

VOL. III

August 1, 1951

NO. 7

SONATA RECITAL TONIGHT--KRAYK
AND BROWNING TO BE FEATURED

Stefan Krayk and Lloyd Browning of the music department faculty will present a sonata recital tonight at 8:15 in the Music Hall.

The program will consist of three movements of Schubert's Sonatina in D Major, opus 137, the Elwell variations for violin and piano, a contemporary work which has never before been given in Santa Barbara, and Sonata Opus No. 13 by G. Faure, which is in four movements.

Krayk, who is a native of Poland, served for seven years in the Polish Air Force and later in the U.S. forces. He has been an American citizen since 1946. He has served as violinist in the Philadelphia Symphony Orchestra and was assistant professor of violin at Oberlin College before coming to Santa Barbara. Recently he was elected president of the California unit of the American String Teachers Association.

Browning, a member of the College faculty since 1938, recently received his Master's Degree in which he wrote a thesis on contemporary piano composers and compositions. He has studied at Claremont, Chicago Musical College, University of Chicago, Colorado, and University of Southern California.

The recital is sponsored by the Committee on Drama, Lectures and Music and the College Music Department. The concert is free to the public.

##

AUGUST SUBSISTANCE CHECKS DELAYED
DUE TO RUSH OF APPLICATIONS

Subsistence checks due on August 1, will not be mailed on time it was learned recently from the coordinator of Veterans Affairs.

The delay is due to the rush for applications for letters of eligibility to enter training by the deadline of July 25, and also to a large reduction in staff in U.S.V.A. offices. It is hoped that a special payroll will be made up before summer session ends, but this is very uncertain and checks may be delayed until September 1. (Cont. page 2)

ALL-COLLEGE LECTURE AT 3 P.M. TODAY

Provisions of the pending Japanese and American (with allies) peace treaty which will be signed in September will be the topic of discussion by Dr. James T. Watkins in the final All-College lecture taking place at 3 pm in Pine Hall 100 today.

The lecture is titled "Old Scores or a New Japan". In it Dr. Watkins will point out the great changes which have occurred in American and Japanese viewpoints in the five years since V-J Day. He will also discuss whether a Carthaginian peace or a "peace of reconciliation" will do more to encourage democracy.

Dr. Watkins is associate professor of political science at Stanford and is serving as a guest professor at UCSEB this Summer. He has taught on nine campuses of the world, including those of the Orient.

##

STAFF BOX

CO-EDITORS: Gloria Dealey (society)
Bob Tomlison (news)

EDITORIAL ASSISTANTS:

Raoul Munoz, Bill
Powell, Nina Swanson

BIRDS INVADE LIBRARY

Swallows may come back to Capistrano, but it's humming birds that come back to Santa Barbara College---every day, in fact.

Each afternoon a pair of humming birds buzz into the Reserve Book Room, tour the building, and then proceed to forget how they got in. Then it's up to student librarians Lee Beaver and Francis Laffarty to give chase and bounce them out again.

The big question around the library is "Are the birds picking out a home for a late summer family, turning intellectual, or do they just like people?" If it be the latter, there are several people in the Reserve Book Room who don't have the same affection for birds.

THEY MUST BE GOOD

Phil Jacks endorses our dark glasses. In an exclusive test, Phil perused the campus situation through a pair of our special polaroid lenses and reported back as follows: "I got just enough light to see to write addresses in my little book but not enough for anyone to pin me with the 'roving eye' routine. I'd recommend them for either campus or beach wear". Who can deny they're good with an authority doing the test? They're dirt cheap at the Bookstore.

SUBSISTANCE CHECKS (cont.)

Veterans whose homes are not in Santa Barbara and who will be leaving town at the end of the summer session should leave self-addressed stamped envelopes with some responsible person at their local address for forwarding, since the Post Office does not forward Government checks out of town. If no arrangement is made for receiving and forwarding them, they will be returned to the Veterans Administration.

* # * # * # *

PLEASE WRITE

In a serious moment, we'd like to encourage all of you to write to the guys in the service. Sure, we sell stationery but we don't care if you put your sentiments on that or a bit of wrapping paper as long as you get the job done. Letters are the most valued thing in a GI's life. Just ask the guy who's been one. The Bookstore has stamps, too, in case you're interested in the commercial aspects of this note.

COFFEE TIME SCENES

Dean Sweet did her bit to liven relations with a coffee hour last week. It wasn't too lively, but it staved off starvation for many a grouchy Gaucho.

Hosting for the affair were Patty Benko, Ellen Bernard, Nadine Stevens, and Dean Sweet who sweetly handed out gooey doughnuts to profs Wheeler, Neu-meyer, McKnobb and half a hundred undergrads.

