Undergraduate Research Publication

Undergraduates doing original research and writing projects are invited to submit papers for possible publication in DISCOVERY — UCSB Journal of Undergraduate Research. Interested students should come to the Mathematics Department office in South Hall 6607 to obtain the basic information and guidelines concerning publication and to leave information about themselves and their work.

Papers should be analytical, involving critical reasoning. Examples of publishable work are research papers in the natural and social sciences and critical essays in the arts and humanities. Creative or impressionistic writing will generally not qualify, nor will work which is basically a review of a subject. The deadline for submission of manuscript copy is Friday, June 23, 1989. Students intending to submit a paper but needing more time may be allowed to submit after this date provided they make their intentions known prior to the deadline.

Slim Down For Summer

GET WHERE YOU WANT TO GO.

You know how far you want to go. You have what it takes to get there. Now, put the degree you've earned and the opportunities you need together. Lead the adventure as a Navy officer.

As a Navy officer, you start with a leadership position in business management, engineering, law, personnel administration, systems analysis or one of many other professional fields. You gain the experience and responsibility it might take years to get in a corporation.

Earn a good salary and receive exceptional benefits including free medical and dental care, thirty days' paid vacation each year, and many tax-free incentives.

Minimum qualifications require a BA or BS degree, and U.S. citizenship. You must be no more than 28 years old and pass an aptitude and physical test. For further information, call Navy Management Programs: (213) 298-6650 or 1-800-252-1586. Contact LTJG Lynda Zolman regarding fields listed above. Management positions available for men and women.

The Daily Nexus

It's not often during your college career that you get a chance to compete against Big-wig well-respected professionals in your chosen field. At the Daily Nexus, we do that every day and sometimes win. There are dozens of recent Nexus alumni scattered throughout the journalism world, and many more will join them after Spring Quarter. Someone must replace them. Are you good enough?
