State Superintendent O.K.'s Choice Made by Pres. Phelps

In keeping with the plans outlined at Santa Barbara State college at the beginning of the year for a "New Deal in Athletics," President Clarence L. Phelps Tuesday morning announced the signing of T. L. ("Spud") Harder as football mentor for the coming year.

Coach Harder was selected from a long list of applications which President Phelps has been carefully studying following the failure of athletic department heads to resign Coach Ted Beckett. Beckett did not have the credentials to teach and consequently could not be retained other than as an emergency coach.

Final action on the signing of Harder was completed when President Phelps received a wire from Vierling Kersey, state superintendent of public instruction, in which he said, "Harder is entirely satisfactory. The rest lies in your hand."

Harder Approached Before President Phelps in commenting on his signing of Harder as coach for the Hilltoppers said, "I am confident that we have made a good choice. We tried to get Harder last year before signing Ted Shipkey, but were unable to meet financial requirements at that time. I have worked hard trying to solve the football situation in the college, and I am sure that it is solved now. Harder will be given full jurisdiction over the team."

Coach Harder started his career in athletics at Bakersfield High school, graduating in 1925. In 1923 his team won the state championship, and was runner up the following season.

Following his brilliant high school career, Harder attended Stanford university, where he became famous as an end. The combination of Robiski, Freeman and Harder on one side of the Cardinal line, made Stanford grid history. They were all Bakersfield boys.

Since completing his university course, Harder attended Fresno State college, where he took a graduate course. The following year he was called to Bakersfield Junior college, where he took a small school, and proceeded to win the Central California Junior college football league four years in a row. Last year Bakersfield played Taft twice for the championship, and both games ended in a 0-0 tie.

Among the athletes that Harder has developed at Bakersfield are Ralph Stockel, one of the best backs in the Southern California conference now attending State college, and Jim Tyak, who was recently told to report to the Seattle Indians as soon as a knee injury got well.

The former Stanford athlete is capable of handling track and baseball, as well as gridiron sport. Although he did not gain as much publicity from baseball, he was equally adept at this sport while at the Palo Alto university.

Commenting on his appointment here, Harder today said: "I am looking forward with a great deal of interest toward my new position at Santa Barbara State. From my contact with the students and the school I am sure our association will be a successful one. In regard to football it is too early to make any predictions con-

Sterling Show Is Promised in College Revue

In a revue which will vie with famous shows of Broadway, Santa Barbara State college headliners are preparing for the opening performance of the Roadrunner Revue which is booked for its opening night on April 25 and will be repeated on the 26th, according to Harry Moore, director.

The performance is slated to last an hour and a half and will be packed full of entertainment, according to word received from members of the newly appointed committee, which has been named to assist in casting and directing the production. The newly named committee consists of Mercedes Berger, Bud Lambourne, Margaret Beddome, and Bobby Goux.

Cheever Designs Set Walter Cheever, instructor in the art department, has created and will supervise the construction of stage sets for the Revue.

Among some of the outstanding acts on the bill will be single acts by Margaret Beddome, Mercedes Berger and Frank Gilmore. Art Dakan, who has helped in putting on revues in Hollywood, will have charge of the dance numbers and will also rehearse the chorus for the show. As a headliner on the bill will be the 12-piece band under the direction of Harry Moore. This orchestra will render special arrangements of the popular pieces of the day, according to Director Moore.

Another outstanding number on the program will be a Fashion Revue which is being put on by Charlotte Webb. This is reputed to be an unusual number for collegiate performances. Paul Woods and Mary Melano have been signed to do a Collegiate number, and according to (Turn to Page 2, Col. 5)

E.E.P. STRESSES ARTS AND CRAFTS

That the largest demand of the emergency education project lies in the field of arts and crafts was again brought out this week in a letter received by Mrs. Mary E. T. Cromer, written by Meryl Cromer, applicant for teachers' degree at State last semester and now teaching, under the E.E.P. in the San Fernando Arts and Crafts school.

Miss Cromer said that L. B. Travers, state head of the adult department of E.E.P. is finding that the arts and crafts are the courses in greatest demand.

At one of the sessions Superintendent Vierling Kersey stated that there are 1300 teachers employed in these fields, 500 of them in Los Angeles county.

According to Meryl Cromer, Superintendent Kersey assured them of the future of arts and crafts and told of the pressing need for help for adults in homemaking and beautifying.

Jessie Le Baron to Attend Texas Meet

At the meeting of Kappa Omicron Phi, national honorary professional fraternity, on Monday evening, it was decided to have Jessie Le Baron represent the local chapter at the annual convolve to be held April 12 to 15 in Canyon, Texas.

Miss Le Baron will leave Tuesday, April 10 and will return directly after the convention. Those present at the meeting were Evelyn Steinmeyer, Bernice Baker, Lois Cole, Delsie Berger, Louise Lewis, Louise Headley, Jean McNally, Ruth Brubaker, Ramona Abel, Helene Baer, Jessie Le Baron, Stella Smead, and Miss Florence L. Clark.

Heads Convention

Marion Ek, State college student, has been chosen to head the Athletic Federation of College Women conference.

S. B. Debaters Defeat Seven Teams at Meet

Debaters from Santa Barbara State college defeated seven out of 12 opponents in the annual Phi Kappa Delta forensic tournament held at the California Institute of Technology March 22, 23 and 24.

The question for this year's tournament was "Resolved that the powers of the president of the United States should be substantially increased as a settled policy."

The women's team composed of Betty Thomas and Rea McPeak met teams from San Jose, U.C.L.A., Weber college of Arizona and three teams from U.S.C.

Many Representatives In the men's division Bill Ogle and Fritz Muegenburg met representatives from Cal Tech, Arizona State, U.C.L.A. and Washington State.

Dr. Ralph Scanlon assisted in the collection and organization of material while Mrs. Marie Davis coached delivery and took the teams to Pasadena.

Since the organization of debating as a campus activity three years ago, teams from Santa Barbara State have participated in exchange debates throughout southern California, and two of the tournaments sponsored by the national forensic fraternity.

At last year's tournament held at the College of the Pacific, the teams from this college withstood six rounds of competition with teams from over 50 colleges of 12 western states before being eliminated.

Annual Brawl Slated for Tucker's Grove

Under the auspices of the Men's club the annual Hobo Brawl scheduled for April 20 is to be held at Tucker's Grove.

No shave week is to be held beginning April 16 and will end the night of the Brawl. Prizes will be given to the man wearing the most luxurious beard and to the man making the best attempt, according to Melville "Humpty" Homfeld, chairman of the event.

Pischel to Talk in Art Dept. Today

All students are invited to attend a short talk by B. A. Pischel today at one-thirty in the art department room.

