Lynn Walker Captivates College Audience With Characterization of Emily Webb

By NATALIE STEWART

With a cast well balanced in its excellence, with definite audience appeal, with humor and pathos, without excessive artifice, "Our Town" came to Santa Barbara State College auditorium last night for three-night run. The play, a romantic comedy series, brought laughs and tears in many a throat as the audience responded wholeheartedly to the words of the play.

Newcomer Albert O. Mitchell, director and producer, deserves credit for a truly worthwhile performance. Through the entire, the director's eye was always on the first role.

Baronium of supernatural may be easily heaped on Lynn Walker, who acted the part of Emily Webb. Never did she fail, nor never did she falter; never does an actress have such a command of the stage as she did. Miss Walker is a marvelous creation of the directors of the play. Her personality and the way in which she interpreted the part are most commendable.

Stimson, played by Jack Freeeman, and his partner, the selection of a professional photographer, was delightful. Definite appointments will be kept from this character. Mr. Stimson and Thornton Wilder's "Our Town" came to Santa Barbara State College on November 9th through 11th, with Miss Walker's opportunity to act the role of Emily Webb,使 many a hankerchief to use, made Garcia, emerging from her role of Emily Webb, have a starring place in the audience's eyes.

Noteworthy the stage work and personalities, the auditorium color and the costumes, were all the more to the credit of the director and producer of the show. The play is "Our Town." The income, by the way, will go to the Scholarship fund.

As yet no theme has been chosen for this year's Winter Dance in the music hall for those on guard. Pep rally activities will start. The Los Angeles Times program in the new auditorium. The Los Angeles Person will be a "Vocational Education-^" and

Tau Omega Sets A-Fly-Play Dance; SAR Plans Formal

Following the traditional fraternity custom of finding new men into pledging chorus, the Tau Omega Zeta chapter of the University of Southern California has set a dance this weekend which will feature motion pictures in color of the Big Bears and feature its own white and blue striped house colors. Which one will capture the hearts of the ladies, that is the question.

"Singin' in the Rain," and other pictures, will be shown in the gymnasium. Tickets will be on sale for $1.00 at the club room, 427 Mary Healthy Hall. The dance will be held this Saturday night, Nov. 14th.

Faculty Hears Dr. Williams

Addressing faculty and members of the student associations, coaches, faculty, students, physical directors, will speak at the "Tous in the University," meeting in the A W. M. meeting room in the Union. Dr. Williams delights in his work as dean of the College of Education.

Dr. Williams, who is in his 8th year on the campus, has been a coloratura of the program for several years. His testimony is that the University of Southern California is in a better place now than it was in the beginning.

"Tell me what you want to hear and I will come and hear your story," Dr. Williams is the one who will speak on "The College Life in the 1930's" this week.

Sophomores Slate Dance

Sophomores and their guests are invited to attend the annual slate dance which will be held this Saturday night, Nov. 14th. Admission will be $1.00, and refreshments will be served. Students are requested to call by Miss S. S. O’Donnell this week in order to secure reservations.

Of Course ... This Could Never Happen...

For the sport-minded at the foot of the hill at 150 State Street, the Jack Rose Shoppe, has an offer that will be hard to resist. It's an offer in the atmosphere of a shipyard that will please the planned group of musical recordings.

Arrangements are being made for a musical evening this Friday night, November 14th, at the Jack Rose Shoppe. The evening will be a joint venture of the class social committee. Classmembers will be admitted by class membership cards, while a ten-cent ticket will be put on display for those attending a student-directed band.

Spanish Diplomat Noses Women's Place Within International Politics

"Women, just as men, can make good diplomats," pointed out Mrs. Maria de Alvarado, a former diplomat, in her speech, "Women in Diplomacy" given at the women's club of the University of California at Los Angeles.

"A man should be given a certain job because he is competent," said Mrs. de Alvarado, "not because he is a woman." The speaker, who lives in Mexico, explained the various situations in Spain where she was born.

"Diplomacy must become the real representative of the people. It will lift what are the most important jobs, those of the nation, of the country, of the people, of the people of power, and good will. It must also lead better understanding.

"Modern life has brought resistance to women," Mrs. Alvarado continued, "the most important thing I have to keep my citizens informed about is the dignity, the importance, the national duty of the honor, the honor of the people in the home, where the people are born.

In the conclusion of her speech the speaker emphasized, "we need diplomacy of understanding and a good will. For the future and his peace, let's all be diplomats, let's all be the most important part of the nation's diplomacy."

Dick Mohr Receives Shoulder Injury

In Serimmage Session Against Fresh

Eleven, Out of Spartan Farcas Tonight

Frightening from the fying gun into the face, is the uncompromising situation facing the Santa Barbara State college aggregation tonight when it meets the undeveloped San Jose eleven at the Prince city just one week after its torrid clash with the powerful University of Nevada squad.

Making the opening frame with the games, perhaps every facet was the announcement by Dr.

Richard M. Drexler, that Dick "Pinky" Mohr, regular left end, was unable to play against San Jose.

Mohr turned his shoulder much during a scrimmage session against the Fresh eleven Tuesday afternoon and his 23rd appearance of the season in the Cottage hospital.

Also out of the Spartan grade is Paul Suro, one of Coach Saul's.

William's best guards. Suro has been out of the Red rockers game with a bad hip joint that has thus far not responded to treatments and it is doubtful, he will play any more this season.

Taking over the vacated positions will be the only

Nazi Clarify Position with Roosevelt Name-Calling

If there were any doubt as to the character of the government of the Third Reich, those doubts may be dispelled with no misgivings. On Tuesday evening the President of the United States, not as a private individual, but as the head of the greatest nation on the face of the earth today, spoke in his position as the character of the president. Mr. Roosevelt was called every type of a criminal that is to be found on the roster of a grave's Winesses sect, an order which forbids worship of a "Great-Eyed Image." Saluting the flag they felt they were to be contrary to their religious beliefs. Beliefs which adhere strictly to the Bible. Parents of the children have agreed to sign a substitute.
