Industrial Education Department Readies Leadbetter Building

Walter W. Dexter Conducts Discussion On Importance of Mechanical Instruction As Officials Participate in Opening Days

Students and faculty of the industrial education department look forward anxiously as they conclude final arrangements for the dedication ceremonies to be started Thursday which will officially approve the new industrial division building on Leadbetter mesa for occupation.

During the past week a caravan of sundry types of automobiles and trucks have plied to and from the new building, loaded with every piece of machinery and equipment in the possession of the industrial education department.

During the earlier part of the week, the lighter equipment, including tables, chairs, paper, printing type, drafting materials and other easily transportable apparatus was transferred from this campus to the imposing Spanish-type edifice across the city.

TRUCKS DESCEND

Both campuses became over-run with trucks and vans Thursday and Friday as heavier equipment, including printing presses, forges and other unwieldy and cumbersome machinery was removed from the Riviera campus to Leadbetter.

Dedication ceremonies will open Thursday and run three days, including conducted tours of the new plant, four presentations of "R.U. D.R.", machinistic presentation of the drama department, dedication ceremonies which will be broadcast over Santa Barbara's radio station KTMS and a conference luncheon.

Tours of the building will be conducted from 6:30 to 10 p.m., with time being taken out Thursday at 7:30 for the radio program and every night at 8:30 for the drama department's contribution under the direction of Frederic W. Hile. An afternoon performance, beginning at 3 p.m., will be given Saturday.

CONFERENCE PROGRAM

Conference section of the ceremonies will be held from 12 to 3 p.m. Saturday, beginning with a luncheon in the aeronautics laboratory. The industrial education conference discussions will be conducted by leaders in education and industry, according to E. E. Ericson, industrial education department head.

Topic of the discussion will be "The Place of Industrial Education in Modern Education". Conductor and main speaker will be Walter W. Dexter, state superintendent of education.

Included in the new building, in addition the very latest in equipment and machinery, are showers for students, new type wash basins with continuously running water, conference rooms for faculty members, a completely equipped auditorium, seating 350 people and including in its equipment complete facilities for motion picture presentations.

All I.E. members interested in attending the dedication luncheon to be held in the aeronautics laboratory on Saturday, February 3, can make reservations at Mr. Ericson's office by February 6. The price to all members will be 50c. To all others it will be 85c.

Men's Group Outlines Social Plans for Year

A.M.S. President Eckles Submits List Including Two Stags, 'Whiskerino'

Announcement of the Associated Men students' calendar of social events for the spring semester was made this week by Howie Eckles, president.

The program has been increased for the coming term and will include several new affairs in addition to those which have become known as traditional for the A.M.S. Planned by the group as its first event is an evening of motion pictures of past football games, to be held Tuesday, February 18. On February 25 and March 25, smokers similar to those of past years will be staged.

Entertainment for these programs will include boxing, wrestling, fencing, comedy acts, refreshments and "big, black cigars", according to Eckles. If negotiations are completed, the smokers will be held at the Santa Barbara national guard armory. If the men's cabinet is unable to make arrangements for the armory, the events will be held at the Mission athletic club as before.

The annual Hobo Brawl and "Whiskerino" will be held May 16 at Hendry's beach. On the basis of past years' records, the event should prove one of the outstanding affairs on the entire calendar, it is felt by men who have attended other Hobo Brawls.

Recently presented to the 1941 State college basketball team was a green and white water wagon, the gift of the 1940-41 administration of the A.M.S. This is the first of a series of donations that will be made from money left over from the sale of activity cards under last year's administration.

Lois Morgan Heads Group

Lois Morgan was elected president of the kindergarten-primary department during the meeting held recently at the home of Betty Stadler, 1834 Laguna street.

Barbara Boehm was elected vice-president, Ruth Larson, recording secretary, and Carol Lambrecht, treasurer.

Guest speaker for the evening was Mrs. Charlotte Elmott, child guidance director of the city schools. She spoke on the subject of Observational Records, showing graphs and discussing the different ways of recording the tarahicretics and mental abilities of children.

February 4 will mark the ninth anniversary of the department. A tea will be held February 16 at the Hitchcock house to celebrate the event. All members of the department and faculty members are invited.

