Over the Fence

By JACK SALYER

REX IMPERATOR

A few centuries ago, a king's minster who told his monarch to knuckle under or get off the throne would soon become a headless torso. Edward VIII, progressive and democratic, finds himself opposed by the ultra conservative Prime Minister Baldwin and must choose between his throne and the lovely Mrs. Simpson. He attempted to take the issue directly to the people via radio, but was thwarted since the Baldwin party controls the BBC.

Latest reports have it that the lady in question has offered to give Edward up if "such action will solve the problem."

With shouts of "Good old Teddy" and "We want King Edward" the common people demonstrated with great gusto against Baldwin and his crew. So now, Baldwin has agreed to give the king more time to arrive at a decision. As long as the people are with the king it will restrain the Conservatives. Lord Rothermer, owner of a chain of papers, plumped for Edward and roared with indignation that Baldwin "couldn't smuggle the greatest living Englishman off the throne over the week-end." He couldn't and didn't.

NOW YOU SEE IT— NOW YOU DON'T

The Spanish war is as exasperating to follow as the ancient shell game. Yesterday Loyalist pursuit planes drove off Fascist bombers, sinking two of them, and indicating a great break for the Madrilenos who are pretty sick of having explosives dropped down their necks. Now, comes news that the Fascists were only kidding before and are going to start an earnest offensive soon. And at the same time news comes that the Loyalists have 35,000 Russian soldiers and aviators galore and are just about to kick Franco and his blackamoors out of Spain.

A.W.S. Prexy Asks Donations for '36 Christmas Basket

Associated Women students are urged by Ann Seymour, president of the organization, to make their donations to the annual Christmas fund as soon as possible.

A minimum of ten cents is being asked this year to be donated by each girl. According to Miss Seymour, the Neighborhood House asked that contributions be made in the form of money this year instead of the usual food gifts.

Students are asked to leave their money in Dean Bennink's office, the cafeteria, or the Co-op as soon as possible as the goal has been set at fifty dollars, which it is hoped will be reached as soon as possible.

Walnuts, citrus fruits, old clothes, books or toys, can also be left in Dean Bennink's office before December 18.

Glee Club Sings Over Radio Bus Trip Affords a Novel Adventure

Thirty-three members of the Women's Glee club left the State college campus at five o'clock last Saturday morning in the Gauchito bus, bound for the NBC studios in Hollywood and a 9:30 broadcast.

Melodrama, however, stalked the footsteps, and the bus, in traditional form, decided to hesitate by the roadside, as it previously had done returning from San Diego, near Goebel's Lion farm, leaving the women stranded at 7:45 a.m., 30 miles from their destination, in weather which seemed to be near the zero mark.

With his characteristic clear-

Mob Spurs Pledges in Frat Hell Week

With traffic held up and the front of the Granada theatre looking like the well-known "Bank Nite," pledges of Sigma Alpha Kappa, social fraternity, sold week-old newspapers and actually made money.

Weak-minded elderly women and youngsters alike stood in amazement watching the antics of the Greek letter organization aspirants, garbed foolishly in nightgowns, et cetera. And some of the weak minded even went so far as to pay 10 cents for copies of last month's funny papers.

The same theatre was once again the scene of a small riot as the Tau Omega neophytes took the center of the stage. Crawling on hands and knees along the gutter, they capgunned snipes. But the day of reckoning has passed, and the pledges, having braved the leers and sneers of Santa Barbara citizens are planning to don the angelic smiles and clean faces of initiation.

Seniors Elect Class Sponsor

Election Time Extended to Obtain Majority of Class Members

Because of the failure of a majority of the senior class to vote, the balloting for the class sponsor will continue today, Tuesday, November 8, in the President's office.

"It is very important that the senior students make it a point to vote today in order that the class sponsor that is elected will be the choice of the majority," said Bill Hoyt, senior class president.

Due to the demand of family illness, Dr. Elizabeth Bishop was forced to decline the nomination of the senior class following their breakfast meeting on last Friday morning. The other faculty members whose names have been nominated are Harrington Wells, Jean Krueger, Hazel Severy, Charles Jacobs and Harold Davis.

