STUDENT DANCE WILL BE HELD AT HOTEL SAMARKAND TONIGHT

A Christmas dance will be given at Samarkand Hotel tonight under the auspices of the A. W. S. The A. W. S. Social Committee, with Ruth Garner as chairman, has planned a party interesting for anyone who dances.

A huge Christmas tree will be one of the features of the party. Students are asked by the committee to bring some toy for the tree. These toys will be later given to the poor children of Santa Barbara.

Another feature of the party will be a gypsy dance by one of the women students. Balloons and streamers will combine in making the dance one of the gayest of the year.

In order that everyone may have good fun dancing, and in order to better mix the crowd, a number of "change partner dances," as the Paul Jones, are planned for the evening.

Every student is urged to come and join in the holiday fun.

MRS. CROSWELL WILL SPEAK AT TEACHERS' INSTITUTE NEXT WEEK

Mrs. Croswell, head of the Art Department, will give three talks at the Santa Barbara County and City Institute to be held next week. She will give one talk on "Poster-Making for the Intermediate Grades." This lecture will be illustrated by posters made by members of Public School Art Classes.

Another talk will be on "Toy Making for the Intermediate Grades." Toys, made by the "Toy-Making" classes of this year and last, will be used in illustrating her talk. A circus, made this year, will also be used during this talk.

Her third talk will be on "Interior Decorating in the Grades." A one-room house, made by the Arts Methods class, will be used in connection with this talk. The furnishings of this living room are made of cardboard and were constructed to scale. Mrs. Croswell will thus present the problem of having an artistic harmonious living room in a simple way. The house and furnishings are such as might be constructed by grade school children.

EXPLANATION

Due to the fact that the Pacific Coast Publishing Company which has been printing The Eagle this semester, is unable to continue to do so, The Eagle will be printed hereafter by The Daily News. The Eagle regrets that the Pacific Coast Publishing Company can not continue to do the work, for The Eagle has received considerate and efficient service from this company.

EDUCATIONAL AUTHORITY WILL SPEAK HERE

Mrs. Marietta Johnson, head of the School of Organic Education, will lecture on Education here next Thursday. Her lecture will be given at 9:00 in the cafeteria. In order that no one need miss classes, second period will begin at 11:00, instead of 9:00.

After her lecture she will leave immediately for Los Angeles, where at three o'clock she will address U. of C., southern branch, on educational matters.

Mrs. Johnson will be the guest of honor and speaker at the meeting of the S. B. T. C. alumni breakfast to be held at the Alexandria Hotel in Los Angeles on December 19.

Tickets for Mrs. Johnson's lecture next Thursday are now on sale. Students may secure the tickets for 25c.

CHANGES ANTICIPATED IN METHOD OF DEALING WITH DELINQUENT STUDENTS

Dr. Thomas Milton Putnam, professor in the Mathematics Department at the University of California, visited Mr. Peters' classes in mathematics this week.

Dr. Putnam, who is chairman of the scholarship committee at the University of California, has recently submitted revisions regarding delinquent students. The problem of how to deal with Freshmen, who do not succeed in doing satisfactory work during their first semester, is being discussed by many university administrators. Dr. Putnam is in sympathy with more lenient treatment of Freshmen, advocating greater leniency in the first semester. He also advocates that Freshmen unable to meet the requirements of the first semester be put upon probation for a period of time, say one semester, and that if at the end of this probationary period they are not doing satisfactory work, withdrawal shall be required.

Probable developments in the handling of scholarship may involve revisions submitted by Dr. Putnam.

GLEE CLUBS WILL MAKE INITIAL APPEARANCE

The Glee Clubs will make their first public appearance next Tuesday morning at the Junior High School auditorium, where they will sing for the County Teachers' Institute. The program is to be as follows:

"June Rhapsody".....Daniels

PRESIDENT PHELPS LEAVES FOR NORTH

President Phelps will leave for the North Sunday night to attend a meeting of the committee on the Revision of Elementary School Curriculum, which will convene at the Hotel Oakland, Monday. Following this meeting, President Phelps will go to Sacramento, where he hopes to secure approval of the plan for the construction of a practice field below the gymnasium. A contour of the proposed athletic field was recently sent to the State Engineers for approbation. Engineers are estimating the cost of the field and a survey has been made of the land.

STUDENTS ADDRESSED BY DR. LOYAL WIRT

Dr. Loyol Lincoln Wirt, Western Secretary of the National Council for the Prevention of War, addressed the students yesterday. This is the third visit of Dr. Wirt, who spoke to the students several years ago regarding his sojourn in Alaska, and who later came here in the interests of the Near East Relief workers.

Dr. Wirt, who has been speaking on the Western coast in the interests of the prevention of war, made an appeal for world peace and friendliness. He told of the tragedy of war and of the resulting poorness and impoverishment. He issued a challenge to the young people to work for peace.