Christy Announces Musical Activities

Blending the A Capella Choir, the men's glee club and the women's glee club into a mixed chorus, the music department will present to the public for the first time "Spire of Oxford" by Joseph McManus of Montecito during the dedication ceremonies for the new building on Leadbetter Mesa.

The song was written by McManus and arranged for mixed chorus, three trumpets, timpany and piano by Van A. Christy of the music department. This special number will be presented during the portion of the ceremonies to be broadcast over radio station KTMS. The Santa Barbara State college alma mater will close the program.

There will be many places open in the men's glee club, the women's glee club and the A Capella choir for those wishing to sign up, according to Christy, head of the music department.

Warren Dorn, Rally Head, Leaves College

Richards Requests Quick Application For Vacated Posts

Resignation of Warren Dorn, junior student and chairman of the rally committee, was made known this week as the popular campus leader withdrew from college because of illness.

Applications for the position which Dorn has vacated are being accepted until Wednesday of next week and must be submitted to Jack Richards, president of the associated students. After Richards' recommendation, action will be taken by the legislative council in its first meeting of the semester Thursday night in room 81, pine hall. Also open is the position of secretary of the group.

MONDAY MEETINGS

A meeting of the rally committee will be held Monday at 5 p.m. in room 80 pine hall, at which time plans will be made for half-time stunts to be used during the remainder of the home basketball season. Discussion will also be held about Roadrunner Revue scripts and technical staff applications.

During the meeting, which will be presided over by Johnny Kellner, temporary chairman, appointments will be made for staff position interviews.

According to Kellner, both old and new students are invited to attend Monday's meeting, the only requisite that they be interested in the type of activity which the rally committee carries on. Students with talent and a desire to participate in the annual State college fun show are asked to interview Kellner in room 43 at any time Monday.

DORN RECUPERATES

The resigning chairman will not return to college this semester upon the advice of his physician, who suggests that he remain at his home in Pasadena to rest. Earlier in the semester Dorn was granted a leave of absence because of a nervous breakdown for which he was confined to his southland home for two weeks.

While attending State college, Dorn was active in extra-curricular activities as chairman of the rally committee, a member of Beta Sigma Chi, social fraternity and a candidate last June for the office of Associated Men students president.

Santa Barbara Awaits SCPA Confab Here

Santa Barbara State college will play host to members of the Southern California Presidents' association, Saturday, February 22 when presidents from colleges and universities throughout Southern California convene in the Channel city to formulate plans for the Pacific States Presidents convention to be held at Catalina island in May.

Southern California presidents will attend a business meeting at 2 p.m., to be followed by a dinner for the student leaders and their guests at El Paseo. The delegates will then attend the Santa Barbara-San Diego State college basketball game in the armory.

Jack Richards, associated students president of Santa Barbara State, announced that any organizations or clubs interested in entertaining the visitors should contact him.

Last meeting of the Pacific States Presidents association was held January 22 with Occidental college acting as host. At that time discussion centered about the Catalina conclave and affairs of general interest in regard to student body administration.

The Southern California Presidents association includes all student body presidents from colleges and universities in southern California, with the area included bounded on the north by Santa Barbara and on the south by San Diego.

CSTA Hears Meet Report

January meeting of the California Student Teachers' association was called to receive the report of the C.T.A. semi-annual meeting held December 7 in Los Angeles which was attended by Neil McKay, president and Gerald Brown, vice-president.

Brown gave the report stressing the purpose and activities of the fourteen chapters of the C.T.A. He briefly summarized the committee reports on better units of administration, sick leave, certification, medical care and hospitalization, teachers' retirement, tenure, action of the Legislative committee, aid for elementary districts, salary increase and State aid of Kindergarten and first grade.

Walter Allman of the industrial education department was elected to fill the vice-presidency left vacant by Brown, a graduating senior.

Next meeting of the C.S.T.A. will be held February 10, room 80, at 4 p.m. Heads of the Certifying departments have been asked to attend and all student teachers are invited.