At the recent breakfast meeting the committee chairman of the senior class were nominated. They are as follows: Lawrence Leslie, and (Continued on Page 2, Column 4)

Musical Show Rates Presented Students

The music branch of the Community Arts association is making a very special student rate for the famous Joos Ballet appearing at the Granada theatre Wednesday evening, December 9 at 8:30 p.m.

This ballet comes to the western coast direct from triumphs in Paris, London and New York, and includes a cast of 24 men and women dancers. Many interesting novelties are included in their program; such as "The Big City," "A Ball in Old Vienna" and "The Green Table."

Seats selling regularly for one dollar may be obtained by college students for 50 cents. Mrs. Helen M. Barnett has tickets for sale today and tomorrow at her office in the music building.

Xmas Formal Slated for December 12

Outstanding Social Event of Season Will Be Held at Rockwood

LAMBOURNE'S MEN PLAY

Students Must Bring Books; Guest Charge Will Be $1.00 Per Person

The annual Christmas formal, outstanding social event of the Fall social season at Santa Barbara State college, will be given Saturday night, December 12, by the Associated students from 9:30 until 12:30 at Rockwood.

Fred Lambourne and his orchestra will furnish music for the dancing, with a "Grand March" as a lead-off for the evening. Decorations will consist of poinsettias and a large Christmas tree.

"Dark suits and tuxedos, for men, are both in order for the event," states Dot Riche, social chairman.

All students are urged to bring their student body books to the dance. Those inviting off-campus guests must sign up in Dean Lois Bennink's office before 3:00 p.m. Friday. A charge of one dollar will be made for outsiders.

Faculty members who have been invited to attend as patrons and patronesses include President and Mrs. Clarence L. Phelps, Dean and Mrs. William Ashworth, Dr. and Mrs. Charles Jacobs and Dean Lois Bennink. Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Warren, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Stanwood and Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Ryon will be honor guests of the college.

The college social committee composed of Bill McKenzie, decoration and program; Josephine Denman, refreshments; Harry Sloan, orchestra; and Margaret Eastwood, publicity and posters is in charge of the formal.

Masquers Present 'Ask Me Another' in Assembly Today

A short one-act play "Ask Me Another," written by Carlos Bee, featured the student body assembly this morning which was the contribution of the Players club to school entertainment.

Orville Morrison presented "Pitchers and Hicks," his original monodrama; and Cecile Katz presented a monologue, "At the Prison Gates;" while Mildred Fabing played two piano selections composed of a medley and "Rhapsody in Blue" by George Gershwin.

"Ask Me Another" is a story of a boy who wants his girl to be a mental marvel, and so he tests her knowledge of the well-known game of "ask me another."

The lead was played by Mabel Forsyth and supported by Sarah Lou Fenzi, Arthur Colton and Bob Furnas.

Rally Group Issues Thanks to Students

Climaxing their activities for the football season, Miss Helen Sweet, speaking for the Rally committee, thanks all students who cooperated with the committee in making this year's plans a success.

Carlos Bee took charge of the sale of cowbells and serpentine at Reno and San Diego. James Westcott, Betty Westcott, Shirley Cort, Theda Call, William Brothers and Las Espuelas made pom-poms. Nancy Darrow's activity committee, which included Hilda Benson, Geneva Tapie, Lyndell Brundige, Carlos Bee, James Westcott and Sherman Logan decorated goal posts, made Frosh beanies and streamers for decorating cars. Jimmy Lonsdale and Joe Albon had charge of fireworks.

Tickets to the Homecoming rally were sold by Hilda Benson, Nancy Darrow, Sherman Logan, Frank Meredith, Betty Palmameysa, Esther Carter and Al Latham.

Football Opponents Cost College Money

Final reports sent out yesterday from Fred Allred's office listed the amount of money paid football teams who played the Gauchos at Santa Barbara this year.

The four conference teams who played here, Whittier, Occidental, Redlands and La Verne, were paid a total of $2,119.88. This sum represents their share of the receipts.