The National Council for the Prevention of War has outlined a program of peace involving four main points. The first step in the prevention of war is organization for peace. There is a need of organized fighting, not for war, but for peace. According to Dr. Wirt, one of the most favorable steps toward the peace program of the world is the Youth Movement of Germany. The youth of Germany asks on every question, "Is it right? Is it true?"

The second proposal of the Council for the Prevention of War is the support of a Permanent Court of International Justice. The Council also urges other disarmament conferences. Education is the fourth step in the peace program. Dr. Wirt made an appeal to student teachers to encourage friendliness and sympathy among the pupils.

"A CHRISTMAS CHIME" TO BE PRESENTED IN ASSEMBLY TUESDAY

"A Christmas Chime," by Margaret Cameron, will be given before the Student Body at next Tuesday's assembly. Christmas carols, sung by students from the Elementary School will precede the play.

"A Christmas Chime" is a modern comedy. The setting is laid in the living room of the home of Joe and Gladys Terrill, who are preparing for Christmas guests. Complications arise when they receive word at the last minute that the young couple whom they have invited for the holidays have broken their engagement. Their futile attempts to keep their guests out of each others sight bring out many humorous situations.

The characters for the play are:

Joe Terrill.....Eston Laughlin
Gladys Terrill.....Madeline Klink
Dolly Wakeley.....Mary Virginia Platt
Ted Owen.....Arthur Hill

Dean Ashworth is directing the play under the auspices of the Literary Forum.

EDWARD YEOMANS WILL ADDRESS SOCIAL SCIENCE CLUB IN JANUARY

Edward Yeomans, the author of "Shackled Youth," and director of the Ojai Valley School, will address the Social Science Club at its first meeting after the Christmas vacation, on "Modern Tendencies in Elementary School Education."

This subject is a vital one for students of a teachers college, and few men have more stimulating or interesting education views than Mr. Yeomans. His book, "Shackled Youth," is a delightful collection of essays of equal interest to teachers and laymen. But Mr. Yeomans was not content to remain a mere theorist. So in the fall of 1923 he founded the Ojai Valley School, in co-operation with Mrs. Gudrun Thorne-Thompson of the Francis Parker School of Chicago. There, in a beautiful little school house, Mr. Yeomans and Mrs. Thompson are building their ideas into reality.

Mr. Yeomans will be the guest of the club at dinner at The Tavern on State Street, where the meeting will be held.

According to the plans of the Speakers' Committee, appointed on Wednesday evening, these dinner meetings will become a regular feature of the club program. Speakers will be invited from time to time to address the club on subjects of general interest.

Rumor has it that the Block "S" Society is planning a dance next week. Although no definite plans have been made for the affair next week, the letter men assure us that a dance will be given by the society within a few weeks.

CAN YOU WRITE AND SPEAK CORRECTLY?

One of the essential marks of a broad education is a command of the English language. As students receiving an education, we should strive to form the habit of speaking and writing correctly. The mistakes we make in grammatical construction may seem of little consequence, but such mistakes mark us as deficient in the use of our own language.

It is well to have a large vocabulary, but it is doubly important to be able to express one's self in a correct way as far as grammar is concerned. The frequency of grammatical errors made by students upon the campus is deplorable.

Stop and think! Are you guilty of saying "It don't"? The constant use of this phrase is only one of the common errors heard among our students, but it is a good example of the inability of many to speak correctly.

Let's make an effort to improve the use of our own language by eliminating the grammatical errors which we make each day.

One of the problems which baffles university instructors of today is the problem of how to cope with the students who can not spell, punctuate, paragraph, or formulate their thoughts in an intelligent manner. To quote from an article, "Why Go To College," written by Richard Burton, Head of the English Department, University of Minnesota: "Last summer I had to flunk two male students of college grade at the summer school of a State institution in the South for work so crude, juvenile and in every way unlettered and ignorant, as to be well-nigh unbelievable. Nor was this at all an uncommon experience, up and down the land, as plenty of others can testify. Where do such people come from; how did they get there; how are they able to remain?—these are questions that baffle the searcher. Surely young men and women who cannot spell, punctuate, paragraph, formulate their thoughts on paper or even orally, or grasp the essentials of any subject of college grade, do not belong,—unless we are to give up entirely the long-held conception of what a college is or should be."

At this time of year when students are being classified as doing satisfactory or unsatisfactory work, it is apropos to take cognizance of the fact of whether or not you, as an individual, may be creating an unfavorable impression through your inability to express yourself in a literary manner.

ELEMENTARY SCHOOL PUPILS WILL GIVE EXHIBITION

The fifth and sixth grade girls and boys of the Elementary School are holding an exhibition in the gymnasium next Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock. The pupils who have been instructed by student teachers, Ruth Garner and Lucile Dexter, are anxious for an audience. They will demonstrate the use of equipment, games and dances.

Dr. Ralph S. Minor, professor of physics at the University of California, visited Mr. Peters' physics class Wednesday.

FACULTY MEMBERS WILL ASSIST IN BETTER HOMES PROGRAM

A business meeting for forming committees to work on the program for the Better Homes of America which is scheduled for next May, was held at the Chamber of Commerce Tuesday afternoon.