Print Shop Operates In New Quarters

With the expansion of the industrial education division in its new location on Leadbetter mesa, the State college print shop, enlarged by the addition of several pieces of equipment, finds facilities for operating very excellent in its new shop. This week's registration edition of El Gaucho was published on the new site, despite trying conditions of moving.

Additional equipment in the new, spacious shop includes a Model 14 linotype, folding machine, three platen presses, a large power cutter, four new type cabinets and several fonts of type.

Registrar Expects Enrollment To Equal Past Term's Figure

Officials Make Change In System to Register All Students in One Day

Irene W. Stewart Supervises Registration Proceedings Monday in Ebbets Hall; Students File According to Last Names

Regardless of opinions of educators in universities and institutions of higher learning who predict a sharp decrease in mid-year enrollments, indications during this week denote that Santa Barbara State college will maintain its record enrollment, according to Registrar Jane Miller Abraham.

Actual figures show that 180 records submitted were evaluated. Through graduation, transfers and eliminations, it is estimated that the loss of present students will number 170.

With today's schedule including an assembly for all new students, 8:30 to 9 a.m.; English A examination 9 to 11 a.m.; library lecture 11 a.m. to 12 m.; aptitude examination 2 to 4 p.m., a new procedure of enrollment for regular students will be accomplished in one day. On Monday all old students whose last names begin with the letters A through L will register during the hours 8 a.m. to 12 m. Registration will be resumed at 1 p.m. to continue until 5 p.m. for all students whose names begin with M through Z.

ONE DAY REGISTRATION

Entire registration except for limited students, will take place in Ebbets hall in the home economics building. Those students carrying from one to five units will be registered Tuesday during the hours 9:30 a.m. to 12 m. and 1:30 to 4 p.m. in the assistant registrar's office, administration building.

Students on duty at the various registration tables will be allowed to register from 7:30 to 8 a.m. Monday. These helpers, numbering 94, were issued permits in order to register at that time and must be at their respective posts at 8 a.m.

RULE BREAKERS

In charge of the registration line is Mrs. Irene Stewart, secretary to the president, who is authorized to oust rule breakers and to speed registration processes as she deems necessary.

All students are admitted by their admission cards issued at table one to returning students and where new enrollees must present their admission cards which were mailed with their evaluation reports. If this card has been lost or misplaced, a duplicate may be secured from Mrs. Phyllis W. Watts, credential clerk, in the office of the controller. New students who have not received an admission card must also see Mrs. Watts.

SEPARATE CHECKS

To speed up registration lines, students are advised to have separate checks for state registration fee ($6.50) and for student body fee ($10).

Fall semester grades will be issued through Miss Della Haverland in room 43 during the hours of registration on Monday.

Only change on the faculty directory for registration-day is that instructors in the home economics department will be stationed on the second floor of that building.

Late Flash!

Cagers Trim Gaters, 32-29

Grabbing an early lead and hanging on for the remainder of the game, Santa Barbara State's Gaucho basketball team trimmed a fighting San Francisco State college five, 32-29, last night on the losers' court.

Leading the local scoring brigade was Tommy Guerrero, forward, who ruffled the netting for 11 points. Runner-up honors went to center Lowell Steward, tallying eight points before being forced out on fouls.

Playing smooth defensive ball throughout the game, guards Dick Rider and Larry Brewster held the Golden Gaters' scoring ace, Collingwood, to two field goals. Half-time score was 19-10, with the Gauchos setting the pace.

Tonight the two squads tangle in the second game of the series.

Registrar JANE MILLER ABRAHAM this week predicted that registration figures for the spring semester would, in all probability, approximate the number of fall term students.

USC Dean Installs Speech Group Tonight

Conducting the formal installation of Tau Kappa Alpha, national forensic fraternity, tonight at 8 in the A.W.S. clubroom will be Dean Ray K. Immel, regional director of the organization and affiliated with the school of speech at the University of Southern California.

Dr. Grafton P. Tanquary, faculty sponsor of Tau Kappa Alpha, will also aid in the installation of ten charter members. Originating on the campus April 1, 1940, members include Dean William Ashworth, Frederic W. Hile, Dr. Ojhn C. Snidecor, Robert Scapino, Waldo Phelps, Harry Sloan, Frank Douglas, Harry Wollin, Leigh Silliphant and J. T. Daniels.

