of that organization this week authorized several student restrictions.

The Eagle will be given only to students who have paid their student body dues; others must pay five cents a copy. All non-student body members and alumni will be charged 50 cents for admission to all college dances.

Student body fees at Santa Barbara State are the lowest of all colleges its size in the state; why do students fail to regard this really minor obligation? This is a state institution, and for that reason no tuition is required. It seems obvious to conclude that there are a large number of students on the campus who are here merely because other colleges charge higher fees—that Santa Barbara State is a second choice to them; this attitude is entirely opposed to any efforts towards college spirit.

You who belong to the student body know who these passive non-supporters are; if you have paid your fee it is a direct insult to you that these fellow students are enjoying the privileges from your investment.

MOVIE PROGRAMS

A DECREASE in attendance at the moving picture programs being given in the auditorium on Wednesday evenings, leads the Eagle to suggest that these entertainments be given in the afternoons at 3:30 o'clock to facilitate attendance by a larger number of students and faculty members.

The pictures, representing probably the highest type of film available, are shown for the benefit of the students, and it is the administration's intent to adjust the program hours to suit the greatest demand. Travel, science, engineering, history, athletics, and other feature films are shown in nearly all colleges, and State College is keeping in step with modern practices in establishing a projection unit and program of pictures. The tremendous strides that visual education is making in schools and colleges must be recognized by both students and teachers on the campus.

Yep!

by Kenney

My finer feelings have been sadly shocked by the crude comments passed upon me by the low-lifer that was responsible for that reprehensible collection of what passes among the feeble-minded for humor called NOPE. I flatter him by putting that evil word in capitals. Such a phrase should never be allowed to sully the pure pages of our gorgeous paper. Are to we to be downtrodden by the iron heel of this vile interloper. Well, it looks suspiciously like we were.

That was a nice bunch of blah that "A Loyal Alumna" had in the Student Opinion department last week concerning fraternities and sororities on the campus. What we need first of all is a few lads and lassies that are up in the big dough before we can have houses. As this goes to press the run of fraternity men and sorority women are either all poverty stricken or live at home, so where does a house come in in a case like that. Does she think that we are all a flock of morons not to know that we need houses?

Every time I hear Miss Ebbetts' name mentioned the first thought that pops into my head is about a certain Interclass Frolic and the faculty stunt wherein the esteemed Home Economics head played a prominent part. Why not call the new building Charleston Hall in commemoration of that memorable event in the annals of our history?

As if we weren't subjected to enough oppression our worthy librarian has more than doubled fines on overdue books. In a supposedly free country we are exposed to conduct worthy of the most absolute of monarchs. Will we submit to such treatment at the hands of this paid menial of the administration? Yes, we will. And like it, too.

Fire and fall back.

The College Widow

Monday morning in Economics: Mr. Bradley asked Stewart Adler to name some production in which the supply exceeds the demand and Stewart answered with a sigh, "Trouble!"

But Stewart isn't the only one who has trouble, Harold Erwine told me that he couldn't get along with his girl. The other night they were sitting on the sofa, she looked kind of blue, so Harold asked, "Do you feel a little down on the mouth?" "Yes," she replied, "I wish you'd shave it off."

I wandered into the co-op at noon, and the thought struck me that the co-op clerks know how to co-op. They seemed to be doing it Sunday afternoon, anyway.

Tuesday

The rain is raming all around; It rains on roads and streets, On highways and on boulevards, And those in rumble seats.

That was the national anthem this afternoon when it began to pour out of a blue sky. And the unwary students got all wet. But then, as Dr. Markthaler would say, they were all wet all ready.

I helped one of the profs correct test papers and found out some really startling things, all about who's dumb, and who isn't, and why. In the front of her blue book Margaret-Webster had written, "Lord, God of Hosts, be with me yet, lest I forget"; and at the end, "Lord, God of Hosts was with me not, for I forgot, for I forgot."

Rosamond Young and Laura Lou Houghton were seated in the front of the gym, trying to figure out the date of Play Day which is to be held tomorrow. They seemed to be having quite a hard time. Laura was counting on her fingers, "Let's see, today's Tuesday—" Rosamond looked startled and got all confused, "Tuesday? My Gosh! And I went to all my Monday classes!"