Mr. Pischel, who represents the Duralith Corporation, has volunteered to present a series of graphic talks on "The History of Texture and Its Relation to Modern Interior Decorating." Mr. Pischel's experience covers institutional as well as residential wall treatment.

State College Sponsors Meet of Crime Board

Under the joint auspices of Santa Barbara State college, the University club, the American Association of University Women and the Santa Barbara Woman's club, the Pacific Southwest Academy will convene in Santa Barbara Saturday, April 7, for an all day discussion of the general subject "Crime and Delinquency."

There will be five sessions beginning at 9:45 in the morning and concluding with the evening meeting at 8 p.m. to be held at Rockwood. With the exception of the dinner meeting at El Paseo, all sessions during the day will be at the University club.

Phelps Is Chairman President Clarence L. Phelps is chairman of the morning meeting during which time Judge Atwell Westwick will speak on "Legal Notions of Responsibility," and J.A.C. Grant, professor of political science at U.C.L.A. will be heard on the subject of "Crime and the Bill of Rights." President Phelps urges that a large delegation from the college be at the morning session.

At the afternoon meeting the psychological and physiological aspects of crime and delinquency will be discussed. Dr. E. Kost Shelton, nationally known endocrinologist and diagnostician, will speak on "The Physical Make-up as Related to Criminality," Robert Ball, county psychologist will discuss "Clinical Psychology as an Effective Aid in the Diagnosis and Treatment of the Individual Delinquent;" Dr. John Van Paing, eminent psychiatrist will speak on "The Criminal From a Psychiatric Viewpoint;" and Mrs. Margaret Pratt, girls' referee from the Los Angeles juvenile court will present the topic "Punishment or Rehabilitation." Following the talks a discussion of the topics will be led by Dr. Elizabeth Bishop, professor of psychology at Santa Barbara State college.

Admission to the evening meeting at Rockwood is free, but is by ticket. Those desiring tickets may obtain them from Marcus Cravens in the student body office.

The features of the meeting at Rockwood will be addressed by Kenneth MacKintosh, former justice of the supreme court of the state of Washington and member of the Wickersham commission, and Judge Leon Yankwich of the supreme court of Los Angeles. Mr. MacKintosh will speak on "A Review of the Study of Crime and Its Causes," by the National Commission on Law Observance and Enforcement."

W. A. A. President Welcomes Visitors

While parts of the United States are still enveloped in the cloak of winter, Santa Barbara basks in the warmth and beauty of early spring. And Santa Barbara's welcome to visiting delegates of the W.A.A. is equally warm.

State college takes a pride in its conventions. Their success depends so largely on the development of good feeling and friendship between the hostess group and the visitors that our first thought is always to make delegates feel immediately at home. To assure this friendly feeling, we have planned social events to occupy the moments after business, and our fondest wish is, through them, to create that feeling of intimacy which is always the lasting impression gained from conventions.

We extend our heartiest welcome to you, and hope that in both business and pleasure you will be happily rewarded for your long trips to visit us. CATHRYN KITLEY, Pres. Western Sectional Conference Athletic Federation of College Women.

W.A.A. President

Cathryn Kitley, president of local Women's Athletic Association, will welcome visiting delegates at meeting today.

Grads Promote Big Auto Show in Valley Town

Announcement was received this week by E. E. Ericson, head of the industrial education department, of the annual automobile and farm implement show sponsored by the industrial education department of Tulare Union high school which was held March 16 and 17. This display is presented each year for the purpose of giving the students of that department an opportunity to thoroughly study the modern mechanical machinery and to explain these features to the townspeople interested in the work of the students.

Student Organizes Show

F. C. Suiter, a summer school student at State college, conceived the idea of the automobile and farm implement show six years ago, and at that time initiated an event on the Tulare Union high school campus. This has grown to be one of the greatest annual events of the Tulare vicinity. This year Mr. Suiter was assisted by Clayton Sheesley, graduate of State in 1929, and J. Rennell Smith, another summer session student here in past years. All three of these men are employed as instructors in the industrial arts department of Tulare Union high school.

Fraternity Ponders Conclave Attendance

Phi Delta Pi, national honorary physical education fraternity, held a meeting at the home of Miss Gladys Van Fossen on Monday evening.

The possibilities of the members of this chapter, Omicron, attending the national convention to be held in Provo, Utah, were discussed. Members present at the meeting were Virginia Slichton, Ida Pagliotti, Mervilyn Shaw, Evelyn Maitland, Joyce Newton, Miss Winifred Hodgins and Miss Gladys Van Fossen.

Pledges attending were Marion Ek and Catherine Kitley.

Hylton Is Re-named Scouting President

Alpha Phi Omega, national honorary scouting fraternity, held a meeting on March 23 in the college dining hall to elect officers and to initiate new pledges.

New officers are Paul Hylton, re-elected grand master; Douglas Kirkpatrick, deputy grand master; Bernard Casner, scribe; Richard W. Jackson, treasurer, and Bill Pinsinger, sergeant-at-arms.

Women's Athletic Association Arranges Three-Day Program; Samarkand Hotel Headquarters for Convention

Approximately 90 young women from 37 colleges in the western states are registering at 9 o'clock this morning at Hotel Samarkand for the western sectional conference of the Athletic Federation of College Women which is convening here today, tomorrow, and Saturday. The Women's Athletic association of the State college is acting as hostess to the group.

The highlight of today's program will be an address at 2:30 p.m. by Miss Esther Ansel, former member of the National Scout council, who will speak on the psychology of leadership, at a meeting which will be open to the public.

Eastern School I.E. Work Told in Hylton Talk

Paul Hylton, member of the Alpha Ro chapter of Kappa Delta Pi, last Tuesday spoke to members of the industrial education department concerning his recent trip to Cleveland.

In speaking of the industrial education classes in the city of New Orleans, Hylton stated that in a school of twelve-hundred boys only one class pertaining to industrial education was maintained. This class was concerned only in art metal work.

As compared with New Orleans the city of Detroit has industrial education courses as low as the sixth grades. Work turned out by the students in the sixth grade, under highly specialized instructors, has been found to be far superior to work done in the ninth and tenth grades of other schools.

An interesting sidelight of his talk was his statement that the city of New Orleans is so far below sea level that water can be reached by (Turn to Page 2, Col. 6)

WATER FESTIVAL PLANS ARE MADE

Semana Nautica, water pageant and festival, instituted last year by the citizens of Santa Barbara is to be held June 24 to 30 this year.

At a meeting arranged by the Santa Barbara associates, a representative group of citizens, discussed plans for a tentative committee which will work out definite details as to financing and organization.

