So This Is Civilization

1,400 Chinese Wiped Out! 40,000 Italian Troops in Spain! Mystery Sub Sinks Ship!

· These and similar headlines have been appearing regularly in the papers all over the world for quite some time. Sometimes, if it were not so pitiful, it would seem almost funny to stand aside and look critically at the lack of progress the human race has made in the last few centuries. Why, just look at the science it has made of killing people. Our poor ancestors, hundreds of generations back had to be right on top of the person they wanted to killed to do the deed, and at that, they could only kill of a chance to get acquainted with one person at a time.

Now, in this enlightened age, it is possible for a person to stand off at seve al thousand yards and completely eradicate any enemy who happens to be standing in his way. Or, by the use of the most modern of armament, he can stand 20 to 25 miles away and kill hundreds at one fell swoop. One of the best solutions, we think, to this little matter of war, is to place on a desert island all those armament manufacturers, war profiteers, dictators and militarists and let them fight it out among themselves. There is only one thing wrong with this hypothesis and that is the fact that most of them would probably exhibit a great deal of reluctance to having their own products used on them.

We sincerely doubt that there have been any great strides made forward in the last few centuries.-R.B.W.

Gauchos Battle Miners in Stadium Tonight

Hardermen Prepare for Texan Speed As Ranks Show First Squad in Fair Condition

• Fresh from their convincing victory of last week, Santa Barbara's Gaucho varsity will slip out of conference competition tonight when they battle Texas Mines at 8:00 p.m. in Peabody stadium in one of the big intersectional games of the year. The Gauchos have worked hard all week in preparation for what is expected to be a very hard-fought contest. The team is anxious to win this one and keep their intersectional slate clean. Fred Monson

Some Injured The team is in fairly good shape for the contest. Dan Mulock, regular left end, is still favoring his injured side, but will start tonight and unless he is re-injured will probably see plenty of action. Bill Chrisman will return to the team for the game, and will find all of the competition he wants from Jim Woody, who played a whale of a game against Redlands.

Oldershaw Limps

Captain Doug Oldershaw, who has been limping around all week, due to a score foot, was able to get his shoe on yesterday and will start to-night. "Greek" Valos who also played well against Redlands will be ready to go in if Oldershaw's injury bothers him. Donk Hart, minus one wisdom tooth, is set to start at cen-ter, with Al Sprague slated to see action before the evening is over. Cliff Romer and Frank Hayman have been waging an even battle all week for the starting assignment at right guard. Clair Busby appears to be a fixture at right tackle, as does Al Young, the right end, who turned in a bang-up game at Redlands.

Backs Set to Go

The "big four"-Pollock, Morelli, Yeager and Monson, are set to go to work on the Texans. Pollock played the best game of his career last week and will try to keep the southerners crossed up by his brainy signal calling. The Gaucho's "touch-down twins," Yeager and Morelli, will attempt to increase their point in Dining Hall totals and yard averages tonight. Freddy Monson, who is rapidly improving in each game, will assume triple threat duties in the game as he handles the line plunging, passing and kicking for the locals.

Intramural Games

Basketball squads include the following men: Reynolds, Lee, Thomas, Flink, Brown, Gwinnett, Bill Lyman, Brothers, Duff, Wharton, Crow, Mc-Claine, Peterson, Bookman, Shires, Navarro, Rivers, Saxe, Ulrich, Bassett, Womack, Bob Lyman, Housman,

The game, played under the arcs at the junior college field, will feature a determined attempt on the part of the freshmen to break into the win column. Both of the last two games have found the frosh playing fine ball in the first half, only to tire out in the second half due to superior reserves of the other teams.

Sanderson indicated last night that he would start Todd and Artuso at ends, Schwat and Larson tackles, Watson and Mathews at guards, and Joham at center. In the backfield, Brown starts at quarter with Stauss and Wallack at halfback positions, and Pitcher at full.

State Schools Lead Loop Ratings

· With conference play nearing a one-game climax between the two State colleges, fans are drawing interest towards the non-conference games that the Gauchos fill out their schedule with. Tonight comes the second of this group when the Texas Miners attempt to blast the Gauchos. Later will be games with Nevada and New Mexico.

While the Gauchos are playing there will be only one conference game, Redlands vs. Occidental on Patterson field. Experts are calling Redlands to win on their passing tricks. However, from this source comes a vote for the Oxy Tiger to mangle his southern neighbor. At the bottom of this article is the reason; from the Occidental comes this forecast of conference finish. It's good enough for us.

To the far south we wll receive news of important bearing on the Gaucho season. When San Diego State meets the New Mexico Aggies the dust will really fly.