The amount paid each individual team follows:

Whittier	$ 772.45
Redlands	648.61
Occidental	478.82
La Verne	220.00
Cal Tech	250.00
San Francisco	250.00
Total	$2,619.88

Grid Banquet Honors State Stars Monday

Hoyt Acts As Toastmaster As 'Bill' Herron Gives Talk

Dr. Walter Peirce, French professor, will address the group, whose membership is based on general scholarship. Members must be of junior standing, have taken six units of education and profess to go into teaching.

Invitations of pledgeship have been sent to Evelyn Braman, Gretalia Fitzgerald, Mildred Gardner, Margaret Wilson, Philip Jones, Paul Jones, Ann Seymour, William Talbot and Nini Wilson.

Noted Violinist Plays for State Jaqueline Duke Shows Unusual Genius

Jaqueline Duke, who is to give a recital before a special assembly on Friday morning at 10:45, showed her remarkable genius at a very early age.

She began the study of the violin when only four years old, and in spite of the fact that she has played to hundreds of audiences all over the country, and has already had two New York appearances, she is most unsophisticated and leads a very normal life. Her home is in San Francisco, where she studies violin under Menuhin's famous teacher who thinks she shows even greater promises than Menuhin did at her age. Although only 13 years old, Jaqueline has a remarkable

Deadline Set for Arrangements with Bus, Private Cars for Travel

Members of the English and printing departments will make their annual pilgrimage to the Henry E. Huntington Library and Art Gallery, Friday, December 11. Staters will make the trip in the school bus and private cars.

Exhibition of "Fine Books" will be the subject of the printers' trip. These books cover a period from 1300-1930, including examples of parchments and the first Gutenberg Bible. In the modern field there will be a study of the work of John Henry Nash of San Francisco, who specializes on hand set volumes of biographies and limited first editions. Also the printing group will see the collection "Fine Bindings" and the supplementary exhibits on the steps in book manufacture.

Students See Exhibit

English students will see a special exhibition of "Learning for Ladies," a display of manuscripts of Jack London, and the commemoration of William Tyndale's death. Artists Take Over Studio Management of Historical Shop

The Art department has taken over management of The Aztec studio in the original part of the old presidio, opposite El Paseo on Anacapa street. Art students will have an opportunity to sell copies of articles which they have made in classes in the shop.

Miss Mary Monden, a graduate of the art department and a member of Delta Phi Delta, is manager.

Mr. Paul Ruthling, manager of the Aztec Studios talked to the leather tooling class last week at the shop, and showed them examples of different types of handicrafts from Mexico. Mr. Ruthling was formerly with the American Natural History Museum in New York and spent several years in Mexico collecting for it.

"All the work done by the students is the result of original design. It is not copied or a result of processes," Mrs. Crosswell said, "we hope the students will visit and patronize us," she added.

maturity of tone, and memorizes very quickly. She has more than 40 compositions which she can play at a moment's notice.

There will be a 10 cent admission charge to cover the guarantee Mrs. Barnett made personally in order to give State students the privilege of hearing Jaqueline.

Miss Duke is quoted as saying that of all the hundreds of audiences she has played before last year, the Santa Barbara State college student body stands out in her mind as the most enthusiastic and cordial. She is looking forward with pleasure to her recital here next Friday.

The Army of the Unorganized

Seven social sororities exist at the present time on the Santa Barbara State campus. With fraternity rush season on, attention is called to the lack of social fraternities. Beta Sigma Chi, Sigma Alpha Kappa and Tau Omega hold down the fraternal fort.

The difference in the number of men and women in the college is not enough to warrant the difference in number of sororities and fraternities. With but two male organizations engaged in rushing activity, and the remaining one with a near-quota membership, question is raised as to the exact reason for the scarcity of these groups.

The "why" of the situation is directed toward the 350 unorganized campus males. Many are inclined in other social groups and a large number in the ever-growing Anacapa club. However, with a population of 1,000, it seems fitting that more fraternities be organized.