To Bring Visitors

Among prominent citizens and merchants who attended was Marcus Cravens, president of the Santa Barbara State college students. It is a good idea and ought to bring visitors to Santa Barbara, according to President Cravens.

The marine celebration will resemble the annual Spanish Days festival. Only dancing and entertainment will be held on the decks of boats, Stearns wharf and the breakwater. It is during this week in June that a full moon will illuminate the celebration. Daylight hours will be featured by boat racing and swimming events.

Also as a special feature Charles Pressley's new pageant, "Junipero Serra" will be presented in the Peabody Stadium under the auspices of the Native Sons and Daughters.

Cosmetician Speaks to Collegians Here

A. B. Shore, representative of Max Factor, lectured in the auditorium on Wednesday on the proper use of cosmetics both for the individual and for the stage.

Among other things Mr. Shore stressed the fact that narrowed eye brows are most incorrect and that they should follow a line parallel with the natural hair line.

About two hundred students attended the lecture.

Noted Speakers Present

Several noted speakers will come to Santa Barbara to address the group including N. P. Nielson, chief of the division of health and physical education in California; Miss Esther Ansel, national scout councillor, and Miss Marguerite Schwarz, national secretary of the Athletic Federation of College Women.

Prominent local persons who are to give talks include Dr. Elizabeth L. Bishop, director of research at the State college and member of the California committee of the White House conference, and Hal Orion, director of playgrounds for Santa Barbara.

Meetings on Friday and Saturday will include student discussions of "Health, a Responsibility of Women's Athletic Associations," led by Washington State college; "Intramurals," presented by the University of California; "Women's Athletic Association Opportunities in Promoting a Mixed Recreation Program," by San Jose State college, and "Stimulation of Interest in the Women's Athletic Association," by the University of Idaho, Southern branch.

President-Committees

Cathryn Kitley, president of the Women's Athletic association of the State college, has been selected as president of the conference. Mrs. Kitley and Dean Lois M. Bennick will welcome delegates at 1:30 o'clock today.

The heads of committees as has been chosen by the conference president, Mrs. Kitley, are as follows: Marion Ek, head of convention; Lorraine Koehly, arrangements; Margaret Beddome, entertainment; Margaret White, secretary; Lucile Bolton, housing; Evelyn Maitland, information; Edith Hawks, registration; Florence Longawa, hostess and guide; Fern Johnson, formal banquet; Shirley Warner, publicity; Cathryn Kitley, program; and Ida Pagliotti, finance.

Schools Represented

The colleges and universities that are sending women delegates to the convention are as follows: California, University of Southern California, University of California, Berkeley; University of California at Los Angeles, Dominican college, Fresno State Teachers college, Mills college, Occidental college, Pacific college, Pomona college, University of Redlands, San Diego State Teachers college, San Francisco State Teachers college, Santa Barbara State Teachers college, Stanford university, Whittier college, and Humboldt State Teachers college. San Mateo Junior college will be the lone California junior college to send delegates.

Washington institutions sending delegates are: Bellington State Normal, Bellington; Washington State college, Pullman; and Washington university, Seattle.

Oregon colleges represented are as follows: Oregon Agricultural college, Corvallis; Oregon university, Eugene; Pacific university, Forest Grove, and Reed college, at Portland.

Colleges from Arizona sending delegates are: Arizona university, Tucson, and Phoenix Junior college, Phoenix.

Three colleges from Idaho are represented. They are Idaho college, Caldwell; Idaho university, (Turn to Page 2, Col. 6)

Pacific Southwest Academy Meet

With the meeting of the Pacific Southwest Academy in Santa Barbara on Saturday, thinking students and townspeople will have an opportunity to hear the timely subject of crime and delinquency discussed by a group of people eminently fitted to present all angles of the problem.

The Pacific Southwest Academy is a body which devotes itself to the study and discussion of political, social and economic problems of the Pacific Southwest and seeks to secure and present reliable information to assist in the more intelligent and accurate formation of public opinion.

We are particularly fortunate in having this group of professional people gather with us for the discussion of these topics, and it should be the business of every thinking college student to take an active part in the conference. Perhaps there is no other problem in the United States today, that is more pertinent and deserving of the attention of this country's best minds.

The crime problem has ceased to be one of minor importance and one that can be handled by a handful of poorly trained and uneducated public servants. The crime situation is not carried on by individual highwaymen or bank robbers as was once the case, but has organized into large groups and is controlled by unscrupulous persons, who have no boundaries in carrying out their objectives.

The quicker the general public realizes the size and importance of the crime and delinquent conditions of this country, the quicker they will equip themselves to cope with the tactics used by the criminal. It is your job and my job to learn to learn to do our part in curbing the injustices of the criminal.

As has been stated by President Clarence L. Phelps, an invitation to these meetings is an invitation to think. As thinking people who will be forced to meet the problem of crime and delinquency within the next few years, and we owe it to ourselves to take advantage of this excellent opportunity to become truthfully informed on this vital subject.

Hazing Methods

There was a time in this country when the American Indians tested the ability of their young warriors by subjecting them to the feat of dancing on red hot coals. The young men were subjected to this torture to prove that they possessed the necessary ability and courage to withstand the hardships of battle. These methods undoubtedly possessed considerable merit in proving the mettle of the young savages and they were quite suitable for the time and conditions under which the savages lived, but would we expect promising young men today to endure these same torturing tactics to prove their nerve and skill.

Still it has been reported by the campus health office that a number of students have reported there for medical attention due to severe treatment given them by fraternity brothers, during their rush periods. Are we reverting back to the days of the savage in torturing one another to test our courage, or is it that a small group of men have forgotten just how far to go in the matter of hazing?

If fraternity men of this campus will take the time to investigate the initiation ceremonies used at some of the large universities and colleges of this country, they will find that other institutions have allowed their methods of hazing to progress along with other lines of education. Twenty-five years ago, it was not an unusual occurrence to have several members of a football team severely injured after a football game. Often the men were maimed for life because of their injuries and quite frequently the injuries were fatal. As time has passed, the game of football has been modified until today it is one of the most popular sports in this country. It has become a game of skill instead of one of brutality. This same progress should have been carried out in fraternity initiations.

Undoubtedly there is considerable amusement attached to certain methods of hazing, and as long as such tactics are used purely for the purpose of amusement and not for punishment and tests for grit and endurance, there should be no objection to their uses. It would be a worthy gesture, however, for one of the local fraternities to remodel its initiation procedure and set an example for the others to follow.

Exhibit Is Scheduled State Men Attend Whittier Meeting

An art exhibit, to be shown during the W.A.A. convention convening here next week, is now being planned by the students in Mrs. Mary E. T. Crowell's art department. The work will be under the supervision of Mrs. Crowell, art department head.