Miss Ebbets, who is serving on the Executive Committee, was made chairman of the Program Committee of Exhibits for that week.

Mr. Jacobs and some of his men will assist in building a house for the occasion.

UNIVERSAL CLUB HEARS TALK ON MAMMOTH CAVE

Mr. Griffin gave an interesting talk before the Universal Club last Friday. He spoke of the marvels of Mammoth Cave.

Mammoth Cave contains about 160 miles of surveyed passageways. Each path contains, according to Mr. Griffin, many wonderful formations. As the cave is made of limestone, many beautiful effects are secured by the use of colored lights. Several of the most unusual features of the cave are the "Bottomless Pit," "The Altar," "The Rogues' Gallery," and "The Dome."

MISS RAMELLI WILL SPEAK BEFORE UNIVERSAL CLUB

Miss Ramelli will speak to the Universal Club and Mr. Peters' class this afternoon on the Latin Countries of Europe. Miss Ramelli recently spent a year traveling in these countries.

STUDENT INKWELL INSTALLED TUESDAY

Last Tuesday afternoon "Tiny Boy" Annin strode down the corridor with a business like air carrying a curious looking brown box in one hand. In the other hand was a screw-driver.

"What are you going to do with that?" asked a curious onlooker.

Without a word, Mr. Annin opened the box. The onlooker was duly satisfied. It was none other than the famous much talked about student inkwell.

It must be a funny sight for the townspeople to witness when they see a group of our tardy College men on a street corner resting on their ears ready to hail any likely-looking car in order to get to the College on time.

Perry Linder and Allen Keim went to visit their homes in Glendora last week-end.

SOCIAL COMMITTEE ENLARGED BY VOTE

The amendment to the constitution that provides for a social committee of seven members was voted upon and passed by the Student Body at the meeting held yesterday. The amendment to the constitution is as follows:

WOOL DRESSES AND WEAVING EXHIBIT DISPLAYED THURSDAY

A very interesting wool dress and weaving exhibit is being shown by the girls in the senior clothing course. The dresses range in price from $6.50 to $15.00, and the ideas for design and trimming are all original.

Besides the actual technique of making garments, a study of textiles and costume design is included in the instruction and emphasis on color and line is featured throughout this course. Conservative designs and materials have been chosen, resulting in appropriateness, which is one of the first essentials of being well dressed.

Students in this class consider income as an important item, realizing that some of the best dressed women are those with decidedly limited incomes.

Much interest was shown in the weaving display. The scarves, bags, runners, sashes and neckties comprised a colorful exhibition. The weaving is under the direction of Miss Camp, and the sewing of Miss Winifred M. Frye, director of Domestic Art.

BASKETBALL QUINTET WINS PRACTICE TILT

The State College Casaba Throwers outshot the Standard Oil quintet in the College gym by the tune of 49-27 last Monday night in a practice tilt. The Rockfellers brought a strong looking outfit with them, and things looked bad for the Roadrunners until the game started; then superior teamwork told. The first six minutes of play went by without a single score on either side, and then the College drew first blood, when Anderson bagged a long shot.

The game was marred by many fouls, both personal and technical, on both sides, and considerably slowed down on that account. The Roadrunner quintet outplayed the John D's in every quarter but the third, when the latter team scored two for the Collegians' one.

High point man of the game was Jimmy Anderson, with 16 tallies to his credit. He was closely followed by Captain Firanza of the visitors who piled up 14 points for his team. A feature of the game was the long shots of Perry Linder, who made three pretty throws from the middle of the floor.

The score by periods:

	1	2	3	4	Total
Standard Oil.....	6	7	10	4	27
State College.....	11	16	5	17	49

TENTATIVE BASKETBALL SCHEDULE ANNOUNCED

Will Meet Good Teams

Tentative dates for the intercollegiate basketball schedule were decided upon by Coach Gilliland and Edmund O'Reilly recently. Most of the dates are tentative because the athletic committee has been awaiting action from the council regarding the status of the letters and the definition of an intercollegiate game. The schedule was sent to the opposing schools for approval last week; and since the various colleges have not come to a definite agreement concerning the dates of the games, the schedule is as yet only tentative.

Games with Loyola College on January 24 and with U. of C. Southern Branch on January 7 are definitely settled, while the others are practically assured. The proposed schedule is as follows:

- Dec. 13—State College vs. Santa Maria Junior College, there.
- Dec. 18—State College vs. University of Redlands, here.
- Jan. 7—State College vs. S. B. U. C. 145-pounders, here.
- Jan. 19—State College vs. California Polytechnic, here.
- Jan. 24—State College vs. Loyola College, here.
- Jan. 30 or 31—State College vs. San Jose State College, here.

Poly, U. of C., Loyola and San Jose have it out with the Roadrunners in the local gym, the Student Body will be taxed in the vicinity of $350 at least. It is up to the Student Body to boost the games as much as possible and support the team.
