Plans For College Night Departmental Track Meet Scheduled For Feb. 20

A few changes has been made in the track schedule as follows:

The dates for the departmental track meet and the interclass meet have been moved ahead at the expense of the Irish Marathon which will not be held. This change was made to allow the contestants more time to get in trim for vigorous competition which might have proved fatal to the team so early in the season.

The Irish Marathon, of the three preliminary meets scheduled, was decided to be dropped because these meets must be completed in February. That much looked-forward-to freak meet was dropped due to the lack of facilities and various handicaps the committee was working under occasioned by a lack of adequate grounds, etc. The cleaning of Pershing Park would entail too much labor and expense, and the high school stadium is not entirely satisfactory because only the javelin throw of the various field events would be permitted on the turf field inside the track. The broad jump, high jump, pole vault, discus throw, and shot put will have to be held outside of the field at either end.

Definite announcement of acceptance of the proposed dual meet with Pomona Frosh in the stadium has been received by Coach Gilliland. The dual meet with Occidental Frosh is still tentative.

The revised schedule follows: Feb. 20-Departmental meet in High School Stadium.

Feb. 27-Interclass meet in High School Stadium.

March 7-Dual meet with Occidental Frosh here. (Tentative). March 14-Dual meet with Po-

Song Contest Arouses Interest Of Students

The school song contest which started last Friday has aroused interest among a number of students and several entries are expected within the next two weeks. Two prizes of five dollars and two dollars will be given for the best songs submitted.

The committee in charge of the contest wishes to emphasize the fact that the songs will be judged primarily on their word content. The music to which they are set need not be original. Words unset to any music may be submitted and if they are particularly meritorious music will be composed for them.

The contest will close two weeks from today and the songs submitted will be turned over to a judging committee. Those submitting songs are requested to refer to last week's issue of The Eagle for rules and regulations.

PRAISE DUE BASKETBALL MEN

The basketball season just completed marks the entrance of the Roadrunners into the realm of All-College competition, more, it marks a successful entry. The men out for the sport deserve all credit for their achievements on the court this season, for they have carried the school colors to victory over a number of strong teams, and whether in victory or defeat have played the game to the best of their ability and cleanly.

The present athletic teams of the institution, a college in embryo, are making history and traditions. Their sportsmanship, their fight, their fair-play, their progress all will be handed down to the teams of the largest college of the future that is bound to come. During this formative period the responsibility of our teams is great, for they are serving not only us, but the coming student bodies. The pages of history and traditions that this basketball team has left behind it are pleasing to read, for they are clean pages and interesting.

Congratulations to you all, fellows! The whole college extends you its most hearty thanks!

Eagle Receives Letter From Subscriber

The Eagle received a letter last week from one of its subscribers, Euna Proper, graduate of the Home Economics Department in 24. Many students remember Miss Proper, who was vice-president of the Student Body during her senior year and was a prominent campus worker. Her letter is as follows:

Dear Eagle:

It gives me great pleasure to write and tell you about the enjoyment I receive every Monday evening when I find you waiting for me. Do I devour you? Say! just ask my mother. I read every line that is printed upon you. You make me long to visit the good old halls of knowledge, to see the dear friends there, and to gaze upon Santa Barbara again.

I owe my Alma Mater a great deal and I realize this more and more each day. To read about the progress made at the College and about so many fine new activities is an inspiration to me. Keep up the good work.

I send my best wishes to all, Sincerely,

EUNA PROPER.

An important meeting of all women in exchange positions will be held at Dean Pyle's home Saturday, February 21, at 3:00.

EXCHANGES

Stanford University now plans to add to its football stadium so that it will have a seating capacity of 90,000 people. This will be the largest football stadium in the world and is expected to be finished for the 1925 "big game."

The orchestra of the Chico State College has become a part of the regular curriculum and two units are given to those taking the work.

The students of Manual Arts High, Los Angeles, have decided to do away with chewing gum in their school and are waging a war against the habit.

The "Wildcat," the paper of the Chico college, printed an article thanking the schools with whom they have exchanged and expressed the desire for the continuance of exchanges now on the list. Santa Barbara State College wishes to do the same.

Girl Scout Work Class Organized On Campus

The group will be divided into

College Elementary Library Receives Many Books

About seventy-five books have been donated or loaned to the children's library started by The College Elementary pupils. Books of all kinds suitable for children will be welcomed.

Shelves are being constructed all around the walls of one of the center rooms which will be converted into a library.

The first contributors to the children's library are Miss Pond, Robert Wormser, and Margaret Burke.