Included in the exhibition, the purpose of which is to show the relation of art to industry in business, are pottery designs, color schemes in basketry, toy novelties for advertising purposes and various kinds of bookbinding.

Oil paintings, by the students, portraying still life and landscapes have also been displayed at the Mission Art company during the past week.

All colleges of the Southern California conference were represented at the meeting of the Southern California coaches and managers at Whittier on Saturday, March 31.

According to Fred Allred the schedule for next year's football season and for other athletic events were discussed. In contrast with the rulling for ticket sales of last year made by the conference, a new decision was reached at this meeting so that if colleges wish to make special arrangements for the sale of tickets at the games, they may do so.

Representatives of Santa Barbara State college at the conference were Fred Allred, Ray Denno, and Harry Killian.

PRIZE AWARDED STATE STUDENT

Phyllis Welch, student on the campus, has been awarded second place in the Stroller club dramatic section one act play contest held recently. This is an annual tournament and is open to all Santa Barbarans.

Hugh Weldon, local writer was awarded first place for his play "Baby Exchange," while Agnes Law Jones was given third place.

Miss Welch's play, "Red Blood," is a story of early Imperial Valley days and tells of a tragic marriage between a white trader and an Indian woman. The character development is very well done and the final decision of the Indian mother to return to her tribe leaving the father free to marry a white woman who will give the children the culture which otherwise they would not have, strikes the tragic tone carried through the whole play.

Miss Welch is remembered for her work at the Lobero theatre in "Granite" and more recently in "The Witch."

Judges for the plays were Dean William Ashworth, Miss Mary Murphy and Paul Whitney, director of the Lobero plays. These plays were submitted under noms de plume so that the decisions were most impartial.

The Longbow

By A. R. O.

Extract from a letter written by a friend travelling by train: "Pullman berths have their points, and I slept on all of them."

We don't wish to point the finger of ridicule or jerk the thumb of railery at any of the home towns of students here, but there are a lot of towns in this golden state of ours which can boast rather peculiar names. A half hour's study of a California map put out by one of the big oil companies reveals the following towns:

- | | |
|-----------------|------------------|
| Inskip | Mormon Bar |
| Forks of Salmon | Stovepipe Wells |
| Peanut | Reward |
| Government Flat | Devils Den |
| Likely | Democrat Springs |
| Long Barn | Confidence |
| Chinese Camp | Plaster City |

THIS HEADING ON THE FINANCIAL PAGE, RUBBER MARKET, REMINDS US THAT THE MARKET CERTAINLY HAS BEEN STRETCHED OUT OF SHAPE THESE PAST FEW YEARS.

Amy Loveman, asked by an invalid friend for a list of the most entertaining books, lists the following 11 in this order in a recent issue of the "Saturday Review of Literature":

1. Austen, Jane—"Pride and Prejudice."
2. Strong, Phil—"State Fair."
3. Hughes, Richard—"High Wind in Jamaica" (originally "The Innocent Voyage.")
4. Davis, Rhys—"Worth Remembering."
5. "Nothing but Wodehouse" (the cream of P. G.'s work).
6. "The Best American Humorous Short Stories."
7. Sackville-West, V.—"The Edwardsians."
8. Morley, Christopher—"Parnassus on Wheels."
9. Maugham, Somerset—"First Person Singular."
10. Nash, Ogden—"Happy Days."
11. Marquis, Don—"Archy's life of mehitabel."

The mention of Jane Austen reminds us of a pregnant statement which appears early in her most famous book. To our collegiate hoppers who frequent Rockwood we don't know whether to admonish it as a warning or as a message of encouragement; it reads "To be fond of dancing was a certain step towards falling in love."

Probably no one is particularly interested, but Amy Loveman's list has challenged our memory, with the result that these books stand out above others in our reading:

- "Tom Jones"—Henry Fielding;
- "Headlong Hall"—Thomas Peacock;
- "The Royal Road to Romance"—Richard Haliburton;
- "The Goose Step"—Upton Sinclair;
- "Adventures in Journalism"—Philip Gibbs;
- "Life of P. T. Barnum"—Werner;
- "The Clipper Ship Era"—Arthur H. Clark;
- "The Old China Trade"—Foster Rhea Dulles;
- "The Four Just Men"—Edgar Wallace;
- "Leave It to Me"—P. G. Wodehouse;
- "The Lady of the Lake"—Sir Walter Scott;
- "Salt Water Taffy"—Corey Ford;
- "What the Queen Said and Further Facetious Fragments"—Stoddard King;
- "The Swiss Family Robinson"—Johann Rudolf Wyss;
- "My University Days"—Maxim Gorky;
- "The Return of the Native"—Thomas Hardy;
- "Dark Laughter"—Sherwood Anderson.

April 15 Set As Picture Deadline

All photographs for the annual must be taken before April 15, therefore, it is imperative that students meet their appointments for pictures at the scheduled time, was the announcement made this week from La Cumbre headquarters.

Those who have not yet made appointments should make them at once with Marjorie Williams, photography editor, in the student body office. A charge of $1.00 is made at the time of the sitting.

As an economy measure this year, the mounting of the pictures is to be done by the art department and sufficient time must be allowed them to complete the work.

Organization write-ups for the annual also must be submitted immediately as the staff is now working on page layouts.

If all students will cooperate in these things the reputation and quality of this year's La Cumbre will not have to be lowered regardless of the curtailed allowance for its production, stated Barbara Clark, editor.

- Psmith—P. G. Wodehouse; "The Lady of the Lake"—Sir Walter Scott; "Salt Water Taffy"—Corey Ford; "What the Queen Said and Further Facetious Fragments"—Stoddard King; "The Swiss Family Robinson"—Johann Rudolf Wyss; "My University Days"—Maxim Gorky; "The Return of the Native"—Thomas Hardy; "Dark Laughter"—Sherwood Anderson.

Many Chosen for Places in Chorus

According to directors, should be one of the top spots of the show.

The following is a tentative list of chorus girls, men and leads which have been chosen by the dance director. In the Collegiate number the chorus girls are: Betty Thomas, Helen Grady, Ruth Karges, Marvline Jones, Virginia Pressy, Faith Holms, Miriam Firkins, and Jane Roach. Paul Woods and Mary Melano will have the leads. In the Waltz number a mixed chorus has been chosen. Yale Lorden, Sid Smith, Walter Sorrell, Don Coker, Don Livingston, Don Watson are the men while their partners will be made up from girls in the Collegiate chorus. Harry Moore and Babe Cornwall will take leads in this number.

Elementary Group to Hold Barbecue Soon

The elementary department planned a barbecue to be held at the Outing club cabin the 29th of April at their departmental meeting Tuesday. Bob Serbian, president, presided.