Perhaps students have come to accept the "Big Three" as part of Santa Barbara tradition. Perhaps a fear of usurping privileges already granted to these originals halts any move on the part of an enthusiastic organizer of a fourth Greek letter group. Whether it be custom or tradition, the time has come when a need of a new fraternity is eminent.

For the Good of the Majority

An effort is being made by the Welfare committee to enforce the necessary traffic regulations on the college campus.

The regulations are set down to provide an orderly efficient parking system and a minimum of noise outside the classroom and office windows. Faculty signs are to be observed on the northwest side of the administration building. There is no need for parallel parking at any place except on the south side of the administration building. No parking will be permitted south of the walk in front of the gymnasium.

The committee recognizes the fact that students have misunderstood the rulings in the past and have been reformed by notices. Committee members have used this method, feeling it unnecessary to bring State Highway patrol officers to the campus. Since the matter has been properly explained and diagrammed for them, students are cooperating with the committee.

By effecting the clearing of the lot north of the industrial education building, the student welfare group has provided sufficient space for all cars on campus to be parked conveniently. At a larger part of the universities throughout the country, students are not permitted to park cars at anytime on the campus. Surely, Staters can walk half a block to a class.—N.P.

Nutty Notes

By BOB GAMAGE

Hi folks. I forgot that last Tuesday was last Tuesday until it was almost this Tuesday—oh well, skip it. I'm back again anyhow.

Famous last words—(overheard in music department). Why didn't you say this darned music was written in F before I played all of it in E flat?

Are you at letter Q already? I passed that long ago.

I know at isn't right, but it sounds swell.

Aw shucks, I like The Organ Grinder's Swing a lot better.

We suggest a bouquet of onions to "Mac" for "swingin' it" on Mood Mauve at band practice.

Mrs. Barnett and her gals sure take the prize this week with their broadcast of last Saturday. We want to hear a lot more of the same.

We just heard that Ronnie Cray and Ed Cole are working up a Pastoral for 17 tympani and a Jew's Harp.

Maybe the early bird does get the worm, but who wants a worm anyhow? With this bit of philosophy I must leave you, but only until next week. Aren't you glad? Shut up.

English Department Goes to San Marino

their transportation fees is Wednesday noon. Those who placed their names on the list to take the trip should see Mrs. Bennett immediately. Faculty members on the trip will be Dr. Walter Peirce, Mr. John Porter, and Dr. William Maxwell. Dr. Peirce will travel in his own car, Dr. Maxwell will travel to San Marino Thursday to contact officials, and Mr. Porter will supervise the bus travelers. Bob Dunham will drive the bus.

Bus Leaves at 9:00
The bus will leave Santa Barbara at 9:00 a.m. and arrive in Pasadena for lunch. From here they will go to San Marino at 1:30 p.m. The bus will leave the library at 4:30 p.m. in order to arrive in Santa Barbara at 8:00 p.m.

Those traveling in private cars are Clarise, Pahl, Betty Westcott and Ann Covelle with Mrs. Verdastelle Docka; Harry Nether, Robert Marso, Paul Jorgenson and R. Kirtzel with Dr. Peirce; Jane Leslie Kay Schmitter, Irene Baptiste and Norma Bassi with Mr. Dave Larson, Los Prietos instructor, and three other students have no means of transportation as yet.

Frosh Class Holds Candy Sale in Quad

The Freshman class will hold a candy sale on the college campus, in the quad, all day tomorrow. A box of homemade candy will be given away at 3:30 p.m.

All candy must be brought to the home of Lillian Lang, 1823 Loma street, tonight. Freshman dues may be paid at this time.

The class officers, David Jones, president; Pat Forsythe, vice-president; Lyndell Brundige, secretary-treasurer; Lillian Lang, social chairman; and Betty Palmaymesa and Clarence Lair, council representatives, will be in charge of the sale.

Long Shots

By LONGIE

Now that it is getting near the close of school, at least for the Xmas vacation, it's time to do a little predicting, so here goes.

