by the Editor

CRUMB OF CONSCIENCE

You can invariably diagnose the symptoms shown by both students and faculty in the week before "cinch" notices are scheduled to arrive in the mailboxes. Faculty members who have neglected to quiz their classes on some subject or another the first part of the semester, immediately issue a call-to-arms, as it were, for hurried examinations to take place before the pros must turn in "the lists." You can easily account, therefore, for harried looks on the part of the studes who have five or six classes from the conscience-stricken instructors who feel called upon to have, at the last minute, something on which to base their flunk calculations.

WAY OF TRANSGRESSOR

El Gaucho is more than willing to print the stories submitted to its reporters regarding the activities and decisions of the major organizations and departments of the institution. However, to secure correct information, the Gaucho "cubs" are sent to the faculty advisor or top student representing the group. Inasmuch as we wish to print the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth (so help us God), we must rely on the accuracy of such information. May the responsible ones take heed, and know before they leap, or be sure before they talk.

Prominent Coeds Take Part in Pictures

Several prominent Santa Barbara women were subjects of a series of publicity pictures taken yesterday afternoon by Mr. Salter, a member of the photography staff of the Los Angeles Examiner.

Petie McKinney and Irene Minikin, editor-in-chief and managing editor of El Gaucho were photographed together depicting their interest in newspaper work. Dorothy Riche, chairman of the social committee; Wilma Kiesner, rally committee head; Gretalie Fitzgerald, editor of the hand book; and Pat Ireland, first vice-president of the A.W.S. posed together in a studious mood.

A third shot was taken in the A.W.S. clubroom of Ann Seymour, president of the A.W.S.; Rena Sacconaghi, secretary of the student body; Ester Carter, junior council representative; Lyndell Brundige, freshman class officer and Miriam Turton, A.W.S. president elect.

A final view was taken of Barbara Sharp, Renata Maccianti, Catherine Westaway, Seed Hoelscher, and Marty Gibbs in the Gaucho clubroom and a picture of Stella Mae Smith on the campus.

Pictures have been taken of Redlands university women which were published yesterday in the Los Angeles Examiner, and the pictures of State women will be printed next week.

St. Olaf's Choir Gives Program

Santa Barbara has been honored this year by being included in the annual tour of St. Olaf's Lutheran choir, which will give a concert Sunday evening, April 11, at 8:30 o'clock in the high school auditorium under the direction of Melius Christiansen.

This group has sung before critical audiences in the largest cities in the country and has created a sensation at every appearance, according to Mrs. Helen Barnett, head of the music department. Mr. Christiansen was one of the first directors to realize the beauty and importance of a capella singing and has succeeded in making his group one of the foremost choirs of its type in the country.

Students can attend the concert for the price of 50 cents.

Report Read

April 23, a Friday, was selected as the date for student body elections by the student legislature, at its regular meeting last night in Pine hall. Petitions may be obtained from Barry Simmons, chairman of the election board and vice-president of the student body, next Monday, April 12.

Campaign speeches will be given for candidates at a special meeting of the student body in the auditorium, April 20.

Band Awards Named

Band awards were approved for Fred Lambourne, Ed Cole and Bob Gamage. Five Glee club awards, for women, were also approved.

A report was made on the Roadrunner Revue financial results, and a recommendation was made by the Revue committee to place the surplus in a sinking fund to take care of properties, equipment and other expenses necessary to be able to give stage productions on the State campus.

Hales Reports

Nat Hales, student manager of Estudiantina, requested that the legislature appropriate money necessary to take care of the annual day set aside when the college is host to students from 23 high schools and junior colleges in California.

FIVE PLEDGE HONORARY FRAT

Five pledges were inducted into Alpha Phi Gamma, national honorary journalistic fraternity, at a meeting held Wednesday evening at the home of Bill Hoyt, president of the organization. The students invited to join the group are Jack Kitchen, Norman Phillips, Jack Salyer, Betty Wishard and Jean Kandjounzeff, a carry-over pledge from last semester.