A program sponsored by the elementary department to be presented at the County Hospital the second week in May is being organized under the direction of Georgia Lyons. The cast will include Tex Willard, Mercedes Berger, Pearl Caylor, Marvline Jones, and Mae Linderman.

MAGAZINE PRINTS ARTICLE WRITTEN BY S. O. WERNER

Schurer O. Werner, architectural drawing instructor in the industrial education department received recognition last week with the publication of his article entitled "Impressions of the Desert" in the Kadelplan Review for March, 1934.

The Kadelplan Review is the official magazine of Kappa Delta Pi, honorary education fraternity, and has a national circulation.

Mr. Werner's article is a word picture of a trip he and a companion took through Mojave desert and Red Rock canyon to Olancha at the foot of the Sierra Nevada mountains. From there the party travelled in a southeasterly direction to the once booming mining town of Darwin in Inyo county. The principle part of the article is a colorful description of the view which included both Mt. Whitney and Death Valley, seen from the summit of the low range upon which Darwin is located.

WIDE PROGRAM IS PLANNED FOR CONCLAVE HERE

Numerous social activities are planned for the W.A.A. delegates for their three day conclave which opens here today.

One of the outstanding events of the meet will be the formal banquet tomorrow evening at 7:30 o'clock at the Samarkand hotel, official headquarters. Following the tea this afternoon at 4 o'clock in the women's clubroom, a tour of the State college campus will be conducted with the Associated Women Students as official hostesses. An informal dinner at El Paseo is scheduled for 6:15 this evening followed by a theater party at the Fox Arlington theater.

Tomorrow's session will open with breakfast at Ebbet's hall on the campus. A feature of the day will be a tour of Santa Barbara at 2:30 in the afternoon when the Old Mission and various Montecito estates will be visited. The local chamber of commerce will act as host for the afternoon. Prior to the tour a box luncheon will be served in the Persian Gardens at the Samarkand hotel at 12:30 o'clock.

Breakfast will be served Saturday morning at the Samarkand hotel. The convention will be brought to a close with a farewell luncheon at the hotel at noon.

The College Widow By THE WIDOW

Easter greetings, new clothes, egg hunts, fraternity breakfasts, etc. The sacred tradition of Beta Sig being walked on by Tau Omega. Speaking of new clothes, Bob For in his Sunday's best everyday, Spring perhaps or maybe a dark boyish hair cut. What girl would wear winter clothes now even if it froze?

Guess some of these here sororities must be treating their pledges awfully rough, poor kids look so tired and pale . . . the city of Carpinteria is pretty sore about something.

This week is certainly going to be full . . . loads of healthy girls from every where for the W.A.A. convention, sorority hell week 'n' all, sorta women's week as it were, well, stick around fellas, the conventioners will be at Samarkand.

You know, s'funny how some people get high hat just as soon as they join up with something, get their names in the paper, or become manager of something . . . bet some of them have a guilty conscience or two . . . and after the sincere plea for egg donations, the Widow received but one, good use will be made of that one tho.

Dave Lewis has a job in San Diego and Betty is so lonesome she even forgets to go to classes, others go to church when they feel that way. Oh, well, it won't be long till June, a nice thing to remind a number of people, or maybe they know.

This debate tourney must have been quite the thing, what with 480 people from 11 different states and Mrs. Davis there. Someone had better tell her that if she jay-walks on Colorado Boulevard anymore, she is apt to be an awful expense to the school . . . When a teacher, pardon, professor, brings a cup of tea to class and sips it daintily at intervals, it's the height of something or other, maybe we should allow more time for lunch, good idea at that . . . Our own dear "Tiger" so completely settled on one girl, Peggy Koep no less, dear, dear.

We do need a new college really, the library stairs have been sketched almost as many times as the rest of the rocks on the campus have been surveyed. They do look a bit different on paper, some of them might even be entitled "After the Quake," the drawings I mean.

Such lovely weather, me for the beach!!!!

Former College Student Here Wed in Pomona

An Easter wedding of attractive appointments was celebrated last Sunday when Margery Luella Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Johnson of Pomona, became the bride of Archy Ingram Way, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Way of Bakersfield.

The ceremony was performed in the home of the bride by the Rev. H. I. Rasmussen in the presence of the immediate families only.

The couple stood beneath an arch of feathery fern and white rose buds, with a large bouquet of bridal wreath and calla lilies at the base. A white bell hung at the top of the arch and palms and ferns were in the background.

Mrs. Way was given in marriage by her father. She wore an ankle length afternoon gown of white silk crepe and a small lace toque. She carried a shower bouquet of white rose buds and gardenias.

Miss Dorothy Bartley, former school chum of the bride, was her maid of honor. Thomas Mahoney, local student acted as best man.

An informal reception followed the wedding. The couple left for a short honeymoon trip through southern California and Catalina.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Way were students of the Santa Barbara State college. Mrs. Way is affiliated with Delta Zeta Delta sorority. Mr. Way is a member of Sigma Alpha Kappa and Alpha Phi Omega.

Make Plans for 'Hell-Week'

"Hell Week" began for Delta Sigma Epsilon, social sorority, pledges at a pot luck dinner held at the Carpinteria beach Monday evening followed by a meeting at the home of Vivian Rodriguez, active member of the group. Various initiative activities were endured by pledges throughout the evening. At the close refreshments were served by the hostess and the pledges.

Active members present were Sheila Davidson, Mercedes Jewett, Dorothy Poole, Elaine Littlefield, Lucille Bolton, Laura Linn, Evelyn Sims, Evelyn Maitland, Vivian Rodriguez, and Betty Thomas.

Alumnae attending were Ardis Bordeaux, Rosamund Young-French, Lowell Washburn, Winifred Jones, Louise Albaugh, Josephine Bolton, Frieda Wagner Jones, and Anna Nigren Hebel.

Pledges attending were Barbara Boyd, Lucia Walker, Frances Wilda Simone, Chloe Vincent, Nadine Speer, Geraldine Slayton, La Rue Steelsmith, and Helen Eichelberger.

Chic-Chat By MARGE

Whether or not any of the college folks are seeing stars is an unknown fact—but it is perfectly evident that they are seeing stripes—and more stripes, which come in all colors, designs, and might be added on all sizes of persons. If it be a small girl and the stripes go round, rounder she looks. If it be a large girl and the stripes go down, slimmer she looks.

And so casting an eye about, one finds this attractive bit of design on three of every six girls. Of course a little later on the stripes are bound not to be so popular as they are right now. Wearing stripes is a fad. And what would a fad be if it didn't have a series of setbacks and come-ins?