Three potential members will be initiated by out of town chapters of the fraternity due to absence from the city. Phelps, in Denver, and Sloan and Douglas at U.S.C., will be taken into the organization by proxy. Gilbert McKeon, sole pledge to the organization, will be initiated in a month.

Requirements for membership in the group include extensive participation in intramural and varsity forensics and a B average in speech courses and forensics.

Garden Head Shows Films

Members of the science department, especially biology majors, will meet Tuesday, fourth hour, in Room 76 to hear Maunsell Van Rensselaer, head of the Santa Barbara Botanical gardens speak on the trees of Santa Barbara.

Mr. Rensselaer is author of a recent book, "Trees of Santa Barbara." He will show Kodachrome views of local trees during the lecture.

Several trips for the coming semester have been announced. Places to be visited will include Point Sal, Morro Bay, Mount Pinos Sespe Gorge, Barstow Syncline, the ghost city of Calico near Barstow, the Tehachapi Mountains and the Figueroa Mountains.

Faculty members will accompany the students on these Sunday and week-end trips. While at Sespe Gorge they will observe the very rare Condor bird.

Gamma Delta Chi Stages First Dance

Friendliness and the traditional Gaucho "Hello" spirit will predominate at the get-acquainted-dance to be held Tuesday from 8 to 11 p.m. in the cafeteria, sponsored by Sigma Delta Chi, social sorority.

The affair will be either stag or date, according to Ruth Thompson, president of the organization, and music will be provided by the recordings of Jack Richards. Refreshments will also be served.

"We want every student in the college to come out Tuesday night and join in helping us get everyone acquainted," said Miss Thompson.

Committees for the dance include Mary Kay Lane, publicity, Miriam Kircher, refreshments and Carol Moody, refresher.

Dance Takes Defense Theme

Correspondent to the trend of current events, the social committee sponsors an all college dance with national defense as its theme at Rockwood on Saturday, February 8, at 9 p.m. to midnight.

Playing for the affair will be Bill Marvel's orchestra, providing a novel program and special numbers for dancers. Admission for the patriotic dance will be by student body cards, while guest cards may be secured in Dean Lois M. Bennink's office until Friday at 4 p.m.

In charge of the dance is Margaret Parks, social chairman, with Al Mansfield, Barbara Whitmore and Jack Newman.

Sophs, Juniors Join for Dance

All tied up in frilly ribbon and sentimental lace, the junior and sophomore classes will combine to hold a Sweetheart dance at Stearr's wharf yacht club Friday, February 14.

Theme for the affair will center around St. Valentine's day with decorations in the form of hearts and flowers for the benefit of those romantics for whom the day holds an endearing charm.

Jean Carroll's band will furnish music for the couples from 9 to 12. Admission to the affair will be by class card and classmen may bring guests for ten cents.

Ruth Suggs, sophomore social chairman and Rex Eckles, junior class president, have charge of arrangements and will be assisted by the officers of the cooperating classes.

Thirteen aggregations entered the casaba competition with 157 men participating in the 37 games played so far in the league.

The Club de Squinze, under the guidance of Jack Fitzgerald, has remained undefeated to date in the surprisingly well-balanced competition. However the race for the gonfalon is just begun with nine well balanced clubs still gunning for the lead.

Carter Reschedules Track Meet

Old Jupiter Pluvius continued its apparently planned program of delaying State college's final intramural track meet and as a result, Coach Nick Carter was again forced to re-schedule the meet. The new dates as released by Carter are Wednesday and Thursday afternoons, February 12 and 13 at Phelps field.