The meeting was then turned over to a discussion of the Associated Collegiate Press convention which is being held today on the campus. The committees for the meeting gave their reports. The group also decided to cast a vote for an eastern candidate for the national presidency of the fraternity.

Members present were Petie McKinney, Dorothy Hornor, Leona Rasmussen, Irene Minikin, Nat Hales, Lawrence Leslie, Bob Paden, and the host, Mr. Hoyt.

Over the Fence

FORD'S TURN

John L. Lewis is urging his boys on with enthusiasm in their invasion of the last sanctum of the open shop represented by Henry Ford's automobile factory. Ford, who is notoriously anti-union, declares that Lewis will never succeed in unionizing his factory. Lewis, of course, says he will. He further points out that General Motors and Walter P. Chrysler made the same general statement and both have since changed their minds.

It is really amazing that Lewis could gain a toe hold in the Ford plants because the sage of Dearborn has a very efficient spy system called "Factory Service System," and any worker who whispers contraband words such as "union" finds himself outside in short order. ## Dr. William A. Maxwell Addresses Group At El Cortijo Dinner-Dance After Campus Meeting

Dr. William A. Maxwell, professor of the English department on the campus, will be the principal speaker at the dinner-meeting of the Southern California Collegiate Press Association convention to be held this evening at 7 p.m. at El Cortijo. His subject will be "The English Language."

Members of Alpha Phi Gamma, national journalistic fraternity, and El Gaucho staff are cooperating under the leadership of Bill Hoyt, president of the fraternity, and Petie McKinney, editor of El Gaucho, in staging the convention which will be held this year in junction with the annual High School "Journalism Day."

Delegates from 15 colleges, junior colleges and universities, and 10 high schools will arrive on the campus for registration at 12:30 p.m. in the Women's club room. A general meeting of the convention will be held at 1:45 p.m. in room 80. The members will then deploy to various panel discussions to be held in rooms 81, 82, 83 and 84 of Pine hall.

Four Panels Planned

The subjects for the panels include "Editorial Writing," led by Mr. C. A. Storke, II; "News," Larry Smith; "Make-up," Harold Jacobs; and "Advertising," Fred Bartlett. Results of the various forums will be combined in a joint meeting at 3:30 in room 80.

A tea will be given for the guests in the Women's Club room at 4 p.m. which is under the general chairmanship of Pat Ireland, A.W.S. social chairman and Helen Longawa, with the assistance of Geneva Tapie and Kay Stock.

The regular business meeting of the Associated Collegiate Press convention, under the presidency of Petie McKinney has been called for 4:30 p.m. after which the convention will be adjourned until the dinner.

Cooperation Good

"Members of El Gaucho staff and Alpha Phi Gamma have cooperated to such an extent the convention cannot help but be a success," stated Miss McKinney.

Committees for the event include housing, Lawrence Leslie and Irene Minikin; dinner, Nat Hales; posters and cards, Allen Neil and Armae Brewster; tea, Helen Longawa, Margaret Eastwood, Geneva Tapie and Kay Stock; registration, Dorothy Hornor, Leona Rasmussen; guides, Bob Paden, Norman Phillips, Bob Moore and Jack Kitchen; program, Bill Hoyt and Yale Lorden.

"Early organization shows that an excellent convention has been planned, and reservations indicate an attendance which passes that of a year ago," stated Bill Hoyt.

Lobero Presents Concert Today

Several outstanding young artists will be presented to the Santa Barbara public in a concert at the Lobero theatre this evening, at a special rate of 50 cents for students and faculty.

Among the performers will be Russell Horton, tenor, who sang with Grace Moore in "One Night of Love;" Ruth Terry Koechig, mezzo-contralto, who is a ghost singer for Kay Francis and other motion picture stars. Miss Koechig is a graduate of Pomona college of 1929. The final artist in Edna Knox, pianist, who has studied with Olga Steep in Leipzig. Miss Knox has appeared in many European countries as concert pianist.