Those two demure maidens, Margaret Holden and Wandalyne Linker are going in for the "dress alike" idea. You see it's this way: both the dresses are made alike—ones with short sleeved vest-waistes. The bottoms of the vests are V shaped. And the skirts are made on the bias. Margaret's is tan stripes on white and Wandalyne's is blue stripes on white. Clever ones they are.

Elizabeth Leonard—"Miss Leonard" to all the Delta Zeta pledges—is very attractive in that green and white striped shirt-waist dress. The trimmings are green buttons and a green buckle. Material for it is a rayon-silk. Julia Lynch—Delta Zeta prexy—donned a tan and white striped everfast sport dress. The sleeves are inserted over the shoulder, the neck is V shaped and add the finishing touches.

Obviously stripes can't be confined to dresses alone—Margaret Akin realized that when she acquired a striped suit. Black stripes—little ones too—on white is the color combination. Shirt-waist effect is in the back of the jacket and a loose belt keeps the jacket closed. The skirt is on the bias and a light waist is worn with the outfit. Nancy Clapp chose red for her striped sport dress. It's sewed on the bias and a red tie and belt are the trimmings.

Both Arlette Parma and Jewel Stephens decided on blue and white for their stripes. Arlette's is done in light blue, dark blue and white in narrow stripes. The neck in front is a yoke affair, and the armholes are bound with a wide pique extending under the yoke of the neck. Jewel's dress is another shirtwaist and extremely striking. The stripes are rather large and the collar comes around in the front, appearing square. By the way, blue is one of the most outstanding of the spring colors, and you'll know the reason why when you see these.

Green, coral, and white make up the design in stripes for the shirt-waist dress Phebe Steer sported the other day. She looked charming in it—a little rounded collar on the dress presented a pretty sight when the wearer pulled it out over a coral colored coat sweater. Sear-sucker found its way into stripes in Louise Headley's tog—one of green, brown, and white. Pattern for it—shirtwaist. And if by any chance you don't know Louise—well, she's one of those very, very sweet and quiet persons.

It is possible to add that purses get their share of lines. Turbans, too. Completion for some outfits call for them—and not a very much better answer could be had. Au Revoir.

New Level Hit by Fraternity with Breakfast

Surrounded by the gardens in the patio of the Biltmore hotel the Beta Sigma Chi social fraternity held its annual Easter breakfast last Sunday.

The Easter morning social event struck a new level in the success of the annual breakfasts as a total of 72 people attended.

Preceding the breakfast the fraternity members and their guests enjoyed an Easter egg hunt which scattered the gathering over the entire front lawn of the hotel.

After the breakfast many attended church and then went to the beach for games and swimming. Arrangements for the Easter event were made by Harry Killian, social chairman, and Bill Russell and Carroll Russell, assistants.

Those attending the meeting were Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Walker, Claude Yoeman, Art Evans, Virgil Gillium; Misses Wanda Harris, Myrtle Hoyt, Evelyn Warner, Mary Lee Townsend, Chloris Bixler, Rowena Kirkland, Marjorie Taylor, Katherine Case, Betty Thomas, Florence Stuart, Margaret Holden, Phyllis Johnson, Martha Honigsberger, Margaret Baylor, Peggy Koep, Mary Hicks, Vinnetta Moorman, Betty Durfee, Julia Ingram, Catherine Myers, Frances Taylor, Madge Bunch, Dorothy Poole, Jewel Stephens, Clare Wise, Audrey Pensinger, Jean Thompson, Josephine Covelli, Virginia Fennel, Stella Mae Smith, Marjorie Pensinger, Viola Peterson; Fran Manis, Robert Sawyer, Robert Stuart, Donald Stewart, Allister Scott, William Russell, Carroll Russell, William Pensinger, Gilbert Martin, Robert Mead, Yale Lorden, James Lebeck, Roland Laykin, Edgar Kerrigan, Bill Hoyt, Paul Hopkins, Charles Hoffer, Bruce Heltman, Howard Gammill, James Daykin, Marcus Cravens, Marvin Cobb, Roland Carter, Dennison Baylor, Richard Brothers, Bob David, Lowell Jameson, William Morrissy, Walter SoRelle, Bill Lasarzig, and Jack Van Efav.

College Students in Musical Program

An eleven harp ensemble under the direction of Florence Lyons, instructor in the industrial arts department, was presented Easter Sunday morning at the services in the First Methodist Episcopal church. Gluck's "Andante," was played as the offertory.

Those taking part in the program were Donald Knapp, Howard Stafford, Marguerite Stafford, Barbara Wuest, Jack Wuest, Ralph W. Lee Jr., Joyce Rockwood, Marjorie Ann Gibson, Margaret Mellinger, Eleanor Mellinger, and Florence Lyons.

Of course you've noticed all the grand and bubbling enthusiasm over the fact that vacation est fini and we've returned to the grindstone . . . Betty Brown is particularly that way since Dave has a job in San Diego. S'too bad Bets, but cheer up, June is near.

Even Paul Woods, is blue—c'mon thou femmes, and help.

We HEAR that lovely Melba Jean Parker is being married in July . . . wonder when her charming sister will do the same?

Gosh! Gilmore, what did you ever do to the Collich Widow? She kind'da doesn't like you. Did you ever take her out?

It wasn't told to me, I only heard that Jane Rasmussen likes to eat milk nickles while taking a bath.

Don Coker seems to be doing the rounds . . . First a knock-out with Merle and then a 10-count decision with the San Diego girl-friend . . . Next! (And it was such a "purty" sorority PIN)

Buppy Moore has the Roadrunner Revue well under way. With all the talent he has found on the campus, the show ought to make a great hit. Better start reserving a place for that which you sit on, because from what I hear, there is going to be full houses both nights.

Why is it some Prof's can hold the driest classes, pile on the amount of home-work, give the oddest exams, and then grade the hardest? . . . Ask a Pol Sci class.

Sorority Treated With Candy

Presentation of a box of candy was made to Gamma Delta Chi, social sorority, by Mrs. Ned Porter Monday evening at the home of Betty Mercer during a meeting of the organization. Following the refreshments the announcement of Mrs. Porter's marriage was read. Before her marriage on March 9, 1934 she was Idabeth Watkins.

W.A.A. WILL BE HONORED BY TEA IN QUAD TODAY

Members of Santa Barbara State college W.A.A. will be guests of honor of the local associated women students this afternoon when approximately 85 delegates to the western conference of the Athletic Federation of College Women gather in the quad for tea from 4 o'clock to 6 o'clock.

Decorations will be carried out in spring flowers, with the shrubbery of the quad as the background. Music will be furnished.

