Radio Rainings

Two of tonight's guest artists, va Kate Smith and Ted Fid Rile, Kate Smith will try to Detroit to appear at the Ben Berrie presen, at NBC. 7:30 p.m. Ted Fid Rile is scheduled to make his second appearance on the Portrait in Har- mony show. Both are goods pro-

Martha Hyas is ready for the Al Jolson show. It is rumored that she will get $600 per broadcast. This is another program which would be a great success in TV—he can see her very well.

One of the odddest accidents to happen for quite a time happened recently to Jack Coakley, WMSR announcer, who has a lot of fun on his script. He held on to the microphone, with one hand and with the other hand to pull over a lamp closer. The lamp could break and a charge of electricity would be a danger to his body. He couldn't let go of the lamp and it became over-balanced and swung around him. This knocked him down and broke his shoulder.

Notes about everything—Joe Penner and his wife are celebrating their wedding anniversary. Rudy Vallee is to start a picture to make here. There is a rumor that William Wills be going into semi-retirement. The Pini Spitalny has been charged by a man. Gradship. Richard Higham's contract has been extended for a year. "I know you will court of the air in the Big Bands" and will be made to debut on December 14.

Al Jolson, Sister and Martha are going to appear in the play. Are you glad?"

FAMOUS LAST WORDS—(overheard yesterday morning). "Are you at letter? I know it isn't right, but it sounds swell."

"That's all—'Bye."