Mr. and Mrs. McKelvey and Miss Helen Sweet will give a dinner honoring all of the concert artists.

NEWMAN'S HAVE DANCE

Members of the Newman club, Catholic organization, enjoyed a dance recently in Junipero Serra hall. Marion Gragg supervised all arrangements for the affair, which was attended by approximately 30 guests.

College Exhibits Lungren Art

Exhibition of the Lungren Art collection is now being made in two downtown banks until the college can construct a suitable art gallery. The exhibit includes 50 out of 300 pictures left to the State college upon the death of Fernand Lungren, artist of the American desert, in 1932.

Extracted from his will is this statement: "It is my wish and intention to have my small estate benefit as many as possible. As my artistic efforts seem to have given a large number of people considerable interest and pleasure, it has seemed well to preserve in one group those pictures remaining in my studio and gallery to be held permanently for the use of the people of the city of Santa Barbara and its vicinity, in memory of my wife and myself, in appreciation of the happiness we found in this community, with the hope that this provision will result in as much pleasure to the community as I have in making it."

Toastmaster

Aiding with convention work is Bill Hoyt, president of Alpha Phi Gamma, who will act as toastmaster at the dinner for the collegiate newspapermen which will be held this evening at El Cortijo.

Don Follett Calls Service Group Meet

Members of the constitutional committee of the newly organized men's service club on the campus, which is still as yet unnamed, will hold a meeting Sunday evening for the purpose of discussing a constitution and by-laws, according to Don Follett, temporary chairman of the group.

Six prominent leaders on the campus who are included on the committee are Bill Hoyt, president of the senior class; Dave Pollock, director of the recent Roadrunner Revue; Nat Hales, managing editor of El Gaucho; Bill Poole, president of Sigma Alpha Kappa fraternity; Ed Cole, junior council representative; and Dick Wichman, president of the College Y and Alpha Phi Omega.

The next meeting of the entire group will be held Tuesday evening at 6 p.m. in Ebbets hall at which time plans will be made to aid in the presentation of Estudiantina.

Glee Club Sings at El Encanto

The Women's Glee club will give a complimentary concert tomorrow evening, April 10, at eight o'clock in the lounge of Hotel El Encanto. College students and their friends are cordially invited to attend the concert.

The club will sing several groups of songs, widely contrasted in mood and character, and will use the Italian street song as a final number.

The Glee club will be assisted by Katherine Phelps, popular violinist.

The Four Hundred?

In glancing at the campus calendar, it is obvious to see, from the viewpoint of a casual bystander outside the ranks of the Interfraternity council, that, to put it tritely, "there is dirty work at the crossroads."

Two events, both concerning fraternities, are scheduled to take place on Sunday, April 1, within a few miles of each other. One is appropriately labeled, "Inter-Fraternity Picnic," and the other, "Beta Sigma Chi, College Cabin." That is in one sense of the word, a contradictory statement.

Reports from the moguls of the council, indicate, that over a month ago, a meeting of the group was held, at which time it was decided to hold such a get-together involving four campus fraternities. This was a unanimous decision.

However, these same reports also indicate that the picnic was originally scheduled for April 4, but changed to April 11, due to sorority initiations. Thus, a loophole for the Beta Sigma Chi's. Again to the observer, it seems that the trend of fraternity discussion is revolving around the fact that the members of the strayed fraternity are of the opinion that their exclusive gathering is more valuable than that of the whole group.

Realizing the purpose of such a four-way meet, based on promotion of good-will between the organizations, it appears to be a selfish and unsportsman-like action on the part of the oldest fraternity on the campus.—C.O.

A Need Fulfilled

In response to student application through letters and verbal pleas the student welfare council has seen fit to grant permission to the Industrial Education department to sponsor noon dances in the music hall to be given semi-weekly.