She was only a dentist's daughter, but she had a lot of pull.

Wednesday

History class with Dr. Ellison lecturing; suddenly he stopped because some of the students weren't paying attention. "Miss Kramer," he said with a gleam in his eye, "Why did Thomas Jefferson write the Declaration of Independence?" but Marian was way ahead of him, and replied, "Because he couldn't afford a stenographer, I guess."

Coach Davis asked Marvin Cobb which one of the college sports he liked best, and Marvin replied, "That red-headed girl over there."

Helen Cooley contributes this weeks definition: A make-up exam: When a woman looks at herself in the mirror just before going to a dance.

Thursday

Met Al Wade in the quad and stopped to chat. He told me that he's getting to be quite the author, in fact, he has written for the Saturday Evening Post. However, there seems to be something wrong with the circulation department because he hasn't received the magazine yet.

This week we have finally found what has become of the autograph album — it is worn as a slicker.

Gene Morgan took a girl down to watch the track team in action, and was telling her about the different members of the team. "See that fellow taking the

Campus Criticisms

Dear Editor:

And as for student donations for more and better books for our library versus student donations for an athletic field—well, perhaps its O. K. but I doubt that such a movement would meet with a vast amount of success. In the minds of pedagogues no doubt a college is a place primarily for study, but to the student the college represents a place where he can see the "Olympian imitations" so ironically frowned upon by our illustrious editor as well as exercise his individuality to some extent by participating in the aforementioned games. Despite the cries of the educators it is an undeniable fact that good athletic teams attract students. I for one could not see my way clear saddling myself with more debts to purchase musty tomes for the library.

SENIORS MAKE 16 POINTS TO LEAD INTERCLASS MEET

By Allan Ottley

Taking the first three places in the shot put for 12 points, the seniors broke into an early lead last Wednesday in the first day of competition in the annual interclass track meet. With five places being given by Coach Luke Trimble, entrants are numerous and competition keen.

The seniors are leading the parade with 16 points, closely followed by the juniors with 12. The sophs have 11 and the frosh 5 points. The third year men amassed most of their points in the century, taking the first two places and the fourth for 11 points.

Sophomores In Half Mile

Sophomores captured the majority of points in the half mile, crossing the finish line with first, third, and fifth places.

The meet is continuing all week, and is serving as a practice meet for the coming Cal Christian and Fresno affairs.

Results of Wednesday's events, as recorded by Bob Meade, manager of the track team, are as follows:

100 yard dash—Winters (J.), first; Reeder (J.), second; Sexton (F.), third; Ezaki (J.), fourth; Huber (F.), fifth. Time, 10.1 seconds.

880—Tubbs (So.), first; Williams (S.), second; Van Winkle (So.), third; Ezaki (J.), fourth; Imler (So.), fifth. Time 2:10 minutes.

Shot put—G. Foss (S.), first; Denno (S.), second; Sawyers (S) third; Main (So.), fourth; Smith (F.), fifth. Distance, 35 feet 11 1/2 inches.

First heat of 220 — Winters (J.), first; Sexton (F.), second; Traylor (F.), third; Imes (S.), fourth. Time, 23.2 seconds.

Second heat of 220 — Reeder (J.), first; Huber (F.), second; Barnett (So.), third; T. Foss (So) fourth. Time, 24 seconds flat.

ALL COLLEGE DIAMOND TEAM TO BE STRONG

With quality but not quantity prevalent among frosh and varsity baseball ranks, the two teams have been combined this season to form an all-school squad. With plenty of experienced diamond devotees who have either won letters or made names for themselves on local sand lots, a successful season is looked forward to by Coach Seldon Spaulding.

A schedule has been drawn up, and the men will soon swing into organized practice, according to Luke Trimble. Led by Captain Art Trumbull, the veterans include Spud Sawyers, Ace Hickman, Valmond Shannon, Fred Imes, Mac McTavish, Bert Clemore, Tom Dornan, Chubbers Jones, Pinky Greeson, and Fungo Fleckinstein. A prevalence of excellent infielders and outfielders is offset by a lack of capable backstop men and the presence of only two pitchers. With this excellent nucleus with which to build around, a fast nine is expected to be wielded together.