The Santa Barbara High School has been very fortunate in receiving gifts which add to the buildings and grounds. Last fall the stadium, a gift of Mr. Peabody, was dedicated. Several spirited citizens have given an armory for R. O. T. C. work. The Woman's Relief Corps presented the school with a flag and a citizen who prefers to remain anonymous has given a new flag pole.

Outing Club Members Hike To La Cumbre

The Outing Club held its second annual moonlight hike to La Cumbre last Saturday night, with a record turn-out of thirty-three students, faculty and guests. The only factor that was lacking was moonlight, but that was made up for by about ten hours of steady rain, adding greatly to the enjoyment of the trip. Start was made directly from the college at midnight, and the last of the wet hikers arrived at the peak before fourthirty, some much the worse for

The sun failed to materialize at the appointed hour, else it would have revealed an angry mob, attacking piles of food with great zest. Typical meals consisted of several kinds of fruit, potato salad, weinies, bacon, eggs, coffee, chocolate, hot cakes, candy, and about everything else that had been planned for the three meals of the

A thoroughly wet group of hikers left the mountain peak before eight o'clock, minus the weight of their packs, but carrying enough wet clothing to offset that advantage. A majority of the party returned home over the Tunnel Trail route, but a number took the picturesque Flores Flat Trail thru Rattlesnake Canyon. Despite the rain, a very enjoyable time was had by all. The following made the hike: Misses Weage, Dewlaney, Drew, Sorem, Neely, Cameron, Granger, Short, Ellsworth, Edmondson, Hill, Thompson, Pitney, Wilson, Graham, and Messrs. Dawley, Peters, Linder, H. Peel, J. Peel, Annin, Berger, Ellsworth, Bowman, Morehead, Vandam, Foss, Hollingsworth, Vince, Booth, Henderson, Weidman and Conklin.

Baseball Outlook Bright For Coming Spring Season

Coach Casey Gilliland is planning to put baseball on a par with the other major sports this semester. There is abundant material for a good team at the college this year and enough men have already signed up to make some real competition for the various positions. Among those who are expected to shine in the approaching season are "Jimmy" Anderson, pitcher; "Hank" Minetti, third base; "Vic" Breslin, and "Taki" Asakura, and Leedy in a few of the remaining positions; and many newcomers and dark horses that are sure to appear when the season gets under way.

The baseball season this year will come in the middle of the track season, in the month of April. Already, four games have been planned as follows:

April 25—U. S. C. varsity, here. May 9—Loyola College, here. May 16—Cal. Poly, here. May 23—San Jose State, here.

"Are you a trained nurse?"
"Yes."

Track Prospects Rosy For S. B. S. C.

With track practice going on daily at the High School stadium oval, prospects for a successful season are looming brighter.

Among the veterans from last year's squad reporting for practice are the following: Jimmy Anderson, high point man in the Carpenteria meet last year, is looked upon as one of the mainstays of the 1925 squad, and should score heavily in the weight events. Morehead and Lemmon, winners of the pole vault, are expected to repeat this year. Linder and Weidman in the distance runs promise to bid strongly for points in these events. Keim is figured to win in the hurdle races again this year, while O'Reilly is regarded as a sure point winner in the dashes. Sawyers and Dawley should place in the javelin and hammer throws, repeating their performance of last year. Hollingsworth promises to earn a place on the squad by his broadjumping, so taken as a squad the men show signs of being another winning team.

Besides the stars from the 1924 squad there are many new men who will offer stiff competition in any meet. Bus Heggie is looked upon as sure to cop the broadjump, and is doped to place in the sprints as well. Miller and Hart-well will make Linder and Chamberlain step out in the half, while Laughlin should press O'Reilly for honors in the dashes. Foss and Greenough in the pole vault will offer plenty of competition to Morehead and Lemmon, and Foss is regarded as a likely prospect in the weight events.

Roadrunners Win Last Victory From Northern Team

basketball Roadrunner quintet downed the Santa Maria Junior College five 25 to 6 in the last game of the season. It was a fast game throughout, although the outcome could be predicted early in the game.

The northern squad felt that it had played the best game of its career when it held the Roadrunners to the lowest tally they had made this season, except in the game against the Cal 145 pounders. Santa Maria put every effort in its defense to effect this end. Practically all of the Roadrunners' score came from long shots.

Captain Linder and Mobley did some excellent guarding for our side when they held the Santa Maria offense to three field goals.

Williams and Morehead accounted for most of the Roadrunners' score and were at times successful in penetrating the defense for easy shots. Anderson lived up to his old reputation for spectacu-