The tables in the Gaucho club had been changed upon the installation of the Wurlitzer machine to facilitate dancing but the room is definitely inadequate to hold a large number of students, hence the agitation for a place to hold a larger group. The fee for the dances has been placed at a minimum so that no student will be unable to go because of financial difficulties and the music will be outstanding as it is composed of the best talent on the campus.

With the added attraction of a longer noon hour it should be easier to further friendships and make new acquaintances during the dances. Candidates for student body offices will be able to advertise their qualifications through this useful media also.

The students have raised their voice and expressed their wish and in answer the powers that be have seen fit to grant it. It is now up to the students themselves to take advantage of the opportunity of the noon dances to start soon in the music hall.—I.M.

The Fourth Estate

This afternoon, the Santa Barbara State campus is the scene of the semi-annual Southern California Collegiate Press Association convention, with the representatives of 16 colleges, junior colleges and universities of Southern California as the guests of El Gaucho. In conjunction with this convention the local chapter of Alpha Phi Gamma, national journalistic fraternity, is holding its annual High School Press convention, to which the tri-county high schools have been invited.

The students and faculty should feel honored by this event, as it has been only one year and a half since a convention has been held on this campus.

The staff members of El Gaucho and the members of Alpha Phi Gamma extend a hearty welcome to the delegates of the various schools, colleges, universities, and junior colleges to the convention.—H.L.

To get out of bed every morning before six and do an exercise routine at the beach—that takes intestinal fortitude. Some of the members of this cult are: Johnny Twaddell (health fiend), Willy Wilton, Douglas Oldershaw, Earl Fredburg, Clarence Lair, Freddy Valenzuela, Al Young, Fred Monson, Bobby Morelli, Allen Sprague, Jack Smith, Jack Hodgins, Bill Howsman, Leona Rasmussen, Mabel Forsyth, Nellie Rathjen, Betty Westcott, Jessie Lady, Norma Bassi, Betty Ravey, Bobby Ellis, Janine Rupertus and Virginia Hutchinson.

Come one, come all. It has leaked out that Rolanda, the famous Hollywood dancer will dance here the evening of the 30th—and what about the man on the flying trapeze.

Who were stoozing for the Tau Gamma pledges and why were the actives unable to leave Sandyland until 7:00 a.m.?

That mushy letter that Betty Palmaymesa received anonymously was from Charles Pico, former Stater. The girls at 711 Grand avenue have made a conquest—they seem to think this Robert Fairbanks guy is strong and silent and new to the ways of women.

The chief worrier, Barry Simmons is stepping out with Kay Stock this Saturday night—by the way I see his car parked at all sorts of various and sundry places.

Betty Lamoreaux is forsaking all her Bobs and going to the Saturday night dance with Harry Livezey, Al Bine, the rumba-tumba dance leader is running a bad second to Tooley Palmer in the mad scramble for Winnie Snazdell (pretty cute huh!) The Katie Crebs and Jack Salyer romance is at an end. I hear that Wanda Felger is taking Warren Cummings to the TO formal. When Cummings and Powell, the swing twins swung their number at the junior high, a little girl asked them for an autograph. Jean McArthur home with here true love Friday, to the dance with Norman Phillips Saturday, and to the picnic with Danny D'Alfonso Sunday. Oh me, oh my!

It must be something colossal that lures Helen Buckman all the way to Las Cruces.

Bob Johnston is supposed to be going steady with Irene Baptiste, but you better watch her Bob. The boys gather en masse at the K.P. to see Gardenhire trip the light fantastic. Predictions for the dance: Norma Bassi and Fred Monson, Ellen Seymour and Danny D'Alfonso, Dede Biller and Gardy Gardenhire, Helen O'Banion and Harold Sanderson.

