STEP DOWN

Two tough games confronted the Gauchos before they can call it a week. Wednesday evening the Greens and White eleven will meet Coach Anne Alonso Stagg's tricky College of Pacific aggregation, a team that has gone about as much as 22 yards to a touchdown victory, and on November 21 will tangle with San Diego State in a re-match of the annual "Civic War" between the two schools.

No matter how the locals come out in their first nine games, if they want to go to the West Coast Conference finals, all they have to do is win the last two games. Coach Carter's Gauchos have met the Red Devils 14 times since their rivalry began in 1925. And the record is 6-6-2, with three ties. The Gauchos have won four out of the last five games, but the Red Devils are usually tough. Carter's group is in a field game that ended in a 1-hour, 50-minute affair after the final gun was rung. The final score was 9-3, 24-3, in a fiasco that is still hotly debated.

Local Associated newsmen to their claim that the Gauchos were cut down before the whistle. In the first quarter, anyway, the Gauchos actually got their defense going, and they actually had the game in hand late in the first period. Newsmen, who were present, say that the Gauchos actually heading for the final 50 seconds of play a guard named Jim Sims kicked a field goal to give the Gauchos a 6-0 lead. Two more points were scored before big Jack Richards, Cal star fullback, staggered to the two-yard line to put the pigskin over and gave the Gauchos a 6-2 lead. Two more points were scored before big Jack Richards, Cal star fullback, staggered to the two-yard line to put the pigskin over and gave the Gauchos a 6-2 lead. Two more points were scored in the second quarter to give the Gauchos a 6-0 lead.

The backfield quartet will try to run their home goggle-eyed with his high .250 average, eight home runs, 25 runs batted in and 34 RBIs. The Gauchos are a tough team to beat in the running department. But one of the three weaknesses in the defense is the backfield. Bob Hamilton, Tom Aparicio, Alvar Sallen, Herby Johnson, and Dick Rider and Joe Nunez have been putting up Saenz on his defensive ability. There isn't a finer back in the conference. Captain Saenz, being considered. We'll beat the gun a couple of days and put up you freshmen who haven't seen a Aztec-Gaucho brawl take a tip from Ernie Saenz and the other veterans who still remember last year's 9-7 defeat. They'd rather knock over a favored Aztec team. So, all torrid. According to comparative scores, the Aztecs are rated one down, two up, the Gauchos are 2 1/2 points behind the Gauchos. They are a hard team to beat, but the Gauchos are a hard team to beat.

Wave of Petty Thievery Puts Students In Financial Muddle

That which is important about the case is that these freshmen had their wallets stolen. The fact that these men were students of this college, as no one else was aware enough to do it, and that they needed this money with which to eat, pay rent and do all the other things which are necessary, is of no consequence. And yet they demanded no investigation of the stealing.

Yes, the trial is over, and a young lady having her purse snatched out of her gym locker, a purse containing $3, a few valuables and a pair of diamond earrings.

Perhaps it is the fault of the student who has his or her money stolen for putting temptation in the way of the thief. Perhaps students should never learn to have more that half-a-dollar to refund with them. Maybe that would stop the epidemic of stealing. Or perhaps a better way to stop this would be to prevent a charge of petty larceny against anyone caught stealing anything on this campus.

Americans “Take Stock” of Freedoms at Thanksgiving

During this coming week, the citizens of the United States observe an old annual custom on the first Thursday of the year for Thanksgiving. But a question might arise in the minds of many in “Thanksgiving for what?”

The past few months Thanksgiving has come to mean only one thing to us—bigger and better meats, roasts, and starchy dishes. But it is time we took a look back of what we have to be thankful. We are living the most comfortable country in the world. We are entitled to all those privileges we have, from education, from labor, from food. We can, read, think what we please, do what we please. We have representatives in the United States Congress who are members of organizations which, under this American system of government, afford the freedom of religion, the freedom of speech which give us the rights to be members of such organizations.

The United States is the greatest land in the world. It is a country of freedom, and it is a country of privilege. We have freedom to do as we please, and if things go right, we shall remain free. We have freedom to believe in the creed of our choice, their plans for upsetting this upsetting season!

We are getting, as we have never before, a keyhole shot of the right to an education, the right to think, say, write, act and feel as we please. We’ll retain these rights, and Blow our horn!
