Issues of Student Concern

COMMUNITY AFFAIRS BOARD (CAB): To get the most out of your time here at UCSB you need to reach out in your specific areas of interest. If you are interested in getting in touch with the community then this is the board for you! CAB will provide you with possible career directions as you pursue your extracurricular activities. You will participate in various community outreach programs in your particular field of service interest. Come be a part of a strong public service tradition with CAB.

INTERNATIONAL EXCHANGE COMMITTEE: If the university you wish to participate with in an exchange program does not currently correspond with UCSB through the Education Abroad Program IEC compensates.

ISLA VISTA COMMUNITY RELATIONS: Students are impacted by things that transpire in Santa Barbara County and Isla Vista. Funding for programs and services in I.V., along with parking, police relations and education on community issues are things addressed by this committee. Owing to the complex nature of life here in Isla Vista and UCSB there are an infinite number of areas this committee must look into.

COMMISSION ON THE STATUS OF WOMEN: This is actually a group of sub committees funded by UCSB undergrads for the purpose of keeping Leg Council updated on key issues concerning women. Affirmative Action, Violence Against Women, Rape Prevention and Education, Women's Health, Lesbian Issues and Cultural Awareness; some of the major issues to be addressed by this committee.

RECYCLING COMMITTEE: Constantly keeping students aware of the need for recycling, this committee's projects will address new ways to re use Isla Vista/campus clutter. Members of this committee will work with members of the community and outside organizations to keep recycling a major campus issue.

STUDENT COMMISSION ON RACIAL EQUALITY: (SCORE) is funded by UCSB undergrads to provide students from diverse ethnic backgrounds with the resources they need to feel comfortable at UCSB. This group also involves themselves with the implementation and support of related rules and regulations. By networking with outside organizations and other campus groups SCORE attempts to deal with the pervasive problem of racism and other related issues.

STUDENT LOBBY: This group helps students to confront political and social interest issues in a variety of forms. In opposition to the military build up in Saudi Arabia during the Persian Gulf conflict the Lobby helped in the funding and organization of rallies and a teach-in. Student participation helped to make a crucial stand in the face of world politics.

UC ACTION NETWORK LOBBY: UCAN organizes campus and outside women's groups in the hopes of raising participation and awareness levels among women. One of the most important aspects of this group is the lobbying impact it propels. Whether on campus or in state legislature UCAN makes its voice heard. In the capacity of liaison to the "Women Students' Project" desk in the UC Student Association office in Sacramento, UCAN keeps up with all current UC women's issues.

The Money

FINANCE BOARD: All student organizations wishing to transfer funds from one account to another or have travel requests approved must go to the Finance Board with their case. In addition to issuing funds designated for specific things, Finance Board must also distribute unallocated funds with Legislative Council approval. Any group who wants some of these funds to be distributed their way must attend a weekly Finance Board meeting and present a proposal.

A.S. INVESTMENT ADVISORY COMMITTEE: ASIAC is an advisory body which serves the Legislative Council and the A.S. with financial information for the purpose of investing A.S. funds. The Legislative Council will have the final say on all investments.

A.S. UNDERWRITE BOARD: This board is comprised of people who want to see campus groups thrive financially and are willing to help. In order to assist groups with their fund raising efforts Underwrite gives interest free loans based on specific criteria. All groups serviced by this board get a chance to hold their event with an interest free loan and thereby have a shot at making a profit.

CONTROLLER: This officer provides financial advise to the Legislative Council for their accounts and capital expenditures. In addition to that the Controller also advises boards and committees on making their budgets and keeping their overhead down.

Academics

ACADEMIC AFFAIRS BOARD; To insure the continued improvement of undergrad educational opportunities, this board keeps students in touch with issues. Maintaining communications between faculty, students and administration is a key concern of Academic Affairs.

FACULTY AND COURSE EVALUATION SURVEY: FACES helps students to choose the courses and instructors that will best aid them in their studies at UCSB. General education courses are evaluated and the evaluations are published for student information. Coordinators, editors and runners are paid on this board!

Student Disputes

COLLECTIVE BARGAINING COMMITTEE: Collective bargaining is always a complex issue. Here at UCSB the CBC makes the process a little easier. In the areas of law and communication involved in collective bargaining the CBC acts as an overseer. If a student has a conflict with the faculty or administration of UCSB or the UC system as a whole, the CBC will represent them and provide mediation.

STUDENT ADVOCATE: This officer provides students who have conflicts with crucial University policy information as well as acting as a CBC advisor.

A.S. Law

CONSTITUTION & BY-LAWS: This committee makes recommendations on matters having to do with the A.S. Legal Code. Committee members become well versed in the complexities of the code and learn how to apply it to legislative decisions.

JUDICIAL COUNCIL: Functioning much as the Supreme Court functions as the judicial branch for the country, Judicial Council in A.S. resolves Constitutional conflicts. As outlined in Article V of the A.S. Constitution the Council makes decisions on cases between two parties in which a conflict of Constitution or By-Law has arisen. After a closed session the Council will resolve the matter with a final judgement.

ATTORNEY GENERAL: The person occupying this position must act as an investigator and prosecutor in cases brought before the Judicial Council. This officer must have a working knowledge of the A.S. Constitution and By-Laws in order to fulfill both the role of prosecutor and advisor to those bringing cases before the Council as individuals.

Communication

LA CUMBRE EXCELLENCE COMMITTEE: This committee helps to improve the quality of the UCSB yearbook. By keeping informed on the progress of other collegiate yearbooks and providing the yearbook staff with this information this committee dedicates itself to improvement. La Cumbre Excellence also keeps informed of national agencies in the print media forum and lets the yearbook staff here know what advances their making.

PRESS COUNCIL: Student funded papers at UCSB rely on the Press Council to oversee all editorial functions, approve and amend budgets, and choose editors-in-chief. Although Press Council is the publisher of student funded papers it does not seek to control the content of the publications. By acting to preserve the first amendment rights of the press this council creates a balance of power in UCSB media.

RADIO COUNCIL: As the governing board of KCSB this council is a policy setter. Goals of the station, codes of conduct and budget issues are some of the many areas this council has an opportunity to address.

Areas of Campus Interest

BUSINESS SERVICES: A.S. Business Services is comprised of many different businesses already with more to come in the future. A.S. Bike Shop, A.S. Cashiers, A.S. Publications, A.S. Word Processing, A.S. Notetaking and Legal Services are the major businesses. This committee makes certain that all businesses comply with contracts and established policies. Within this committee there is a subcommittee who creates, reviews and puts into action business related proposals.

CAMPUS DEVELOPMENT COMMITTEE: By providing a Student Impact Report at the end of each quarter this committee informs students about campus development. Part of this information will involve addressing issues that affect the quality of graduate and undergrad life at UCSB.

COMMUNICATIONS BOARD: This board is an information network which attempts to keep all undergrad students informed on A.S. activities in an unbiased way.

ELECTIONS COMMITTEE: With its weekly meetings during the spring quarter the seven members and one chair organize the big general A.S. election and any other elections that fall under the category of being special. This committee helps to keep the students in touch with the candidates and their positions on the issues.

PROGRAM BOARD: All students interested in being a part of this board are encouraged to visit the Program Board office on the third floor of the UCen. Find out more about the diverse entertainment this board provides the students and community with each year. If you want to gain experience in coordinating entertainment events and producing activities for the campus you may want to check them out.

The Campus Administrative Committees and Advisory Boards serve two functions (1) to respond to requests for advice and (2) to identify needs or concerns within the charge the