OPEN LETTER TO MY PUBLIC

Dear Ma,
 I'm dashing off these few lines in answer to your question about the columnistic situation on El Gaucho. You ask, "Why does that person write so insultingly about you in this column?" Professional jealousy Ma. Gnat attempts to take out his literary inferior complex on me. "Is Gnat a foreigner?" you inquire. No, Ma, his stilted writing cannot even be excused by a foreigner's ignorance of our language. As to your final question, "Do college students actually read 'To Leeward'?", it is my firm belief that Gnat can really count on two faithful readers of his pristine puns—himself and the print shop proof reader. And now, with Leeward disposed of, I can proceed to more pleasant subjects.

Your loving son,
 Ted

With the report that the students at dear old Bryn Mawr College may now earn credits by "participating in one of their favorite pastimes, dancing", we may expect to hear at any moment that Princeton Divinity School students are attending classes in crap shooting . . . . Along with the old gray mare, the old pet goat is fast becoming "Not what she used to be". A be-whiskered nanny in Oakland the other day ate some green beans without removing the can and, to her owner's surprise and disappointment, promptly died . . . Local physician Dr. Markthaler would doubtless be somewhat startled at the irreverent comment of a public health student on a recent lecture of his. Just following an involved discussion of Tuberculosis symptomology, this student was heard to remark, "He sounds like a geisha girl".

'Twas brillig and the slithy toves
 Did gyre and gamble in the wabe;
 All mimsy were the borogroves,
 And the mome raths outgrabe."

That little thought from Lewis Carroll's "Jabberwocky" is something we all might ponder on—I guess.

FREE PRESS

Nobody shouts quite so loudly as Hearst for a free press. If he is not chasing phantom reds or sinister looking dope peddlers he pulls the organ stop on the free press gag. At times he is actually convincing. But Hitler knows the value of a noisy propagandist, and we find a remarkable business relationship between Hearst and Hitler's government. Hitler paid Hearst $400,000 a year for his news service. The free press that Hearst operates began to soft-peddle the brutal aspects of Fascism—such as storm troopers dragging women out of bed and beating them to death as reported in such reliable papers as the Manchester "Guardian" and he found virtues in Fascism.

Shuffling Sport Shorts

By JACK KITCHEN

Some people claim that men past 40 are harmless and are practically in their second childhood, while some disagree; but still there are others who go so far as to write books and pamphlets on subjects such as "Men Past Forty" and "How Men Past Forty Act and Behave." However the day of reckoning always comes, presenting an individual who upsets all theories. For instance, right here in our own backyard we have one. Hal Davis, (here's hoping that he IS past the theory age). In all seriousness, Hal is a remarkable fellow despite how old he may be; any person, young or old, has a right to be envious of the limber, active acrobat. For proof of any flourishing statements, trot out to the gym any eighth period and watch him conduct his gym and mass athletics class.

Mrs. "Nick" Carter, wife of the former State college athletic coach, recently joined her husband in Lima, Peru. Carter, who is progressing as a coach in that country, trained Antonio Cuba, who took a new national record, according to a recent letter received in which pictures of the athlete were enclosed. This makes a total of four records, indicating a definite improvement.

The former Santa Barbara man is now doing rigid training in preparation for the South American Championship, which will take place soon.

Al Bine and his music continues to "slay 'em," as it were, nightly at the San Marcos Trout club. A new prognosticator of swing is seen in the offing (Zeke, pass the listerine).

During intermission, Al's boys are definitely "in the know" as regards hot stock. Undoubtedly Al's popularity is due, in no mean sense of the word, to his own vocals (bring your mouth wash). Coast Swing is definitely on the up and felicitations no end are due to Al's hot, jig style swing band.

Why not get a group together and take the short drive that it is to the Trout club some rainy night (bring your salmon eggs) and enjoy this new self styled Horatio Alger of swing? Undoubtedly this

Instructors Attend Directors' Meet

Miss Gladys Van Fossen, Mrs. Winifred Hodgins, and Miss Elizabeth Sehon, P.E. instructors, left yesterday to attend a two day convention at Pomona college in Claremont, for the Society of Directors of Physical Education in Colleges of the Pacific coast section.