Coffee drinkers included Phyllis Robbin, Pat Clark, Mitzi Braden and Sheila Chuck-shark.

Everybody took a hand in entertaining UCSB's and the US's newest citizen, Jack Regent, who was born in Normandy and hid himself here the hard way---via the Korean war front.

Celia Jones let Dr. Mudrick and Dr. Kenner do all her plate filling, but Norma Vesco, Shirley Wood, and Robert Bachman toted their own.

Bill Jennings talked TV as one who knows, while Betsy Longhran sat back and watched Jim Michael do his famous doughnut disappearing tricks for interested Pat Crowder and Charlotte Knoepke.

It was the kind of affair that makes good reminiscing, and that's what hill-toppers are doing now--- Remembering and talking about the Dean's coffee hour as they plop down that hard earned cash, and wondering if soon they might have a tea, for free!

A Decatur girl had her corset torn off by a lightning streak and was uninjured, but a young man who had called to borrow a book, had his right arm shattered and a piece of corset steel blown into his liver. He said he did not know she was loaded.

OFF 'n' ON THE HILLTOP

AIRPORT DRIVE-IN

- WED.- Prince Who was a Thief,
Tony Curtis, Piper Laurie
China Corsair
FRI.- Curtain Call at Cactus Creek,
Donald O'Connor
You Gotta Stay Happy, Jimmy
Stewart, Joan Fontaine
SUN.- Great Caruso, Mario Lanza
Ann Blythe
Hollywood Story

CALIFORNIA

- WED.- Valentino, Anthony Dexter
Eleanor Parker
Brave Bulls, Mel, Miroslave
FRI.- Maltese Falcon, H. Bogart
Sword of Monte Cristo,
George Montgomery
SUN.- Great Caruso, Mario Lanza
Ann Blythe
Half Angel, Lorretta Young
Joseph Cotton

FOX

- WED.- Peking Express, Joseph
Cotton, Corrine Calvert
Coming Around the Mountain,
Abbott & Costello, Dorothy
Shay
FRI.- Mr. Belvedier Rings a Bell
Mark of the Renegade,
Montalbon, Syd Charisse
SUN.- Same as Friday.

GRANADA

- WED.- On Moonlight Bay, Gordon
McRae, Doris Day
FRI.- Fortworth, Randolph Scott
Jungle Headhunters
SUN.- Captain Horatio Hornblower,
Gregory Peck, Virginia Mayo

STATE

- WED.- Cyrano, Jose Ferrar

NEW PLATES

Dr. Beauchamp his nothing on us. We got a shipment of new plates (book, that is) on Friday and they're beauts! Printed in Blue & Gold, they have the Cal seal and a bit of Latin chatter on them. Guaranteed not to fade even in a book owned by one of our 10 year undergraduates. With this addition to the line, we're convinced we have the most up-to-date bookstore on the campus.

HILLTOP HAPPENINGS

Gloria Dealey

The dance has ended, but the melody lingers on as campusites hash and rehash Friday's happy-go-lucky "howdy dance".

Here and there in the crowd we saw Pat Robinson alternating between Southern Courtney's dreamy dancing and jitterbug Tom Goodrich...Bob O'Brien consoling Pat Fleming who came stag and went home ditto-- but not willingly...Mike Casey putting Joan Novack under those pretty pink floodlights and then calling Cathy Freeman-Bill Cook over to admire the results...Robert Merone and Al Anderson looking on from the shadows... Chuck Lightfoot and Jack Garrett coming and leaving so often that the band began to time its breaks by them...Nancy Barker showing the fellas her pig latin variations... Eunice Pratt drinking cokes with Foster Stanfield...

Prize time brought with it a pretty confused emcee. Seems the most lovable lass is not, was not, and never has been on campus, in fact ballot talliers suspected Harvey of multiple voting for his own ilk. Flesh and blood winners were Rita Gaetner, for whom whole classes vote as one; and spicy Jane Carr, whose business manager needled every managable male to the polls...wasn't hard though, fellas like Duke Smith and Bob Rolph like "Spice", too.

Things they're asking about:

Will Ed Monreal, Elaine Pfister, Rod Morean, Betty Mahler, and Frank Armstrong get their boat into the water before it's time to take it out? Will Tiger Mathey really come through on that gold digging party? Of course the school's short on millionaires but with him furnishing all that technique there must be someone willing to sacrifice a nugget or two... ..

A REAL FRAME-UP

Your girl, mother, wife or any number of relatives will look better framed with one of our fancy new picture frames. We ask a lot more for most stuff than it's worth but we think these are a steal. I know you'll like them if you'll drop in at the College Bookstore and look them over. We make this suggestion since we spent the past weekend chaining the display to the showcase.

* # * # *