Honored Guests

Honored guests are Margaret Beddome, Lucille Bolton, Doris Braley, Barbara Clark, Marian Ek, Mildred Ewart, Katherine Gaines, Helen Grady, Edith Hawks, Faith Holm, Fern Johnson, Ruth Johnson, Marvaine Jones, Catherine Kitley, Lorraine Koehly, Barbara Lingenfelter, Florence Longawa, Evelyn Maitland, Lois Jo McPheeters, Betty Mercer, Joyce Newton, Ida Pagliotti, Betty Rainey, Jane Rasmussen, Margaret Rodriguez, Vivian Rodriguez, Mervyn Shaw, Vivienne Sims, Virginia Slicton, Elizabeth Stover, Thelma Terris, Betty Thomas, Viola Tucker, Shirley Warner, Frances Warring, Margaret White, Marjorie Williams, Pearl Wilson, Edvish Smith, Clara Jensen, Lois Martin, Evelyn McNeil, Irene Samson, Mary Bigland, Grace Roscoe, Mary Melano, Lucille Gaudin, Wyllis Anderson, Clara Ross, Frances Hemmingway, Geraldine Slaten, Berdina Walters, Catherine Boynton, Dorothy Taylor, Dorothy Weber, Marguerite Andureau, Marian Call, Louise Lewis, Margaret Brest, Jeanette Stanton, Eleanor Rees, La Rue Steelsmith, Mildred Carter, and Doris Braley.

Acting as committee chairmen for the affair are Elizabeth Leonard, general chairman; Elsie Eckoff, refreshments; Sue Knox, serving; Alberta Green, decorations; Betty Roome, clean up; and reception by the A.W.S. board, consisting of Betty Hopkins, president; Lucille Bolton, first vice-president; Ruth Carter, second vice-president; Elizabeth Stover, secretary; Marjorie Williams, treasurer; Fern Johnston, point; Elizabeth Leonard, tea chairman; and Isabel Ferguson, club room.

Talk about paint jobs, feast your eyes on Killian's Ford De Luxe.

Denny Baylor, Bob Sawyer and Stanley Brock, Carpinteria's romantic trio, went on a stag party last week. They have a new verbal comeback, said in abbreviations. Ask them about it.

Jack Van Efav and Stella May Smith are still saving their Easter Eggs. Must have been an Easter Breakfast somewhere.

The payoff! When told to be careful or he'd get a parking tag, Al Scott sneered back at us with a "Wal, I can ticket." Not bad.

State College Roadrunners have a new guiding light, at last, as "Spud" Harder will travel south to coach football next year. Coach Hal Davis and Harder will no doubt develop a fine football machine for 1934 competition. With the fine material that should show up next semester and spirit developed by a nicely coached team State college should repeat the season of 1930.

Did you know that Whittier beat La Verne by a score of 37-3 in a wild baseball game played last Saturday, according to the Los Angeles papers. And did you know that it is on the books that Santa Barbara is to play Whittier this week-end? Once in a while an upset occurs in the sport world and one of those turn-overs may occur should State get in there to win.

To have a well working baseball machine every man must do his utmost to make every cog work perfectly, and only by that means does a college have a good baseball team. State college has good material but seems to make numerous errors on the field.

The cinder men are warming up for the grind when they meet other conference teams in a struggle this week-end. Undaunted by a low score in the Pomona meet they are out to bring in the bacon for State.

Tennis season is beginning in the Southern California conference. State is without a team this year, which is rather antagonizing, as several students on State's campus had planned to try for the squad. Many of the other conference colleges are now busy building up their tennis players for this season. San Diego, La Verne, and Santa Barbara are the three schools that will not have teams this year.

Women's Sporting Comment
PEGGY KOEPP

Most of the sporting events during this so-called "hell-week" have been concentrated in the various exercises received carrying around such articles as egg beaters, brief cases, alarm clocks and rolling pins. And have you noticed the brightly shining faces of the pledges? All for health but certainly not for beauty.

Interclass games in volleyball were finished the week before Easter vacation. Sophomores lead with three wins and one tie. Freshmen and Junior 2 are second with two wins chalked up for them. The mighty Seniors are squelched with only one win and three losses. Dorothy Weber informed me that she was freshmen volleyball captain rather than Dorothy Taylor. Excuse, please.

Santa Barbara State was well represented by eight girls from the Physical education department at a "Sports Day" held at Whittier College, March 24. Competition was not by schools but each girl was placed on allotted color teams. Wyllys Anderson and Grace Roscoe played tennis. Marguerite Andureau, Kay Boyton, Birdena Walters, Nancy Clapp, Thelma Terris and Geraldine Slayton played on basketball and hockey teams.

Ida Fagliotti was chosen president of the W.A.A. for the coming year following the recent election. The other three officers are Geraldine Slayton, vice-president; Catherine Boyton, secretary, and Evelyn Maitland, athletic manager. Congratulations to the W.A.A. for being so enterprising as to have their officers selected for next semester already.

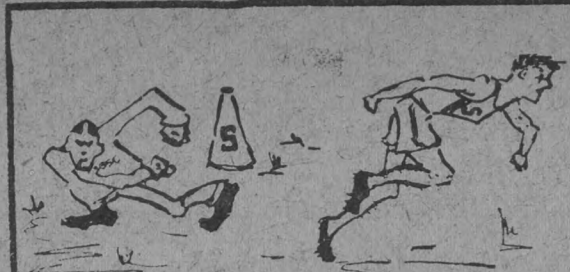

Cochran Intramural Manager for Season

A "new deal" in intramural sports has occurred at Santa Barbara State college for this semester. Gail Cochran, who throws a pair of mean mitts, has taken the duty of intramural manager for the remainder of this school year, continuing the sports that "Doc" Kelliher began last semester.

According to Cochran the boxing and wrestling tournament will begin next week if the necessary cooperation is met with from the various organizations on the campus. He urges that men entering these tournaments sign up on the bulletin board in the gymnasium as soon as possible. Finals for the tournaments will be held in the local American Legion hall.

Other intramural sports will be run off in rapid order after the boxing and wrestling matches are held; volleyball probably being next on the schedule.

PROUD FATHER OF SON
Victor Hoffert, industrial education major, is the proud father of an Easter baby boy, Kenneth Victor, born Wednesday, March 28, in St. Francis hospital. The baby weighed seven pounds and one ounce at time of birth. Mrs. Hoffert is in St. Francis hospital and is reported as doing nicely.

ROADRUNNERS EARN SMALL SCORE IN QUADRUPLE TANGLE AT POMONA

Pomona College Is Easy Victor in Meet

State spikesters took 11½ points in a four way meet last Saturday afternoon at Pomona college. The Sagehens, of Pomona, took first place, being followed by Whittier and La Verne with much less impressive scores.