The group will discuss many problems relative to physical activity, including section on dance, women's athletics, policies of administration and other problems of interest.

Friday night a dinner will be held for deans of women of the represented colleges, which Miss Lois Bennink will attend.

new Satellite i destined to turn swing stock definitely up.

Felicitations, halucinations, salutations et cetera, ad infinitum to the late comer of ultra hypo torrid jig style swing. (Bring your fly spray).

P.S. Al's jig band has just completed three week-end engagements at Sawtelle. The usual hilarity was evidenced nightly during Al's unprecedented stay at the home. "Nea—nea—there comes that torrid jig style swing man again."

"Daughter, hand Mama the big gun!"

(ED. NOTE: This is beyond us but has authentic backing from faculty and students, so on with the dance, and may the track team survive.)

The Santa Barbara fire department inhalator squad will give a demonstration for the first aid classes Tuesday afternoon in the gym at two o'clock. This will also be open to any one interested in this demonstration.

Taylor McDougall Jr., a former student at State and affiliated with the Beta Sigma Chi fraternity, was returned victor in a point tournament staged at the La Lumbre golf course Wednesday. McDougall scored 41 points to win and was trailed by P. S. Belford and R. E. Ferguson, who tied for second with 38.

An Austrian tennis team headed by Captain Jack Crawford, on their way to North America zone matches will hold a one day series of matches in Los Angeles, Tuesday, at the Los Angeles Tennis club.

Women Plan Archery Tournament Here

An archery tournament will be held on the gym field, Friday, April 16, at 3:00 p.m. The meet is being held to select a team to enter in the tournament to be presented on April 24, by Ventura Junior college.

A novelty shoot is also planned for the local tourney. All women interested should see Dorothy Allen as soon as possible. Plans are under way for participation in the Telegraphic Archery tournament scheduled for May 17 to 22.

Frosh Engage Two Track Squads

Kelliher's Panty-Waisted Prepared for Meet After Hard Week's Workout

A three way meet between Santa Maria J.C., Miramonte J.C. and Santa Barbara State freshmen will be held this Saturday at the Peabody stadium at the same time the Varsity meet is run off.

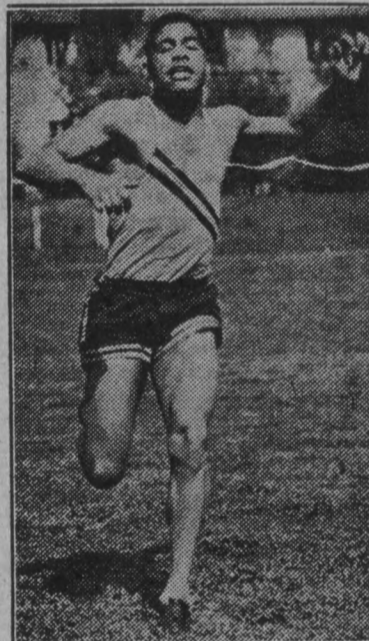

Under the guidance of Coach "Doc" Kelliher, the Frosh have held strenuous workouts since their victory over Cal-Poly. All indications point to a heated battle for points with the Gauchito's strength on the track balanced by their weakness in the field events.

Bill McArthur and Gene Putman in the sprints, George Gray and Bill Jessup in the middle distances and "Yoshee" Fujimoto and Bill Varner in the distance races form a running combination which is hard to beat. McArthur, Putman, Gray and Fortress form a relay team which will cause opposing baton passers plenty of trouble.

Elmo Callis and Harold Fortress, both 23 foot jumpers should place one-two in that event. Fortress also should win points in the hurdle races. Bill McArthur and Fortress are also going to try their hand at javelin throwing.