Golden Gaters Feature Fast Break Offense

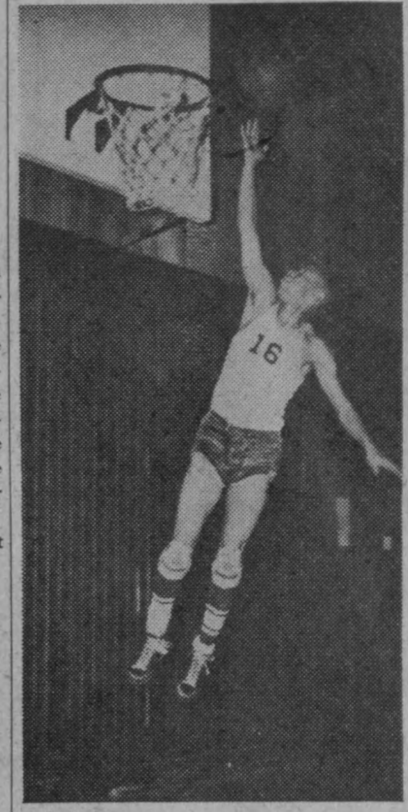

Two of the finest State college basketball aggregations tangle in second of their two game series tonight in Kezar pavillion when Coach Willie Wilton's high flying Gauchos meet the speedy San Francisco State college quintet.

Both squads boast of identical records, the Gauchos having 10 wins out of 12 tussles to their credit and the Golden Gaters capturing 11 triumphs out of 13 encounters.

It will be essentially a battle between two vastly different types of play, Santa Barbara utilizing the ball control system while San Francisco stresses a fast-breaking offense.

Starting for the Gauchos will be their usual starting lineup of Tommy Guerrero, the Green and White's Little All-American candidate, and Paddy Caudillo, forwards; Lowell Steward, center; and Larry Brewster and Dick Rider, guards.

Pacing the outfit for the Bay city five will be its classy forward wall of Ernie Loustalot and Tom McCarthy, a pair of 5'7" forwards; and Tom Collingwood, center. The trio has been averaging 31 points per game in the Golden Gaters' 13 games this season.

LOWELL STEWARD, starting Gaucha center, resumes his torrid scoring duel with Tom Collingwood, San Francisco State's towering pivot man.

Gauchos Top 2C2A Loop

Continuing where they left off last year, Coach Willie Wilton's classy band of Gaucha cagers, defending champions, are again leading the pack as the season comes to its halfway mark.

Santa Barbara with four straight wins, has a slight margin over the runnerup San Diego State college Aztecs who have won five out of six games.

Fresno appears hopelessly out of the campaign with six straight losses, although possessing a slight mathematical chance of capturing second place.

Urging that all candidates for the Santa Barbara swimming team meet in his office in Room B in the Health Cottage on Wednesday, February 5, Coach Terry Dearborn also released a list of corrections in the swimming classes.

P. E. 175—Technique of swimming and life saving. Non-swimmers not admitted. Tuesday, 2nd period—lecture. Tuesday and Thursday, 9th period—swimming at Coral Casino.

P. E. 177—Swimming (men and women) Tuesday and Thursday—9th period, swimming at Coral Casino. Limited to six men and six women and is essentially for non-swimmers.

Gymnasts Face UCLA Bruins

Lining up one of the most ambitious schedules in recent years, Coach Elmer R. Noble's Gaucha gym forces had such aggregations as U.S.C., U.C.L.A., L.A. A.C., Stanford and Occidental signed up for the 1941 season.

The gym team's first meet is with the Bruins on Feb. 15. All other dates have not as yet been definitely set and will not be released until after the dates for the conference meets have been settled.

The meet with the Westwood musclemen is scheduled for the Uclan's gymnasium and will be held on a Saturday at 7:30 p.m.

Bus Brown, rope climbing ace, is the captain of this year's Gaucha squad.

STEADY OPEN

By GEORGE STEPANIAN

Santa Barbara State college's cage forces, who have been marking a milestone in their gradual ascendency as one of the basketball powers in the West in this year's campaign, have compiled a remarkable record in the past two years. Besides winning 22 out of 29 games and possessing a record of 10 victories out of 12 encounters this season, the Gauchos boast of the rather unusual distinction of not having lost two straight games to the same team in their last two cage campaigns.

In amassing its great record, the Green and White five has won the San Jose basketball tournament for state colleges, and the California Collegiate Athletic association championship, besides placing two men, Tommy Guerrero and Larry Brewster, on the all conference team.

Of special interest to us this week was the fact that Lew Bedell was taken along with the basketball team to San Francisco. This fact in itself may answer the charges of some of Bedell's friends that Coach Willie Wilton was not giving Bedell a break.