CHAMPIONSHIP BOUTS TO BE HELD AGAIN

The college boxing tournament which was temporarily interrupted by the basketball season is to be resumed, according to word from the coaching offices.

Frank Hobbs of the light-weights, Ace Hickman of the 147 pounders, and Kessler in the heavy division have all been crowned champions. Their medals, already ordered, will be presented soon. In the meantime the remaining contenders have been going into training for the final bouts. "Eggbeater" Ezaki, with his windmill style of pummeling will clash with Jimmie Shaug, cool counter-puncher, for the flyweight title. "One step" Greenough, girding his loins for the battle, will engage "Frenchy" Williams in the middleweight semi-final, the winner to cross gloves with "Tigertooth" Habereck for the premier honors of that division.

What is regarded by many as the feature bout of the card, brings together Deacon Goodfield and Bert Clemore, light-heavyweights. Clemore, fast and hard hitting is favored over the Deacon, slow and harder hitting but both boys are tough as they make them and a knockout would not surprise the ringsiders. All fights are to be held in the college gym.

PANTHER TRACKFEST TO BE HELD LATER

The dual meet with California Christian College, scheduled for tomorrow, has been postponed by the southern institution to the fifth of April, and by the State athletic board, as a field could not be obtained.

Smarting under four defeats handed them by the Panthers this year, the State squad is availing itself of two weeks' grace to round into mid-season form. Coach Luke Trimble is daily putting his brood of Roadrunners through their paces in an earnest effort to repeat the locals' 90-40 triumph of last season. Reinforced by the addition of several frosh stars who will be allowed to represent the Hilltoppers, the team bids fair to recoup their athletic fortunes against the Preachers.

Captain Stan Winters, "Little Man" Ezaki, Charles Huber, Gene Sexton, and Jimmy Tinkle give the Green and White great potential strength in the 100, 220, and 440. Unless the southerners have improved greatly since last year a majority of the sprint points will go to State. The distance runs find Tubbs with fair material which will probably be able to hold its own with the C. C. C. aces. Tubbs and Bredsteen in the half, Eckhart, Van Winkle, and Imler in the mile, and Imler and Van Winkle in the two mile are all sure point winners. Ottley and Pierce are also given outside chances of placing in the 880. Hurdle prospects have assumed a rosy hue with the addition of Hal Smith, former high school timber topper to the list. Smith, with worlds of speed, should give "Beerhound" Neidermuller plenty

BIRDS-I-VIEW

By Larry Parma

The Eagle office was in an uproar, reporters cheered, chairs were thrown in the excitement, that excitement is always super. Squit Kenny glowered jealously in a corner, while the College Widow sobbed sadly unnoticed behind the door. "Fain mail for Parma," ran the cry, and the editors wept with joy as the first fan mail ever recorded was borne into the paper's headquarters by a smiling cherub.

But the modest joy of the sports editor was short-lived. The fan mail proved to be only a condemnation of him, a criticism of his judgment, and a blot upon his scutcheon.

Nevertheless, being true to his principles the sports editor prints herein the letter, a communication from one Elwood Grady, a of competition in the high sticks, and trim him consistently before the season is over. In the 220 barriers, the freshman will undoubtedly be forced to swallow Jimmy Tinkle's dust indefinitely, as the little senior seems to have all of Smith's speed and trains much harder.

State's field strength is not as impressive as that on the track. Ray Denno in the javelin; Schuyler, Fred Greenough, and Gates Foss in the pole vault, and Foss in the shot put, seems likely to fight it out for first places. In the broad jump, high jump, and discus, strength is not as prevalent, but Winters and Kenny, Foss and Denno are conceded to be as strong as the Red outfit.

The relay seems all State unless five or six men break their legs or develop spring fever.

notorious freshman, who once made twelve points in a basketball game.

Bird Shy View, (pun)

Hon. L. M. Parma, conductor:

"Not since the famous Gibby Martini made his famous flying tackle have the local followers of the knights of the hardwood been thrown into such a tumultuous state as that caused by the Parma All-Star selections.