For the Christmas formal: Harold Sanderson in all probability will escort Marjorie Bush, Barbara Tibby, will be seen, with Frank Meredith, Larry Mail will squire Dede Biller or Audrey Fletcher. It's a known fact that Ted Joham will take Norma Bassi, while Norman Phillips will have Irene Minikin in tow.

There must be something in it, yes? . . . Toots Arnold and Frank Hayman, also Chris McDonald and Terry Boyer . . . Would anyone at Anacapa House know what happened to two very, very interesting magazines that are missing from a certain home in the Goleta district? I think they would.

Tiny Garman and Jack Smith are this year's "champion car-sitters" . . . What's the matter Audrey? You're losing the title! . . . Hear that Ross Lamoreaux made himself a trifle unpopular in Intro, to Ed, the other day . . . Carlos Bee took Kay Stock to a "kid party" Saturday night, maybe there is something in "the romance of the theatre" after all.

The football fellows were a trifle mopey around the campus yesterday morning. It must have been due to all the chicken they ate Saturday nite, I wonder!!! A new combination—Doris DeAy and Sherm Logan.

Nominations for the nicest guy and gal of the week go to John Twaddell and Eleanor Benham. That's all—Bye.

Radio Ranglings

Two of tonight's guest artists are Kate Smith and Ted Fio Rito. Kate Smith will fly to Detroit to appear on the Ben Bernie program at 6 p.m. over NBC. At 7:30 p.m. Ted Fio Rito will make his second appearance on the Portraits in Harmony series. Both are good programs.

Martha Raye is ready for the Al Jolson show. It is rumored that she will get $1,000 per broadcast. This is another program which would be helped a great deal by television—then you could see her swing it, while she is singing.

One of the oddest accidents to happen for quite a time happened the other day. Jack Costello, NBC announcer, was having a bit of trouble with his script. He held on to the microphone, with one hand and with the other reached over to pull a lamp closer. The lamp cord broke and a charge of electricity was sent through his body. He couldn't let go of the mike and it became over-balanced and swung around hitting him. This knocked him down and broke his shoulder.

Notes about everything—Joe Penner and his wife are celebrating their ninth wedding anniversary . . . Rudy Vallee is to start a picture in about a month . . . Paul Whiteman says he is going into semi-retirement . . . Girls in the Phil Spitalny band are charged a dollar every time they are late . . . Richard Himber's contract has been extended for a year . . . the Good Will Court may be off the air in a bit . . . Gladys Swarthout is scheduled to make her debut on December 14.

Al Jolson, Sid Silvers and Martha Raye are scheduled to take the place of Ken Murray and Oswald. Russ Morgan will probably supply the music.

A company that specializes in electrical aids for the hard of hearing is turning out a radio which will permit them to hear the programs. It will be available around Christmas. This will make a nice gift for some people.

All-Conference Team Chosen by Grid Heads

Gauchos Outplace All Other
Teams on Mythical

FOUR GAUCHOS PLACE

Tentative Schedule for 1937
Season Drawn Up at Meeting

Winning the Southern California Conference championship didn't mean much for the San Diego Aztecs when the coaches of the schools of the conference met last Saturday to pick the official All-Conference team. The Aztecs placed only two men on the first string while El Gaucho of Santa Barbara led the parade by placing four on the honorary team and the Poets of Whittier put three of their stars in this year's hall of fame.

Included in the selections were three linemen and one backfield performer from the Big Green, two linemen and one back from Whittier, two linemen from San Diego and one back from Occidental and Redlands. La Verne failed to place anyone on the all star eleven.

The Gauchos, led by Howard Yeager, picked on the squad were Doug Oldershaw, Al Young and Clair Busby. In addition to these men on the first team, Don Hart and Bob Morelli were picked to grace the second team, and Fred Monson and Dave Pollock were given honorable mention.

The coaches and managers at the meeting also made out the schedule for the 1937 season. Next year finds San Diego coming to Santa Barbara on November 20 to wind up the season for the Gauchos. The Big Green starts the year by entertaining Arizona State on September 25. The dates for October 2, 9 and 23 are only tentative as yet, because of the failure of Brigham Young to reply. However, Occidental and New Mexico will be met on two of those dates.