We had a long talk with Wilton about Bedell and the Gaucha cage coach was quick to admit that the blond cager had the ability to make the team, but was as vehement in his assertions that the reason Bedell was not on the team was because his so-called friends had ruined his effectiveness to the team.

Every time Bedell made an appearance on the court, his so-called friends would put up a howl like a pack of Mongolian idiots and so demoralize the extremely self-conscious Bedell that he would go to pieces.

As long as he continued to be heckled by his friends, Bedell was of no use to the team. That's the reason he was not carried on the Gaucha team in its home games.

And that is why Bedell was taken to San Francisco. Because in the Bay city he will be away from his so-called friends and given a fair chance to make good.

We were thinking of the Santa Barbara State college of the past—a small unimportant normal school—with limited courses—small faculty and enrollment. Compare this with Santa Barbara State of today—a progressive—modern institution of real importance to this community and the state of California.

We say you have gone a long way and have reason to be proud!

Just for fun . . .

Registration day again.

It's easier to go crazy at this time than at any other moment in your college life. The Bureau of Missing Persons has reported that they have traced many thousands of people directly to registration lines in college and from there the trail is completely obliterated.

Sometimes you stand in line so much that it becomes a habit you can't control. There was a college student during the depression who stood in line so often that when he went down town after school he automatically collected four box lunches, two bowls of soup, a cot at the midnight mission, and two relief checks.

College this semester has a new meaning for many of the males who found themselves among those who will be conscripted first. The school threw a literal educational blanket around them and said in effect, "I'll keep 'em out of the draft until June." But from there on, the ex-college man is on his own. His books turn into a rifle, his beanie turns into tin hat, his cords are re-born as khaki slacks, and his rubber soled wedgies go marching over the hill as double tough army brogans. Of course, riding in those tanks will not be much different than driving around in some of the cars we've seen around here. The iron on the tanks is riveted on and there for a purpose. But the metal on the collegian's automobile was either picked up in a collision, put on for decoration, or fell there from an overhead railway.

Song War

Musicians' Battle Continues Unabated to Dialers Chagrin

It used to be that when one turned the dial on that little thingamabob called a radio, there issued forth melloious strains of stuff from Carmichael, Rogers and Hart, Coward, etc. Now the most that can happen are serials, news, and programs about how to keep Rover from scratching his fleas.

The battle between ASCA and BMI seems to have reached staggering proportions. It's something like the feud between the Martins and the Coys. Soon nobody will know whose ox is gore and then it won't make much difference because then there will no doubt be a dearth of song writers not to mention ideas.

Suggestions have been made that there be a council of war held and that the two factions bury the hatchet and smoke the pipe of peace. Such suggestions however find their way to the bone yard and the battle continues in deadly earnest.

Things have become so acute that if a syncopator wants to hear a little jive he goes down to the local music shoppe drags all the old records off the shelf and listens to "Old Black Joe," as R-E-N-D-E-R-E-D by Joe Schultz and his Dickie Birds.

Who's right and who's wrong. Well you tell us—we'd like to know. Recently a cartoon appeared in the Scripps-Howard papers illustrating an an-more help and America will answer with an "A.E.F., 1942 edition."

That, Mr. Editor, is one answer to your questions. History repeats itself; the way out for the U.S. is a solution I am not prepared to outline, but one thing is certain—our present policy is the way in.

—Robert Graves

Letter to Editor . . .

Mr. Editor:

You advocate, in your editorial of January 17, "all out aid to Britain—short of war." Can you not realize that it is impossible to stay non-belligerent and still give "all out" aid to one power, refusing the same to the other side? Have you read the terms of the agreement signed at the Hague Tribunal of 1907?

We are already at war, according to those terms; subject to legal invasion, attack, or anything else which the Axis powers wish to do. With that knowledge how can you maintain a premise that we can give "all out" aid to Britain and remain out of the war?

Our President, of whom I am a great admirer, has promised that no A.E.F. will be sent to Europe. But the sale of American destroyers was also denied by Mr. Roosevelt. Britain needed those destroyers, and she received them, she needed money, she received it—everything Britain has asked of the U.S. she has received. Will she ask for men?