"Since you have dared to release this blast, you must expect a backfire. Well, Larry, this is it. The five I am about to name could startle any team on this soaked campus. I suspect that they could even trim the dear old Cardinal (Come join the band, and give a cheer for Stanford Red), not that that would prove anything.

"Well, here they are, God bless 'em:

- F.—"Skipshot" Ottley, Eagles
- F.—"Slopshot" Delaney, Beers.
- C.—"Spider" Polley, Eagles.
- G.—"Sonny" Martin, Beers.
- G.—"Flatfoot" Hillman, Eagles.

The potentialities of this outfit are apparent (his spelling) at a glance, or even without a glance. Martini, former of Carpenteria has turned in some of the most spectacular tackles since Floyd Kenny was a freshman. Delaney's scoring punch is well known to all who have played against him. Spider's celebrated pivot, the downfall of many a varsity star, is the occasion for many rich superlatives from observers and opponents. The other boys, while not so flashy, are in there pitching all the time. You will note, Loopshot, that modesty has prevented me placing myself in this aggregation. It was this lack on your part that brought down much jeering on your head recently. I profit by your mistake. "That's all, Larry. Yours till Stanford wins a basketball game. Highpoint (Grady).

Well, all I got to say is that this Grady kid is right there with the goods. A guy that can write like that should be on the Eagle staff as sports editor instead of folding papers for our contemporary, the Morning Press.

I disagree on one point, though. Modesty didn't prevent him from placing himself on that team. It was "Spider" Polley. That boy can play rings around Grady any old May Day. Just because some guys get lucky and slop 12 points into the bucket, they think they are good. Polley doesn't score much but he's an important cog in the smooth working Eagle machine.

Besides, Highpoint, a throng of admirers besieged me at my desk and forced me to put down my name in justice to myself. Shucks, you'd do the same if they threatened to tar and feather you.

But this maligning of Stanford has to stop. They beat both U. C. L. A. and Southern California in basketball this year, smarty.

Now folks, give me another letter and the Widow will pass out of sheer jealousy or again defame me in her column.

Rah, Rah, Rah, High Point Grady.

PROGRAM MADE UP OF VARIED FEATURES

The first assembly of the girls who attend the W. A. A. Play Day will be at 9:30 Saturday morning in the auditorium. This will be a very short meeting in which the girls will receive instructions and announcements for the day. They will be welcomed by Dean Mildred C. Pyle.

At noon the guests will be assembled in the new dining hall for luncheon. Most of the entertainment then is to be furnished by the girls themselves, as each school group has been requested to come prepared to sing their school song. Mrs. Jane Miller Abraham will talk a few minutes about our college and the advantage of attending school here. The Revelettes, Betty Procter, Anita Cochran, and Dorothea Peterson will sing.

The afternoon program will be held in the auditorium after the games are over. It will consist of a stunt, "Resolved to be a Bachelor," by girls in the Physical Education department and W. A. A.; a tap dance by Ella Cornwall and Carmie Janssens; songs by Meryl Adams, and acrobatic dancing by Anne Furtado and Ella Scarborough. A motion picture will be shown following this program.

WINNERS SCORE POINTS FOR COUNTRY

The task of keeping score of the various athletic contests to be held during the W. A. A. Olympic meet, March 22, has been greatly simplified by the point committee. Instead of keeping a record of the actual scores made in the team games, the winning team will gain ten points for the country it represents. The winner of each challenge will gain one point for her country.

These points will be recorded by the point committee during the day as they are made. When the contests are over, the total number of points won by each of the four countries will be found. The country winning the most points will be awarded with a silver loving cup.

PLANS ARE PUBLISHED

Plans for a mirror stand, designed by Fred D. Briggs have been published in the March issue of the Industrial Education magazine, according to E. E. Ericson, head of the Industrial Education department who wrote an article to accompany the plans.

W. A. A. HISTORY DATES FROM 1923

The first women's athletic association to exist on the State College campus was the English "S" Society, organized in 1923 and composed of those women who had won a letter on the basis of a point system in force at that time.

Two years later, in the fall of 1925 work was started on the revision of the point system and on a constitution for another athletic association. This constitution was accepted by the members of the English "S" Society, who, with other eligibles, became the charter members of the W. A. A.