"Doc" Kelliher took the greatest number of honors for the locals by tying Triggs of Whittier in the pole vault and winning fourth place in the 220-yard low hurdles, thus obtaining three and one-half points. Others who earned points for Santa Barbara were: Crow, fourth place in the 880-yard run; Roe, third place in the shot put; McCullough, fourth in the shot put; and Garber, who tied with JJacobs, Whittier, and Oakey, Pomona, for second position.

High scoring honors were shared by co-Captain Dray Williams and Hal Ryerson of Pomona for the afternoon's work. Williams won both hurdles, the highs in 15s. flat and the lows in 24s. He also won the century in 10s. flat.

Shelton of Pomona rambled the fastest quarter of his career to win this event in 51.9s. Probably the best race of the afternoon was won by Bob Carr in winning the furlong over John Wilcox in 21.9s.

Crittenden, also a Pomona lad, tossed the javelin 173 feet 10 inches to take first honors over Wood of Whittier and the two Pollard brothers of the Sagehens.

Other Pomona first places were taken by Lewis Gleec in the two-mile, Gordon Petit in the high jump, Frank Booze in the hammer, and Walter Farrell in the discus at 134 feet. Everett Myer, La Verne, took first in the mile, and Harris of Whittier won the shot put event with a toss of 42 feet 1½ inches.

Final score—Four-way meet: Pomona, 108 3-5; Whittier, 25 1-5; La Verne, 17 7-10; Santa Barbara, 10½. Individual dual meet scores: Pomona, 117; La Verne, 14. Pomona, 115; Santa Barbara, 15. Pomona, 106; Whittier, 25. La Verne, 78; Santa Barbara, 50. Whittier, 73; La Verne, 56. Whittier, 76; Santa Barbara, 46.

Junior Varsity Ends Season With Honors

Winning third place in the second round of the Open League tournament, Coach Killian's Junior Varsity ended their season last Monday evening at the old junior high gymnasium.

For their final game the Jayvees defeated the Democrats by the score of 36 to 29, revealing the power of the hilltop team that brought them through a successful season.

"Buppy" Moore was the high ranking man of the Staters, sharing an equal honor with Linville, right forward for the Democrats. Each tallied 12 points.

Other points made were shared by the following men: Junior Varsity—Swanson, six; Moss, center, eight; Christianson, right guard, four; Coultas, left guard, four.

State Cinder Artists Ready for Oxy Meet

Meeting up with some of the stiffest opposition yet encountered, State college cinder men will have to step on it and show plenty of speed if they want to go places this Saturday in the All Southern California Conference track meet at Occidental college.

Coach Ray Denno will enter two teams, the varsity and freshmen. Not much is known about the ability of the frosh as so far they have not had a chance to show what they can do in real competition and they may come through with flying colors.

Trials in Morning
Trials are to be held all morning starting at nine-thirty and the finals will begin at one-thirty in the afternoon.

In past years Santa Barbara has not showed up very well in the conference meet as only one man, "Army" Kessler, ever placed in an event. In 1930 Kessler made one-fourth of one point when he tied for fourth place in a jump event.

The race for top honors will in all probability be between Redlands, San Diego State, Cal-Tech, La Verne and Whittier, according to Coach Denno.

State college men who will enter are: Shot-put, Willis McCullough, George McCullough, Thornley Roe; discus, G. McCullough, T. Roe; pole vault, Doc Kelliher; half-mile, William Crow; mile, Richard Jackson.

Freshmen: Pole vault, Gibby Martin, Robert Opple; low hurdles, Gibby Martin, Lloyd Bowen; broad jump, Bob David; high jump, Dick Brimer.

Coach "Spud" Harder
Theodore L. Harder, who has been selected to direct the destinies of Santa Barbara State athletics during the coming year, coached at Bakersfield Junior college for the past five years. He is to begin spring football practice here on April 27.

SOPHS TO MEET
A sophomore class meeting will be held Friday noon in room 42, according to Al Scott, class president. Definite plans for social events for the year are to be discussed and all members are asked to attend.

VISITS IN SAN JOSE
Helen Eichelberger spent the Easter holidays visiting friends in San Jose. She also enjoyed three days at Patterson as the house guest of Marie Busingdal, a former student here.

LOCAL BASEBALL SQUAD DEFEATED BY TAFT JUNIOR COLLEGE, 11 TO 4

Coach Davis's Squad May Upset Poets in Game With Southerners Saturday

State college baseball team tasted again the sting of old man defeat on Friday, March 30. The Taft junior college diamond aggregation accomplished the feat this time on their own field by the score of 11-4.

It was one of those days on which the State nine could do nothing right. Errors permitted the Taft men to score most of their runs, which resulted in victory, rather than a hard-hitting brand of baseball. The Roadrunners made a total of seven errors compared to one made by the valleymen.

Ernie Boucher, performing in his home town under Roadrunner colors was the only man that really displayed any worthwhile baseball. He was on the mound for the Staters and amassed a total of nine strikeouts while the most that the Taft pitcher could get was one. Had Boucher been given good support the game would have been extremely close.

Changes in Lineup
Upon returning to Santa Barbara, Coach Hal Davis announced that there would be a violent shakeup in the infield in order to reduce the number of errors.

"I feel," Davis stated, "that I am not getting the maximum playing ability from the infield and for that reason I am going to make several changes."

Ball will be shifted from third to first and Rezzonico will take his place on third base. Stockel will be stationed at shortstop and Muegenburg will occupy second base. A number of errors have been occurring on first base and it is believed that versatile Joe Ball will be able to eliminate these defaults.

To Meet Whittier
On next Friday the Davismen

play the Whittier poets on our field and the coach and the players feel that they will be in a position to give them a good game. Mert Miller has recovered from a sore arm and will be used some on the mound although Boucher will be the starting pitcher. Miller will be used in the outfield along with Lorden and Drennan until such time as it is necessary for him to take over the pitching duties. Captain Clarence Aspittle will be behind the plate in Friday's game.

The team seems to be rejuvenated after the change and their performance Friday against the Quakers should offer State fans some real entertainment and a win is far from impossible. The ability has been present continually but the correct combinations have not as yet been formulated.

Harder Selected as New Grid Mentor

cerning next year's team. Spring practice will run from April 27 to June 2 and at that time I will be better qualified to make any statements concerning our prospects. However, I can promise that the team will be a scrapping, fighting eleven, and one that will be a credit to the school and community."

State college students have greeted Harder's selection with open arms, and the student body is ready to back the new coach to the utmost. Many of the men in the school today have known Harder for years and are greatly pleased to have him come to State college.

Chesterfield
a bully good cigarette
I enjoy them

We state it
as our honest belief that the tobaccos used in Chesterfield are of finer quality—and hence of better taste—than in any other cigarette at the price.