The following list is the schedule as it now stands:

- *September 25, Arizona State.
- *October 2, Occidental.
- October 9, New Mexico.
- October 16, Redlands.
- October 23, Brigham Young.
- October 30, Whittier.
- *November 6, Nevada.
- *November 13, La Verne.
- *November 20, San Diego.
- *Home games, ? question about date.

Big Green Gridders Start Practice for Christmas Day Go

Varsity football practice for the coming game with the New Mexico Aggies on Christmas Day will start tomorrow. The squad will include 31 members of the original team. Practice will continue up to a day or two before the game. Suits will be reissued to the 31 players reporting, and a series of light practices will begin immediately.

New Mexico will bring a squad that is representative of the type of teams of the Southwest. By a comparison of scores they rate even or slightly better than the Big Green, the Aggies tied San Diego and Beat Flagstaff 41 to 0.

The following men will report for practice: Oldershaw, Hart, Hayman, Joseph, Gardner, Hale, Fredburg, Twaddell, Riparetti, Poole, Busby, Voorhies, Gilkerson, Young, Mulock, Willis, Erbes, Seeley, Triqueiro, Pollock, Swanson, F. Monson, J. Monson, Gardenhire, Morelli, Palmer, Lee, Smith, Johnson, Yeager and Weld.

In the "Songfest" during U.S.C. "Homecoming Week," sororities as chosen by the fraternity members will sing fraternity songs, vying for the cup.

TWENTY THREE MEN EARN FROSH GRID NUMERALS

Twenty-three members of the Santa Barbara State college 1936 Freshman football squad today were awarded "40" numerals for outstanding performance on the gridiron during the current season.

Of this number all hail from California high schools with exception of one who entered the Gaucho institution from Longmont, Colorado. Twenty-three numerals constituted total awards to a squad of 42 men who reported at the beginning of the season.

Ten of the 23 were members of the Santa Barbara High school C.I.F. championship football team of 1935. Named last week by Frosh Mentor Mayville "Doc" Kelliher for numerals were: ends, Robert Coffey, Santa Barbara; Larry Main, Lompoc; Warren Farrar, Santa Barbara; Wilson Pollard, Longmont, Colo.; Norvin Ewing, Santa Barbara, Tackles, Fred Valenzuela, Tulare; Clifford Romer, Santa Barbara; George Gray, Long Beach. Guards, George Valos, Bakersfield; Clarence Lair, Lompoc; Blanton Clark, Santa Barbara; Warren Wood, Jr., Oxnard; John Echenique, Bakersfield; Norman Davis, Tulare. for Morelli, Monson, and Gardenhire

A season completed with a single loss, the 1936 Gauchos are preparing to hand in their football uniforms after a final post-season game with the New Mexico Aggies. While this game is still to be played most All-star teams have been drawn up.

While there has been an innumerable amount of praises for each individual of the team, there has Frank Hayman been one player that evidently no one remembered to laud. Frank Hayman, the team's local boy. While entire play-by-play account records fail to display the reference to Hayman's name once; opponents have been described as being knocked over by some unknown. In such cases the first thing to do was to locate Hayman.

As a player Hayman stuck like a tree-trunk and no opponent could succeed in blasting him over on every play. When plays began to come his direction he soon put a stop to their coming and as a result plays have not been run through his spot. On offense he has the responsibilities of seeing Morelli get through the line and that he got through without being interfered with. Possibly the fact that power plays come so close to his spot is the reason that Monson-Gardenhire gains are so consistent. Is this not sufficient strength for Hayman's status, it should be remembered that Coach Harder considered Hayman unquestionably the first-string tackle with no threat from the substitutes.

Of players through out the present season various ones have been pointed out as stars of this group there is only one who will be lost by graduation. This one is Johnnie Twaddell, left tackle. To fill this spot there is Earl Fredburg who who held this spot in partnership with Twaddell.
