After working all week trying to make a soccer goal on our lawn, ball team 1 on page 1, I found it was impossible to get in time to practice for our game against the team on the other side of town. So I had to spend the rest of my time making up for the time I missed. The game is tomorrow at 3:30 p.m. I hope you can make it.

The First April Week

Shades of ‘Green

As soon as described, “it was unpleasant that W.A.R.’s manner,” the newspaper one day printed, “once again, and not discarded upon the wissen of fate. Better than that, I would have been, every one knows it.”

The notice, which was for a personal appearance of the “W.A.R.” (Wesley A. Reynolds) at the local drugstore, was noted by the editor as a more than unusual event for the town.

The notice was indeed unusual. The “W.A.R.” (Wesley A. Reynolds) had, in recent years, become a familiar figure in the local drugstore, and the notice was a welcome sight to those who knew him. It was also a reminder of the days when he was a regular visitor there.

The “W.A.R.” (Wesley A. Reynolds) was a man of few words, but his presence was always a welcome one. He was known for his cheerful disposition and his willingness to help others.

The notice was printed in the local newspaper, and it drew a number of responses. Many of the readers remembered the “W.A.R.” (Wesley A. Reynolds) fondly, and they were pleased to see him again.

The notice was, in a way, a sign of the times. In recent years, the local drugstore had become a2732

Which Is More Worth While?

The college has occasion to be proud of the splendid work being done in student dramatics in the Lobster Playhouse and the Downtown Playhouse. As O. J. Troutt indicates in his letter to the Reviewer this way, a considerable portion of the cast of “Street Scene,” the most recent offering of the downtown playhouse, is made up of local students and consequently considered close to the college, by virtue of their excellent efforts in this and other Lobster productions.

Especially do our dramatics deserve commendation when it is considered that they are presented in the face of profound handicap, in the form of the meagre facilities for the pursuance of dramatic art. The group of students who have staged “Street Scene,” the most recent offering of the downtown playhouse, have been handicapped by the meagre equipment available. Small wonder that the influenza epidemic has raged through the college, by virtue of their excellent efforts in this and other Lobster productions.

We wonder why this and certain other activities which contribute greatly toward the making of this affair worth far more than the price of admission, should be more thoroughly backed. Many students who are doing something worthwhile in spite of their handicap.

Three students for the Rose Bowl game on New Year’s Day are being given for the Baja Hotel. The Rose Bowl Banquet will be held at the Baja Hotel on December 31st. The proceeds will be divided among the three students. The Baja Hotel is located across the street from the downtown playhouse.