In 1928 the association passed another milestone by holding its first Play Day and initiating the women's new athletic field. The event tomorrow will be the third meet that the Association has sponsored, and is an advancement over the other two in that junior college girls have been invited, as well as high school seniors.

Membership in the W. A. A. is awarded to those girls who have earned fifty points according to the point system listed in the constitution. Points may be gained in the following manner: First teams, 100 points; second teams, 50 points; squad, 25; team captains, maximum 15, minimum 5; manager of sport, maximum 25, minimum 10; Women's Athletic Manager, maximum 100, minimum 50. Points are also awarded to student coaches, champions of sports, and officers of the W. A. A.

Training rules set for those women who participate in athletics, are as follows:

1. Eight and one-half hours sleep every night.
2. In bed at 10:30 every night except Friday and Saturday. In bed then by 12:30.
3. No tea, coffee, or cocoa-colas.
4. No candy or sweets except after meals.
5. Three regular meals a day.

STICKERS ISSUED

Stickers for the Interclass Frolic, to be held on April 4 in the college auditorium, were issued this week by Schauer's printing studio. The work was done gratuitously by Schauer's.

CO-ED SPORTS

By Helen Nauman

VOLLEY BALL

Tuesday began the interclass sport games in volleyball with the women and two of the snappiest games ever played on the S. B. S. C. floor took place at that time. The upperclassmen were defeated in the first game with a score of 20-19 with the Sophs holding the twenty. The second game went to the Upperclassmen with a lead of 27-12 against the Frosh. Both games evidenced much spirit and good volleyball and the rest of the games are being anticipated. You should turn out and support your class team.

BASEBALL

The next season for W. A. A. will be baseball and all those interested in the sport will observe notices to the effect of season opening.

By the way, the Play Day will have many sports on its schedule and we want the college girls to take part, give the visiting girls a chance to get acquainted with you. They will know you are more interested if you do. So for a bigger and better Play Day do your bit; officiate if asked to or play if you will.

FOUR TEAMS WILL COVER REGISTRATION

The registration committee for the Women's Athletic Association Play Day, headed by Arleen Klett and Winifred Jones, has worked out a new system of registering all women who attend the meet. The whole play day will represent the League of Nations. The four major nations competing are the United States, Great Britain, France, and Sweden. Each woman who attends will be registered on one of these teams. Each team is to be headed by a Santa Barbara State College woman. Badges in the form of shields with stripes of the country's colors are to be worn by each participant.

All officials and visitors who are not taking part in the events are to be registered separately. They will wear official badges which are also badges of the hostesses, the W. A. A. All women on the campus are cordially invited to attend and are reminded that the play day is not for W. A. A. women alone. Please help us to make this a bigger and better play day than ever before.

Jess Rathbun Given Appendix Operation

Jess Rathbun, sophomore in the Industrial Education department of State College, left Monday for Cottage Hospital to be operated on for appendicitis. Dr. Rexwald Brown, of the Santa Barbara Clinic, performed the operation on Tuesday morning, and Jess is doing well. It was thought to wait until spring vacation period at Easter time before submitting to the operation; but the recurrence of an illness experienced earlier this semester caused Rathbun to undergo the operation immediately.

DAVIS LEAVES HOSPITAL

John Davis, who was given an operation for appendicitis in Cottage Hospital several weeks ago, was returned to his home on 1718 Prospect avenue yesterday.

W. A. A. SPONSORS AFFAIR HONORING VISITING GIRLS

The international motif will be carried out in the luncheon that is to be served in the new college dining hall at the conclusion of the morning's events. Various flags and insignia will serve as decoration, and a short entertainment and an interesting speaker is promised. At this time the girls from each school will be asked to contribute to the program by singing their school song.

In the afternoon, through the courtesy of Mr. Rust and his department, a motion picture pertaining to athletics will be shown in the auditorium. Another feature of the afternoon's entertainment will be a game between the officials and the faculty members of the school represented. The day will conclude with a final assembly at which the winning team will be announced.

The W. A. A. urges all girls of the college to attend the Play Day tomorrow, and to take advantage of the opportunity of meeting old friends and "showing off" the school.—M. B.