In short the discus, high jump and pole vault should provide the two J.C.'s with many points unless new talent has been uncovered by Coach Kelliher.

Poet Flash

Randolf Carter, the sensational dash man for Whittier college, expects to gather points tomorrow. His records are 9.8 in the 100 and 21.5 in the 220.

State Track Stars Run

Tracksters Compete Against Whittier Team Tomorrow in Peabody Stadium

Tomorrow afternoon at one p.m. in the Peabody stadium for the first time the State track enthusiasts will have the opportunity to see their Varsity track team in action on a local field. The Varsity tracksters will compete against the strong Whittier aggregation.

The return of star sprinter and hurdler, "Howie" Yeager, to the track realms has greatly strengthened the squad. However, Whittier will be represented in the sprints by two of the fastest men in the conference, Carter and Lindstrum. The latter may be remembered as the boy who ran for the "Dons" in former years. These boys will give Yeager plenty of competition in the dashes.

The following State men will compete:

100 yd. dash, Yeager; 220 yd. dash, Erickson, Yeager; 440 dash, Shean, Gibson; 880 yd. run, Palmer, Gibson; 1 mile run, Rygh, Reitter; 2 mile, Rygh, Reitter, Erickson; high hurdles, Stalmack, Gray; low hurdles, Stalmack, Gray, Yeager; high jump, Benton, Saxe; broad jump, Yeager, Cahill; javelin, Saxe, Stalmack, Monson; discus, Monson, Saxe; shot put, Monson, Weld.

It will cost those students who wish to loyally support their track team nothing to attend this meet. Coaches "Goodstock" Denno and Doc Kelliher, promise a colorful array of spectacular races and entertainment will be furnished by Al Bine and his corn huskers, who will swing a little corn music between races. Bring you own fly spray.

LEADERS THEY ARE

The greatest brain-trust of the college is included in the newly organized men's honorary, as may be affirmed by the report of the heated discussions and careful voting which issued from the dinner meeting recently in Ebbets hall. Representing campus leaders in many fields, membership is restricted and distinctly an honor.

Horsehidiers Tackle Poets

Heated Game Starts at Three in Pershing Park; Erhard Pitches

Starting this afternoon at three o'clock in Pershing park, Coach Theodore Harder sends his potential championship horsehidiers against the strong and determined Whittier Poets tutored by Chief Newman.

The fuzzy-top poets have practically the same team that came here last year and ruined the undisputed championship hopes of the Gauchos, but Harder is ready and plans to start his strongest nine with Erhard probably on the mound. This year's squad has more diversified power in all departments of the game than any of the previous year, even though it was feared at first that the battery would be too weak to carry the burden.

A new conference ruling is being enforced this season that makes a team play 15 games with other loop teams to be eligible for title honors. The Gauchos have dropped one fray, but as the standings are now, that setback in no way puts the Big Green out of the running.

The least of Spud's worries this year has been the outfield with "Bouncing Bubbles" Busby, Spider Murray, Tom Smith and Tom Lindquist fighting hard for positions.

TUMBLERS STAGE RIOTOUS CIRCUS

By BOB WILLIAMS

At last the secret is out. Fun loving students may now know the reason why they should save the evening of April 30. A great circus of fun is going to be placed before the public by the State college tumbling class. A variety of acrobatic stunts, interspersed with songs, jokes and dances will provide a riot of entertainment for members of the audience.

The performance will take place in the auditorium with trapezes and wires hung above the audience for the acts to take place. Don't miss Carlos Lozano in his doll-dance, Dr. Elmer Noble in his own inimitable version of the "Man on the Flying Trapeze," or any of the other scintillating acts of this mammoth show. Be sure to save 15 cents from your allowance to purchase a ticket to this show.

Again, it's colossal, magnificent, stupenduous, and besides that, it will be 10 dollars worth of fun crammed into one evening, all for a measly 15 cents.