Yes, just as she feels that we are prepared, England will make the plea for the aid America is capable of giving—SOLDIERS. At the moment she does not need them, but when she does, Churchill will make a last desperate plea for from final exams and the resultant "cram sessions", an estimated 1800 of us are about to pitch in and start it all over again.

BY THE EDITOR

After a brief respite . . .

This time of the college year, like New Year's morning, finds not a few students resolving sincerely to turn over the usual "new leaf" and conclude the coming semester's academic activities in a much higher bracket than the one in which they finished the Fall term.

And like the resolutions made on New Year's morning, many of these vows will fall into the discard before long, victims of a round of social affairs, bull sessions, and extra-curricular activities.

And yet, many of the students who can be heard now muttering to themselves about that fallen grade average will climb back to the top of the heap and, in June, receive a grade card that is worthy of a college student.

Many registering students . . .

will be entering the halls of Santa Barbara State college for the first time today. Many of them will be somewhat dazed for a few days by the great difference between a college and the high schools from which they have so recently been graduated.

They will notice within a very short time that they are treated as mature men and women in Gaucholand and expected to make their own decisions rather than depending upon someone else for guidance and counsel.

However, those who do get into difficulties from which they can't rescue themselves can always depend upon the traditional Gaucho spirit that prevails upon this campus. Behind every Quad pillar and beneath every chair in the Gaucho club is an old student who "knows the ropes" and can be approached for a little enlightenment.

But come what may, we welcome with open arms the new members of our little hill-top community and beam with happiness toward those old students who have found their way back to the land of the Green and White.

Evidence of the growth . . .

of this institution is prominent this week as E. E. Ericson, his staff and his students prepare to officially dedicate the new industrial education building recently completed on Leadbetter mesa.

State and local officials will participate in the three-day program next week which will open the edifice for occupation.

We wondered last week if a division was planned between the academic students on this hill and the mechanically-gifted men on the hill across town.

However, any fear of such a division has been dispelled by the assurance given by Ericson that the entire college is welcome to attend the ceremonies. In fact, we imagine they might even be allowed to take a little pride in the unit as an advancement made by the entire college.

Editorially Speaking . . .

'Lend-Lease' Bill Prompts Serious Senatorial Queries

All of the so-called "isolationists" in the United States aren't "appeasers." Many are asking legitimate questions. The "lend-lease" bill won't pass the Senate without some pertinent queries by the Nye-Wheeler faction.

Nye and Wheeler want to know British war aims, a commendable attitude on the part of legislators passing judgment on one of the most important pieces of legislation ever to appear on the agenda of Congress. In answer to the questions as to war aims, Viscount Halifax, new ambassador from England and one of the real "appeasers," gives innocuous answers concerning "winning the war first" and "stopping Hitlerism."

Everyone realizes these as war aims. But what about England's position should she win the war? Would the world again be made safe for British imperialism? Will the Labour leaders in Britain again be relegated to inconsequential positions when their services no longer require them to solicit public opinion for the government in its crisis stage? Will India obtain its freedom for which it is now ready beyond question of doubt, or will its leaders be suppressed and its teeming populations stifled within the framework of a British-imposed economy?

The United States should know the answers to some of these questions before "all-out" aid begins. But the movement for this aid is inexorable and almost unchallenged and the few voices crying in the wilderness can hardly hope to offset the overwhelming sentiment in favor of American participation.—S.C.

Local Sub Standard Housing Again Rises As Challenge

Soon to be brought into public prominence again is the vital question of sub-standard housing, prevalent in the urogressive city of Santa Barbara, an active participant in the Southern California All Winter Sun Festival.

Far famed as a small city with a cosmopolitan atmosphere, Santa Barbraa, resting on the laurels of climate, scenic beauty, history and tradition, each year attracts tourists from all parts of the globe. BUT the traveller entering from the south is not confronted by the palatial homes of the wealthy but by slums such as disgrace numberless other communities throughout this country.

Condemnation should not be directed at the majority of taxpayers for exercising an apathetic attitude but rather at the barage of false and refutable propoganda circulated by the opposing faction to prevent concerted action by the mayor and council in appointing a local authority.—N.S.
